

The Port Jefferson Station Teachers Association presents...

Organizing for Power in a Post-Janus World

Featuring keynote speaker BARBARA MADELONI, President of the Massachusetts Teachers Association...

...and a conversation with ANGELINA CRUZ, President of the Racine Education Association

Join us for a day long conference to discuss the pending Janus vs. AFSCME Supreme Court case, how it can impact us, and how we can organize through our unions to build power at our workplaces in it's wake.

Featuring...

Keynote speaker Barbara Madeleloni, President of the statewide Massachusetts Teachers Association

A discussion about working in a right-to-work state with Angelina Cruz, President of the Racine Education Association in Wisconsin

Additionally, we will be breaking into small groups to discuss the challenges unique to our locals and what types of strategies and structures we can implement locally to build power in our unions. Lunch will be provided.

Where: Terryville Elementary School, Port Jefferson Station

When: Saturday, 3/10/18, 9:30 AM - 3:00 PM

PLEASE REGISTER BY VISITING:

tinyurl.com/OrganizeJanus

For more info email us at pjsta1vp@gmail.com

