

NATIONAL REVOLUTIONARY DAY

12.4.69

ONCE AGAIN IT'S ON...

12.4.69: MASSACRE ON MONROE...12.4.69: MASSACRE ON MONROE...12.4.69: MASSACRE ON MONROE...12.4.69: MASSACRE ON MONROE...

DEFENDING A LEGACY

In the continuing spirit of the annual commemoration of the lives and works of two of Mother Africa's most courageous sons, a commemoration that not only calls upon the community to recognize the works of these fallen freedom fighters in particular, but to recognize the righteous works of revolutionaries past and present alike. The designated date of December 4th is one of the colonized community's memorial days...a date in which one of the most brutal acts of terrorism to occur on U.S. soil:

The Massacre On Monroe, which left in its aftermath the assassinations of twenty-one year old Deputy Chairman Fred Hampton and twenty-two year old Defense Captain Mark Clark.

As it was in life, it remains in legacy; the attack of the black cats that the former director of the F.B.I., J. Edgar Hoover deemed to be the number one threat to the internal security of the United States. Attempt after attempt has been made by the state to obliterate or malign these lovers of liberation, along with their respective legacies. In other words, whether it be to wipe them out, wet 'em up (murder), or water them down. Whether it be via assassinations, the continuous issuance of trumped up charges, the increasing of the bounties placed on the heads of political exiles, or be it the straight rewriting of history as to the role that these revolutionaries and their respective organization played in the fight for self determination. They remain under attack. These continuous attempts to hijack one of the most momentous marks in history, has occurred via opportunist, agent provocateurs, and without doubt the all time high purveyor of crime – the state. When the smoke clears, it is the state that is the biggest benefactor of the slaughter of these souljah stories.

- The same state that attempted to gas co-founder and Minister of Defense of the Black Panther Party, Huey P. Newton.
- The same state that unleashed its arsenal of attacks upon every survival program of the Black Panther Party.
 - The same state that gunned down in cold blood 16 year old treasure Lil' Bobby Hutton.
- The same state that pressed a pistol against the 8½ month pregnant belly of Chairman Fred's wife/comrade.
 - The same state that continues to shoot up the tombstone of Chairman Fred; framed and imprisoned his son 22 years after the brutal Massacre on Monroe.
 - The same state that increases the bounty on political exiles.
- The same state that continues to hold captive Mumia Abu Jamal, Marshall Eddie Conway, Jerry "Odinga" Dunigan, the Angola 3, and other Political Prisoners.
- The same state that assassinated Chairman Fred Hampton and Defense Captain Mark Clark on December 4, 1969.

...They're STILL slandering them, they're STILL snatching them, and they're STILL shooting them!
We must defend them in life as well as in legacy.
