

against the laws of the country, was arrested...

BOSSONS

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1838.

ABSTRACT EDITORS.

We know of no persons who can contradict the common truths of the day with so much...

Where is the dance that does not know, that this individual expresses the feelings of...

'Truly, it was time for him to 'count to ten...'

Now we should like to be made 'acquainted with what the friends of Colonization think and expect...

The Lowell Observer, a short time since, said: 'Men who are awake to the evils of slavery...

'We know of none who are 'censured' on the ground here stated, except by the advocates of slavery in the extreme south...

DISCUSSION AT NEW-YORK. We shall publish an account of the discussion...

SEVERITY OF LANGUAGE.

The following paragraph appeared in the Mercantile Journal, published in this city, week before last: 'A FACT. In a town in an adjacent State...

ANOTHER SLAVE RESCUED.

To the Editor of the Liberator. On Monday last, 29th of 4th month, the friends of abolition were informed that a colored man...

EXPLANATION.

After the publication of an article in our last issue, signed by 'S.' referring to a sum of money which was paid to the American Colonization Society...

TOO FAST.

The Genus of Temperance, who, in their disapprobation, scarcely loud enough to be heard...

A COLONIZATION DEACON!

It is worthy of being mentioned, as a specimen of the overbearing treatment to which abolitionists in this city are subjected...

MAINE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

It affords us the highest gratification to announce the formation of an Anti-Slavery Society in Portland, comprising among its members some of the most distinguished men...

VERMONT CHRONICLE.

'THE GREAT 'I', who manages this paper, persists in his determination to publish all the abolitionists, that they have not given credit to the benevolence of northern Colonization...

MEANNESS!

The advocates of the Colonization Society, finding all their efforts to check the influence of the New-England Anti-Slavery Society by signing its principles...

LATEST FROM LIBERIA!

Attention! Messrs. Danforth, Finley, Pearl & Co! Read the following from the pen of Mr. Charles W. Dennison, Editor of the Emancipator: While sojourning for a day or two in Philadelphia...

FACTS IN RELATION TO LIBERIA.

'I cannot speak an encouraging word, as I could not say my last voyage. I am convinced that the thing, in its present state, will never do. Visited Mr. Casar, who was sent out as a missionary by the Episcopal Church...

CONSISTENCY!

The editors of the Vermont Chronicle, after all the complaint which has been made against Mr. Garrison for holding the Colonization Society responsible for the language of individuals...

MR WALKER'S ADDRESS.

We had the pleasure of listening to an able address on Slavery, delivered in Room 11, South-east corner, by AMASA WALKER, Esq. of this city...

MUSICAL CONCERT IN NEW-YORK.

MR EDWARDS' Permit me to offer a few remarks respecting the late Concert, which took place in St. Paul's Church, New-York, on the 12th of April, under the direction of J. A. ST. ANGELO.

IS IT SO?

'The Genus of Temperance says: Public opinion seems pretty decidedly opposed to the late proceedings at Canterbury.' If the general sense of the press, and the soft replies of a few editors are evidence that public opinion is against those disgraceful proceedings, the remark is correct.

SPEED OF THE MAIL.

On the 28th of March last, we addressed a letter on important business to a firm in New-York, expecting an answer in a few days. Yesterday we received a letter from the firm, dated May 14, in which they say: 'Your letter of the 28th March came to hand yesterday!!!'

NOTICE.

In conforming with the suggestion of the General Convention at Philadelphia, the Provisional Committee give a general invitation to the people of color in Boston to assemble on the School Street, on Wednesday, the 20th inst. at 8 o'clock...

CIRCULAR.

In conformity with a resolution of the Conventional Board to me directed, I hereby give notice that the next Annual Convention of the Free People of Color will assemble in the City of Philadelphia...

CONVENTIONAL BOARD.

In conformity with a resolution of the Conventional Board to me directed, I hereby give notice that the next Annual Convention of the Free People of Color will assemble in the City of Philadelphia...

