COMMUNITY CONVERSATION SERIES

Black Panther Rank and File:
The Next Generation – Where do we go from here?

Thu, Apr 13, 6:30 – 8 pm • Grand Lobby • FREE

It's been 40 years since the Black Panther Party formed in Oakland. What has the revolutionary community learned from their experience in the 60's? What is their vision for the future? YBCA brings together former Panthers, local artists and radio DJ's for a discussion on the state of political affairs for Diasporic people worldwide. Join Chairman Fred Hampton, Jr. of the POCC (Prisoners of Consciousness Committee) and the new generation of contemporary revolutionaries from America's trenches including Black Panther Rank and File artist Refa One; Davey D. of Hard Knock Radio KPFA 94.1FM; Jocelyn Goode (POCC); Rashida (POCC); and JR, Minister of Information of the POCC.

YBCA is located at 701 Mission Street @ 3rd. For more info please call 415.978.ARTS (2787) or visit www.YBCA.org
