

to this country. To this movement, Mr. Estlin's letter (already quoted from) largely contributed...

to be permitted to share in your celebrations would be a high privilege...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

course and offensive. Be assured I speak of this in sorrow, not in anger...

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS. The daily press of Boston, (with three-quarters of an exception), has long been closed to any strong and decided expression of opinion against slavery...

ATTENTION TO CORRECT THE PRESS.—Amidst the anxieties and cares of public journalism, not the least is the fact that in the faithful discharge of duty, occasions arise in which it becomes necessary to make statements or proposals...

More than fifteen hundred signatures were appended to the above-named Reply, but among them were included the names of the 'influential' and 'leading' ministers of the denomination in Great Britain...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

to be reported, brethren, that among the officers of one of the most important of those Societies in our country...

MORE SOUTHERN VAPORING. Gov. Wiston, of Alabama, in his recent message, remarks as follows on the slavery issue...

The continued and violent agitation of slavery by the people of the non-slaveholding States exhibits a settled purpose on their part, led on by the bigoted fanatic and the scheming politician...

For myself, (says the Governor), I have long been convinced that the way for compromise and appeasement lies in the maintenance of the Union...

IS THIS TRUE? A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Pittsburgh, gives the public some statements which are of a startling character...

IMPORTANT ACTION. We learn from the Chicago Tribune the following recent facts in relation to the Glover rescue case...

BOLD PREACHING IN WASHINGTON. From time to time, and by various rumors, we have learned something of the bold preaching of Mr. Spinks and Dr. Dreyer...

CONVENTION, N. H., Nov. 14. The Democratic convention met to-day, Hon. Henry Hibbard, President. Hon. John S. Wells, of Exeter, was nominated for Governor...

DEAR SIR.—From the above extract from a notice of our friends in the Liberator, I have learned that you are about to publish a notice...

DEAR SIR.—From the above extract from a notice of our friends in the Liberator, I have learned that you are about to publish a notice...

DEAR SIR.—From the above extract from a notice of our friends in the Liberator, I have learned that you are about to publish a notice...

DEAR SIR.—From the above extract from a notice of our friends in the Liberator, I have learned that you are about to publish a notice...

DEAR SIR.—From the above extract from a notice of our friends in the Liberator, I have learned that you are about to publish a notice...

DEAR SIR.—From the above extract from a notice of our friends in the Liberator, I have learned that you are about to publish a notice...

OUR COURSE COMMENDED. NEW YORK, Nov. 17, 1855. My DEAR FRIEND GARRISON: I must try to express to you, however feebly, the delight I experience from reading your many and timely letters to the Liberator...

But what shall be said of an ANTI-SLAVERY Committee of Massachusetts men, so forgetful not only of consistency and self-respect, but of the honor of the dear old State, that they stoop to the humiliating folly of inviting that insolent braggart Toombs, to debase her soil by his polluting presence?

To be sure, with burning, choking shame, I confess it, freedom has been struck down by her own children, the slave-driver has cracked his whip, and successfully piled his infernal trade within sound of Bunker Hill.

Extract of a letter from an esteemed friend of the Liberator in Providence, dated Nov. 20, 1855.—'Your friends here rejoice at your refusal to lecture in the Anti-Slavery course in Boston...

THE LONDON ANTI-SLAVERY ADVOCATE. This is a small monthly periodical, devoted to radical and uncompromising abolitionism. It is a good paper, and is made up with good taste and most excellent judgment...

From a personal inspection and reading of every number of the Advocate, since the commencement, we can do entirely agree with every word of the Bugle's commendation. And we would further say to our readers that this is a favorable time to subscribe...

A box containing a large quantity of tracts was sent, about three weeks since, to Joel McMillan, Salem, Columbia Co., Ohio. Have they been received?

