THE CONSECRATION OF THE GETTYSBURG CEMETERY.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Nov. 19, 1863. The President's party arrived last evening, but the train which conveyed the Governors was delayed by a slight accident until near midnight, so that they were unable to participate in the proceedings of the night, which were of a marked character. The President, Secretary Seward and Col. Forney were serenaded, and each replied to the compliment.

President Lincoln was the first to speak, and he spoke with a voice that was heard by all. He said that he was sixty years of age, and that he had been a public life for nearly forty years. He said that he had seen the people of the country, and that he was now being determined to do what he believed to be right.

Secretary Seward was the next to speak. He said that he had been a public life for nearly forty years, and that he was now being determined to do what he believed to be right. He said that he had seen the people of the country, and that he was now being determined to do what he believed to be right.

Col. Forney made a brief speech, in which he referred to Douglas's services to the Union. He eulogized the President, and spoke of him as one that will live in history as the savior of the country.

The President and members of the Cabinet, together with the chief military and civil dignitaries, took places on the stand. The President seated himself between Mr. Seward and Mr. Everett, after a reception by the military and civil dignitaries.

THE PRESIDENT'S HYMN.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune.—Sir, Enclosed you will find a hymn written by our beloved and revered fellow-citizen, Dr. Muhlenberg, founder of St. Luke's Hospital, and writer of the immortal hymn, "I would not live away." Will you not give it a place in your columns, and use your editorial influence to send it throughout the Kingdom of States to sing it in the churches on the approaching Thanksgiving, as "The President's Hymn"?

It has a right to that designation. It is, as a comparison of the two will prove, a meritorious version of the President's hymn, and in this respect, for the first time, makes our "Harvest Home," a national festival—a significant and blessed augury of that "more perfect Union" with which, with God's blessing, the war shall leave us as a people.

Solemnly to lay the highest authority given to the use of this national hymn, I obtained the reluctant consent of my writer (authorial) of the music to which it is set to ask our Chief Magistrate's permission to style it "The President's Hymn." The Secretary of State, through his application, has graciously acquiesced in a few hours after the President's departure, in the decisive style which has now become so familiar to our people—Let it be so called.

May we not hope that millions of our people will, on November 29th, be found in this way, for the first time, singing, and that "The President's Hymn" will be the household and temple song of that solemn and joyful day? It will help to join our hearts as citizens, thus to blend our voices as worshippers; and the blessings of God's mercy and His merciful presence upon a people that can thus unite in its praise and hosannas.

Respectfully yours, HENRY W. BELLOWS.

[This Hymn may be found in our poetical department.]

FREEDMEN'S RELIEF MEETING.

On Monday evening, the 16th inst., a large meeting was held in the Cooper Institute, under the auspices of the National Freedmen's Relief Association, in behalf of the colored people of the South. The Rev. A. S. Fiske, the Chaplain of this class of people in that Department, was present, under instructions from Gen. Grant, to represent to the assembly their destitute condition, and solicit aid for their relief.

The Rev. Dr. Tyng, on taking the chair, made a spirited address. Having alluded to the glorious results of the recent elections, he said they had been achieved on the avowed principle that rebellion was the cause of the rebellion. The rebellion was to be overwhelmed, and slavery was to be exterminated. The overwhelming of the rebellion would be the extermination of slavery, and the extermination of slavery would be the overthrowing of the rebellion.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM'S VENOM.

In a private letter written the other day, Vallandigham said:—I remember when, a few years ago, the name of Salmon P. Chase was the synonym of every virtuous man in the Union.

DAMNABLE REVELATION!—CAIRO A SLAVE MART.

A Cairo correspondent of the Des Moines (Iowa) Register makes some startling revelations relative to the villainous practices of the slave traders in the vicinity of Cairo, Mo. The revelations are contained in a letter from Col. Shaw, in command at Columbus, to Gen. Burford, in command at Cairo.

THE NEGRO AND THE WAR.

