

THE LIBERATOR

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON AND ISAAC KNAPP, PUBLISHERS.

NO. 60.

FOR THU.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ALL MANKIND

(SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1832.)

THE LIBERATOR

IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY
AT NO. 11, MERCHANTS' HALL.

W. LLOYD GARRISON, EDITOR.

- AGENTS.
- Bangor.
 - Portland.
 - New-Hampshire.
 - Acworth.
 - Windham.
 - Massachusetts.
 - Amsbury.
 - Newburyport.
 - Newbury.
 - Salem.
 - Lynn.
 - New-Berford.
 - Nantucket.
 - Fall River.
 - Stetson.
 - Providence.
 - Keegan.
 - Traver.
 - New-Haven.
 - North.
 - Yonkers.
 - New-York City.
 - Brooklyn.
 - Hudson.
 - Highgate.
 - Albany.
 - Elmira.
 - Richmond.
 - Buffalo.
 - Watertown.
 - Syracuse.
 - Wilmington.
 - Newark.
 - Trenton.
 - Philadelphia.
 - Pittsburg.
 - Harrisburg.
 - Jennersville.
 - Carlisle.
 - Lebanon.
 - Patterson.
 - Williamport.
 - Way Mills.
 - Wilkes Barre.
 - New-Hope.
 - Cincinnati.
 - Spruce Vale.
 - Chillicothe.
 - Washington.
 - Hudson.

THE LIBERATOR

It was never given by God to man to hold his fellow man in bondage. Every thing short of a total abolition of slavery is considered as unwholesome, and ending only in disappointment and discontent. The supporters of the abolition of slavery took their stand upon the eternal principles of truth and justice, and they will be as true to the principles of truth and justice as the sun to the sky.

PROSPECTUS OF THE LIBERATOR.

VOLUME III.

We aim to overthrow slavery in this country, by the following means:

- Because the subject is regarded and treated as a crime, as a sin, and is attended with eternal penalties.
- Because it leaves more than two millions of men, women and children without any protection for their persons.
- Because it is the compromising enemy of knowledge, virtue and religion.
- Because it is altogether and absolutely a system of adultery, prostitution, cruelty and theft.
- Because it is the fruitful cause of discord, division and outrage.
- Because it is contrary to the law of God.
- Because it necessarily makes the oppressor and the oppressed mutual enemies, breeds insurrection, multiple crimes, weakens the bonds of society, and jeopard the lives, happiness and interests of all parties.
- Because it retards the progress of the world, impoverishes those who uphold it, dishonors the American name, and exposes our land to the moral judgments of Heaven.

Hence, we draw the conclusion that it ought to be annihilated, now and forever. Time can not mitigate it, and if it could, its essential nature can never be changed.

By immediate emancipation we do not mean—that the slaves shall be turned loose upon the nation, to roam as vagabonds or aliens—or that they shall be instantly invested with all political rights and privileges.

That they shall be expelled from their native land to a foreign clime, as the price and condition of their freedom.

But we mean—that, instead of being under the animated control of a few irresponsible masters, they shall realize the provisions of law.

That they shall be employed as free laborers to the power which is now vested in every slaveholder to rob them of their just dues, to drive them into the fields like beasts, to lacerate their bodies, to sell the husband from his wife, the wife from her husband, and children from their parents, shall instantly cease.

That the slave shall be employed as free laborer, fairly compensated, and protected in their earnings:

That they shall be placed under a benevolent and disinterested supervision, which shall secure to them the right to obtain secular and religious knowledge, to worship God according to the dictates of their consciences, to accumulate wealth, and to seek an intellectual and moral mastery over their white competitors.

To say that this transformation is impracticable at present, is nothing to the purpose: it is impracticable only because of obstinacy, prejudice, ambition and fear, on the part of the oppressor. Their duty is to break and imperish to break every yoke, under the heavy burdens, and let the oppressed go free, in obedience to the command of God. Because they refuse to do justly and love mercy now, it does not vacate their obligation to fulfill the royal law, instantly to abolish slavery.

