INTRODUCTION

We have compiled this dossier to warn of Casey Jordan Cooper, an active white power organizer who studies at Atlanta's John Marshall Law School (AJMLS). In March 2017, we first alerted AJMLS about Cooper. Our first article on Cooper (6-17) exposed that he was one of the most active white nationalists in the metro Atlanta area, that Cooper made a clear death threat against a local Black activist, and that he was responsible for placing racist stickers and posters around Atlanta campuses. AJMLS did not publicly respond to this information.

In May 2017, some of Casey Cooper's organizing communications were leaked online (18-73). These communications revealed Cooper as a leader within the Atlanta area Alt-Right. A leaked photo showed Cooper wearing the logo for white power organization Identity Evropa, confirming his affiliation with the group (18, 39). A chat log also showed Cooper referring to others at his law school as "n[*****]s" (31). Atlanta Antifascists again published an article about Cooper, discussing what was the information leak (74-85). We again notified AJMLS. Our first article provided a clear case why Cooper could be confidently identified as Twitter user "Phoenix Reich" (9-11). The additional information in May left no reasonable room for denial. AJMLS made no public comment.

Cooper has since showed up at white nationalist events in at Auburn, Alabama in April (566-567) and Charlottesville, Virginia in May (568-571). Cooper consistently used "Phoenix" aliases online for his far-Right and racist organizing; it is no surprise that someone named "Phoenix-GA" appeared in planning chats for the bloody white power rally held in Charlottesville, Virginia on August 12 (575).

It feels especially urgent to release this dossier after anti-racist Heather Heyer was murdered that day in Charlottesville by a white supremacist. Casey Cooper actively organizes for the "Alt-Right" movement, which has been linked to several murders including the one in Charlottesville. Cooper himself is documented as having made an explicit death threat (252-253) – inexcusable in itself, and disturbing as a sign of what he may be willing to do. AJMLS should act responsibly and acknowledge that they have been educating a committed militant racist for a future position of power. Is this compatible with the safety of other students and the good of the broader community?

While we realize that this dossier contains a lot of information, we hope that readers carefully review its contents. We have prepared additional notes on the dossier content to help navigate this document (next two pages). Once you have checked the information out for yourself, please spread it far and wide. It is especially important that this information reaches law students in the Atlanta area. On the last page of this dossier, we have included contact information for Atlanta's John Marshall Law School, for members of the public who wish to register concerns.

If you have further information about Casey Cooper's activity or on white power organizing in our region, please contact Atlanta Antifascists.

ADDITIONAL NOTES ON DOSSIER CONTENT

The dossier begins with our article “Meet Casey Jordan Cooper: ‘Alt-Right’ White Power Organizer and Atlanta Law Student” (6-17), which was originally published on the Atlanta Antifascists website in March 2017. The article highlights Cooper’s participation in white nationalist events in our region, his work targeting campuses and neighborhoods with racist propaganda, and Cooper’s online activity, which includes a clear death threat against a Black activist in Atlanta as well as bigoted remarks about students in his law program. The article identifies Cooper as the person behind the “Phoenix Reich” Twitter account, providing clear reasons why Cooper can be confidently identified as the author (9-11). Materials in this dossier now provide even further certainty.

The information leak from Casey Cooper’s online accounts (18-73) appeared on the anarchist/antiracist website ItsGoingDown in May 2017. These materials include photos from a 2016 election-night “Alt-Right”/racist gathering at Casey Cooper’s family home in Sweet Bottom, Duluth, Georgia (39-42). One of the photographs shows Cooper posing with white nationalist leader Patrick Nelson Sharp. Cooper displays a logo pin for the white power organization Identity Evropa, indicating his membership (18, 39). The information leak also documents Cooper’s travel to a racist event hosted by TheRightStuff website (71-73) as well as Cooper’s inclusion on the email list for the Southern white nationalist “Atlanta Forum” held in Marietta, Georgia in January 2017 (71). The information leak highlights “Phoenix Reich”/Cooper’s central role in coordinating and publicizing a racist propaganda spree on the weekend after Trump’s election (42-58). The propaganda mission left Atlanta-area campuses plastered with posters such as “Why White Women Shouldn’t Date Black Men”.

The article “Leaked Information Details Atlanta’s ‘Alt-Right’ White Nationalist Scene” (74-85) discusses what the Casey Cooper information leak reveals about Atlanta-area white power organizing and about Cooper’s role as a racist organizer. Like the first Atlanta Antifascists article on Cooper, this piece was brought to the attention of Atlanta’s John Marshall Law School.

The photos of Alt-Right White Nationalists on Stone Mountain in September 2016 (86-87) are from a larger photo slideshow on the IAmTheMountain website. Cooper is visible in the gathering. We have also included information the t-shirt Cooper wore on Stone Mountain, which promotes TheRightStuff, a far-Right website.

The article “Alt-Right Racists on Stone Mountain” (88-92) is a written account from the IAmTheMountain website. The author discusses encountering the Alt-Right crowd, who jeered her with sexist and antisemitic abuse. Video footage of the incident is also available at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DZunHVfSIhg>

The record from the Texas Department of Public Safety of Casey Cooper’s 2013 arrest (93-94) is consistent with the claim by “Phoenix Reich” that he “was a professional weedsman” prior to involvement with the Alt-Right (539). We have also included a record of Cooper’s Dekalb County, Georgia arrest in 2014 (95).

The Facebook records of three comedy performances featuring “Casey J. Cooper” (96-98) correspond with claims by “Phoenix Reich” that he is a comedian (19, 181).

The archived Twitter messages of “Phoenix Reich” (99-550) leave no doubt about their author’s white power commitments. Note the tweets by “Phoenix Reich” about his law school surroundings (117, 126). “Phoenix Reich” also commented about losing “a low-impact shit tier election in a school in Atlanta” (179) at the time 2016 student representative election results came in at Atlanta’s John Marshall Law School. Other important posts are the death threat (252-253), the self-portrait posted by “Phoenix Reich” (498), and photos of his old doorstep (388).

The “Phoenix Thiccness” Twitter page (551) is a revamped version of the @BigButternutJoe/“Phoenix Reich” account with the vast majority of posts deleted. The “Phoenix Reich” Twitter page was overhauled with most content deleted later in the day when Atlanta Antifascists exposed Cooper with our first article. What is described on the “Phoenix Thiccness” page as “my new backup account” is a different Twitter user – this may have been an attempt to sow confusion.

Cooper also appears to have used other forums and social media platforms. The introductory post by “Phoenix” on IronMarch (552-553), a “global fascist fraternity,” matches Cooper’s personal data and his past. “Phoenix” on TheRightStuff forums (554-555), another far-Right and racist site, matches the imagery of the “Phoenix Reich” Twitter account as well as details about Cooper’s life (“working in the legal field, attempting to be a comedian”). Also, the profile picture used by “Phoenix” on TheRightStuff forum can also be found on the “Phoenix Reich” Twitter feed (490). “Phoenix” had a profile on Gab.ai (556), a “free speech” social networking site used by some on the Alt-Right. (The Gab frog logo is a reference to “Pepe the Frog,” appropriated as a symbol by the Alt-Right.) An account for “Phoenix Right” on Facebook (557-559) surfaced briefly in early 2017. This account’s friends list includes profiles for Jared Huggins and Evan Thomas Kuettnner, who were both photographed at the election-night racist gathering at Cooper’s parental home (40).

The photos by “Phoenix Reich” of his doorstep, and the image of Casey Cooper’s old residence (560) are provided for the sake of comparison. Be aware that Casey Cooper has now vacated this apartment in the Old Fourth Ward.

“Why White Women Shouldn’t Date Black Men” (563) is one of the racist posters placed at Georgia State University and other campuses on the weekend after Trump’s election, as part of the white nationalist propaganda mission organized (42-58) and later publicized (132-139) by “Phoenix Reich”/Cooper.

The white power/neo-Nazi stickers found in Midtown Atlanta, December 2016 (564-565) all surfaced within a block of Atlanta’s John Marshall Law School. Similar designs appeared several times in the Inman Park neighborhood of Atlanta, a short walk from Cooper’s old apartment in the Old Fourth Ward. As discussed in our initial article about Cooper (12-16), he has been linked to several other instances where far-Right and racist propaganda surfaced around Atlanta.

Casey Jordan Cooper’s involvement in the white power movement did not cease after he was exposed in May 2017. For example, Cooper was photographed at Richard Spencer’s event at Auburn University on April 18, 2017 (566-567). Richard Spencer is a key white nationalist leader and public face for the “Alt-Right.”

Cooper was also filmed at a white nationalist protest in Charlottesville, Virginia on May 13, 2017 (568-571). Cooper held a sign promoting the white nationalist AltRight.com website. After the daytime protest, the assembled racists had a nighttime torchlit rally reminiscent of Klan ceremonies. We have included news coverage about this May rally (571-573).

The May protest in Charlottesville, Virginia was a precursor to the “Unite the Right” rally in Charlottesville on August 12, 2017. At “Unite the Right,” one anti-racist was murdered and over a dozen more were injured when white supremacist James Fields Jr. rammed his car into a crowd of counter-protesters. In leaked planning chats for “Unite the Right,” a user named “Phoenix-GA” committed to attending the UTR rally (575).

Finally, we have included contact information for Atlanta’s John Marshall Law School for anyone who wishes to reach out to the school and express concern about their student Casey Jordan Cooper’s white power organizing and threatening behavior.

Meet Casey Jordan Cooper: “Alt-Right” White Power Organizer and Atlanta Law Student

MARCH 22, 2017MARCH 22, 2017 ~ ANTIFASCISTINATLANTA ~

Summary

Casey Jordan Cooper, a student at Atlanta’s John Marshall Law School, is the white power organizer behind the “Alt-Right” Twitter account @BigButternutJoe. Over the last year, Cooper participated in white nationalist events in the metro Atlanta area and posted racist propaganda on local campuses. Until recently, Casey Cooper’s Twitter account issued a stream of racist and homophobic slurs, some of them about his fellow students at John Marshall. He was recorded as part of a white nationalist group jeering a Stone Mountain Park visitor with sexist and antisemitic remarks. Cooper is responsible for a death threat against a prominent Black activist in Atlanta.

The Death Threat

In July 2016, a series of large protests raged in Atlanta after police shot and killed Alton Sterling in Louisiana and Philando Castile in Minnesota. While protests disrupted business-as-usual in response to these high-profile police killings of Black men, Georgia white supremacists tried to counter-mobilize.

The Atlanta-area Twitter user @BigButternutJoe wrote on July 12 that “Whites [...] are arming ourselves to the teeth” and that the Black Lives Matter movement will lead to a “massive wave of anti-black action in it’s [sic] wake.” This Twitter user earlier sent a private message to Atlanta Black activist Avery Jackson which simply contained a picture of a noose. (Jackson was also tagged in the “arming [...] to the teeth” post by BigButternutJoe.)

Death threat to Avery Jackson from BigButternutJoe account (at the time this account used the name "Phoenix on the Right" and had a profile picture of Sam Hyde)

When Avery Jackson publicly drew attention to the Twitter death threat, BigButternutJoe retweeted Jackson's post speaking out about the threat. He followed with another statement, suggesting that Jackson was exaggerating the death threat problem to "rent seek" (i.e. profit). BigButternutJoe clarified: "This is why you hang."

BigButternutJoe repeats death threat to Avery Jackson

The person responsible for this online death threat has had a busy year, participating in Atlanta-area Alt-Right organizing, placing white power propaganda, and harassing enemies. For much of the same time, “BigButternutJoe” AKA Atlanta resident Casey Jordan Cooper has also been working towards a law degree at Atlanta’s John Marshall Law School, where he began as a 1L in August 2016. Atlanta’s John Marshall, a private law school in midtown Atlanta, states that almost 70% of its student body are of a “minority” population; more women than men also attend. Unsurprisingly, Cooper/“BigButternutJoe” doesn’t have pleasant things to say about fellow AJMLS students.

Online Presence and Offline Identity

The @BigButternutJoe Twitter account was opened in early May 2016. It used the names “Phoenix on the Right” and then later “Phoenix Reich.” One of the very first posts to the page was a “selfie” photograph of the account owner, wearing sunglasses and only revealing part of his face.

BigButternutJoe selfie posted to Twitter, May 4 2016

From May 2016 to near the end of January 2017, BigButternutJoe logged over 3,000 posts on Twitter. However, on January 30, 2017 the user began rapidly deleting his posts, until only three were visible on his Twitter account’s front page. The user name was changed from “Phoenix Reich” to “Phoenix Thiccness” and the account’s imagery was also completely altered. This rapid series of changes to the Twitter account may have been because BigButternutJoe realized that anti-fascists were taking an interest in his online boasts, for example about placing racist propaganda on campuses. Atlanta Antifascists archived a large portion of BigButternutJoe’s online posts before they were deleted, keeping a record of the account’s numerous rants against “k[***]s,” “n[****]rs,” and “f[****]ts.”

