

LETTER FROM WM. CARLOS MARTYN.

New York, April 12, 1862.

My dear Sir:—Owing to my absence from home, I failed to see the Liberator containing...

Permit me, then, a word in reply. I would bid the public mark at the outset that...

Now, Sir, these are the facts:—Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Then in regard to Le Roy. While I tarried in that village, it was with a "fang" friend of my father's, and I met the warmest of welcomes...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Approach to the use of my friend G. W. Clarke's name, I think it but just to say, since I wish to open the whole chapter...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

acquaintance of mine" commenced that "acquaintance" by an attack in the Worcester Spy...

Now, Sir, these are the facts:—Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Then in regard to Le Roy. While I tarried in that village, it was with a "fang" friend of my father's, and I met the warmest of welcomes...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Approach to the use of my friend G. W. Clarke's name, I think it but just to say, since I wish to open the whole chapter...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

THE BATTLE OF PITTSBURG.

Highly Important Details—Agonizing Spectacle in the Hospitals—The Rebels Carry off our Surgeons.

CINCINNATI, April 12. The Gazette's Pittsburg, Tennessee, correspondent says the sum and substance of the battle is:—On Sunday we were pushed from disaster to disaster...

Now, Sir, these are the facts:—Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Then in regard to Le Roy. While I tarried in that village, it was with a "fang" friend of my father's, and I met the warmest of welcomes...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Approach to the use of my friend G. W. Clarke's name, I think it but just to say, since I wish to open the whole chapter...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

In Harding County, Tenn., 240 miles from the mouth of the Tennessee river, and about ten miles from the Alabama border...

Now, Sir, these are the facts:—Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Then in regard to Le Roy. While I tarried in that village, it was with a "fang" friend of my father's, and I met the warmest of welcomes...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Approach to the use of my friend G. W. Clarke's name, I think it but just to say, since I wish to open the whole chapter...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

OBITUARY. Died—At Hilton Head, Port Royal, S. C., on the 30th of last month, of typhoid fever...

Now, Sir, these are the facts:—Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Then in regard to Le Roy. While I tarried in that village, it was with a "fang" friend of my father's, and I met the warmest of welcomes...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Approach to the use of my friend G. W. Clarke's name, I think it but just to say, since I wish to open the whole chapter...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

THE REJECTED STONE—The new edition of this book, by Mr. Gray, of which we recently spoke, may be expected in about a fortnight...

Now, Sir, these are the facts:—Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Several years since, my father removed his residence from Worcester to New Haven, the better to facilitate the entrance into, and continuance at college...

Then in regard to Le Roy. While I tarried in that village, it was with a "fang" friend of my father's, and I met the warmest of welcomes...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Approach to the use of my friend G. W. Clarke's name, I think it but just to say, since I wish to open the whole chapter...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

I assure you, Sir, I have never valued a "celebrated" reputation sufficiently to lie myself in. I know enough of Abolitionists to be aware that such a reputation would do me no good...

Now, Sir, if my remarks were so fatally misunderstood, as from the remarks... attributes to me, appears to be the case...

Not I met with the best of success, without sailing beneath the shadow of ecclesiastical, political, or collegiate institutions. I am confident that, thus unaided, I can still carve out an honorable and useful future...

Poetry.

The papers are republishing the following vigorous eulogium, by Mrs. How, as not inapplicable to "Mrs. Lincoln's Grand Ball at the White House, a few weeks since."

FROM NEWPORT TO ROME, A. D. 1848.

BY JULIA HOW.

To men and women of the world, Whom purple garments soft enfold, I've moved among you from my youth, Dear ones, dear ones, and I love you.

The Liberator.

GERRIT SMITH TO MONTGOMERY BLAIR.

"OF ONE BLOOD ALL NATIONS."—OF EQUAL RIGHTS ALL RACES.—"HONOR ALL MEN."

PETERBORO, April 5th, 1862.

DEAR SIR, I have read the letter which you sent to the great Anti-Slavery Meeting held in New York the 6th of last month; and I have read it with the respect due to its distinguished author, and with my ever deep interest in the subjects of which it treats.

and the sooner will the nations begin to approach the same permanent level. In your eyes, the special action of Government, where there are "two different races in the same community," is a duty. It is its duty, you mean, to prefer one to the other.

poor scraps which pro-slavery merchants and manufacturers, politicians and priests throw out to it. There are many among us who are wont to say that we cannot forgive such men as Davis and Stephens and Mason and Seward. Punished they should be—though not excessively.

ens the life of the country is ended, they will have no part in building up the Democratic, or Republican, or any other party. Until then, their own work will be to save the country.

since Cain slew his brother had there been a more horrible crime. Mr. Thompson showed how the Republic had been formed by the consent of the people represented in convention. A convention had joined them—nothing but a convention could legally sever them.

AFTER THE STORM. All night, in the pauses of sleep, I heard The moan of the snow-wind and the sea, Like the wail of thy sorrowing children, O God!

DEAR SIR, I have read the letter which you sent to the great Anti-Slavery Meeting held in New York the 6th of last month; and I have read it with the respect due to its distinguished author, and with my ever deep interest in the subjects of which it treats.

and the sooner will the nations begin to approach the same permanent level. In your eyes, the special action of Government, where there are "two different races in the same community," is a duty.

poor scraps which pro-slavery merchants and manufacturers, politicians and priests throw out to it. There are many among us who are wont to say that we cannot forgive such men as Davis and Stephens and Mason and Seward.

ens the life of the country is ended, they will have no part in building up the Democratic, or Republican, or any other party. Until then, their own work will be to save the country.

since Cain slew his brother had there been a more horrible crime. Mr. Thompson showed how the Republic had been formed by the consent of the people represented in convention.

PRO-SLAVERY BITTERNESS.

ROCHESTER, (N. Y.), April 23rd, 1862.

DEAR FRIEND, It almost inclines one to skepticism regarding the beautiful germ of divinity that is in the composition of every human being, to see the heartless invectives yet predominant in and showing the bitter feeling of the pro-slavery press.

CLIV. (The Oldest House in Boston.)

CLIV. (The Oldest House in Boston.) BUILT IN 1658.

PRICES REDUCED

FOR THE FOLLOWING VALUABLE BOOKS:

Echoes of Harper's Ferry.

THIS volume is a collection of the greatest Speeches, Sermons, Lectures, Letters, Poems, and other utterances of the leading minds of America and Europe, called forth by John Brown's Invasion of Virginia.

THE PUBLIC LIFE OF CAPTAIN JOHN BROWN.

BY JAMES REDPATH.

SOUTHERN NOTES

FOR NATIONAL CIRCULATION.

This is a volume of facts of recent Southern life, as gathered by the Southern and Metropolitan press.

LEE & SHEPARD.

155 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.