We hope to be successful in our attempts to abolish slavery.

Not by exciting or encouraging the wicked rebel, for that would be perfidious and unwise.

Not by a physical interposition on the part of the free states, for that would be productive of war and anarchy.

Not by an universal exercise of political supremacy, for that would be despotism.

But by pricking the consciences of the planters—by faithfully showing them their guilt, infamy and danger—by appealing to their selfishness, on the score of pecuniary interest—by moral suasion—by converting the public sentiment against slavery—by inducing the pulp and the press to plead for those who are poor and needy, and bound with fetters—by constitutional authority, growing out of constitutional guilt and alliance—by the prodigal dissemination of anti-slavery tracts, pamphlets and petitions—by the formation of anti-slavery societies, uniting and co-operating together as temperance societies have done—by the constant presentation of motives, teaching every chord of the human heart—and by the use of those spiritual weapons which are the mighty, through God, to the pulling down of the strong holds of Satan.

The third volume of the Liberator will commence the first of January, 1833. During the brief term of its existence, it has succeeded, in despite of calumny and a strong opposition, in dispelling the apathy of the nation, creating an extraordinary and most auspicious interest for the oppressed, and securing a rigid investigation of the subject, and securing a host of moral volunteers who are pledged never to rest from the field. The wrongs of the slaves—the danger of keeping them longer in bondage—the duties giving them immediate freedom—are the topics of conversation or discussion in all domestic societies—in lyceums—in churches and steam-boats—in the pulpit and in periodicals—in the family circle, and between a man and his friend. The current of public sentiment is turning, and soon it will roll a mighty river, sweeping away in its beautiful and resistless career all the pollutions of slavery.

The Liberator is printed on a royal sheet, and issued every Saturday in October. It contains a valuable mass of anti-slavery information, as well as literary, miscellaneous and moral readings, and a summary of the news of the day. TERMS $2.00, payable in advance—$2.25 at the end of six months—$2.50 at the expiration of the year.

GARRISON & KNAPP.
Boston, Dec. 8, 1832.

LETTERS FROM ENGLAND.

The following letters from JAMES CROPPER of Liverpool, whose reputation as a merchant and philanthropist was known wherever civilization extended, cannot fail to make a deep and salutary impression in this country, especially upon the minds of the Friends, of whose Society he is a distinguished and influential member. It will be seen that he regards the American Colonization Society as a most unrighteous combination, and gives utterance to his moral indignation, and to his emphatic terms. We are now encouraged to believe that the successful career of Elliott Cresson is near its termination. We hope to see these highly important papers published in other papers. This is a Voice from England, that should be heard in every corner of our nation.

Boston, 8 mo. 31, 1832.

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

ESTERMEYER FRIEND—I have thy letter of the 7th May, which was highly acceptable. The details of my health, which required that I should abstain from writing or thinking of deeply interesting subjects, has induced me to be chiefly from home for several months past, not only for the benefit of the Waters, but also a change of air, and also quiet, which I could not have had at home; and this has not been my apology for not writing sooner.

I have been aware of thy unvaried efforts to promote the best interests of the African race, and feel much obliged by the proofs afforded in the writings sent to me, with which I agree in sentiment; and I trust the time is fast approaching, when the real friends of the Negro will win, when the false friends of the Negro will be unmasked, and seen, in its naked deformity, that most abominable attempt to perpetuate slavery, under the title of the American Colonization Society. The real good done by an establishment of free and civilized men on the coast of Africa, has deceived many real friends of humanity, and I should have done it before this (probably) if my health had permitted—but I rejoice in believing it will not be wanted. My zealous and devoted friend Capt. Stuart has published an excellent pamphlet, entitled "Remarks on the Colonization of Liberia, and the American Colonization Society," which very ably exposes this scheme.

In addition to the foregoing letters, we have received a long and interesting one from JOHN PHILLIPS, a sufferer in the cause of abolition, from which we select a few passages, and send thee a copy, to let thee see that measures were about to be taken to deceive the British public, in regard to the character of the Colonization Society.

Dingle Park, Sept. 16, 1832—Liverpool.