For most of the Twitter account’s existence, it used the name “Phoenix Reich,” which combines a reference to the “Phoenix Wright: Ace Attorney” video game with one to the Third Reich. The main profile picture at the time incorporated an image of Arno Breker’s statue Die Partei, which represents the spirit of Nazism.

Several other online accounts – a couple of Facebook pages for “Phoenix Right” (not available at time of writing), as well as accounts under the name “Phoenix” on Gab.ai; the racist/antisemitic TheRightStuff forums; and the fascist IronMarch site – all match the imagery and biographical information on the BigButternutJoe Twitter.

On TheRightStuff forums, “Phoenix” gives his location as “Apelanta, Georgia” and describes his life:

Working in the legal field, attempting to be a comedian in a liberal infested shithole of a city. Trying my goddamn hardest not to go crazy while being surrounded by the most pozzed f[****]ts and n[****]rs you'll ever meet.

On IronMarch forums, the introductory post by “Phoenix” mentions living in the South, working in “the legal industry,” and having studied anthropology and psychology in college. The post also discussed the author’s political transformation, claiming that he “almost cried” when he heard a speech by American Nazi Party leader George Lincoln Rockwell for the first time. The March 2016 introductory post remarked: “The only reason I don’t call myself a fascist or a national socialist is because I don’t have a strong grasp on economics.” Within months, BigButternutJoe would feel comfortable stating “I’m a national socialist” on Twitter and would have a profile picture incorporating Nazi iconography.

It is apparent that Casey Jordan Cooper is behind these online accounts, for several reasons:

- The selfie posted by BigButternutJoe on Twitter looks just like Casey J. Cooper, as seen for example in Casey Cooper’s 2014 Dekalb County mugshots.
- In May 2016, BigButternutJoe posted photos of a potted plant outside his apartment’s door. This photo exactly matches the colors and brickwork of Casey Cooper’s current residence.
- Some of the “Phoenix” profiles refer to employment in the legal field. In addition to his current legal studies, Casey Cooper worked as a paralegal for his father Gary Cooper in Duluth, Georgia.
- Casey Cooper has a University of Georgia bachelor’s degree in Psychology, consistent with claims by “Phoenix” about having studied this subject and Anthropology in college.
- On both his TheRightStuff profile and on Twitter, “Phoenix” mentioned being involved in the comedy scene. “Casey J. Cooper” performed in Atlanta-area comedy events. [1]
- Racist statements by BigButternutJoe about law school coincide with Casey Jordan Cooper beginning at John Marshall in Atlanta.

Alt-Right and Racist Organizing

According to one of his Twitter posts, “BigButternutJoe”/Cooper attended the “Rock Stone Mountain” white power rally at Stone Mountain Park outside Atlanta on April 23, 2016. The rally was organized by white supremacists and Klansmen, but was met with a large and determined anti-racist mobilization that vastly outnumbered the racists and largely ruined their event. BigButternutJoe claimed that he had encountered antifascist forces at Stone Mountain and found them “Not intimidatng [sic].” We have not identified Cooper in photo galleries of the “Rock Stone Mountain” event – if he was in the area, he may have either avoided photographers or never made it through the anti-racist protests to join the small white power rally.

Later in the year, Cooper turned his attention to white nationalism of the “Alt-Right” variety. In mid-August 2016, he Tweeted about “using my student loans to fund my trip to NPI” – the “Alt-Right” National Policy Institute conference that November. Half a dozen other Twitter posts also referenced his attendance at the NPI conference. Two more Atlanta Alt-Right militants known to have attended NPI 2016 are racist organizer Patrick Sharp, as well as Jared Huggins (who posed in a group photo of white nationalist Identity Evropa leaders attending the conference.) Cooper was photographed with Huggins, Sharp, and others at a September 2016 “Alt-Right” trip to Stone Mountain Park, discussed separately below.

By 2017, Casey Cooper was playing a central role in local “Alt-Right” racist organizing. The day before the “Atlanta Forum” white nationalist gathering this January, Cooper/BigButternutJoe stressed the effort which had gone into organizing the event: “After a lot of hard work from a lot of good southern goys, this weekend is going to be a fun one.”

○ Stone Mountain, September 2016

Casey Cooper – wearing sunglasses as in his Twitter “selfie” – was recorded at an “Alt-Right” gathering at Stone Mountain Park outside Atlanta on September 10, 2016. At this gathering, Casey Cooper and white nationalist leader Patrick Sharp both wore sleeveless shirts promoting the far-Right racist TheRightStuff.

The “I Am the Mountain” website contains a full account of the site editor’s encounter with the Alt-Right group at the mountain. The incident began after the website editor asked why one of the all-male group was carrying a Confederate battle flag – the response quickly degenerated into chants of “Alt-Right! Alt-Right!” plus sexist and antisemitic abuse (e.g. “Christ killer,” “Jews don’t wear panties”). Footage of the incident reveals Patrick Sharp and Casey Cooper as two leaders of the Alt-Right group, with Cooper exclaiming, “It’s 2016 – no one cares if you call me a racist anymore!”

Casey Cooper (wearing sunglasses and sleeveless TheRightStuff shirt, center foreground) and other Alt-Right racists on Stone Mountain, September 10, 2016

○ Propaganda Campaigns

We believe Casey J. Cooper helped place much of the “Alt-Right” and white power propaganda that appeared on campuses and in Atlanta neighborhoods over the past year. On his BigButternutJoe Twitter account, Casey Cooper celebrated and seemingly took responsibility for three incidents of racist/fascist propaganda:

1. On September 25, 2016, the BigButternutJoe account posted images of a sticker for the (now-cancelled) white power podcast “Fash the Nation” placed on the exterior of King of Pops in the Inman Park neighborhood. BigButternutJoe commented: “Atlanta’s favorite snack got a whole lot more fashy [i.e. fascist] today, and before the rush!”

"Fash the Nation" sticker outside popsicle shop in Inman Park neighborhood, September 2016

2. BigButternutJoe also bragged about racist posters and stickers placed around Georgia State University, Georgia Tech, and Kennesaw State University campuses on the weekend of November 12-13, 2016. This coordinated propaganda effort was part of a TheRightStuff/"Daily Shoah" nationally-coordinated action targeting campuses. Over a dozen posters plus "Alt-Right" stickers appeared on each campus that received a visit. We have already discussed this coordinated propaganda action in detail, since white nationalist leader Patrick Sharp is responsible for the "Alt-Right" cityscape sticker design placed around the three campuses; Sharp may have participated in the fascist propaganda night out; and Sharp certainly celebrated it via Twitter. In addition to posters and stickers left on the campuses, as part of the same propaganda effort someone left graffiti threatening violence against "anti-whites" on a KSU fraternity landmark. BigButternutJoe/Casey Cooper was explicit about his involvement in the multi-campus propaganda effort, although he may not have been present on every campus (if coordinated teams were involved.) Afterward, BigButternutJoe/Cooper made seventeen posts to his Twitter with pictures from the various campuses hit in the propaganda mission, each post including multiple images of posters, stickers, or graffiti. BigButternutJoe/Cooper then added:

Learned quite a lot from this weekend. Our next campaign is going to be smooth, efficient, and with even better designs. Keep a look out.

3. On January 24, 2017, Cooper's Twitter account posted thirteen images (in four different posts) of new "Alt-Right" stickers placed around Georgia Tech campus. Designs included "Join the Alt-Right," "White America: Who Protects You & Your Family?" and "Diversity is a False God." Seeking media attention, Cooper/BigButternutJoe tagged news stations in these posts and even followed up with a post providing the locations on the stickers on campus. (Twitter user @largeguyUUUU posted an image of the same propaganda at Georgia Tech, suggesting that he may also have been involved in this action.)

January 2017 "Alt-Right" white nationalist materials at Georgia Tech campus, claimed by BigButterNutJoe/Cooper on Twitter

These three incidents may not be the extent of Cooper's street/campus propaganda efforts, though. The stickers that first surfaced around Georgia Tech in January have now popped up on other campuses. There is significant circumstantial evidence that Cooper also placed racist propaganda in a couple of Atlanta areas.

We already discussed the "Fash the Nation" sticker at King of Pops in Inman Park, which BigButterNutJoe/Casey Cooper took responsibility for online. From November 2016 to February 2017, the Inman Park neighborhood was repeatedly hit with racist and fascist propaganda, with up to three dozen stickers appearing at a time. Some of the stickers that appeared in this neighborhood were the Patrick Sharp-produced "Alt-Right" cityscape design stickers produced by Tightrope (a business which circulates Klan and neo-Nazi materials), and finally the newer "Alt-Right" designs which premiered on Georgia Tech campus in January 2017 (a campus action claimed by Cooper). Starting November 2016, anti-fascists removed well over 150 far-Right and racist stickers posted around Inman Park, the nearby Historic Fourth Ward skate-park, and the Atlanta Beltline. Cooper's apartment is less than a 20-minute stroll from the epicenter of the Inman Park propaganda campaign.

Finally, approximately ten stickers from Tightrope — the Klan/neo-Nazi business — were found in Midtown Atlanta by antifascists in December 2016. These stickers were placed on Spring Street between 17th and 18th, as well as on 17th between Spring Street and West Peachtree Street. In other words: they all appeared within a block of Atlanta's John Marshall Law School. (The stickers were also a block away from the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta, which is near John Marshall.)

Conclusion

Between white nationalist organizing, racist propaganda campaigns, instigating abuse and making threats, Casey Jordan Cooper has had a busy year. We hope that this documentation is shared widely, so that that Cooper's identity as a militant racist is known to those who must deal with him daily, and to whom he may pose a threat. To collectively oppose racist organizing in our communities, it is important to know who is responsible.

Cooper's recent white power agitation provides a clear case study of how small circles of Alt-Right racists are attempting to move from internet posting to street-level propaganda runs, networking events, and infrastructure-building for their movement. If anti-racists are strategic, we can counteract and undermine many of these fledgling efforts.

As always, we encourage anyone with information on racist and fascist organizing in our region to get in contact and share what you know.

Information Leak Further Exposes Atlanta – Area White Nationalists

By Anonymous Contributor - May 23, 2017

We are releasing over a hundred images from an old Twitter account and an email for Casey Jordan Cooper, an Atlanta-area "Alt-Right" white nationalist.

Cooper was exposed by anti-racists earlier this year for his white power organizing. Despite outcry, Cooper remains a law student at Atlanta's John Marshall Law School.

With two exceptions, the screen-caps are unedited:

- (1) We removed the street number from a Milton Ave address, because we have no evidence the racists eventually purchased this property; and
- (2) We edited out Casey Cooper's old address, since Cooper has subsequently left that apartment building.

This information leak shows the extent of Casey Cooper's white power efforts. It also contains much information about how "Alt-Right" white nationalists have organized regionally, including email invitation list for the Atlanta Forum white power gathering. We hope that anti-racists in Georgia and beyond put this information to good use.

Are you available to get together this week?

May 9

That's my goal. One day have that on my own.

May 9

Bring your TRS guys if you want to, so I can meet you all before our larger gathering next wednesday.

May 9

and sure, I'd love to. Friday night I'm busy, Wednesday is my off night so I'd be open then.

May 9

May 9

and sure, I'd love to. Friday night I'm busy, Wednesday is my off night so I'd be open then.

May 9

Alright. Let's do wednesday.

May 9

cool, one of them is always available to hang out with me but I can spread the word.

May 9

We'll grab cigars.

May 9

Hahah, I know very little about cigars to be honest but I am absolutely interested.

May 9

No worries. We'll get you hooked up.

May 9

That sounds great. Now I'll probably get home around 6:30 or so, my availability is free after that.