The lecture on Friday night at the Warrington Society's rooms was delivered by T. M. Chester, Esq., a gentleman of color, from Liberia. The chair was occupied by Gerard Ralston, Esq., Consul-General of Liberia, and by a number of distinguished gentlemen. The lecture was for the subject of his lecture:—"The Negro as affected by the War." After describing the nature of the great conflict now raging in America, and exhibiting the fundamental differences that exist upon the special interest which the negro has in the war, and the profound faith with which the African race, whether bond or free, regarded it as the sure means of deliverance to the enslaved, he proceeded to a personal observation, he testified to the noble and animated the colored volunteers, and to their resolute determination to die, if needs be, in the effort to emancipate their brethren. He did not believe that Jefferson Davis would arm the negroes, if he did they would be a way to fight for Union Liberty.

COLORED SOLDIERS IN THE HANDS OF THE REBELS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22, 1863. The government has determined that no further exchange of prisoners shall take place till the rebel authorities will agree to an exchange without reservation. Colored soldiers, captured by the rebels, are now in rebel hands, or at least captured by the rebels, must be accounted for.

THE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

The following is a letter addressed by the Solicitor of the War Department to a gentleman in Boston, in reply to some inquiries for information in relation to the cessation of the exchange of prisoners:—The War Department seems to be on this point—it will not consent to a further exchange until the rebel authorities will agree to an exchange without reservation. Colored soldiers, captured by the rebels, are now in rebel hands, or at least captured by the rebels, must be accounted for.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20, 1863. DEAR SIR.—Your letter of the 17th has been received, in which you inquire whether any documents are now accessible, or will be likely soon to be published, or our Government, relating to the exchange of prisoners of war; and you justly remark that the exchange of prisoners of war is a subject of great importance to our men in Richmond.

SUFFERING OF OUR PRISONERS AT RICHMOND.

De Witt C. Waller, an Indian scout, equal to Leather Stocking, captured just before Chickamauga, and taken to Richmond, Va. He arrived at Washington, and tells, among other things of absorbing interest, that the average number of deaths among our men in Richmond hospitals is forty-three a day, and that most of them get their death warrants on Belle Island, and are sent there, many of them with wounds and mangled bodies. Our men are without blankets, and but one-third of them sheltered under mould-stained tents. All the starved sick instantly, and run down with frightful rapidity. Four dogs entered the hospital of food, and the border of the hospital were, were daily cooked, and joyfully ate. In the hospital to which he was transferred, the sole diet was corn bread, made up without salt. Not a beef animal had come to Richmond in twelve days.

ARREST OF CONSL GIDDINGS.

The telegraph has stated that Hon. Joshua R. Giddings was arrested at Montreal for kidnapping. The arrest was made by the police of Montreal, and Giddings was taken to New York, found to be the wrong man, subsequently released, returned to Montreal, and has taken legal steps for redress. Consul Giddings was mixed up in the affair, and has written an explanation to the telegraph, in which it is stated that his action in the premises was merely of an advisory nature, and that was given under misapprehension.

WILLIAM WHITING.

Very truly yours, WILLIAM WHITING.

MCCLELLAN vs. MCCLELLAN.

"Occasional" (John W. Forney) in a letter to the Philadelphia Press, expresses his opinion that the Union is in a state of anarchy, and that the only way to restore order is by the use of force. He says that he has written just one year ago, "Little Mac" had written just one year ago, "Little Mac" had written just one year ago, "Little Mac" had written just one year ago.

GENERAL SCHOFIELD AND SLAVERY IN MISSOURI.

The order of Gen. Schofield for the enlistment of colored men in the army is generally regarded in Missouri as the death blow to slavery in that State. The order is more stringent than that applied by the Secretary of War to Maryland and Delaware. It dispenses with the consent of loyal owners during the first month, and then dispensing with it, if necessary.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 27.

The first free school of the City of Washington for colored children will be opened to-morrow night at the assistance of the Freedmen's Aid Society. A free evening school for adults will be connected with it. Contributions in aid of the cause may be sent to George E. Baker, Treasurer.