MY DEAR SIR—I am now answering your long looked for and welcome letter of 31st July, in the hospitable mansion of our mutual friend James Cropper, Esq. who also encloses a letter for you. Your letter contains excellent sentiments, and I trust, that your determination, correct views of slavery and that Satanic and diabolical combination and conspiracy against that most interesting portion of the population of the United States, the Colonization Society.

The little I have a devoted to this cause; if I can save only one slave from interminable slavery, or one free man of color from transportation to the Wilds of Liberia, I should think my life well spent; how much more, therefore, thousands and tens of thousands. I would rather be a door-keeper in this cause, than the greatest Colonizationist in America.

I send for your acceptance the 4th volume of the Anti-Slavery Reporter, and many loose numbers. Miss Eliza Cropper has added many numbers, and many other copies of Jeremiah's, Stuart's, and other tracts, which will not rest for want of subscribers against our common enemy. I shall in future follow up the supply with every thing published on this question, till freedom is proclaimed to the slave—a period I need not far distant.

I was consulting with James Cropper as to the best means to arrest the progress of Elliott Cresson in England. Himself and friends are now writing a Circular to be sent throughout the Kingdom. He is also going to write to the Anti-Slavery Committee to do the same. This is what I have long wanted, as E. Cresson gives his aid and influence to support the cause in co-operation always to sufficient language to condemn our Committee for suffering E. Cresson to assume our uniform, and borrow our colors, to carry on his impostures for the worst of purposes. Any measure to counteract it now, or almost too late, would be to pour oil on the fire, and to do one ounce of good by the commensuration of a large bucket of water at the commencement of a fire which is burned when it has obtained its climax. Had there been an organized opposition, emanating from our Committee, and transfused through Great Britain; even had the case or two solitary champions been supported, and not left to meet him single-handed, without friends and names except from their private invidious aid, had the negroes' friends encouraged instead of opposed; Capt. Stuart and myself, Cresson would have been obliged to leave our shores with indignity as a public impostor. It is not this I feel the loss of a very valuable correspondence. What we state here, he says is not supported by facts; therefore we want facts from the United States, from the persecuted class, not individually but in assembled Convocations, to meet a few isolated cases from gilded South Carolinians, who are glad to jump out of the frying-pan into the fire—out of civil and religious persecution into Liberia.

Before I leave Liverpool, in a day or two, I shall propose to form an Anti-Colonization Society—this the monster, which has transformed itself into an angel of light, will be seen in its true native colors—black, dark and murderous—its cloven foot, with its brazen front and venomous aspect, must be seen to identify this darling progeny of Proslavery-Slavery—and I believe in my letter to you, I proposed an exchange of newspapers with West India editor, many of whom are talented gentlemen of color. I have resided 28 years in Antigua, and visited several Islands; therefore I can form some opinion as to the advantages of a cordial co-operation, and of 105,000 free colored persons in the United States. This is the grand object I have in view; and when I look through the vista of futurity, I see immense advantages from it. This will resolve itself into three questions.

1st. The necessity for it. 2d. How must it be accomplished. 3d. The advantages from it.

1st. The necessity of it. At this crisis, there is a valuable by their money, influence and unanimous disapprobation of the treatment of their persecuted brethren.

2d. How must it be accomplished? Their latent but powerful energies should have been awakened by a pathetic appeal from the national convention, assembled in June, which may be substituted with the best that circumstances will admit, by an exchange of the Liberator, Georgia minutes papers; by a regular correspondence warmly kept up with them; by opening a commercial intercourse mutually limited to each party, and by deputations to each colony. The field is now open—the new order of things invites it; they have a right to the civil and religious liberty of the West India Colonies; they are geographically united—they may be politically—they ought to be commercially connected—by these bonds they will mutually protect each other against their oppressors.

3d. The advantages, &c. &c.—Immediate and prospective improvement of their brethren. Immediate advantage of sending their children for education to America, instead of England—the mutual benefit of trade being confided as much as possible to each other.