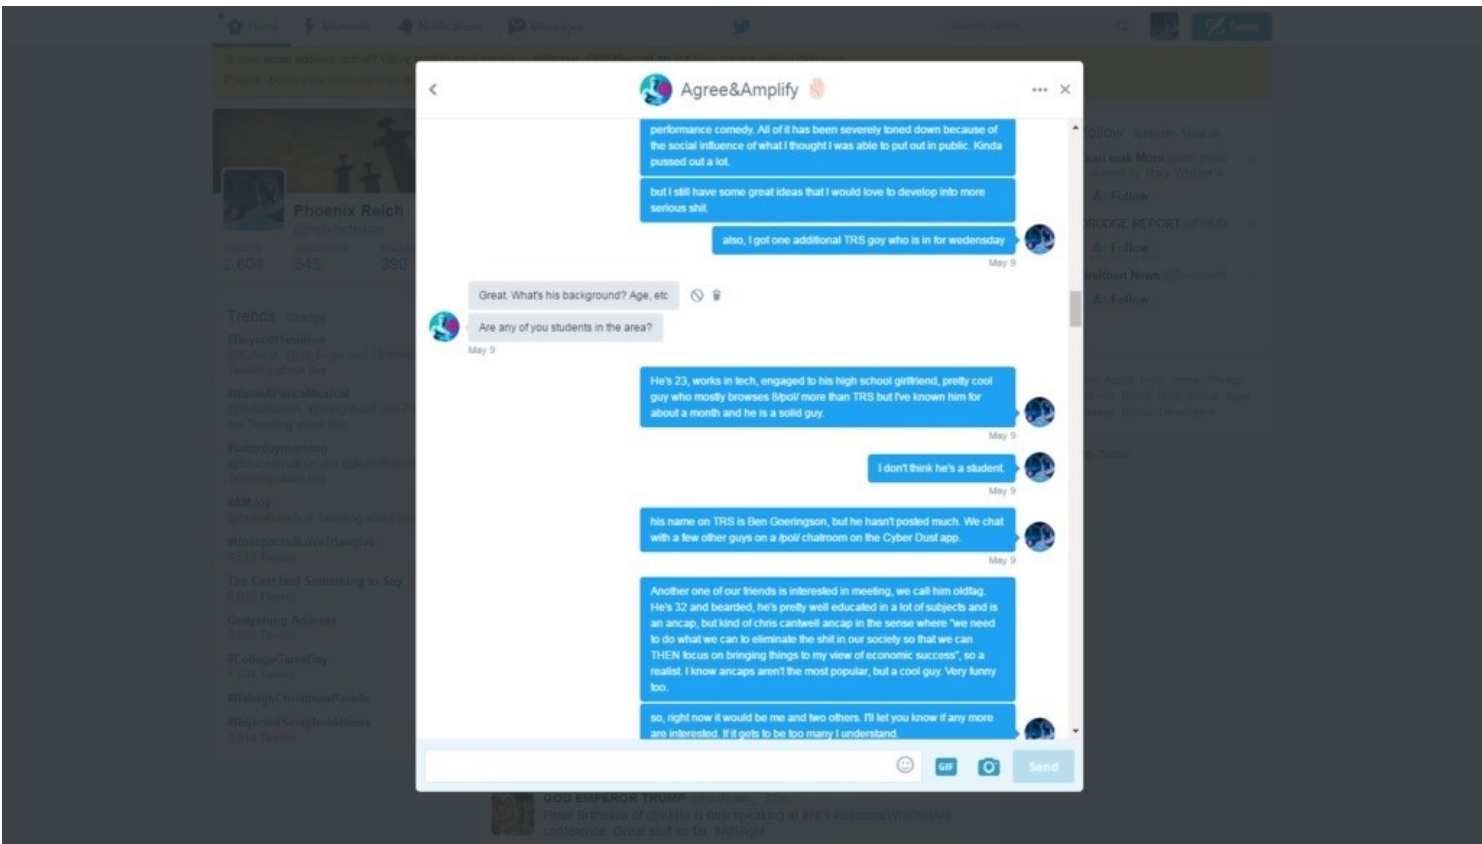

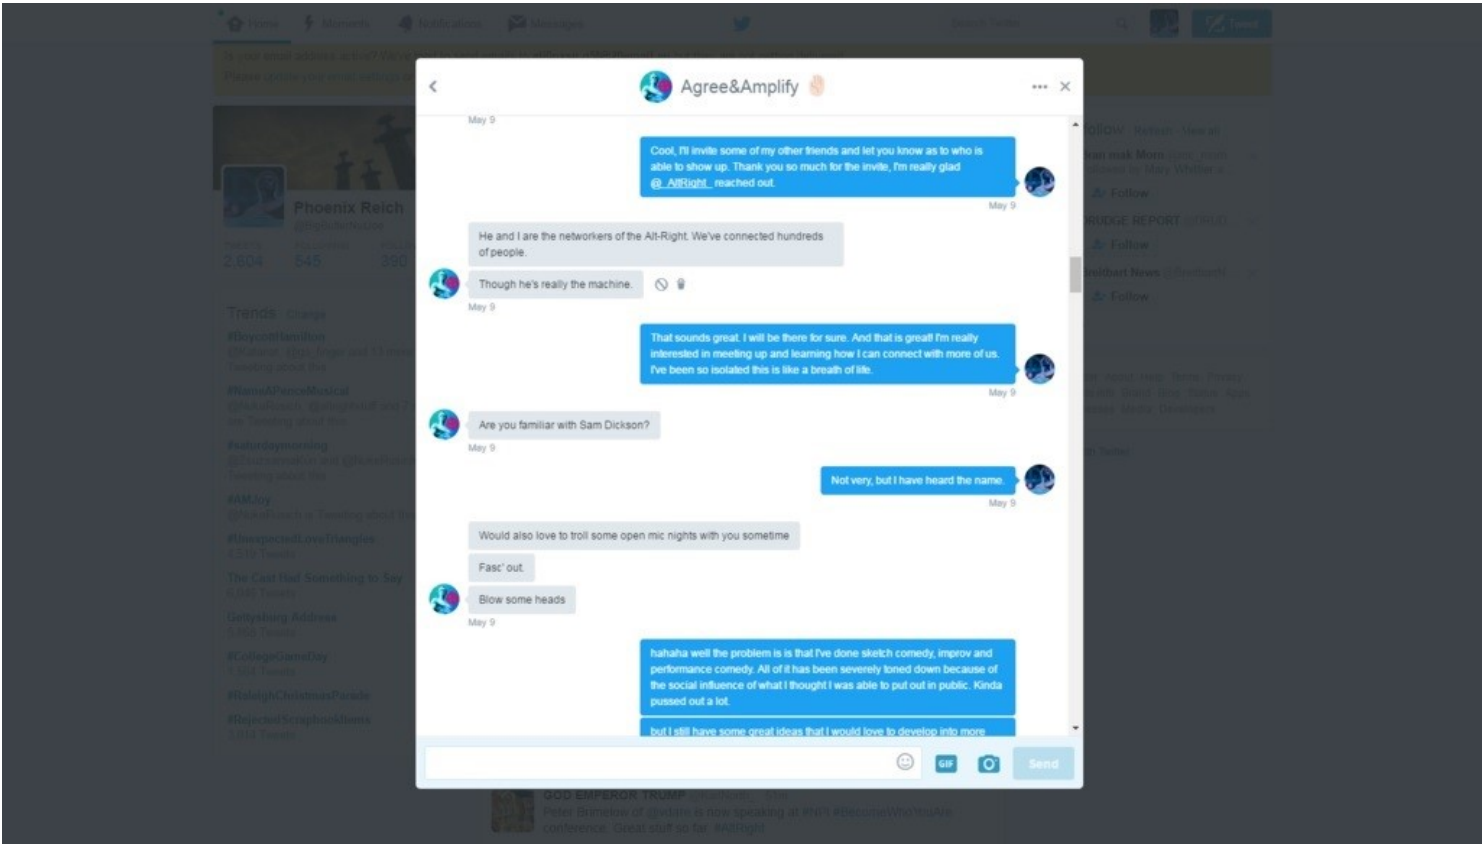

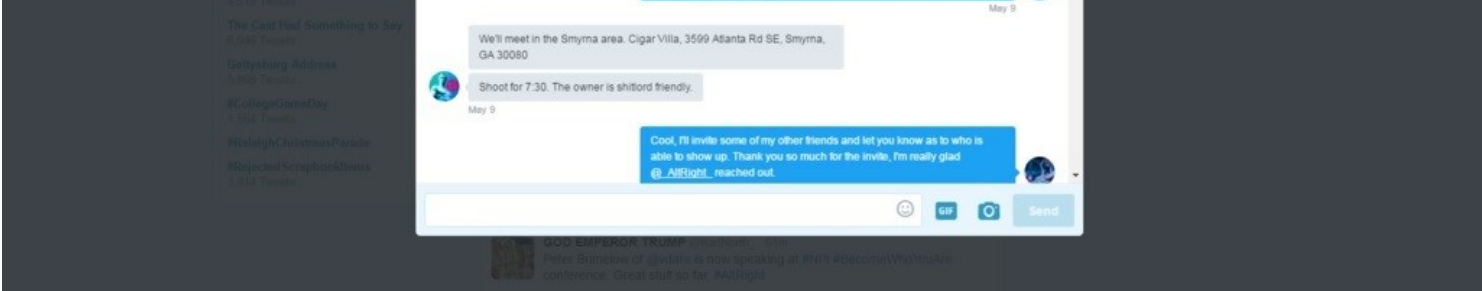

May 9

We'll meet in the Smyrna area. Cigar Villa, 3599 Atlanta Rd SE, Smyrna, GA 30080

Shoot for 7:30. The owner is shitford friendly.

May 9

Cool, I'll invite some of my other friends and let you know as to who is able to show up. Thank you so much for the invite, I'm really glad @_AllRight_ reached out.

so, right now it would be me and two others. I'll let you know if any more are interested. If it gets to be too many I understand.

cool, oldtag does get paranoid so he may not show if he psychs himself out.

but he's told me he's interested

Expecting a large turnout.

That's awesome. I know I'll have two others coming from my group. A third showed some interest but isn't sure if he's working.

Changed the venue. Details in group chat.

hey I'll be leaving here fairly soon after getting a bit cleaned up. How will I know you? I'll be wearing khakis also, a blonde huwhite male

Red trump hat

hey man, my phone number is 678-923-6733

text me any time, tonight was far better than I had expected.

Will add you to the group me

You mentioned bringing something to dinner, what would be appropriate? A dish, a bottle of something?

Finger foods.

A big box of chicken fingers from Publix comes to mind

Oh okay, that works for me.

could I get his address?

one of my groups I didn't post all the info

121 Ridgeland Way, Atlanta

Hey man, for the dress code for AmRen, if I wear something similar to last night but darker and with a tie, that works right?

Agree&Amplify

yeah that's the problem I'm noticing

BenGoeringson's brother has good aesthetics

Solomon ain't bad

the rest of the other guys were basic: IT guys, out of shape, bearded, long hair so, could work on it and get a classic, nose look but goddamn it's hard to get these people in a gym

Jun 15

Yes, I'm considering making it a requirement

Long hair has to go

Beards must be earned

Jun 15

I would agree, although I feel like for those with lesser willpower there would need to be a way to incentivize the aesthetic aspect of it although, that is an oxymoron... it's all internal will so how do you incentivize personal drive

Jun 15

We don't need people without willpower

Jun 15

I guess I'm confusing a voter base with an active movement

I see the need for numbers in a democracy and a voter base, but within our ranks it's not necessary

Jun 15

What's your phone number? I seem to be missing it

After my run in with the dind last night, I'm going through my lease. If you were serious about renting from Sam, I'd be down. I'd have to give 30 days notice but if the price makes sense I would have no qualms with pulling that trigger on the move.

Enoch Was Right

She invited me up to study. I'm trying to get online and set up so we can go over notes, she is looking for the wifi pass for me and goes 'whatever here what do you think of this' and shows me a picture of a really gross spiderweb vagina tattoo. It took me a minute to realize what I was looking at, and I knew it wasn't her but she insisted "this is mine do you like it?"

I kept asking her what she was doing, why she had that, and that she was testing me. Then she moved on to "well what do you think about my tits" and shows me a picture of her tits from her phone. I know this is actually her and I kinda get red faced, again with "what are you doing, you're testing me" etc because she was, and I know her enough to know she wasn't propositioning me then moves onto an ass pic and just starts laughing

THEN

she drops

"Well you're like my gay best friend from class so it's totally cool" and gives me this look and I start getting mad.

and she's laughing her ass off

I can't remember what I was saying, I go and get one of her beers from her fridge

Oct 31

Ask her you don't believe her. Show me. And then you will show her how gay you are.

Oct 31

"No I know you're not gay. I really like the platonic flirting we have. Like its great and totally platonic you know?"

Oh man I kept hitting her with some shit but man

I had no defense for that she was cackling like a hyena

Oct 31

Tell her to put up or shut up. Games-you don't have time to chase the rabbits tail.

Oct 31

nah, it was fine. I stayed the night but like fucking christ I got trolled harder than I have ever been before she fucked me up with that one. I now at least have a defense for something I never thought I would get hit by

Oct 31

Well she was just gauging you to feel in control. You can either play that game or make it known you make you the rules.

