Move quickly

with intelligent search capabilities and fast navigation options that take you right to the answers you need, whether you're doing a quick look-up or highly specialized research.

- Search the way you think with the revolutionary Intuitive Search – designed specifically for the specialized needs of tax and accounting professionals, enabling you to instantly filter, rank and deliver search results with unprecedented levels of accuracy and relevance.
- Find trusted answers fast on federal and state individual and business tax topics with Answer Path.
- Move quickly between related documents in context of the document you are viewing with side panel navigation.
- Personalize your home page for quick access to the specific content and search tools you use most frequently.

“Getting the right answer fast is the Holy Grail of tax research, and Thomson Reuters Answer Path is a great new way to do that for questions on federal individual income tax returns.”

— Accounting Today Top New Products for 2017 (Honorable Mention)

“The editorial expertise in Checkpoint is wonderful. You can look at it quickly and get the idea very quickly or delve in more deeply.”

— Tracy Koziel,
Eby Brown and Company

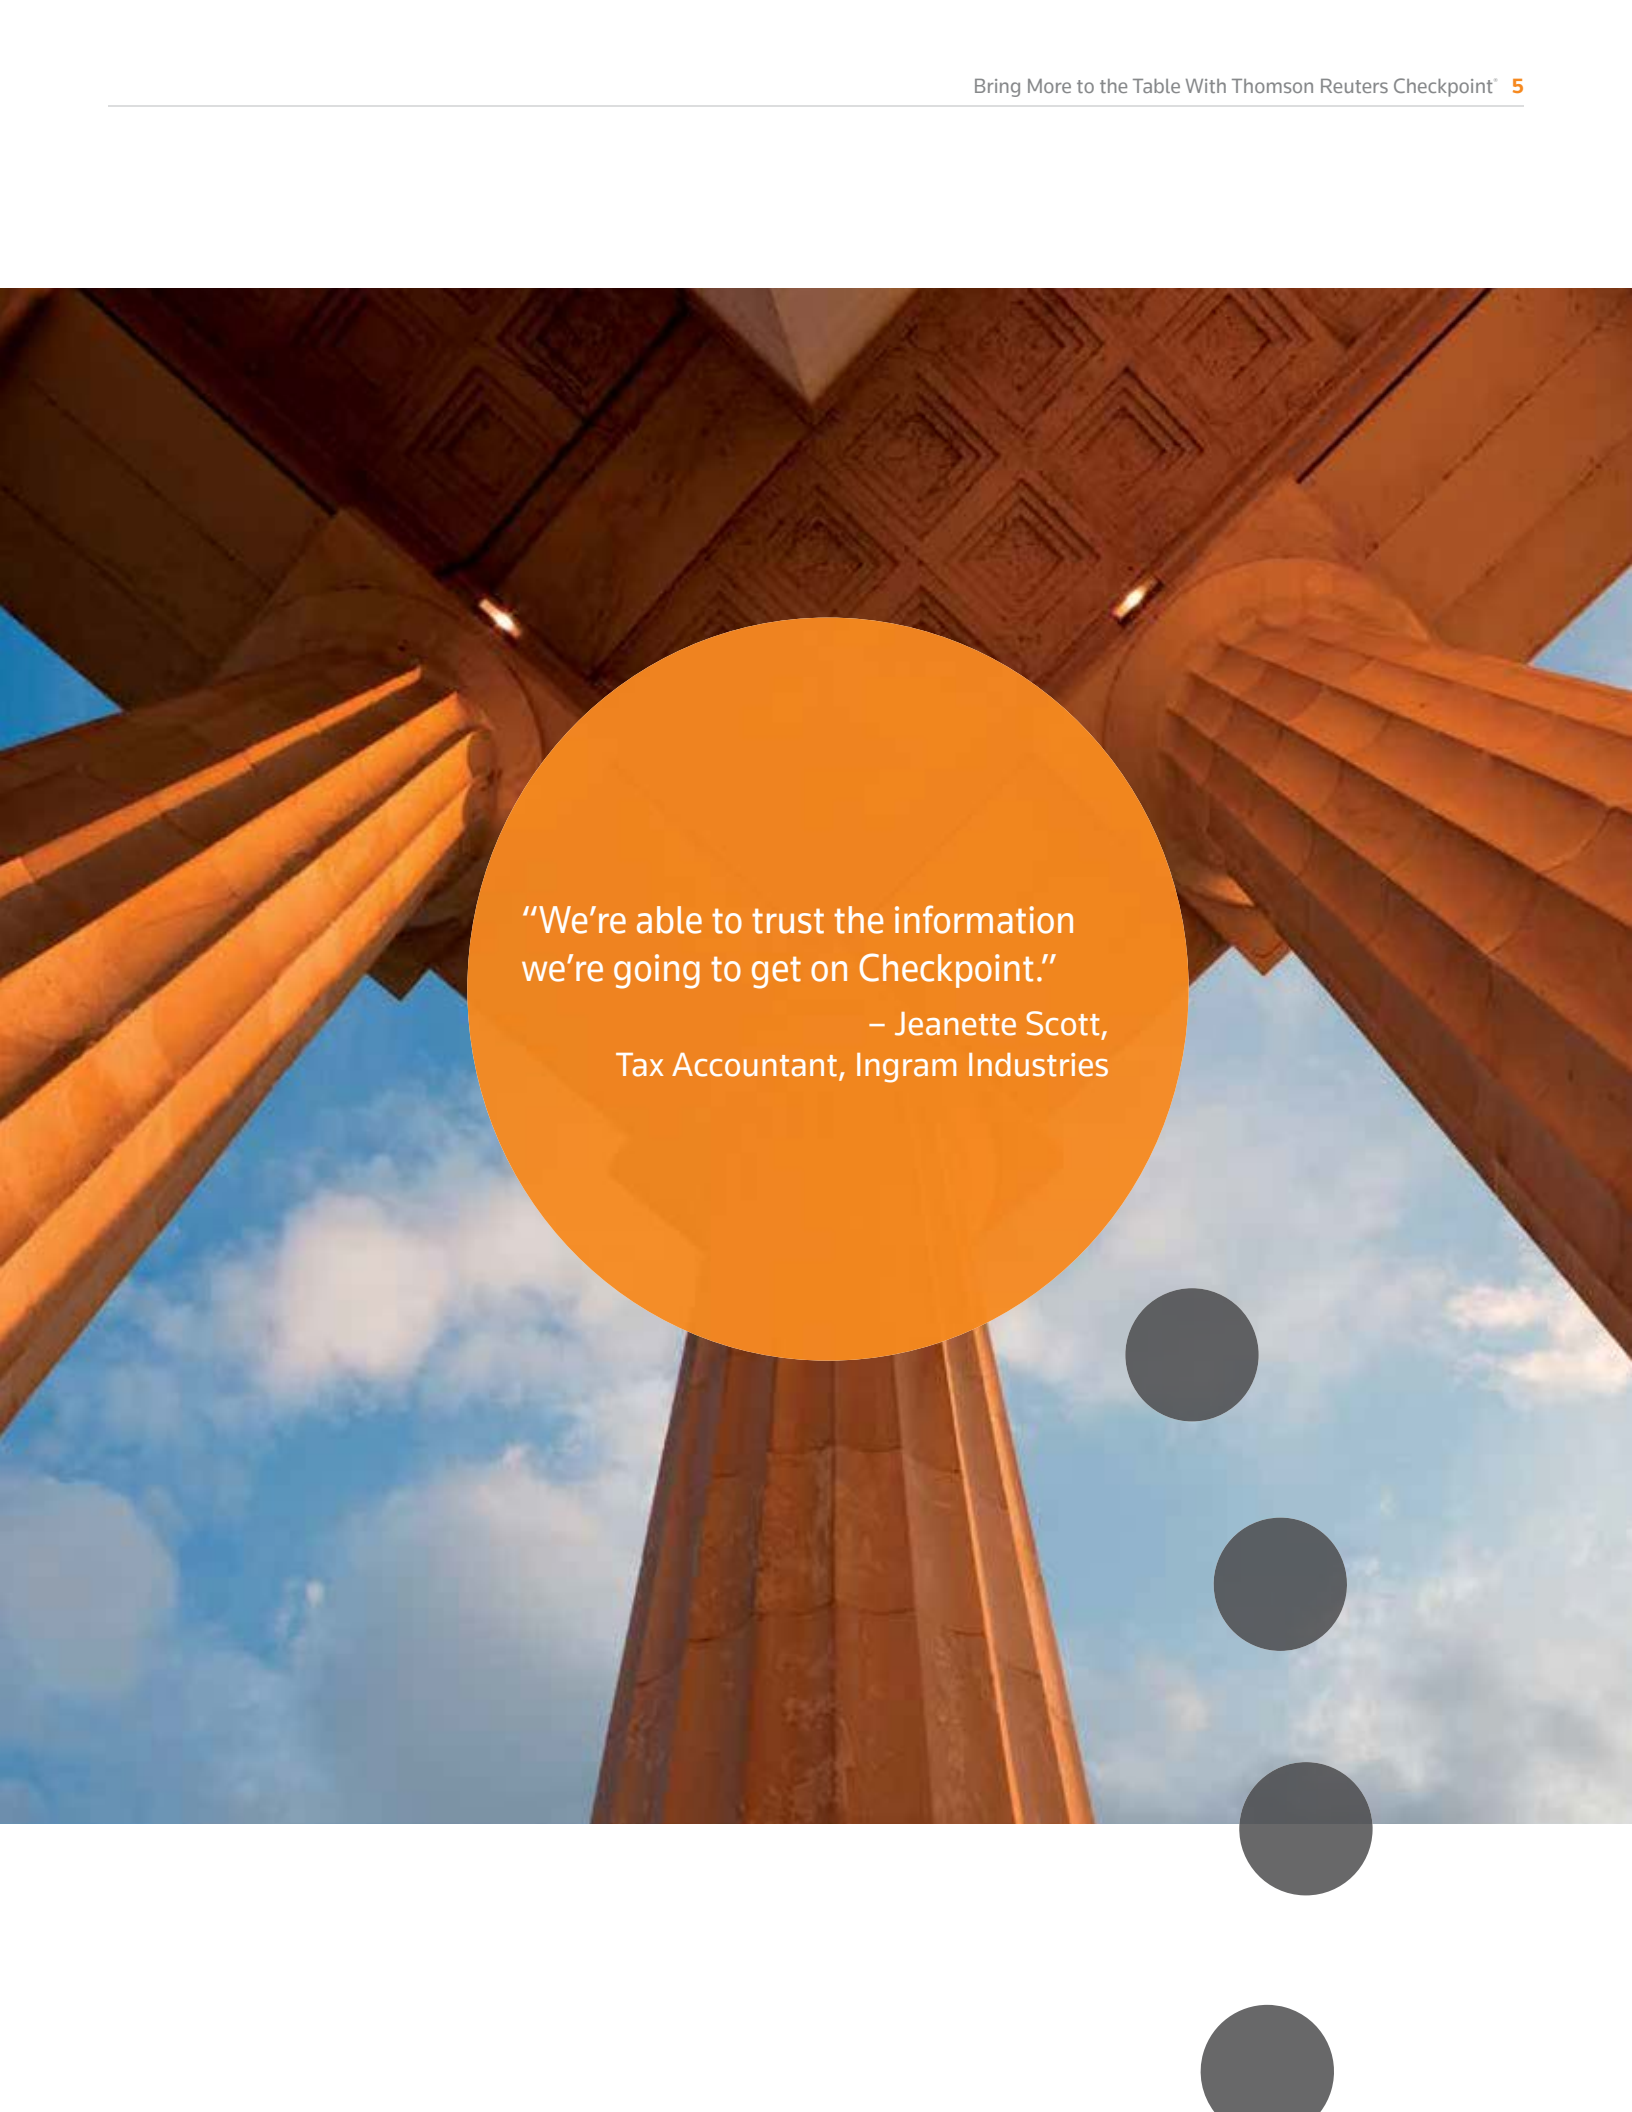

Consider all angles

with authoritative, clear and comprehensive guidance from our leading industry experts including PPC®, WG&L®, RIA®, IBFD and Orbitax for tax and accounting professionals, EBIA® for employee benefits professionals and Boskage for global trade professionals.

- Gain a well-rounded understanding of the issue you are researching with practical guidance and real-life examples as well as expert viewpoints on developing areas of the law.
- Quickly clarify or support your conclusions using embedded top line and side line links to related Checkpoint documents.
- Go directly from a code subsection to paragraph-specific analysis in our WG&L treatises (regularly cited by the courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court).

Topics covered in Checkpoint include:

Federal Tax
State and Local Tax
International Tax
Business Tax
Individual Tax
Tax Planning
Audit and Accounting
Corporate Finance
International Trade
Estate Planning
Payroll
Pension and Benefits

“We’re able to trust the information
we’re going to get on Checkpoint.”