SPECIAL CONTRIBUTIONS. To the American Anti-Slavery Society, in aid of the new series of Tracts. Female Anti-Slavery Society, Weymouth, $10 00 Mrs. Ribley, Chelsea, 0 50 J. M. Flint, Randolph, Vt., by Wm. W. Brown, 1 00 C. E. C., Detroit, Michigan, 2 00 By J. A. Howland, Worcester, 2 00 Samuel May, Jr., Leicester, 2 00 Abraham Firth, do, 2 00 S. Southgate, Jr., 505, N. G. Henshaw 25, do, 0 75 Friend 25, F. O. Smith, 25, do, 0 75 Charles Eastman, Worcester, 1 00 Maria Bryant, Grafton, 1 00 G. C. Taft, Grafton, 1 00

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. The General Agent of THE LIBERATOR acknowledges to have received the following sums from subscribers in Great Britain and Ireland: 1855. From John R. Neill, Belfast, Ireland, $2 00 Oct. 14. " Joshua Sharrett, Buckley, Eng., 1 75 " M. M. Moore, Eng., Enfield, do, 3 50 " M. D. Donnell, Eng., London, do, 3 50 " Joseph Weston, Eng., Leeds, do, 3 00 " S. Saunders, Bath, do, 3 00 " Rev. Dr. J. H. Hutton, Derby, do, 3 00 " John Maxwell, Newcastle, do, 2 00

THE ESSEX COUNTY ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY will hold its next quarterly meeting in Manchester, on Saturday evening and through the day on Sunday, 1st and 2d December next. S. S. Foster, C. L. Raymond, and others will address the meeting.

C. LENOX REMOND, President. N. B. The pro-slavery character of the Constitution, the present administration, Know-Nothing party and press, and the danger of the Anti-Slavery cause from these and kindred influences, will be thoroughly canvassed and investigated.

'COLORED PATRIOTS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.'—This book is furnished to subscribers for one dollar; to others, for one dollar and twenty-five cents—persons abroad forwarding this amount will receive it, postage paid. WM. C. NELL.

PLEASANT AND PROFITABLE EMPLOYMENT.—In every town and village, for Men and Women, to sell our neat, cheap, and quick-selling books, and to canvass for our Popular Scientific Journals. All who engage with us will be secured from the possibility of loss. Profits, very liberal. Please address FOWLER AND WELLS, 808, Broadway, New York.

LECTURES ON SLAVERY. This course of Lectures will be delivered in the TREMONT TEMPLE, at 7 1/2 o'clock, on THURSDAY EVENINGS, in the order indicated in the following list: Nov. 22.—Hon. HORACE MANN, of Ohio. JOHN G. WHITTIER, Esq.—Poem. Dec. 6.—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's Drama. Read by MRS. M. E. WEBB.

PROBABLE SUBSTITUTES. Hon. A. B. BUTLER, of S. C. Dr. WILLIAM A. SMITH, of Va. Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, of N. Y. Tickets at $3 each, admitting a Lady and Gentleman, can be obtained at Ticknor's, 135, and Jewett's, 117 Washington st.

LECTURES TO LADIES ON ANATOMY, PHYSIOLOGY, AND HEALTH, of the New England Female Medical College.—The first of a Course of Eight familiar and practical Lectures, illustrated with the apparatus of the Institution, was given by Wm. Spangston Brown, M. D., Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, on Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 8 o'clock, P. M., in the new Lecture Hall: the Course to be continued at the same hour and place on successive Wednesday afternoons.

These Lectures are free to Nurses; and will be useful to them as preparatory to a Course to be given on the Care of the Sick and the Management of the Sick-room. Tickets for the Course, $1; single tickets, 15 cents; to be had of the subscriber, at the College, 274 Washington street. Boston, Oct. 20, 1855.

SALLIE HOLLEY, an Agent of the Mass. Anti-Slavery Society, will lecture as follows: Providence, R. I., Sunday, Nov. 25. Pawtucket, " Tuesday, " 27.