Oct 31

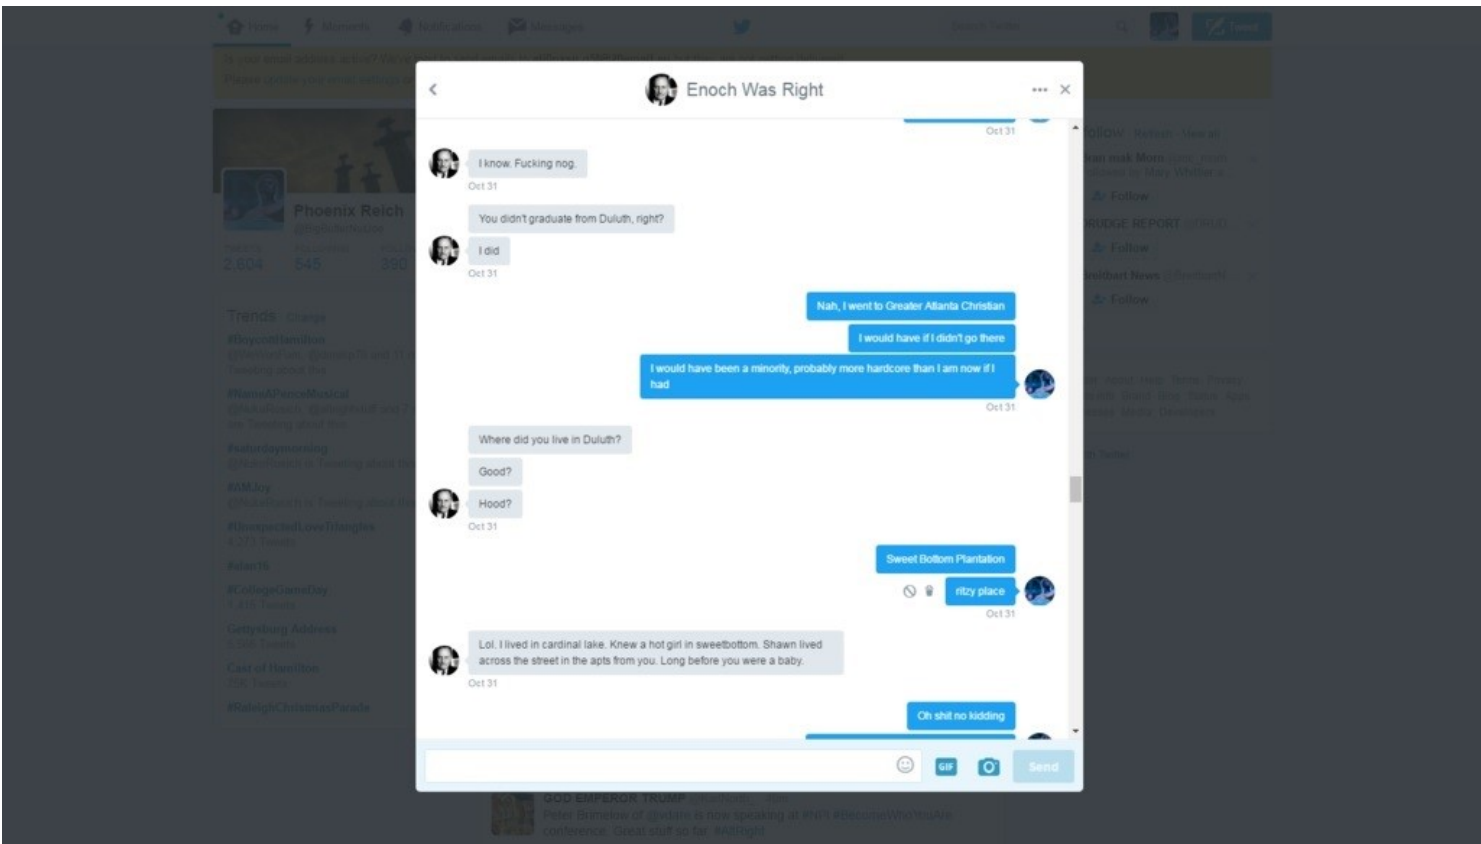

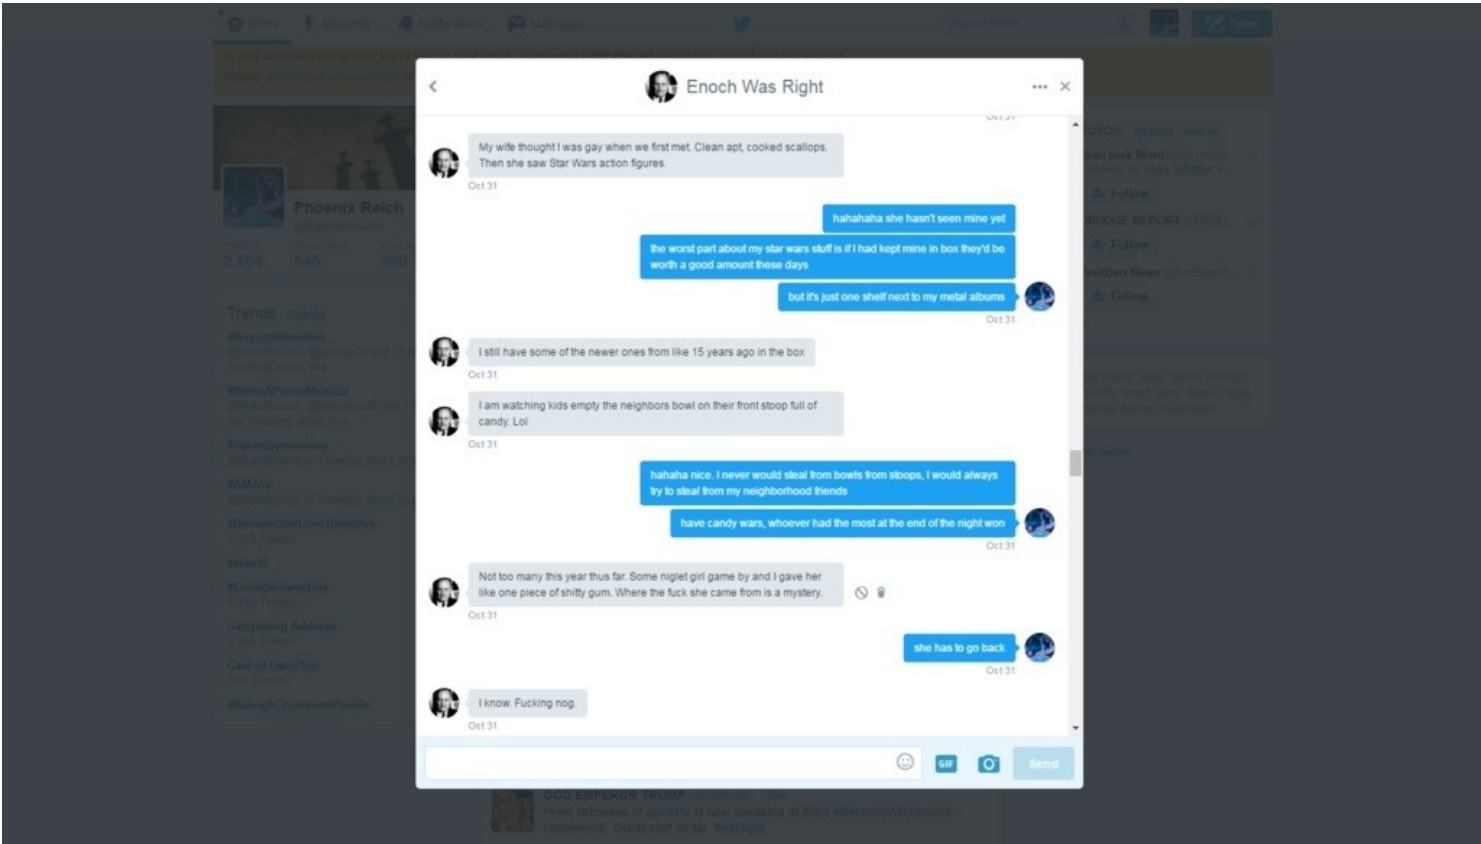

Sure. I had her drive me around though for the day, she took me to a cigar bar, bought me a nice cigar, got me some nice gin got dinner while I pretty much didn't do a single thing

Oct 31

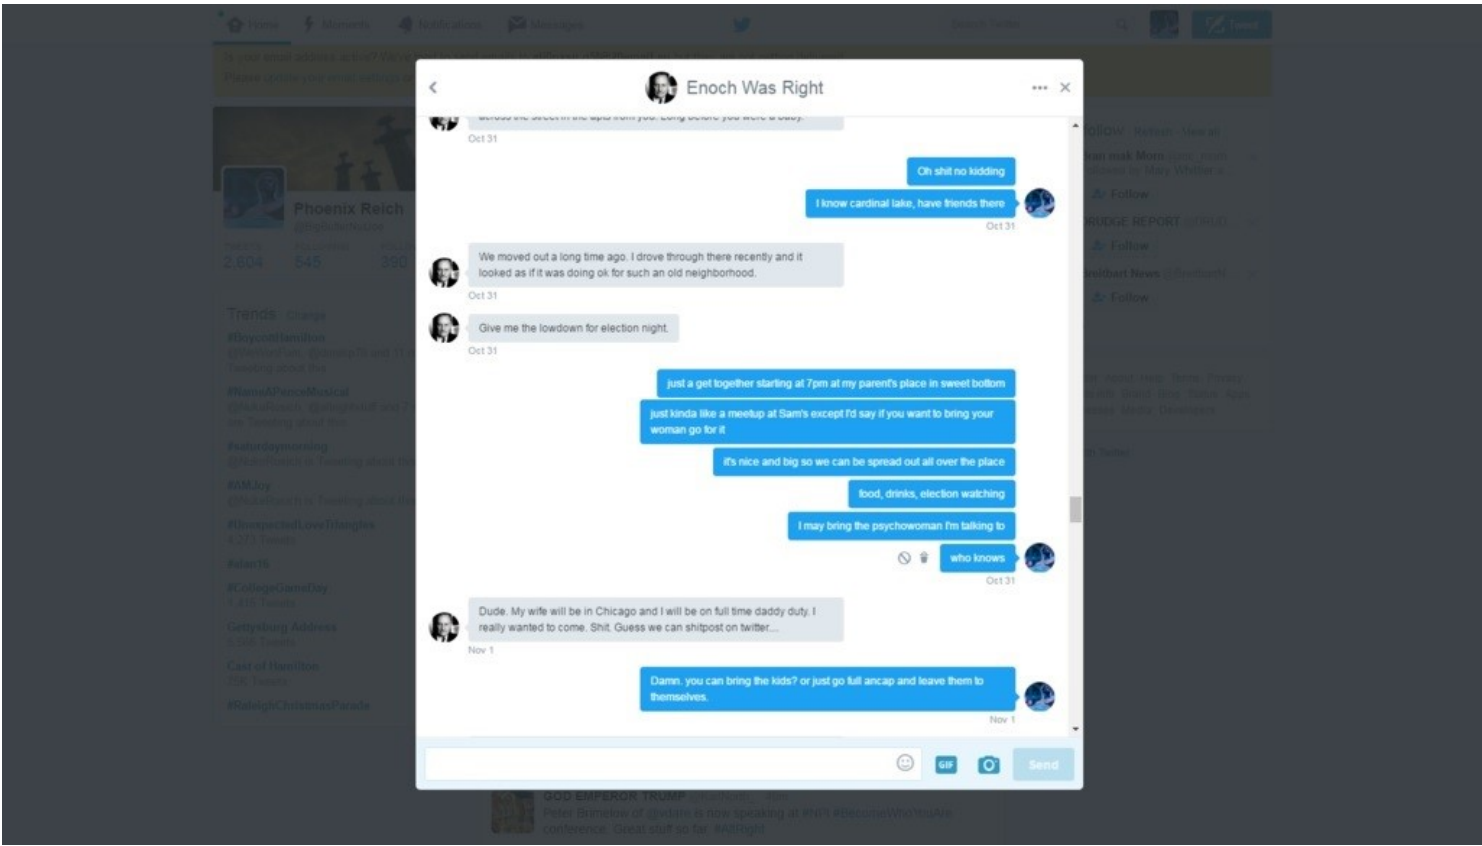

My wife thought I was gay when we first met. Clean apt, cooked scallops. Then she saw Star Wars action figures.

I will bring the glue, brushes and some latex gloves. Chud & Big Guy will bring posters, Ygori, clip boards, probably 2. I suggest since it is a small campus, we can stay together. Maybe 2 doing it 2 looking out, we will park down the road from GSU NORTH and walk in paste, then leave and drink beer

It's why I think it's best to be inconspicuous

if chimps gonna chimp, they may accidentally mischimp

mischimps are useful

I think if we start ops around 7:00pm it will be perfect

Ygori • Nov 10

Yeah, earlier the better. I want Atlanta to start at 6 so we can be done before it gets too late.

AND REMEMBER THE PICTURES. Do it like Identity Evropa does their poster photos.

Atlanta Antifascists

Analysis: Leaked Information Details Atlanta's "Alt-Right" White Nationalist Scene

MAY 24, 2017MAY 23, 2017 ~ ANTIFASCISTINATLANTA

Introduction

Recently, screen-captured messages from Atlanta-area white nationalist leader Casey Cooper were published on Its Going Down, an anarchist and anti-racist website. This leak of white nationalist communications also included an email invitation list for the Atlanta Forum, a white power gathering in our region earlier this year. Taken together, the leaked materials show Casey Cooper's transition from an "Alt-Right" sympathizer in the beginning of 2016 to a prospective state leader for the white power movement by the end of that year. The information from Casey Cooper's accounts reveal how "Alt-Right" racists organize regionally, especially how the white nationalist organization Identity Evropa operates. The screen-captures establish that Cooper was a member of Identity Evropa, and engaged in activity on their behalf.