The Greenfield Gazette announces that the Hon. Henry W. THE "SWAMP ANGEL" BATTERY ON MORRIS ISLAND.

The "Swamp Angel" battery on Morris Island cost seven thousand dollars' work. It stands on the steepest of mud, twenty-two feet deep. To construct it, two thousand bags of sand were carried over, and ten thousand pieces of lumber ten miles, and two and a half miles of bridge had to be built. Col. Serrill, who constructed it, says he can "in two weeks, with the means we have on hand, utterly destroy, obliterate, and wipe off the face of the earth the hotbed of aristocratic rebels." The Colonel means Charleston.

CONSPIRACY AMONG THE REBEL REFUGEES IN CANADA.

On Wednesday night, the 11th, the British minister, Lord Lyons, notified the Government, that the Governor General of Canada had notified him that there were reasons for believing that a plot was hatching among Rebel refugees in Canada, to invade the United States. Destroy the city of Buffalo, take possession of Ashtabula on Lake Erie, set free the prisoners on Johnson Island, etc. Secretary Stanton immediately communicated these facts to the Mayor of Buffalo, and took other steps requisite to foil the conspiracy.

THE PAYMENTS FOR ALL BRANCHES OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

The payments for all branches of the public service for the fiscal year ending with the last of June were $300,000,000, of which amount $200,000,000 were for the army, and $100,000,000 for the navy. A sufficiency of money has been placed in the hands of all the paymasters to pay our armies up to the first of the present month.

THE REMAINS OF THE MUSICAL COMPOSER, BEETHOVEN AND SCHUBERT, HAVE BEEN EXHUMED, PHOTOGRAPHED AND REBURIED.

A CARD.—THE UNDERSIGNED, IN BEHALF OF THE DIRECTORS, WOULD THANK THE NOBLE AND GENEROUS PATRONS OF THE JOHN QUINCY ADAMS NATIONAL FARM HOME FOR INVALID SOLDIERS, FOR PAST FAVORS.

No one any longer asks if the Union is needed. It is the only Farm Home in the United States. Every merchant says it is just what is needed to resuscitate and recruit those who have gone out to protect our gold and silver, and our homes. Gentlemen of every grade of politics are becoming interested. This is no experiment—it is a success. It is already in operation, feeding and employing all who go there. There are about 400 acres of land; and if those who feel interested in this movement will call at 10 Charlestown Street, upon Samuel Poor, Jr., Vice President, they will get full particulars.

WE BEG LADIES AND GENTLEMEN TO HELP US PREPARE TO MAKE THOSE NOBLE AND BRAVE MEN COMFORTABLE FOR THE COMING WINTER.

Lieut. Geo. W. Calvert is constantly laboring for the welfare of the hands of the rebels for more than a year, his mother was thrown into a decline, lingered along until the 16th ult., and died. It is supposed that her over-anxiety hastened her demise, while he was suffering hunger and nakedness, suffering for bread day for thirteen long months within the walls of Charleston jail and Libby prison.

TRUE, OTHERS ARE SUFFERING; MANY A BRAVE WOMAN IS EMBROILING HER LIFE-BLOOD IN PRISON; AS SHE DID, FOR ONLY SO MUCH OF THE ARMY. MANY A HEART HAS BEEN MADE SAD, MANY THERE ARE WHOSE CHECKS HAVE PALED AS THEY WENT OUT TO MEET returning regiments, welcomed by cheering thousands, and who were answered, "He died upon the field," or "He died a prisoner." Let those of us who remain at home do all the good we can to our brave returned soldiers.

HOSPITAL FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

The experiment of a Special Hospital for Lying-In Patients and the Diseases of Women has now been under trial, in Boston, for nearly two years. It has succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations of those interested; the demand for admission having often exceeded the capacity of the building temporarily in use.