The New York Tribune, 1855-6. THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year; Vol. XV. of its richly illustrated and comprehensive first Series of the year. The American public need not be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for profit, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for the rights of Truth, for Humanity, against falsehood, Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. It is not a slave-trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous papers who does not consider it the greatest enemy of his trade, and who would not be glad to see it destroyed in a commercial, cotton-buying City like New-York. THE NEWARK MERCURY once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, gripping, scowling, avicious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one who could not be brought to his senses by its prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering, and it has never allowed the voice of the unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woe, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has ardently resisted, and will persistently combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class of our fellow-men, on account of their color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and unrelenting, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor, who could not have done more than to edit, it now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples its former amount, and its correspondence, its editorial enclosures the globe, transmitting to our pages the most interesting and valuable news of the day, and the most interesting and valuable news of the day, and the most interesting and valuable news of the day.

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of industrial development and internal communication, whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half-Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with that spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors and toward the wronged Aborigines of this Continent, and of Peace with All, which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence, co-operated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1850-2, when one of the most important and moderate measures of the day, we sternly resisted that proposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share the triumph of its conservative Whig on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and culmination of the Know-Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigism, only confirmed our conclusions and anticipations. While sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitable by-gones of the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated and utter violation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy, and hurried suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destined to have a way to the land-mark of old party feuds, and the true hearts and strong arms of the free-soilists in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the editor of THE TRIBUNE will be sternly devoted; and he trusts that the friends of the Temperance Reform will be equally so.

Commencing as a daily full sheet of moderate size, it has now nearly a show of patronage; THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three distinct editions), Semi-Weekly and Weekly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregate: Daily issues (evening and morning) 29,000 copies. Semi-Weekly, 14,115. Weekly, 134,500. California edition, 6,000. Total, 186,175 copies.

TERMS. We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no portion of any sort can rival it. And, while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only an indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdity not to perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

THE TRIBUNE employs no travelling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. On the Weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, and a fresh remittance for one dollar, or the subscriber's name comes, the account is closed. We pay no local agents; wish no money paid to any when the paper cannot trust him to mail or otherwise send it to us; often mailed, its safety is at our risk, and a serious risk; it often proves; but are grateful to every one who deems it good work to obtain and forward the same; and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the DAILY TRIBUNE, $6 per annum. SEMI-WEEKLY, $3; two copies for $5; five for $11. WEEKLY, $2; three copies for $5; five copies for $8; ten copies for $12; twenty copies for $20. ADDITIONAL: larger clubs, $1 each subscriber. Additions may at all times be made to a club at the price paid for those already in it.

J. B. YERRINTON & SON, PRINTERS, 21 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

Anti-Slavery Men and Women! SHALL we have your hearty cooperation in our efforts to place in the hands of every intelligent reader, these two books? I. The North-Side View of Slavery, The Canadian Refugees' Own Narratives. By BENJ. DREW. II. An Inside View of Slavery, —OR— A TOUR AMONG THE PLANTERS. By Dr. C. G. PARSONS.

It should be borne in mind, that these volumes are not works of fiction, or stories of the imagination, but true records of what these intelligent travellers saw with their own eyes, and heard with their own ears; and we challenge the world to dispute the truth of their statements. Mr. DREW went to Canada, and travelled from town to town, from cabin to cabin, and took down the statements which fell from the lips of the Refugees; and he has given them to the world, nearly verbatim, in this soul-stirring volume. Mr. PARSONS, who has been in the country of the planters, and travelled from town to town, from cabin to cabin, and took down the statements which fell from the lips of the Refugees; and he has given them to the world, nearly verbatim, in this soul-stirring volume.

THE INSIDE VIEW, by Dr. PARSONS. Is a most graphic description of what he saw and heard of the workings of the paternalistic institution, during a few weeks' sojourn among the planters of the extreme South;—those modern Abrahams, Isaacs and Jacobs, but few have had such opportunities for close observation as Dr. Parsons. He penetrated where, perhaps, no other Northern man had ever preceded him, and saw in detail, and in estremo, from day to day, and from week to week, the truth of the statements, and the hidden fire of a freeman's heart.