The newly-public online conversations also provide detail on how "Alt-Right" racists coordinated to hit multiple Georgia campuses with white power propaganda in the immediate aftermath of Trump's electoral victory. In our analysis of the leaked white nationalist communications, we first discuss what the leak reveals about specific white nationalist figures; we then discuss the mid-November 2016 white power propaganda run coordinated by Casey Cooper; and we conclude with some notes about what this new information reveals about "Alt-Right" organizing more generally.

New Information About Casey Cooper's White Power Activity

We have already written extensively about Casey Jordan Cooper, a militant racist who attends Atlanta's John Marshall Law School (AJMLS). Cooper's leaked correspondence further establishes that Cooper was behind the old "Phoenix Reich"/@BigButternutJoe Twitter account. As we have previously documented, Cooper used this Twitter account to issue death threats, agitate for the white power cause, and make racist and homophobic remarks about his neighbors as well as other AJMLS students. The new documentation on Its Going Down does not fundamentally alter the picture of Casey Cooper our organization has already provided. Rather, it adds new details to that picture.

Cooper's online discussions show that when he first got active on the far-Right, he gravitated toward TheRightStuff (TRS) website and its forums. The first time Cooper met with racist leader Patrick Sharp (who was then "Agree&Amplify"/@AgreeAndAmp on Twitter) Cooper also planned to bring another "TRS goy" to the meet-up.

In a different discussion — this time with Alpharetta, Georgia white nationalist Zac Johnson, who at the time was "Enoch Was Right"/@j enoch powell on Twitter — Cooper stated that one of his goals in attending the November 2016 National Policy Institute conference in Washington, DC was to "get back involved" with TRS podcaster "Musonius Rufus." Casey Cooper added that "Rufus [...] extended a lot of olive branches to me [...] when I was newer" in the racist movement. Cooper would later assist the January 2017 "Atlanta Forum" white nationalist gathering, which was organized by "Rufus" and other TRS affiliates. The information leak also discloses that Casey Cooper traveled to the TheRightStuff "TRStlemania" conference, February 10-11, 2017 in Houston, Texas.

Despite these connections with TheRightStuff, Cooper appears to have joined the Identity Evropa white nationalist organization. In Cooper's November 2016 photograph with Patrick Sharp, Cooper wears an Identity Evropa pin flaunting his affiliation with that organization. In an earlier discussion with Patrick Sharp, Cooper mentions that he "talked with the guys in IE [Identity Evropa] about our rally and success." (It is unclear which rally Cooper was referring to.) When Cooper wrote in November 2016 of putting up propaganda with Joshua David Hitson during the previous "campaign," it is likely that this earlier effort was placing Identity Evropa materials around Atlanta. In his Twitter messages, Cooper also mentions sending Zac Johnson "a referral from Identity Evropa," again making clear that Cooper was part of Identity Evropa's communication channels.

Identity Evropa logo, as featured on pin worn by Casey Cooper.

To be fully integrated within some white nationalist circles, it appears that Casey Cooper had to take a DNA test and share the results with others. In a message of October 13, Zac Johnson of Alpharetta reports to Cooper that the "DNA test looks good." However, Cooper is also teased about being a "Jew" after this point, presumably because Cooper's DNA test revealed some small amount of ethnically Jewish heritage.

By early November 2016 Casey Cooper got the impression that "they [national level Alt-Right leaders] want me to take the reigns [sic] and try to get in as the state level guy" for Alt-Right networks, while Patrick Sharp moved on a greater national-level role. When Cooper hosted an election-night gathering for white nationalists at his family home in Sweet Bottom, Duluth, Georgia, this event may have helped further boost Cooper's reputation as a leader among Georgia Alt-Right participants. When Cooper organized racist posters to be placed on various Georgia campuses the weekend after Trump's victory (see full discussion later), this coordinated action was planned to raise the stature of his Georgia Alt-Right networks prior to the National Policy Institute far-Right conference in Washington, DC.

Other Figures

(A) Zachary Van Johnson

While the information leak does not add a huge amount of detail to what our group has previously written about Alpharetta resident Zac Johnson, the newly-leaked messages corroborate our earlier claims about Johnson's racist organizing and show Johnson to be fully integrated within Georgia Alt-Right circles. (Quick update: on the day that our initial article about Zac Johnson was published, Johnson's longtime @j_enoch_powell profile suddenly vanished from Twitter.) In the leaked messages, Zac Johnson/"Enoch Was Right" discussed his work on a cabin in Blue Ridge, Georgia. Johnson was referring to the Bigfoot Blue Ridge cabin, owned by him and his wife Bethany Del Campo Johnson. This cabin is currently being rented to vacationers, generating income that presumably enables Johnson's white power organizing.

Zac Johnson played a key role in hitting the Georgia State University – North (formerly Georgia Perimeter College) campus with racist posters on November 12, 2016, using his wife's Honda for this mission. The November poster campaign is discussed in a separate section below.

(B) Patrick Nelson Sharp

Messages between Casey Cooper and Zac Johnson reveal that by the end of 2016, white nationalist organizer Patrick Sharp was transitioning from regional white power efforts to potentially bigger, national-level activities within the Alt-Right. (Sharp is "Agree&Amplify"/@AgreeAndAmp in the leaked messages. We have already written extensively about Patrick Sharp's organizing, for example this article discussing Sharp's final years as a student at Georgia State University in Atlanta.)

The leaked messages from Casey Cooper show that Georgia Alt-Right participants typically defer to Patrick Sharp's judgment. For example, in a discussion of where to place racist posters, the comment "Patrick [Sharp] said he doesn't want them in bathrooms" immediately took that option off the table. Discussions between Casey Cooper and Zac Johnson of Patrick Sharp's leadership style make it clear that Sharp has a pseudo-"veteran" status on the local far-Right, despite being active for less than half a decade. In addition, Patrick Sharp demands respect and an air of seriousness from who are active with him. Sharp obsesses over the appearance of Alt-Right participants, asserting that "We must have a handsome, eugenic crew" and that ideally "long hair has to go" and "beards must be earned" within his all-male local crew. Given this pressure, it is no surprise that several of Sharp's racist associates switched to short haircuts towards the end of 2016.

According to a November 2016 message from Casey Cooper to Zac Johnson, Patrick Sharp had outlined a new project: "the next big thing is the antifa psyop" which aimed at "subversion" of anti-fascist forces. Cooper summarized the Sharp-promoted "psyop" scheme as "We antifa now," which suggests attempted infiltration or impersonation. If Sharp and his followers followed through on these plans, there is no evidence that they succeeded in anything beyond low-level electronic harassment.

Cooper's leaked communications highlight that Sharp still occasionally takes part in street-level propaganda activity. For example, we were curious about who spray-painted a Kennesaw State University fraternity landmark with the slogan "Good Night Anti-Whites" on the weekend following Trump's election. Now we have an answer, since Casey Cooper congratulated Sharp: "Killer work on the rock" (where the graffiti was placed).

Since the period outlined in the info leak, Patrick Sharp has been active in nationally-coordinated Alt-Right events. Predictably enough, Patrick Sharp attended white nationalist leader Richard Spencer's appearance at Auburn University in Alabama this April (the event was in Sharp's region and Sharp grew up in Alabama.) Sharp also traveled further afield, and was pictured at the May 13 white power rally in Charlottesville, Virginia where participants carried torches and chanted Nazi slogans.

(C) Sam Dickson

While Patrick Sharp benefits from a bogus "veteran" status gained over the course of just a few years on the racist Right, Atlanta lawyer Sam Dickson has been active in white power causes for decades. In the '70s and '80s, Dickson represented Klan clients. Dickson's website boasts that he has spoken at every American Renaissance conference, since the suit-and-tie racist gatherings began in 1994. Dickson currently mentors younger "Alt-Right" white nationalists in our region. When Casey Cooper was getting more involved in white power organizing, "Are you familiar with Sam Dickson?" was one of the first questions Patrick Sharp asked Cooper.

The leaked "Alt-Right" messages make clear that Sam Dickson opens his Atlanta home for meet-ups by younger white nationalists. In one message, Patrick Sharp gives out Dickson's address for a get-together. Dickson also mentors young white nationalists in other ways. Dickson made much of his wealth on the Atlanta property market, by purchasing unpaid tax debts and using them as leverage to acquire properties for cheap, frequently in gentrifying areas. When Patrick Sharp and Casey Cooper discussed purchasing property in the Chosewood Park area of Atlanta, Sharp wrote that: "I'm sure Sam will have good advice for us."

(D) Joshua David Hitson

Cooper's communications highlight the role played by Joshua David Hitson in Atlanta-area white nationalist activities. Hitson is a self-described "hipster" as well as a racist — prior to his white power efforts, Hitson was an early member of Atlanta hard rock act Biters. As "JD Hitson", he has been published on the white nationalist Radix Media website. Hitson also self-published a book, Deep Lie the Roots, which "examines the detriment of Judeo-Christianity on the consciousness of the European peoples." Until recently, Joshua Hitson was @ContrarianGent on Twitter, using the account to publish a steady stream of abuse against people of color, Jewish people, feminists, and so on. Hitson's compulsive Twitter use then switched to the "LeGentContraire"/@ Mr Cavalier account, which again made clear Hitson's white power commitments. (That account was shut down on the same day that the Casey Cooper info leak was published.)

Comments from Joshua Hitson's @ContrarianGent Twitter account, 2016

Hitson is listed as a 9th grade English teacher at Whitewater High School in Fayetteville, Georgia.

In Casey Cooper's messages, Hitson is usually referred to as "Gent." In one message, Hitson is mentioned by his old Twitter handle, when Patrick Sharp tells Casey Cooper that "I've got two guys I want you and @ContrarianGent to check out." The fact that Joshua Hitson was trusted with screening participants for the local Alt-Right crew reveals that Hitson is an established, respected figure in Georgia racist circles.

Not only did Hitson help coordinate the November 12, 2016 propaganda mission in which racist posters were posted around several Georgia campuses (more information below) but according to Casey Cooper's messages, Hitson also helped with an earlier propaganda "campaign." Cooper's comment seems to reference one or more earlier incidents in 2016 when Identity Evropa propaganda appeared in Atlanta.

(E) Evan Thomas Kuettner

The info leak also reveals that white nationalist leader Evan Thomas Kuettner has been spending time in the Atlanta metropolitan area. Kuettner is connected to Identity Evropa and helped to coordinate the November 2016 National Policy Institute (NPI) conference in Washington, DC. In an interview from that conference, Kuettner was quoted as "Evan Thomas of Michigan." Thomas/Kuettner has an extensive history as a white nationalist in Michigan, where he operated as "Evan Thomas," "Tom Kuettner" and "David Starr Jordan" (his handle on the white supremacist Stormfront.org forum). Kuettner organized events when Canadian neo-Nazi Paul Fromm visited Michigan; Kuettner also tried to advance his politics in more mainstream spheres by leading the Warren, Michigan Tea Party chapter and even running for Warren City Council in 2011.

Around the same time as the National Policy Institute conference last year, Kuettner's "Evan Thomas" Twitter account gave a location of "Atlanta, GA," which suggests that he spends at least some of his time locally. Now, Casey Cooper's information leak corroborates this: Kuettner/Thomas is pictured at the 2016 election-night white nationalist gathering at Cooper's family home in Duluth.

When Casey Cooper sent an October 2016 message that he "talked with the guys in IE [Identity Evropa] about our rally and success," Cooper mentions name-dropping "Evan" in the conversation.

Most recently, "Evan Thomas" played a key role in the torch-bearing white nationalist demonstration in Charlottesville, Virginia on May 13, 2017 (which Patrick Sharp also attended.)

Evan Thomas Kuettner in Charlottesville, VA, May 2017

(F) Chase Riggs Carroll

The leaked messages also highlight Georgia State University (GSU) student Chase Riggs Carroll's involvement in the regional white power scene. We have previously written about Carroll, and noted that Carroll traveled to Auburn University for white nationalist leader Richard Spencer's event on April 18, 2017.

Carroll is frequently mentioned in messages by Zac Johnson, Patrick Sharp and Casey Cooper, often referred to as “Big Guy.”

During the time documented in the info leak, Chase Carroll used the @BBlopperson Twitter account. (One post in the leaked messages is a photo of Carroll, which Carroll posted using the @BBlopperson profile.) In the leaked messages, the Twitter account’s name was set as “Big Moof,” but at other times the Twitter profile used Carroll’s nickname of “Big Guy.”

Later, Carroll went on to use the Twitter account @largeguyuuuu (now also gone.) This account also used the name “Big Guy” and shares the same profile picture as the old @BBlopperson account.

@BBlopperson and @largeguyuuuu Twitter accounts

The @largeguyuuuu account posted an image on January 24, 2017 of a racist “Alt-Right” sticker (designed by Carroll’s friend Zac Johnson) at Georgia Tech campus. Casey Cooper also posted pictures of these stickers at Georgia Tech, suggesting that Carroll and Cooper may have placed the materials together.