IT HAS THEREFORE BEEN DECIDED TO ESTABLISH THE INSTITUTION UPON A PERMANENT BASIS; AND, AS ITS BENEFIT IS FOR THE COMMUNITY AT LARGE, TO LOOK FROM THAT COMMUNITY FOR OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE. IT IS THE BELIEF THAT THE SUCCESSFULNESS OF THE INSTITUTION HAS NOW BEEN FULLY PROVED, AND THE NECESSITY FOR A BUILDING MORE APPROPRIATE TO ITS PURPOSES MADE EVIDENT.

The advantages of a separate hospital for the diseases of women are obvious. While these diseases are often of a character requiring the utmost skill in diagnosis and treatment, an essential element in the success of the treatment lies in the absence of all disturbing causes, mental and physical, foremost among which rank the varied excitements and anxieties of a large general Hospital, the necessary publicity attaching to its wards, and the inevitable diversity of cases and interests there obtaining.

IT IS THE AIM OF THIS INSTITUTION, EXCLUSIVELY FOR WOMEN,—TO OBTAIN THESE AND OTHER OBJECTS, HITHERTO MADE BY PATIENTS AGAINST ENTERING A GENERAL HOSPITAL, AND THUS TO DO MORE THAN A GENERAL HOSPITAL POSSIBLY CAN TOWARDS LESSENING THE PRESENT HIGH RATE OF FEMALE MORTALITY.

THE DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES THEREFORE APPEAL TO ALL BENEVOLENT PERSONS FOR THEIR AID IN ERECTING A BUILDING ESPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR THE PURPOSES REQUIRED. THEIR CALL IS MADE NOT UPON WOMEN ALONE, WHO MIGHT SEEM MORE ESPECIALLY INTERESTED IN THE BENEFIT TO BE CONFERRED, BUT UPON MEN ALSO, WHO CANNOT DENY THE CLAIMS UPON THEM OF MOTHER, DAUGHTER, SISTER, AND WIFE.

IT IS NOT INTENDED OR DESIRED TO ERECT A LARGE AND COSTLY EDIFICE, OR TO EXPEND MONEY UPON OUTSIDE SHOW, BUT MERELY TO PROVIDE A SAFE AND SUFFICIENT ACCOMMODATION FOR SOME FIFTY OR ONE HUNDRED BEDS, AND TO INSURE A PLEASANT AND MORE FAVORABLE "HOSPITAL AIR," THAN HAS USUALLY BEEN OBTAINED.

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT A BUILDING COSTING $35,000 WILL SECURE THESE ENDS. AS MUCH MORE WILL BE NECESSARY TO ESTABLISH THIRTY-FIVE BEDS UPON A PERMANENT FOUNDATION.

ONE LADY HAS ALREADY PAID THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS; ANOTHER HAS PAID ONE THOUSAND; AND SEVERAL SMALLER SUMS.

OBITUARY.

DEAR MR. GARRISON.—Another of the elderly circle of Abolitionists has passed from this sphere of life. Mrs. PHEAS T. RICHMOND, wife of James Richmond, of Marlborough, N. Y., died at her residence Oct. 31st. She was one of the number with whom the cause of the oppressed had a permanent claim. Though not widely known, she was a woman of rare conscientiousness, and fidelity to her convictions of duty. The Liberator was her favorite journal, and to live to see the final end of slavery was her most fervent desire.

As her life has been a help, so will her memory be a blessing to all who knew her.

ROUND HILL WATER-CURE.

DR. HALSTED, of Round Hill Water-Cure, Northampton, Mass., has so far perfected his "Motorpathic System" of treatment that many cases of indigestion, prostration, kindred weaknesses and obstructions, can be cured by one consultation, and the following of his instructions. The plan and remedies for self or home treatment are potent and restorative. They dispel pain and weakness in the back, strengthen the nerves, tone the stomach, and obviate indigestion and constipation.

Confirmed cases and bed-ridden patients can be so much relieved by one visit as to give them faith of ultimate recovery. The names of thousands of invalids who have been cured at his institution are on record, with a history of their suffer
