Govt faces fresh allegations from auditor – allowing private firms to reap huge benefits in coal, civil aviation and power sectors

CAG PUNCH

COAL
ALLEGED LOSS ₹1.86 lakh crore

WHAT LED TO LOSS
Govt might have earned ₹1.86 lakh crore if 57 coal mines were allotted since 2004 through auction. 25 private firms benefited from allotment on nomination basis instead of bidding. CIL suffered production losses of 116 million tonne due to delays in project execution

REBUTTAL
Coal minister Shriprakash Jaiswal and V Narayanasamy, MoS, PMO do not agree with CAG
Power companies: Have not commented

DELHI AIRPORT
ALLEGED LOSS ₹1.63 lakh crore

WHAT LED TO LOSS
■ Dial's equity was only ₹1,813 crore
■ It got land on ₹100 annual lease rent
■ Airport development fee that Dial levies not part of original contract

REBUTTAL
Civil aviation ministry: "The calculation of presumptive gain from the commercial use of land at the Delhi airport is totally erroneous and misleading."

Dial: The entire process of the privatisation and selection of joint venture was upheld by the Supreme Court in 2006

ULTRA MEGA POWER PROJECTS
ALLEGED LOSS ₹29,033 crore

WHAT LED TO LOSS
Developer identification process flawed. Of the four projects, three are with Reliance Power, which benefited ₹29,033 crore when govt allowed coal diversion from Sassa power plant to others

REBUTTAL
Power minister Veerappa Moily took a draft report and a final decision taken by Parliament
Reliance: Decision was ratified twice in 2012. The mines are so far through tar