Jan. 24, 2017: Chase Carroll posts image of sticker at Georgia Tech campus

(G) More Names

The info leak also contains messages from GSU students McKinley Witzler (formerly “9thCenturyDeplorable”/@USCharlemagne) and Charles/Chaz Neugebauer (formerly “Alt-Chud”/@chaz_nuke). City of Atlanta employee Alex Dibble (@AlbusDibbledore/“A. Domini” then @Karabiner_9814/“Fine ‘ol Solution” on Twitter, account now deleted) also appears in the leaked messages and took part in the Alt-Right crew’s activities. Many other profiles are in the info leak — we encourage anyone with more information about them to get in contact.

As well as the figures we’ve already mentioned, Identity Evropa member Jared Huggins and local Alt-Right participant Grant M. Hick (AKA “Grant Fox” on Facebook) appear in photographs from the 2016 election night racist gathering.

White Nationalist Propaganda Spree on Georgia Campuses, November 2016

A large portion of the leaked messages involve planning for a coordinated propaganda mission, which hit multiple Georgia campuses on the weekend after the 2016 election. The Georgia poster campaign was part of a national effort, publicized on TheRightStuff website. In Georgia, racist posters such as “Why White Women Shouldn’t Date Black Men” as well as “Alt-Right” stickers were placed on several campuses. We discussed this event in previous articles, since Patrick Sharp is responsible for the “Alt-Right” sticker placed on these campuses, and Casey Cooper used his Twitter account to circulate photos of the white power materials plastered around the universities. On the weekend of November 12-13, 2016, Georgia State University and Georgia Tech in Atlanta campuses were hit, as was Kennesaw State University. In previous articles, we did not mention that Georgia State University – North (formerly Georgia Perimeter College) in Alpharetta was also targeted with racist materials. However, Casey Cooper’s Twitter messages make clear that racist materials went up at this campus as well. A little while later, white power posters also appeared at Augusta University.

It is now clear that Casey Cooper coordinated the overall poster campaign, and that Zachary Van Johnson did much of the work to ensure that racist materials went up in Alpharetta. Patrick Sharp appears to have bottom-lined propaganda around Kennesaw State University, although a reference to “KSU guys” suggests Sharp was not alone. In a message to Cooper, Sharp accepted credit for graffiti threatening “anti-whites.”

Casey Cooper thought of the November propaganda mission as an attempt to increase the prestige of the metro Atlanta Alt-Right crew, just as the National Policy Institute Conference in Washington, DC was approaching. Cooper also aimed to turn Georgia Tech and Georgia State into “our territory” with the white power posters. Other participants gleefully discussed what they anticipated the consequences of the poster campaign to be, especially any negative effects on students of color.

Six people are mentioned as being on the November 12 postering/stickering team for Georgia State University in Atlanta and Georgia Tech: Casey Cooper, Joshua D Hitson (“Gent”), McKinley Witzler (formerly “9thCenturyDeplorable”/@USCharlemagne), “Eugene” (formerly @GasChamberz), “Z. Ben Goeringson”/@BenGoeringson, and finally “Heinrich Gottlieb”/@h_glieb.

During planning, McKinley Witzler stated that he could not let placing racist posters interfere with him getting to work at 11PM on the Saturday night. (Witzler works as a security guard around Georgia State University.) Witzler offered that his “waifu” — i.e. girlfriend Madison Craytor — would make the wheat-paste for putting up posters. In the end, Witzler may have only helped with part of the racist postering mission, as Witzler later asked in the group chat where the posters had been placed around Georgia State campus, since he wanted to have a look while on break from his campus security job.

*Racist posters at Georgia Tech campus,
November 12, 2016*

In one of our previous articles discussing the November racist propaganda spree, we stated that “it appears someone else may have placed” the racist posters at Augusta University, not the same individuals responsible for the posters around Atlanta. This assessment was based on the distance between Augusta and Atlanta, the posters appearing on different nights, and a different Twitter account publishing photos of the propaganda around Augusta University. (Casey Cooper published photos of the other campuses on his old “Phoenix Reich” Twitter account.) As it turns out, however, one of the participants in Georgia State/Georgia Tech postering mission later placed the Augusta University posters. “Heinrich”/@h_glieb drove a couple of hours to join with Atlanta Alt-Right participants to put up posters around Georgia Tech and Georgia State campuses on Saturday night. This same individual later placed racist materials around Augusta University’s campus.

It appears that five people volunteered to place Alt-Right posters around Georgia State University – North (formerly Georgia Perimeter College) in Alpharetta that same evening. The five participants mentioned in the messages were: Zac Johnson, Chase Carroll (“Big Moof”/“Big Guy” in the messages), Chase’s friend Chaz Neugebauer (“Alt-Chud”), Alex Dibble (“A. Domini”) and finally “Ygori” (responsible for the now-deleted @_Ygori_ then @kebabinator1488 accounts on Twitter.) Zachary Van Johnson appears to have been the main coordinator for the Alpharetta team.

Additional Information About “Alt-Right” White Nationalist Organizing

The information leak shows that many local Alt-Right efforts are coordinated via group messaging on Twitter. The “ATL Neo-Harambists” messaging group on Twitter facilitates bigoted chit-chat as well as organizing efforts. When Patrick Sharp posted a photo of an October 2016 Atlanta “Alt-Right” meet-up to his Twitter, the logo for the “Neo-Harambists” was included on that image.

On a different note: Casey Cooper's online payment for the February 2017 TheRightStuff conference in Houston, TX shows that, while the white nationalists at TheRightStuff were supposedly blocked from using Paypal, they simply use a new Paypal address to circumvent restrictions. That email account is: standardpoolco@gmail.com. Anti-Fascist News has raised this issue before, but so far it does not seem to have led to action.

Finally, the comments of white nationalist Patrick Sharp ("Agree&Amplify") about his friendship with comedian Sam Hyde of the Million Dollar Extreme (MDE) troupe, as well as Patrick Sharp's claim that "Sam [Hyde] was staying at my place while he was in town," add to the evidence that MDE are not merely "edgy" entertainers, but are enmeshed in the broader Alt-Right.

Conclusion

We have discussed the Casey Cooper info leak in detail, since it explains a lot about regional Alt-Right organizing. We hope to have made a good start in analyzing the leaked messages. We invite other anti-racists to build on our efforts here. If you have further information on the white nationalists discussed in this article — or whose messages or photos appeared in the info leak — please get in contact.

PHOTOS OF ALT-RIGHT WHITE NATIONALISTS ON STONE MOUNTAIN, SEPTEMBER 10, 2016

Note: the shirts worn by Patrick Nelson Sharp and Casey Jordan Cooper in these photos contain far-Right references. The Right Stuff is a notorious “Alt-Right” racist website. “88” is alphanumeric code for “H.H.” or “Heil Hitler.” The helicopter is a reference to murders under the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile.

Alt-Right Racists on Stone Mountain

NOVEMBER 5, 2016

Like Share

The day before the 15-year anniversary of 9/11, 16-20 alt-right Trump supporters brought racism and hate speech to the top of Stone Mountain. The video below contains graphic and racist language but is important to see. UPDATE: Thanks to several readers, including a group called the Atlanta Antifascists, at least one of these males has been identified as a known white nationalist named Patrick Sharp. Another has been identified as Casey Jordan Cooper (as of March 2017).

I began my hike up the mountain on the afternoon of Saturday, September 10, with the usual wonderment of the perpetually fascinated. Signs of encroaching autumn rushed my senses and the 15-year anniversary of 9/11 weighed on my mind. A large banner decrying veterans lost to PTSD hung between two trees at the base of the walk-up trail. Shiny magenta clusters of beautyberry held up the blue autumn sky and Monarch butterflies fed on yellow daisies as the Yellow Daisy Festival went on elsewhere in the park. In a half hour I would be heckled and taunted and called a "Christ killer," a "Jew," and a "cunt" by a pack of sixteen twenty-something "alt-right" white males, two smoking cigars, one swilling beer (it's not allowed) and donning a Confederate flag as a cape for show.

The World Comes to Stone Mountain, Summit of a New South

Fifty-four years after Martin Luther King, Jr. proclaimed, "Let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia," a diverse community thrives atop Stone Mountain, a mountain still considered emblematic of Old South racism by some. This website humbly attempts to illustrate freedom ringing at long last and to celebrate all of the new faces that are reclaiming the mountain.

Midway up the mountain I stopped to talk with a lovely Pakistani family that lives in Johns Creek, GA and their friends visiting from Pakistan. Nadeem, an ENT, playfully climbed a tree and later shared that in his holy book, the Quran, mountains were created by Allah to keep the Earth from shaking. I shared my 9/11 story with them of how I walked across the Manhattan Bridge that day, the part where cars drive, with thousands of people, some covered in soot. Wearing all black, I had not come prepared for the 91-degree heat that afternoon and was so grateful for the bottle of water and popcorn they shared.

I rounded the top of the mountain and took in a heartwarming scene of a Mexican man sitting with his two daughters taking in the view of Atlanta, and they, too, graciously posed for photos, though one of the girls was tired. I then walked over to one of the geodetic markers at the very center of the mountain, where I made small talk with a Korean War vet in his 80s named Arden Rowley. One look at his hat, and I thanked him for his service and asked him to remind me why we were in Korea then in the first place. Even if I might know something (or think I know), I usually want to hear someone else's explanation. America was protecting South Korea and fighting Communism and, indirectly, Russia and China. He took out his cell phone and pulled up a YouTube video showing a satellite image of South Korea all lit up and North Korea in darkness. But the sun made it too bright to see it, and I told him I'd go home and Google it.

I parted ways with Arden Rowley around the same time the alt-right troublemakers appeared on the mountain. They wanted to be noticed in their Trump T-shirts with their stinky cigar smoke and the Confederate flag, as if their theatrics were designed to recall a page out of the KKK's old book of taking their white supremacy to the top of this very mountain.

WARNING: The video you are about watch contains graphic and racist language and scenes. You won't be subjected to the vulgar worst of what I heard that afternoon, thanks to the wind, but you should watch this to familiarize yourself with the dangerous new younger generation of racist "alt-Republican" Trump supporters we've been hearing so much about during this election. If you recognize any of these boys, please let me know. UPDATE: Thanks to several readers, including a group called the Atlanta Antifascists, at least one of these males has been identified as a known white nationalist named Patrick Sharp.

"Why are you wearing a Confederate flag?" I asked.

"Dixie till I die!" he sang out.

"Even if it's offensive to many people?" I questioned.

That was enough to light their powder keg, to ignite their political publicity stunt. Before they began chanting "alt-right! alt-right! alt right!" I was told to go back to where I came from, called a cunt, and every anti-Semitic cliché in the book. One even said "look at that nose."

Arden Rowley walked over to the guy wearing the Confederate flag, and even they thanked him for his service, too. But Mr. Rowley actually had to ask them what kind of political party they were, as he'd never heard of the alt-right. It was so disheartening seeing this POW being taken in by them, as one of them pointed to me as an example of "the work" that's still left to do, as Mr. Rowley squeezed one of the boy's shoulders as an attaboy.

"No one's buying what you're selling anymore!" one of them shouted with a tone of na-na, na-na, boo-boo, stick your head in doo-doo. "It's 2016. No one cares if you call me a racist anymore."

You can see a little boy walk by in the video. And the Mexican and Pakistani families I'd just met, and so many other innocent passersby, were witnessing and hearing this obscene spectacle, too. One or two supporters cheered them on shouting "First amendment!"

"You guys are an embarrassment," I said.

"To what...to what...to you?"

"To humanity," I said, "You're perpetuating hate and violence."

Their "leader," the one with the short dark hair, muttered something about me being a "Christ killer."

"I asked you why you were wearing the flag, and you're trying to incite me."

"Wah, wah, wah," one of them heckled.

"Are you a racist club? What kind of racist club are you?" I asked, and repeated, "What kind of racist club are you?"

The leader actually mumbled something about being "the chosen club."

I later learned from a former APD detective that I should have just called 911 as soon as trouble began, but at that moment, shaken as I was to be this abused, I simply kept my camera pointed at them from a safe distance and yelled over to them, "I'll be sure to report your racist activities!" I did call the park police to report it later that day for the record.

Then they began chanting "safe space! safe space! safe space!" like a brainwashed cheerleading squad trained for such choreographed antics at a Trump rally. Just when I thought it couldn't get any worse, one of them says to me, "You're the only one getting your panties in a wad."

"She might not be wearing any panties. Jews don't wear panties," another taunted.

Just when I thought it couldn't get any worse, one of them says to me, "You're the only one getting your panties in a wad."

"She might not be wearing any panties. Jews don't wear panties," another taunted.

Yikes, misogyny AND anti-Semitism. Who preps these louts? I told them they were disgusting towards multiple times as they made to leave and walked towards the concession building. All they could muster was a feeble "is that what Hillary taught you?"