– Jeanette Scott,
Tax Accountant, Ingram Industries

“The rave feedback that we’ve gotten from our staff on the quality of the product, the ease of getting information, the ease of research ... it’s just a tremendous change from where we were prior to moving over to Checkpoint.”

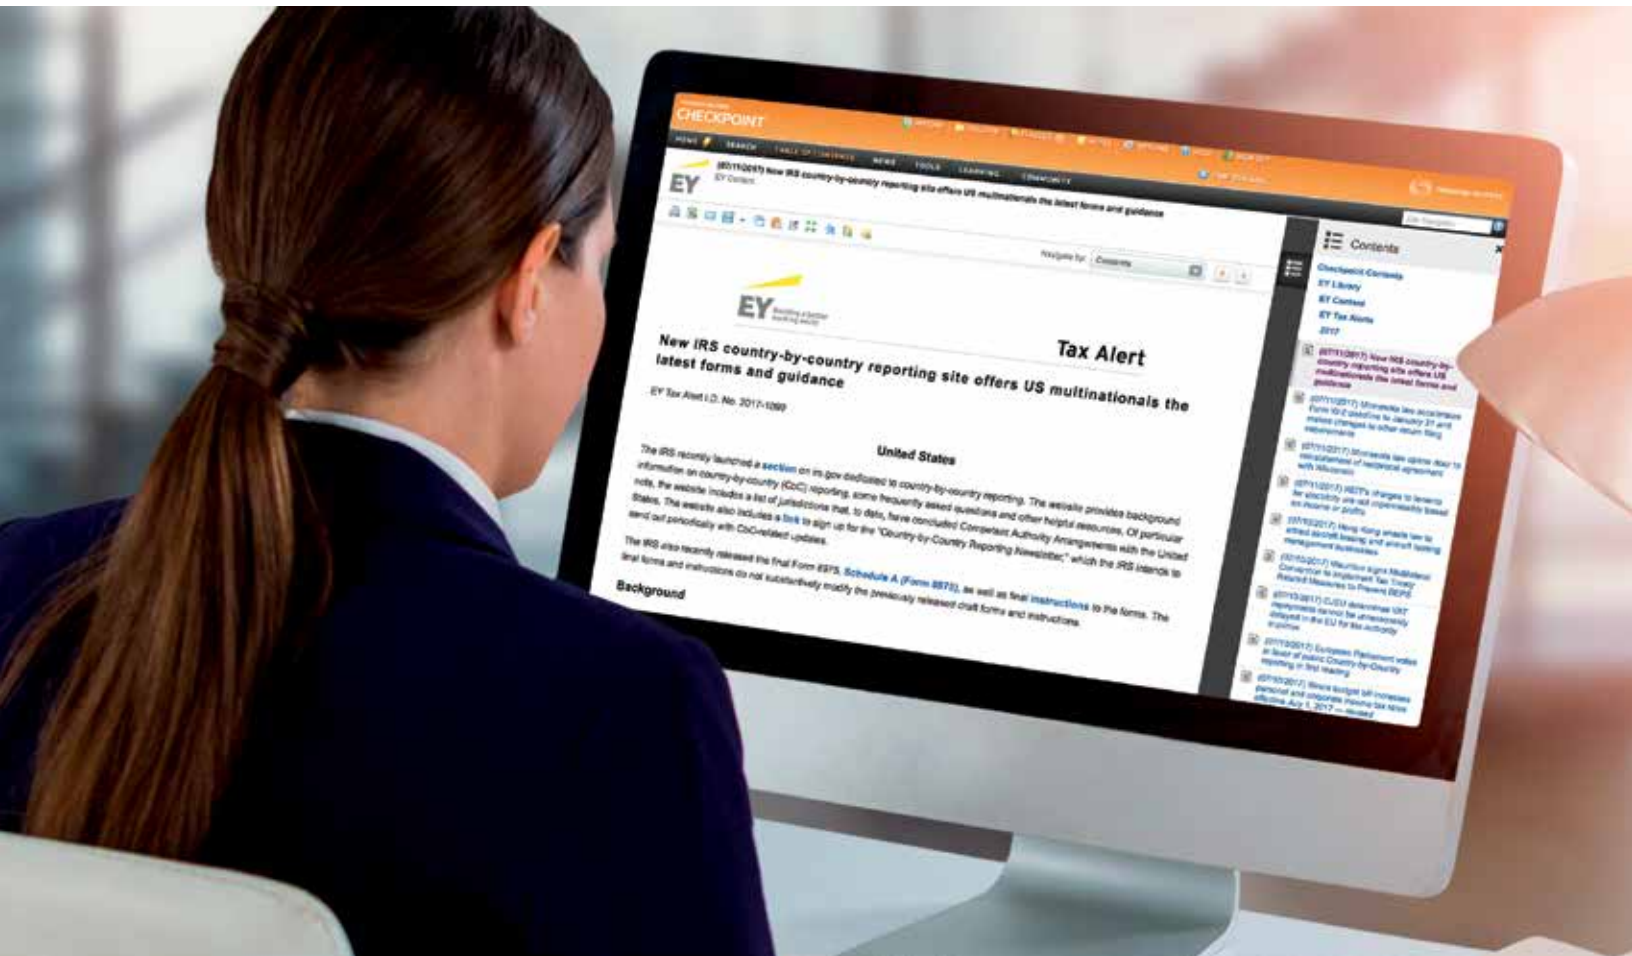

– Dennis Sherrin, Managing Partner, Hartmann, Blackmon and Kilgore

Reduce uncertainty and risk through the depth and detail of Checkpoint content integration. Checkpoint connects related analysis so you can gauge how various industry experts view an issue from a range of vantage points, such as tax, assurance and financial reporting. Links to primary law sources are at the most granular level needed to quickly read and cite controlling authorities.

- Eliminate the need to piece together tax law changes in order to obtain a current understanding of federal or state law. The topically-arranged Checkpoint Federal Tax Coordinator, code-arranged Checkpoint U.S. Tax Reporter and our comprehensive State Reporters quickly incorporate law changes into the analysis using “in-place supplementation.”
- See the relationship between cases and rulings, as well as later citations, with Checkpoint Premium State Tax Citator and Checkpoint Citator 2nd - enhanced with editorial evaluations and judicial histories including “overruled by” legislation.
- Quickly go to the relevant discussion in the full text of a federal tax case or IRS ruling using the editorial enhancements – including prior histories for cases, cautions for rulings, numbered headnotes by issue and links to all referenced source material.
- Go from the Internal Revenue Code directly to analysis of recent legislation that impacted a code section using the New Law link, and see pending legislation via Checkpoint Bill Tracker.

Anticipate changes and stay current with the latest law developments through daily news, alerts and legislative highlights delivered directly to your inbox, including a range of personalization options to tailor your choice of coverage to your specific needs.

