

Women of the Berkeley NCCF

,Paula, Julie, and Gail - All three worked out of the Berkeley NCCF office. More info on the NCCF in Berkeley on the website. Paula was a student back in those days who helped work on the Petition for Community Control of Police. Julie was the People's Plumber, yes she learned the skill and served the people running a "Free Plumbing Service". Gail worked on the Campaign for Community Control of the Police, sold the Panther paper, and worked on the boycott line @ Bill Boyette's. Gail today is an active member of It's About Time and a long time supporter of Political Prisoners. She is currently working with the Angola 3 committee (one of the founders of the Angola 3 committee back in 1998).

PS - All worked on the Paper on Wednesday nights in SF, came to political education classes on Sunday, and participated in all regular BPP activities in the Bay Area.

Sam Durant (curator, artist and editor of Emory Douglas's Book. Gail Shaw, It's About Time member, Rigo 23, world renowned artist who did the statue of Tommy Smith and John Carlos on the campus of San Jose State College and also a big supporter of the Angola Three.