I thought they were gone, but maybe a half hour later they came barreling down the mountain as I talked with one of the regulars at the mountain, Tony "Guitar Man" Taylor, about what had happened.

"There they are, Tony!" I said.

Tony confronted them and demanded they apologize to me, but of course they didn't. They kept walking, and you could tell they didn't want to mess with Tony—and just look at guys like this. Weak all by themselves but gaining perilous momentum to commit god knows what as a gang.

Here are some of Tony's thoughts about racism from August 7, 2015:

It's been almost two months since this happened, but it still disturbs me deeply—and it should greatly trouble you, too, that Donald Trump and his ilk inspire such odious and divisive behavior. The very people he riled up will still walk among us with such hate in their hearts long after the election and will continue to pose a danger to democracy and humanity. To these alt-right bigots I say, I am all for free speech and defend your right to say it—and my right to speak out against reprehensible people like you—but I do not defend what you say or find it fair or just. Free speech is a privilege as much as it is a right. When you infringe upon people's pursuits of happiness and safety with your hate speech—trying to stoke fear the day before the anniversary of 9/11, as you shout "Build the wall!" within earshot of Mexicans at a public park no less—you just prove yourselves to be huge un-American jerks.

White Fringe: White Genocide is real. We just want to be left alone.
Black Mainstream: It should be legal for Blacks to murder White ppl.

Black lawyer: Free anyone charged with murdering whites

By PAUL BEDARD (@SECRETSBEDARD) · 12/8/16 8:36 AM

In a new wrinkle in the "black lives matter" movement, an editor of a top-rated legal website is calling on blacks to scare whites by automatically acquitting African-Americans accused of murdering or raping whites, no matter what the facts.

On Above The Law, African-American editor Elie Mystal called for "jury nullification" by blacks when on juries in trials that focus on white victims.

"Jury nullification would get white people's attention. Remember how pissed-off white people were about O.J.? And that was just one dude.

@adamcurry @THErealDVORAK legitimately interesting: 4chan anon's insight on John Oliver

Anonymous (ID: 0t8wMz) 11/07/16(Mon)18:06:28 No.96606936 >>96607422 >>96607604 >>96607932 >>96608006 >>96608153
File: 99c8eb8bfc63dd0e2e2ee35c(...).jpg (302 KB, 1170x1080)

>>96600927 (OP)

The subject of john oliver came up when a colleague (fellow psychologist) and I were discussing politics a few months ago. Although we were both in agreement regarding the general shitbub inanity of the HBO show, my friend was surprised when I explained that the real insidiousness of it is its unmistakably hypnotic structure and pacing.

Vertical sidebar of tweets from @slpng_giants and others, including a 'CONFIRMED LIST' and mentions of 'BREITBART STORE' and 'NPR'.

I ended up pulling up an episode or two off of youtube to show her what I meant. All of the segments I've ever seen from this show follow the same repetitive format: present some "argumentation" and "facts" for about 10 seconds, then quickly follow these up with a snarky quip (which themselves overwhelmingly take the form of complete non-sequitur or otherwise absurd metaphor) before any rational processing of the preceding argument can take place in the mind of the viewer. Further telling is that the only 'beats' or mental pauses in the show's pacing exist solely to highlight the approving laughter or applause of the studio audience. Repeat this basic formula without variation 20-40 times in a row and you have one of the 12-20 minute 'segments' that form the backbone of the show.

The end effect is (obviously) not to deliver information, but rather to literally teach the viewers -- on a subconscious level -- to mentally associate derisive laughter with any person or opinion that is at odds with the narrative's take on the chosen issue. And it accomplishes this by maintaining a strict adherence to a roughly 20-second cycle in which a stimulus is presented, and a response is cued. This is the sense in which the show is fundamentally hypnotic in effect -- even moreso than its precursors in the genre (Daily Show, Colbert, etc).

To my mind, oliver's show is representative of the media's increasing mastery of the methodologies of mass conditioning; in fact it is almost such a perfect technical accomplishment that I would almost have to admire it on technical grounds, which moreover is in the hands of the entirely wrong people.

Never Trump Election Night Party

Public · event · by Andrew Weinstein and 2 others

Interested Going More

Please join your fellow #NEVERTRUMP Republicans (and some friends from across the aisle) on election night to celebrate the end of this historically-awful campaign season and the electoral repudiation of Donald Trump and all he represents.

To honor the GOP's once and future values, we will be gathering to watch the election night results at Lincoln bar and restaurant at 1110 Vermont Avenue NW.

The bar is arranging for multiple TVs, so we can watch the Trump dumpster fire burn itself out across all of the major networks, and there will be drink specials with good dates to them!

Tuesday, November 8 at 6:30 PM - 11:30 PM EST

LS1
about 2 weeks ago

with candidate themes

Lincoln Restaurant DC
1110 Vermont Ave NW, Washington, District of Columbia
20005

Please invite friends or family to join us as well, but ask them to RSVP if they plan to attend, so we can ensure the bar has sufficient staff and libations on hand.

John & Tony PODESTA match police sketches of suspects in Madeleine McCann KIDNAPPING! 🤔🤔🤔

Have you seen these people? Do you know who they might be?

These two pictures show a man carrying a child away from the family's apartment. The sighting was seen by a witness at 21:13 on the evening of Thursday May 3rd 2007.

Based on more recent information, the Metropolitan Police now believe this man may represent a suspect in the case of the child who was carrying the daughter back to their apartment. However, it is not possible to be certain that these two men are actually the same person, if you have seen this man in the past, or suspect who it may be, please contact the Metropolitan Police's OPERATIONAL GRAVITY on 0207 526 5000 (lines 2007 526 5000) from outside the UK) or operationalgravity@met.police.uk and/or the PAOL Helpline team on +44 045 830 9000 or www.met.police.uk.

TOTAL POLICING

The picture shows a man that was seen several times by different witnesses during the days leading up to Madeleine's abduction on May 3rd 2007. He was described as ugly with pock-marked skin and was said to be watching the family's apartment intently.

If either of these men appear familiar to you in some way, please contact our investigation team as soon as possible.

This is an in-RP picture of a woman aged 30-35 years, approx. 5ft 7" tall, who was behaving suspiciously in the area of the Port Chapin House in Barcelona in the early hours of May 3rd 2007. She is a person of interest to the inquiry - as are, undoubtedly.

If you know or suspect who she is - please contact the investigation hotline.

M...me on the l-left...

Kak posted:

I think a coworker has asperger's or autism, and I'm not sure how to approach it.

He's a really smart guy but very reserved and quiet. Early on, I told him to come out of his shell and talk to people, and work would go a lot smoother. For context for what happened - we work on a production line for ketchup, and see glass and plastic bottles, boxes, and those little containers you get at restaurants.

So my coworker comes in to work one day and everything seems okay. Then he grabs 2 bottles of ketchup off the line, bangs em together so they break open, and starts pouring ketchup over his face. He then yells out

"If you wanna see Stone Cold [his actual name] drink another beer, gimme a hell yeah!"

Everybody just stared in horror, but he wasn't done. He started kicking the shit out of a bunch of boxes that were stored under the belt. Our supervisor came by at this point and pulled him away. He didn't get fired but I assume he was told to never do this again.

Then a few days later he shows up to work with a little blue tooth speaker. He starts playing Hulk Hogan's theme song (I am a real American...) and starts running around the place cupping his ear and pointing at people. He stopped when the bell sounded for the belt to start and never mentioned it again.

The best friend I ever had... he was a real asshole and a total dickhead. He was a real asshole and a total dickhead. He was a real asshole and a total dickhead. What kind of the last incident happened yesterday - we were on lunch break and i was eating a sandwich. the comes up to the and says is that pie you re eating there? what kind of pie. is it poontang pie? THE ROCK SAYS IT DOESNT MATTER WHAT YOUR NAME IS" and then walks off. He never said a word to me afterwards and i was too weirded out to approach him myself.

TLDR - I think my coworker is autistic and uses pro wrestling to reach out to us. It's falling horribly.

 #BlackLivesMatter 🍌🍌 at UMich has these TWELVE demands, over the first flier.
 (Never mind that they're advocating for segregation)

2016.

- Create a space for black students and other people of color without white students, before the Launch of the Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Plan on Thursday, October, 6th at 9:00 am. This space needs to be accessible (both physically and temporally) for the students that want to be addressed by you.
- Declare solidarity with us as black students and students of color, as well as with those same students at Eastern Michigan University and other schools in the nation who experience racism and anti-Blackness on campus.
- Address the current events regarding police brutality and recognize how that impacts Black
- Continuously provide safe spaces for both Black students and other students of color to talk about the DEI plan as it's being implemented without white students.
- Create a unique short-term emergency plan with Black and POC student input made paramount--meant to address and redress issues within the next year.
- Rename buildings to reflect students on campus and also to acknowledge the harm that the people the buildings are named after have caused.
- Create a protocol that is more accessible for the movement that was presented two years ago.
- Create a permanent designated space on central campus for black students and students of color to organize, and do social justice work. This is not the same as Trotter Multicultural Center, because we want a space solely dedicated to community organizing and social justice work specifically for people of color.
- Display a Black Lives Matter flag, as a physical symbol of solidarity for black students on campus. Along other clear policy changes that we are demanding, this is the recognition that students have said that they need in order to feel safe on this campus. Black Lives Matter is not a political issue - it is a human rights issue, fighting if someone ever asks me why I think miscegenation is a disgusting blight on our peoples, quotes like these are great examples.

Angelina Jolie: 'My blonde-haired natural daughter Shiloh is the outcast in our family'

Angelina Jolie, the actress, has a natural daughter, Shiloh, who is blonde-haired and blue-eyed. Jolie has said that Shiloh is the outcast in her family because she is not mixed-race. Jolie has said that Shiloh is the outcast in her family because she is not mixed-race. Jolie has said that Shiloh is the outcast in her family because she is not mixed-race.

This plan is as old as the hills...or Hillary

Beware the Useful Idiots

submitted by Garret Geer

Recall that Hillary did her college thesis on his writings and Obama writes about him in his books.

Saul Alinsky died about 43 years ago, but his writings influenced those in political control of our nation today.

Died: June 12, 1972, Carmel-by-the-Sea, CA
Education: University of Chicago

Spouse: Irene Alinsky
Books: Rules for Radicals, Reveille for Radicals

Anyone out there think that this stuff isn't happening today in the U.S.?

All eight rules are currently in play.

How to create a social state by Saul Alinsky:

There are eight levels of control that must be obtained before you are able to create a social state. The first is the most important.

1) Healthcare – Control healthcare and you control the people.

2) Poverty – Increase the Poverty level as high as possible; poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them to live.

3) Debt – Increase the debt to an unsustainable level. That way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.

4) Gun Control – Remove the ability to defend themselves from the government. That way you are able to create a police state.

5) Welfare – Take control of every aspect of their lives (Food, Housing, and Income).

6) Education – Take control of what people read and listen to – take control of what children learn in school.

7) Religion – Remove the belief in the God from the government and schools.

8) Class Warfare – Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. This will cause more discontent, and it will be easier to take (tax) the wealthy with the support of the poor.

Does any of this sound like what is happening to the United States?

Alinsky merely simplified Vladimir Lenin's original scheme for world conquest by communism, under Russian rule. Stalin described his converts as "Useful Idiots."

The Useful Idiots have destroyed every nation in which they have seized power and control. It is presently happening at an alarming rate in the U.S.

"It is difficult to free fools from the chains they revere."

"NAZI'S" NEVER EXISTED smoloko.com/?p=11570

Meet the Jew who created the word 'Nazi'

The term "Nazi" (along with "Nazism") is a political epithet invented by Konrad Heiden during the 1920's as a means of denigrating Hitler, the NSDAP and National Socialism. Heiden was a journalist and member of the Social Democratic Party.

The term "Nazi" is a variation of the nickname that was used in reference to members of Heiden's SDP at the time, "Sozi" (short for Sozialisten). "Nazi" was a political pun, based upon the Austro-Bavarian slang word for "simpleton" or "country bumpkin" and derived from the fairly common name Ignatz. It would be like saying "nutsy"

So, if for no other reason,

Hitler never made the word the Jewish controlled press

To draw recruits away from both the rival "right" Nationalists and "left" Socialist parties, Hitler simply adds National and Socialist to his party's name, making it NSDAP-The National Socialist German Workers Party (They never called themselves Nazis!)

To draw recruits away from the Red Communists, Hitler uses red flags with a symbol of the ancient Aryans of Asia

smoloko.com

This conspiracy of race supremacy has been attributed falsely to Adolf and exists only in Judaism

This falsification and propaganda is the false followers of a "false H

They are today called the "white supremacists" who follow this ideology that white people are smarter or well mannered just because they are whites or Christians.

To all you anti-semites and racists out there: consider this.

In 50 or 100 years, Israel will still be Jewish.

Your countries will NOT, however. Europe will be browner and blacker, and so will Asia. Chances are your grandchildren will not look like you and if they do, your great-grandchildren won't. My descendants will rule over your descendants who will learn to hate their own heritage and There is NOTHING you can do about it.

