

WESTERN COMMUNITY LEGAL CENTRE LTD
Employment Lawyer Job Advertisement

WEstjustice is seeking a lawyer primarily to deliver the employment law services to international students as part of the International Students Work Rights Legal Service (ISWRLS).

The role is a full-time 18 month contract position (although part-time applicants may be considered).

The successful application will be required to provide employment law legal services to international students both at Study Melbourne Student Centre (at least one day per week) and at WEstjustice.

Salary range: $63,000 - $68,000 per annum depending on experience plus superannuation. Generous salary packaging benefits is also available.

A copy of the position description is available.

For more information about WEstjustice, please visit our website (www.westjustice.org.au)

To apply, please email a short cover letter, your CV and your responses to the key selection criteria to tarni@westjustice.org.au using the subject line: Employment Lawyer application via Federation of CLCs, addressed to Ms Tarni Perkal, Employment Practice Manager, by 5.00pm on Friday 16th March 2018. Late applications will not be considered.

About WEstjustice:

WEstjustice is a multidisciplinary, community-based legal centre committed to improving justice outcomes for the people of western Melbourne, and especially the most vulnerable in our community. It was formed in July 2015 through the amalgamation of the Footscray, Wyndham and Western Suburbs Community Legal Centres, which brought a long and proud history and experience to the new organisation.

WEstjustice is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is committed to promoting a diverse and inclusive workforce.

Finalised 27/02/18