

Equality for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender & intersex people

We live in a society which attempts to dictate sexual preference and gender identity through promoting the gender stereotypes and homophobic attitudes which underpin the heterosexual nuclear family, and by promoting marriage and the nuclear family as the only legitimate model for relationships.

Lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, trans people and intersex people suffer oppression because their lives are a challenge to the nuclear family which is an economic cornerstone of capitalism.

Socialist Alliance opposes all attempts to shoehorn people into sexual and gender conformity. We believe it is a basic democratic right that a person's self-definition of sexual preference and gender identity should be recognised.

Heterosexism exists at almost every level in this society, and discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity is entrenched in all of the key institutions of society — education, health, the law, the media, family, church and state.

Socialist Alliance supports politically independent and self-organizing social movements that fight the oppression of women, lesbians and gay men, trans and intersex people, people with HIV and sex workers through mass action, public demonstrations, lobbying, voting and by building alliances with the broader working class, feminist, and anti-capitalist movements.

We oppose sexism, racism, ageism, and discrimination against people with disabilities within the lesbian and gay communities, as we do in the broader community.

OUR POLICIES

Anti-discrimination legislation

- Enact enforceable anti-discrimination legislation to protect lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, people living with HIV and trans and intersex people.
- Remove exemptions from anti-discrimination laws for private schools, religious organisations, the insurance industry, the tax system and superannuation funds.
- Legislate the right of trans and intersex people to be issued with passports, drivers' licences and other documents specifying the gender (or non-gender) of their choice.
- Legislate against the use of non-violent homosexual "advance" as a defence of "provocation" in violent crime.

Full legal recognition of same-sex relationships

- Legislate full social, legal, trade union and industrial recognition of same-sex and gender-variant relationships. This would include extending to same-sex relationships equal status with heterosexual defactos in superannuation, immigration, taxation, family law, industrial relations and any other laws and regulations.
- Ensure the right of gays, lesbians and gender-variants to choose to marry if they so wish.
- Welfare benefits should be provided to all individuals who need benefits, regardless of relationship status to end state-enforced economic dependency within relationships.
- Guarantee the right of gay men and lesbians to adopt or foster children and to access free, safe reproductive technology like IVF.

- End discrimination against gay men, lesbians, trans and intersex people in child custody cases.
- Legislate full social, legal, trade union and industrial recognition of same-sex and gender-variant relationships. - Public funding for education, youth, aged, health, employment and welfare to be directed through non-discriminatory government and/or secular non-profit community organisations. Education in schools to incorporate positive material on homosexuality, trans and intersex peoples.

- Work vigorously for an end to the vicious and destructive portrayal of gay men, lesbians and trans people in some sections of the media.
- Mandatory sensitivity training and refresher courses for the police force in how to deal with LGBTI issues. This must be developed with and by the LGBTI community. The selection of LGBTI liaison officers should be under the control of the LGBTI community and recallable.
