Asia-Pacific Student Peace Mission

■ In response to increasing tension in the Middle East, the Asia-Pacific Students Association (ASA), an umbrella body for student movements in Asia-Pacific region organised a Student Peace Mission to the Middle East. Marc Receratnam, representing NOSCA and student organisations in Australia, joined seven other student delegates visited Syria, Jordan and Iraq just before the outbreak of war.

Marc who has just returned to Australia on the 12th January, will share with us some of his observations and experiences in the Middle East. The talk will also attempt to present the issue from the perspectives of the Arabic people.