REMoval.

JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL.

JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

MRS. B. JOHNSON

HAS opened the large and commodious HOUSE No. 150, Locust Street, Philadelphia, where she will be happy to accommodate Ladies and Gentlemen of color with board.

REMOVAL.

ROBERT WOOD gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has removed from his former residence, to No. 2, BELKNAP STREET, where he will be happy to accommodate genteel persons of color, with board by day, weekly or monthly.

REMOVAL.

ROBERT WOOD gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has removed from his former residence, to No. 2, BELKNAP STREET, where he will be happy to accommodate genteel persons of color, with board by day, weekly or monthly.

REMOVAL.

ROBERT WOOD gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has removed from his former residence, to No. 2, BELKNAP STREET, where he will be happy to accommodate genteel persons of color, with board by day, weekly or monthly.

REMOVAL.

ROBERT WOOD gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has removed from his former residence, to No. 2, BELKNAP STREET, where he will be happy to accommodate genteel persons of color, with board by day, weekly or monthly.

On the 4th ult. three boys in Bolton, Mass. dug out and killed 71 black snakes, measuring in all 333 feet in length, which is an average of about five feet each.

MARRIED.—In New-Bedford, Mass. on Sunday evening, by the Rev. Mr. Mudge, Robert Elliott, Esq. to Mrs. Rosanna Trenchman.

DIED.—In this city on the 7th inst. Mr. Samuel Francis, aged 60 years.

List of Letters received at the office of the Liberator, since our last paper was issued: P. A. Bell, N. Y. City; Geo. Hagarth, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Merrit Peckham, Troy, N. Y.; M. P. Hadley, Chelmsford, Mass.; Rev. Geo. Bourne, N. Y. City; Geo. W. Bacon, North Yarmouth, Mass.; Jas. G. Dow, Pittsfield, Mass.; Moses Hall, Bangor, Me.; B. Wilson, Philadelphia, Pa.

NOTICE. In conforming with the suggestion of the General Convention at Philadelphia, the Provisional Committee give a general invitation to the people of color in Boston to assemble on the School Street, on Wednesday, the 20th inst. at 8 o'clock...

CIRCULAR. In conformity with a resolution of the Conventional Board to me directed, I hereby give notice that the next Annual Convention of the Free People of Color will assemble in the City of Philadelphia...

CONVENTIONAL BOARD. In conformity with a resolution of the Conventional Board to me directed, I hereby give notice that the next Annual Convention of the Free People of Color will assemble in the City of Philadelphia...

REMoval. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

REMOVAL. JAMES G. BARBADOS has removed from No. 50 to No. 26, BRATTLE STREET, where he still solicits their patronage, and is grateful for past favors.

LITERARY.

[For the Liberator.]

LINES.

A VISIT TO THE PRISONERS.
The vaulted arch approaches,
The woful blasts are blown,
And nature drows her weeds of woe,
No longer doomed to moan.

BRING FLOWERS.

Bring flowers, young flowers, for the festal board,
To wreath the lip e'er the wine is poured;
Bring flowers: they are springing in wood and vale,
Their breath floats out on the southern gale,

SERENADE.

The mist is on the mountain,
The dew is on the fountain,
The shadow on the flower,
The foliage, though dark, is dreary,

THE FARMER.

Sweet is the farmer's sleep,
Sweet, if he'll let his head;
He knows not half the cares and dread,
Which agitates the weak man's mind,

REMARKABLE SIREN.

At the bottom of a bay
Belonging to W. Turton, Esq. of Knowlton,
In the long run receded present
Amounting to several thousand pounds,
In token of his disinterested and deserving conduct.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE LAWYER AND THE WIFE.