The free colored population, and their brethren now in slavery, must be masters of all the Slave Colonies before another generation passes away; to power on earth can prevent it. Opposition will only accelerate its progress. Nature and providence have ordained it, and it will be obeyed. An amalgamation of political and commercial interests will send the holy fraternal compact into the air, and render the whole world a mockery. Every day's delay injures both, and retards the grand consummation. The language being universally English, the communication is always open. The immense and rich resources developed by free labor will be at their own disposal, and will be the choice of their Agents in their colored brethren.

Our Anti-Slavery cause is progressing; more good has been done the last twelve months, than in the preceding ten years. We have declared our offensive war against our common enemy. Immediate Emancipation is the watchword. By the exertions of the Agency Anti-Slavery Society, the exertions of our Agents, the British Lion has been roused from his slumbers. The slave owners are trembling; and they only want to make a good bargain, to restore their stolen property to the many millions in the wilderness. Our Agents are travelling through every part of England; we have given a powerful bias in the future Elections of Members of Parliament. We urge our friends to demand of Immediate Emancipation; and we are determined to keep out, if possible, all slave owners as incompetent to make laws for free men. Ministers will is a sovereign remedy for the cold, cough, and all the ailments of the throat and lungs, leading to consumption. It is with any of these ailments, or in consequence of the highly-vital nature of the system, it is the most efficacious medicine, and is not only safe, but entirely non-toxic. The Liberator is a safe and efficacious remedy for the cold, cough, and all the ailments of the throat and lungs, leading to consumption. It is with any of these ailments, or in consequence of the highly-vital nature of the system, it is the most efficacious medicine, and is not only safe, but entirely non-toxic.

is a sovereign remedy for the cold, cough, and all the ailments of the throat and lungs, leading to consumption. It is with any of these ailments, or in consequence of the highly-vital nature of the system, it is the most efficacious medicine, and is not only safe, but entirely non-toxic.

is a sovereign remedy for the cold, cough, and all the ailments of the throat and lungs, leading to consumption. It is with any of these ailments, or in consequence of the highly-vital nature of the system, it is the most efficacious medicine, and is not only safe, but entirely non-toxic.

is a sovereign remedy for the cold, cough, and all the ailments of the throat and lungs, leading to consumption. It is with any of these ailments, or in consequence of the highly-vital nature of the system, it is the most efficacious medicine, and is not only safe, but entirely non-toxic.

is a sovereign remedy for the cold, cough, and all the ailments of the throat and lungs, leading to consumption. It is with any of these ailments, or in consequence of the highly-vital nature of the system, it is the most efficacious medicine, and is not only safe, but entirely non-toxic.

not dare refuse the unanimous commands of the nation, which will be made... Such a power will be given to the Atlantic provinces...

My excellent friend, Rev. Nathaniel Paul, is now travelling throughout England: he is a valuable man, and has discovered many...

Your letters... and Liberator have furnished abundant materials for Capt. Stuart to write another Pamphlet, on the subject of the Colonization Society...

May the God of all Grace bless, prosper and preserve you by his Almighty power, for Jesus Christ's sake, is the sincere prayer of your obliged friend, JOSEPH PHILLIPS.

We find in the London Anti-Slavery Reporter for January, 1831, the following sketch of a speech delivered by Mr. Phillips at a public meeting in England...

Mr. Joseph Phillips, in a speech of considerable length, detailed the circumstances of his own persecution in Antigua, and gave his testimony against the evils of slavery...

He mentioned that he had been confined to his bed for nearly a year, and that he had seen many of his fellow-creatures suffering in the same manner...

Mr. Phillips, in a speech of considerable length, detailed the circumstances of his own persecution in Antigua, and gave his testimony against the evils of slavery...

He mentioned that he had been confined to his bed for nearly a year, and that he had seen many of his fellow-creatures suffering in the same manner...

Mr. Phillips, in a speech of considerable length, detailed the circumstances of his own persecution in Antigua, and gave his testimony against the evils of slavery...

but there being white or free witnesses against him, the murderer escaped with impunity: if 500 slaves had seen it, they would not have been allowed to give any evidence...