FREEMEN OF AMERICA! Read and circulate these books! We want ONE THOUSAND AGENTS, to canvass the entire North with these arguments for Freedom. Scatter them broadcast! JOHN P. JEWETT & CO. PUBLISHERS, BOSTON. P. S. One dollar is the price of each book, for which sum they will be sent by mail to any address. N16 6w

PHILLIPS, SAMPSON & Co. HAVE JUST PUBLISHED, A STORY OF REPUBLICAN EQUALITY, BY SYDNEY A. STORY, JR. In one large vol. 12 mo. 60 pp. Price, $1.25.

THIS powerful Anti-Slavery Novel will awaken the attention of the public to a New Phase of the GREAT QUESTION OF THE DAY. To those who would be repelled by a tale of wrongs and atrocities, however true they might be, the Publishers desire to say, that this is in the best sense a Novel—a love story, if the reader please—relating to the fortunes of persons belonging to the PATRIOTIC CLASS. The condition of the Southern Slave is not the theme of the book. It is true, the author has written with a purpose, but it does not lie upon the surface; and the reflective reader will find that its force falls quite as much upon Northern as upon Southern society.

THE PUBLISHERS do not wish to give any hint of the UNIQUE PLOT of this Novel; preferring that the thousands of readers should enjoy the pleasures of its surprises for themselves. PHILLIPS, SAMPSON & CO. PUBLISHERS, 13 WINTER STREET, BOSTON.

THE BAG PICKER: Or, Rugged Free. 12 mo. 450 pp. Price, $1.25. We have read this work, which claims to be a record of facts by an eye and ear witness, with thrilling interest, at a single sitting. It deserves to be placed in the same category with 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' though not so exclusively devoted to delineations of the slave system at the South. 'What higher panegyric can we bestow upon it?'—Boston Atlas.

COLORED PATRIOTS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION. WITH SKETCHES OF SEVERAL DISTINGUISHED COLORED PERSONS; To which is added a brief survey of the Condition and Prospects of Colored Americans. By WM. C. NELL. Just published, and for sale at the Anti-Slavery Office, 21 Cornhill. Price, $1.25.

Worcester Hydropathic Institution. THE Proprietors of this Institution aim to make it a comfortable home in invalids at all seasons. A situation is elevated and healthy, very easy of access from all parts of the city. For particulars, address F. ROGERS, M. D., or E. F. ROGERS, Sup't, Worcester, Mass. Worcester, April 13.

Portrait of Andrew Jackson Davis. JUST published, a superior large size Lithograph of John Pierce, who was removed to 189 WASHINGTON STREET. Two doors south of School st. October 19.

REMOVAL. THAXTER & BROTHER, Opticians, (successors to John Pierce,) have removed to 189 WASHINGTON STREET. Two doors south of School st. October 19.

POETRY.

For the Liberator. AN ENGLISH WOMAN'S VIEW OF SLAVERY. White women of the Southern States, from lethargy awake!

THE LIBERATOR.

OLIVER, THE STAMP COMMISSIONER OF 1765, AND LORING, THE SLAVE COMMISSIONER OF 1856. November 8, 1856. DEAR BROTHER:

Then the overseer would get on his horse, and ride to the field; and if any one came in after him, he would say, 'I have seen the women jump for the field with their shoes and stockings in their hands, and a petition wrapped over their shoulders, to dress in the field the best way they could. The head magistrate of that county (L...)

Then the overseer would get on his horse, and ride to the field; and if any one came in after him, he would say, 'I have seen the women jump for the field with their shoes and stockings in their hands, and a petition wrapped over their shoulders, to dress in the field the best way they could.

Then the overseer would get on his horse, and ride to the field; and if any one came in after him, he would say, 'I have seen the women jump for the field with their shoes and stockings in their hands, and a petition wrapped over their shoulders, to dress in the field the best way they could.

Then the overseer would get on his horse, and ride to the field; and if any one came in after him, he would say, 'I have seen the women jump for the field with their shoes and stockings in their hands, and a petition wrapped over their shoulders, to dress in the field the best way they could.

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

NOVEMBER. Yet one smile more, departing, distant sun! One mellow smile, through the soft, vapory air,

