MISSION

The National Puerto Rican Day Parade (NPRDP) is the largest demonstration of cultural pride in the nation. An iconic institution for over 61 years, the mission of the NPRDP is to create awareness and appreciation of Puerto Rican culture and history by recognizing the contributions of prominent activists, celebrities, and historical figures and raising awareness of important issues in the community.

The NPRDP delivers on its mission by producing and hosting a series of events and programs that are designed to celebrate and advance art, culture, and education in the Puerto Rican community.