From the Ever-Haven Religious Intelligence.

As a friend to the Colonization Society and an enemy to slavery, we admit the following with entire assent. We have not seen the pamphlet alluded to, and therefore cannot judge of its merits...

COLONIZATION AND SLAVERY.

Mr. Whiting-I have been reading Garrison's 'Thoughts on African Colonization,' and must confess I have been shaken in my former opinions on the subject...

I had thought that he was a wild enthusiast, in his plans in regard to the blacks; though I believed them to be good men and well meaning...

It is not my design to undertake the defence of Mr. Garrison, or to array myself against the Colonization Society...

Not that I am not a friend to the Society, and I am not without my own views on the subject...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

THE AFRICAN REPOSITORY.

Mr. Garlin, especially invites those who entertain doubts as to the character of the Colonization Society, to examine a 'Review of Pinckney's Address,' in the Repository for January, 1830...

It is no part of our creed that the Southern States are morally bound to proclaim immediate and universal emancipation. We are not a nation in the Southern Review we say of the situation of the people of these States was not that of a nation that was to be taken into consideration...

ERATED!!! and to it appears as evident that in the adoption and execution of the measures proposed to us, the welfare of the proprietors is to be regarded equally with those of the slaves, as that measure for the removal of the slaves, as that measure for the removal of the slaves...

Why has Louisiana resolved to expel them from her limits?—Here are actual proceedings amounting to more than a mere declaration of independence on the part of the State...

What has awakened that spirit of suspicion and enmity which is now manifested by these men in every form of open and secret hostility to the Society?

SLAVERY RECORD.

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

He said he would visit one of those Missions which lived about the coast of Africa...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

He said he would visit one of those Missions which lived about the coast of Africa...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

Mr. Mercer, alluding to the Virginia Resolution, said, 'many thousand individuals in our country have acted under the delusion of being guilty of a crime, which they cannot yield to the suggestion of a more just policy...

LADIES DEPARTMENT

From the Genius of Universal Emancipation. THE SUMMER SKIN. These summer skins, These summer skins; When you are wakened by the happy sun, When you are wakened by the happy sun...

For the Liberator. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting? I have been there, and I will tell you how I felt...

For the Liberator. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting? I have been there, and I will tell you how I felt...

BOSTON

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1852. STILL STRONG IN OUR INTEGRITY. Our debts are put at rest. Till within the last few months, we were furiously assailed by public messengers...

business for a Postmaster: He is fairly entitled to a year's subscription of the Liberator. LUCKY LOU, Alabama, Nov. 18th, 1852. Sir, I enclose you a paper, the other day, which I think is very much respected in this country...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

A STRANGE QUESTION. The question has been asked a thousand times, 'Why cannot the Colonization Society and the Anti-Slavery Society go on harmoniously together, each pursuing its specific object?'

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTOR. Many persons have undertaken to set forth the manner of preparing the important and elegant study of English Grammar...

DREADFUL MORTALITY. We mentioned yesterday, the dreadful mortality which occurred on board the British ship the 'Bellona,' when she arrived from New York...

DREADFUL MORTALITY. We mentioned yesterday, the dreadful mortality which occurred on board the British ship the 'Bellona,' when she arrived from New York...

DREADFUL MORTALITY. We mentioned yesterday, the dreadful mortality which occurred on board the British ship the 'Bellona,' when she arrived from New York...

DREADFUL MORTALITY. We mentioned yesterday, the dreadful mortality which occurred on board the British ship the 'Bellona,' when she arrived from New York...

FOR THE LIBERATOR

FOR THE LIBERATOR. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting?

FOR THE LIBERATOR

FOR THE LIBERATOR. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting?

FOR THE LIBERATOR

FOR THE LIBERATOR. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting?

FOR THE LIBERATOR

FOR THE LIBERATOR. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting?

FOR THE LIBERATOR

FOR THE LIBERATOR. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting?

FOR THE LIBERATOR

FOR THE LIBERATOR. A LEAF FROM MISS MCKAY'S BOOK. Reader, were you ever at a protracted meeting?