FOOD COMPANIES MUST PAY THESE ORGANIZATIONS FOR THEIR SEAL OF APPROVAL.

THE FOOD COMPANIES THEN PASS THIS EXPENSE ON TO THE CONSUMER.

THIS IS DONE WITH GOVERNMENT APPROVAL. NON-JEWS ARE FORCED TO PAY FOR A BLESSING THEY HAVE NO NEED FOR - AND IT ISN'T CHEAP!

How's this possible?

A bakery existed for 5 years and had 15 ovens to bake breads. Each oven could only bake one bread and hour.

$$15 \times 24 \text{ hours} = 360$$

$$360 \times 365 \text{ days} = 131.400$$

$$131.400 \times 5 \text{ years} = 657.000$$

Coulter has published opinions that could be read as obliquely critical of Israel, and she STILL hasn't apologized!

Deeper Than You Know

The Trump cheerleader shares his habit of promoting ethnic nationalists and their ugly ideas.

Coulter's accusation of hypocrisy in the passage from Adios, America! is not overtly directed at the Jews; but the implications of her taunt are unmistakable. Nor does she propose a "white homeland" or a right to self-determination for American whites as a group, as do many alt-rightists; she is simply quite explicit in her view that massive immigration should be opposed for racial reasons—because it "changes America's ethnicity."

Globalist	Nationalist
Open borders	Protected borders
Consumerism trumps culture	Culture trumps consumerism
Multiculturalism, diversity is virtue	Unified identity is virtue
Liberal democracy for all	Different models for different nations
"Davos Man"	"Paleo-Man"

Demographics is irrelevant	Demographics is destiny
Empire-building	Nation-unifying
Global solutions for local problems	Local solutions for local problems
Unarmed populace	Armed populace
Trust in central banking	Skepticism of central banking
Feminized, matriarchal	Masculinity valued, patriarchal

1939 marriage rating scale shipbrook.net/maritaltest/

WIFE'S GRADE
George W. Crane, Ph. D., M. D.
(Copyrighted)

In computing the score, check the various items under DEMERITS which fit the wife, and add the total. Each item counts one point unless specifically weighted as in the parentheses. Then check the items under MERITS which apply; now subtract the DEMERIT score from the MERIT score. The result is the wife's raw score. Interpret it according to this table:

RAW SCORES	INTERPRETATION
0 — 24.....	Very Poor (Failure)
25 — 41.....	Poor
42 — 58.....	Average
59 — 75.....	Superior
76 and up.....	Very Superior

DEMERITS	MERITS
1. Slow in coming to bed—delays till husband is almost asleep.	1. A good hostess—even to unexpected guests.
2. Doesn't like children. (5)	2. Has meals on time.
3. Fails to sew on buttons or darn socks regularly.	3. Can carry on an interesting conversation.
4. Wears soiled or ragged dresses and aprons around the house.	4. Can play a musical instrument, as piano, violin, etc.
5. Wears red nail polish.	5. Dresses for breakfast.
6. Often late for appointments. (5)	6. Neat housekeeper—tidy and clean.
7. Seams in hose often crooked.	7. Personally puts children to bed.
8. Goes to bed with curlers on her	8. Never goes to bed angry, always

Ideology: Far Right and Learning

Posted March 30, 2016

Hey there, I'm Phoenix.

I'm 26 from the South and I work in the legal industry.

I joined Iron March for a few reason, I'll just drop a small bio for my life to explain why.

I've always seen myself as looking for the truth and had a feeling it was outside most of the generally accepted perspectives or beliefs. I started thinking I was anti-right wing when I was young and thought Georgie W. was a fucking cunt who made everything worse for everyone. As I grew up through college, I thought truth could lie in the left, but could never buy all of their premises despite being in their dens of studying Psychology and Anthropology. I always though Boaz was a cunt, and little did I know how right I actually was. I generally thought "progressivism" was fine but held on to my racism because that was just basic common sense. /pol/ was always entertaining and I never considered many of their views to be serious until I heard my first speech by George Lincoln Rockwell. I almost cried. It fundamentally changed me, and I started getting more interested in the far right and wanted to get involved. I enjoy TRS quite a bit, but am also looking for more communities to join. Iron March seems to be a more serious community, and I very much appreciate that.

The only reason I don't call myself a fascist or a national socialist is because I don't have a strong grasp on economics enough to know exactly where I lie on the spectrum of policy. It's partially why I want a greater community network. I want to know more.

Anyways, thanks for reading my intro. I'll probably lurk a substantial amount more before I regularly post.

FOR COMPARISON: "PHOENIX REICH" DOORSTEP AND COOPER OLD RESIDENCE

Phoenix Reich
@BigButterNutJoe

Three weeks ago it was one bloom and a small growth, now it's about to explode with buds and growth. Very happy.

3:58 PM - 27 May 2016

Above: back door of Casey Cooper's old residence at Grape Street Apartments in Atlanta, March 2017. Cooper no longer lives at this space. Note that while items and arrangement changed since the "Phoenix Reich" photographs of May 2016, paint job and brickwork remained the same.

Why White Women Shouldn't Date Black

He's much more likely to abuse you

White women who marry black men multiply their chances of being killed by their spouses by 12.4 — a 1140% increase. The risk of nonfatal abuse and girlfriend abuse is also much higher with black men than white men, and blacks are twice as likely as whites to abuse their children.

He's much more likely to have STDs

- 1 in 16 black men has HIV. Compared to straight white men, straight black men are 15 times more likely to be diagnosed with HIV, and more likely to go undiagnosed as well. That's why over 50% of HIV/AIDS cases among white women result from having sex with black men.

- Black men are 8 times more likely than white men to have syphilis, 12 times more likely to have chlamydia, and 26 times more likely to have gonorrhea. Up to 78% have herpes.

Your kids probably wouldn't be smart

The average white IQ in America is 100, but the average black IQ is 85. Of course, you could date one of the few smart black men. However, regression to the mean is a law of biology: if a parent has an extreme trait, the children tend to be closer to average. Since 88% of blacks have IQs under 100 and only 2.3% are smart enough to earn a good degree, being smart is an extreme trait for blacks. Your kids would regress to a mean well below average for a white child.

You should probably just avoid black men

Blacks are more likely to commit every type of violent crime than whites: 4.0 times more likely for rape; 7.3 times, for gang rape; 7.6 times, for robbery; and 6.0 times, for murder. This is not accounted for by poverty or "police racism." Furthermore, black criminals target whites: they are more likely to attack whites than blacks.

The stories: horrific and sad

The stories below shouldn't be the data on race and crime. Mainstream media have ignore these crimes for decades because the black men look violent, racist and mis

Black man wipes out white exes, 10

In July 2011, Rodrick Dantzler (black) o Rapids massacred his estranged white wife, daughter (12), and his in-laws; his white ex-girlfriend, her sister, and her niece (10). Then he shot another white ex, and killed himself. He really liked white girls — until they left him.

"No, no, stop, stop, don't hurt me!"

Above: in April 2011, neighbors heard Sarah Coit (23) screaming for her life for 20 minutes before police found her, nearly decapitated by the black man she'd just tried to break up with.

"I'm dying! He's stabbed me to death"

Above: in November 2008, model Amy Barnes (19), who liked to date black athletes, called for help as she bled to death slowly from nine stab wounds and a four-inch slash right across her face, all inflicted by her live-in black boyfriend.

Starts with brutal rape; gets much worse

Left: in March 2008, model Katie Piper (24) tried to end a two-week affair with Daniel Lynch after he'd held her captive for eight hours, raped her and smashed her head open. Not yet ready to let go, Lynch had another black man burn her face off with acid. She lost vision in one eye, too.

WHITE POWER/NEO-NAZI STICKERS IN MIDTOWN ATLANTA, DECEMBER 2016

These stickers (and similar) were found and removed in Midtown Atlanta on December 15, 2016. The designs originate from Tightrope, a Klan/neo-Nazi business. These stickers were placed on Spring Street between 17th and 18th, as well as on 17th between Spring Street and West Peachtree Street. In other words: they all appeared within a block of Atlanta's John Marshall Law School. (The stickers were also a block away from the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta, which is near John Marshall.) These Tightrope designs as well as many other white power stickers surfaced in the Inman Park neighborhood of Atlanta – a short walk from Casey Cooper's old residence in the Old Fourth Ward – during the time Cooper lived there.

Va. mayor: Torchlit rally at Robert E. Lee statue evokes 'days of KKK'

Charlottesville, Va.'s mayor said a torchlit rally held by white nationalists Saturday night "was either profoundly ignorant or was designed to instill fear in our minority populations in a way that hearkens back to the days of the KKK."

In a statement posted to Facebook \(https://www.facebook.com/permalink.php?story\_fbid=10155255452655629&id=51200715628\), Charlottesville Mayor Mike Signer suggested the rally was meant to intimidate supporters of the planned removal of Confederate statues in the city in central Virginia (<http://www.charlottesville.org/>), home to the University of Virginia and Monticello (<http://home.monticello.org/>), Thomas Jefferson's historic home. "We are a Welcoming City, but such intolerance is not welcome here," Signer wrote.

Signer's statement was a reaction to a small nighttime rally at the city's Lee Park led by white nationalist Richard Spencer and others. Participants chanted, "We will not be replaced," "Russia is our friend" and "Blood and soil," a historic Nazi chant, ABC News reported \(http://abcnews.go.com/Politics/mayor-charlottesville-calls-pro-confederate-rallies-horrific/story?id=47404820\).

The protest came in response to a Nov. 28 city council vote to remove a statue of Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee at the park and sell it. A court injunction has halted the removal for six months. The city also plans to rename Lee Park as well as another park named after Confederate Gen. Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson.

Signer called the protest “horrific,” noting that it coincided with Lee Park’s Festival of Cultures event, which celebrates the city’s cultural and linguistic diversity. He said it wasn’t immediately clear whether the timing was intentional.

Saturday night’s rally was actually the second event protesting removal of the Lee statue, local news reported. An earlier rally brought clashes between supporters of “white heritage” and detractors of the monument, WVIR-TV reported (<http://www.nbc29.com/story/35422510/lee-statue-removal-protesters-clash-scuffle-with-supporters-at-park>). Spencer said the afternoon demonstration, which was at the city’s Jackson Park, was peaceful, but police responded to a scuffle that broke out between sides.

Spencer, known for popularizing the phrase "alt right," spoke at the afternoon event, telling onlookers, "I'm here to take part in this great celebration of our heritage and to say 'no' to the city of Charlottesville. You're not going to tear down our statue and you're not going to replace us."

"We're not white supremacists," said protester Orry Von Dize. "We are simply just white people that love our heritage, our culture, our European identity."

Defense of the statue has become a rallying cry for Republican gubernatorial candidate Corey Stewart, a one-time chairman of Donald Trump's Virginia campaign.

There was no indication that Stewart attended either rally, The Washington Post reported (https://www.washingtonpost.com/local/virginia-politics/alt-rights-richard-spencer-leads-torch-bearing-protesters-defending-lee-statue/2017/05/14/766aaa56-38ac-11e7-9e48-c4f199710b69\_story.html?hpid=hp\_hp-top-table-main\_vaspencer-1055am%3Ahomepage%2Fstory&utm\_term=.197bff3051a3#comments), but in the past he has defended the Confederate battle flag and Civil War-era monuments, saying he is not promoting symbols of hate but battling political correctness and "historical vandalism."

Cries for removal of Confederate imagery nationwide began shortly after the 2015 shooting deaths of nine parishioners at historic Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, S.C., and the subsequent removal of the battle flag from the grounds of the South Carolina Statehouse. The gunman was a self-avowed white supremacist.

On Thursday, a statue of Confederate President Jefferson Davis was taken down in New Orleans, the second of four monuments in that city scheduled for removal. Late last month, the city removed a 35-foot tall granite obelisk tribute to whites who battled a biracial Reconstruction government installed in New Orleans after the Civil War.

“PHOENIX-GA” CONFIRMS ATTENDANCE AT CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA AUGUST 12, 2017 “UNITE THE RIGHT” RALLY

On August 12, 2017, hundreds of white nationalists rallied in Charlottesville, Virginia for a “Unite the Right” protest, which was planned as a larger follow-up to the racist mass demonstration in May. The rally was eventually shut down by police after violence escalated. Later, white supremacist and “Unite the Right” participant James Alex Fields, Jr. rammed his car into a crowd of anti-racist counter-protesters, murdering Heather Heyer and injuring over a dozen more.

Following the Charlottesville events, records of “Unite the Right” planning on Discord chat servers were linked on the independent news site Unicorn Riot (see: <http://www.unicornriot.ninja/?p=18284> ). “Phoenix-GA” confirmed participation at the Charlottesville rally on June 6, 2017 – this name is reminiscent of Cooper’s aliases of “Phoenix,” “Phoenix Reich,” and so on. If you have footage or photos of Cooper at the “Unite the Right” event, please contact Atlanta Antifascists.