Mr C. was a lawyer in the north of Scotland, possessor of talents of the most scientific integrity,
and to great influence not in one but two counties,
acquired landed property, was a judicious improver,

THE KING OF PRUSSIA AND THE MILLER.—
There was near Posen, in the reign of Frederick the Great, a miller who interfered with the view from Sans Souci. Annoyed by the eye-sore of his favorite, the king ordered that he should be sold by the price for which the mill would be sold by the price.

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

Singular Phenomenon.—A friend has favored us with the following extract from a private journal kept during a voyage from this country to Madeira, and thence to Calcutta:
"About midnight we were awoken by our boatswain and desired to repair on deck. We did so; and what a scene presented itself!

THE FARMER.
Sweet is the farmer's sleep,
Sweet, if he'll let his head;
He knows not half the cares and dread,
Which agitates the weak man's mind,

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

THE KING OF PRUSSIA AND THE MILLER.—
There was near Posen, in the reign of Frederick the Great, a miller who interfered with the view from Sans Souci. Annoyed by the eye-sore of his favorite, the king ordered that he should be sold by the price for which the mill would be sold by the price.

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

REMARKABLE SIREN.—
At the bottom of a bay belonging to W. Turton, Esq. of Knowlton, in the long run receded present amounting to several thousand pounds, in token of his disinterested and deserving conduct.

REMARKABLE SIREN.—
At the bottom of a bay belonging to W. Turton, Esq. of Knowlton, in the long run receded present amounting to several thousand pounds, in token of his disinterested and deserving conduct.

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

Curious Law Suit.—A law suit of a very singular nature has just been decided before the Assistant Justice of the Peace.
It appears that one of the Aldermen of our city, in a shop of a certain knight of the razor, in speaking of the manner in which candidates for election in the public, declared that he considered such publications did more good than harm to the party, and jocosely remarked, "I would give five dollars a day to a smart fellow who would write me such a letter."

REMARKABLE SIREN.—
At the bottom of a bay belonging to W. Turton, Esq. of Knowlton, in the long run receded present amounting to several thousand pounds, in token of his disinterested and deserving conduct.

REMARKABLE SIREN.—
At the bottom of a bay belonging to W. Turton, Esq. of Knowlton, in the long run receded present amounting to several thousand pounds, in token of his disinterested and deserving conduct.

MORAL.

EXTRACTS FROM A TEMPERANCE DISCOURSE,
Delivered in the Baptist Meeting House,
Belknap-street, Boston, April, 1838.
BY THE REV. JAMES B. LATER.
(Continued.)

Let us now proceed to consider
II. THE EFFECTS OF STRONG DRINK.
"Let it be bitter to thee drink!"
the vice of Intemperance has very fatal effects on the mind, the body, and the soul of those who are devoted to it.

In regard to the mind, it first of all weakens every flaw in it. The sober, by the strength of reason, may keep under and govern his passions and in a great measure regulate his desires. But strong drink makes every latent seed sprout up in the soul and make itself; it gives fury to the passions, and leads to those objects which are apt to produce such effects, and the difference into love, envy, jealousy, and jealously, and the passions often turns the good nature of man into a cruel and choleric into an assassin.

Thus does strong drink operate upon the superior faculties of man directed towards reason, whose business it is, through the vine gallons of grace, to clear the mind of every thing which is not of God; and thus guard it against all the approaches of the endeavor to make an entrance.

Thus does strong drink operate upon the superior faculties of man directed towards reason, whose business it is, through the vine gallons of grace, to clear the mind of every thing which is not of God; and thus guard it against all the approaches of the endeavor to make an entrance.

Thus does strong drink operate upon the superior faculties of man directed towards reason, whose business it is, through the vine gallons of grace, to clear the mind of every thing which is not of God; and thus guard it against all the approaches of the endeavor to make an entrance.

Thus does strong drink operate upon the superior faculties of man directed towards reason, whose business it is, through the vine gallons of grace, to clear the mind of every thing which is not of God; and thus guard it against all the approaches of the endeavor to make an entrance.

Mortality can exist without religion, but religion cannot exist without morality.