REASONS WHY WE ASK THE QUESTIONS

Steps A to D and Question 1 are asked to determine who should complete this questionnaire. Questions 2 to 6 are asked to learn about the living arrangements of people living in Canada. This information is used for planning social programs, such as Old Age Security and the Canada Child Tax Benefit. It is also used by towns and cities to plan a variety of services such as day-care centres, schools and senior citizens homes. Question 7 on languages is asked to implement programs that protect the rights of Canadians under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. It also helps to determine the need for language training and services in English or French. Question 8 ensures that each person is given the opportunity to make an informed decision about what happens to his or her name-identified census information in 92 years.

THE LAW PROTECTS WHAT YOU TELL US

The confidentiality of your census responses is protected by law. All Statistics Canada employees have taken an oath of secrecy. Your personal census information cannot be given to anyone outside Statistics Canada without your consent. This is your right.

Your census information will be retained in accordance with legislative requirements and will be stored securely. You can ask to see the information about yourself on your 2006 Census questionnaire after November 2006. To do this, write the Privacy Coordinator, Statistics Canada, 25th Floor, R.H. Coats Building, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0T6.

Community groups, businesses and governments develop programs and services such as education, health and other social and economic programs based on census data. The information is widely used in our schools to teach children about our country. Information may also be used by Statistics Canada for selecting samples or following up respondents for some of our surveys.

By law, Statistics Canada must take a census every five years and every household must fill in a census form. Statistics Canada protects absolutely the confidentiality of your information. No one outside Statistics Canada has access to your personal information without your consent. In question 8, your consent is sought to make your census information available in 92 years for important historical and genealogical research. It's important for you and your community that you count yourself in by May 16.