- Stay on top of law developments on topics of interest to you with customizable daily news, including RIA Daily Updates, EY Tax Alerts and more.
- Receive alerts whenever a court case, IRC subsection, IRS ruling or reporting standard from FASB, GASB, IASB, SEC, AICPA or PCAOB is cited, superseded or affected by a new development using Checkpoint Trackers.
- Learn what developments mean for you and your clients with expert views that go beyond the headlines to provide guidance on what to do and the tools to get it done.
- Monitor current developments and get notifications of legislative, regulatory or judicial changes within a specified date range with Checkpoint Income Tax Developments Wizard.

"I would recommend Checkpoint (Credits and Incentives) Pinpointer to other accounting firms no matter what the size, large or small, because it is the quick way to identify potential benefits for your clients."

— Shawndel Rose, Manager of State and Local Tax at RubinBrown LLP

Conduct audits efficiently

Increase accuracy and simplify your audit process from start to finish with Checkpoint Engage, the only fully integrated online audit solution.

- Save even more time on engagements with everything all in one place. Checkpoint Engage integrates seamlessly with Thomson Reuters AdvanceFlow®.
- Take advantage of unmatched flexibility for a risk-based audit approach scalable for any size engagement.
- Easily share information and coordinate multi-location audits without version control issues.
- Enhance your firm's security and control of sensitive data.

“With Checkpoint Engage, the biggest advantage is its full integration with AdvanceFlow. We are able to fill out documents online in real time – all stored in the cloud. We never have to worry about losing data. Plus it automatically rolls over, so when we go to do next year's work, the information is already there. That could save us 30 – 35% of the time in our planning stage.”
