

THE WAR A REBELLION OF CAPITAL AGAINST LABOR TO ENSLAVE THE LABORER.

Post Housen, (Michigan,) Sept. 21, 1864. This is the laboring man's war; a conflict between free labor and slave labor.

Slavery is making more than labor obeying unchecked, unopposed, irresponsible capital. The following law governs labor in every slave State.

A slave laborer is one who is in the power of the master (capitalist) to whom he belongs; he can do nothing, exert nothing, and possess nothing, but that which belongs to his owner, (the capitalist), and he is a chattel in the hands of his master, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

This is the one idea of Rebellion in regard to labor and the laborer. This war is an effort of slave-driving capitalists to enslave the laborers of the entire nation and continent.

Slavery labor, black or white, is right. Nature has made the war in mind and body for slaves. The theory of free labor is a delusion.

Two hundred years of liberty have made white laborers a paper bandit. Make the laboring man a slave, and he would be a better off. The enslavement of the laborer alone can save society against the dangerous vice of improvidence.

The free laborer works when he pleases, for whose pleasure he works not as he pleases, but as his master (the capitalist) pleases. In all social systems there must be a class to do the menial duties, to perform the drudgery of life.

Free labor has failed, and that which is free need not be substituted. Policy and humanity alike forbid the extension of the rights of free labor to the peoples and coming generations.

The slave laborer should be allowed to pour himself abroad without restraint, and find his Southern brethren in the North. I would spread the blessings of slave labor, like the seed of the Divine Master, to the utmost ends of the earth.

The Northern States, in rejecting slave labor, have destroyed order, and rejected the strongest argument to prove the existence of Deity. Free labor is impracticable, and is everywhere demoralizing, and insurrectionary.

Many in the South once believed that slaveholding was a moral and political evil, but that the folly and delusion are gone.

The hand that is familiar with the plough-handle should never be permitted to touch a ballot. We are told that men are not only born equal, but free.

Mechanics for sale. The subscriber has on hand two excellent carpenters, three blacksmiths, and one wheelwright.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN stands before the nation and the world as the political embodiment and representative of paid and enfranchised free labor.

The Peace Democracy says—'Close the war by an armistice, and a convention of all the States.' We, as laborers of the North, the Union party says—'Close the war by freeing the laborers of the South.'

The Peace Democracy says—'Close the war by an armistice, and a convention of all the States.' We, as laborers of the North, the Union party says—'Close the war by freeing the laborers of the South.'

LABORERS OF THE NORTH! For whom and for what do you mean to vote on the 8th of next November? For freedom or for slavery to the tolling millions of this nation and continent, and of the world!

LABORERS OF THE SOUTH! For whom and for what do you mean to vote on the 8th of next November? For freedom or for slavery to the tolling millions of this nation and continent, and of the world!

A CASE OF THRILLING INTEREST. DEAR GARRISON—The following extract is from an interesting letter written to me by a benevolent lady of New York, on her return home, after a recent visit to us in Boston.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

From an officer of the 55th Massachusetts, confined in Charleston jail. I was captured by confederate cavalry, and have been a prisoner of war ever since.

aged, he fought with that grand army till Chancellorsville. In one month more his time would have been over. In that battle his right arm was shattered.

When he was released, he was so weak that he had to hold his head up to keep it from falling about. When he went into the prison, he weighed one hundred and fifty pounds; when released, he weighed only ninety-four.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

DEAR FRIEND GARRISON—Knowing well your interest, as well as that of Liberator readers, in all that relates to the colored soldiers now doing battle to secure the liberties of the American nation.

there are men here who were made sergeants at Camp Meigs, (Readville,) who have had command of their companies for months. Can these men feel contented when they see others, who came into the regiment as second lieutenants, promoted to captain, and a crowd of incompetent civilians and non-commissioned officers of other regiments sent here to take their places?

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC "ONWARD TO RICHMOND." PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1. The Bulletin has the following: It is reported that Gen. Grant's cavalry Wednesday evening advanced on a reconnoissance to within one and a half miles of Richmond, and were surprised by five rebels in that vicinity.

FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

FROM A SERGEANT IN THE 65TH MASS., WHO, FOR MERITORIOUS CONDUCT, HAS BEEN PROMOTED. FOLLY ISLAND, July 28, 1864. I have seen considerable service, one way and another, both in the infantry tactics and also in artillery practice, both light and heavy.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME. The following, from the Charleston Mercury of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass.

A DEMOCRATIC OUTBURST OF "ENTHUSIASM." The rebel prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., cheered lustily when they heard that McClellan had been nominated at Chicago.

Poetry.

For the Liberator. ON THE CONQUEST OF ATLANTA BY THE UNION TROOPS. Mrs. Yess Fremont sent this despatch to a gentleman in San Francisco, on hearing, by telegraph, of the death of Rev. T. Starr King.

The Liberator.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY—A FREE BALLOT AND THE RULE OF THE MAJORITY. FARMINGTON (Michigan), Sept. 15, 1864. Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

Gregariousness, which seems to be a Celtic trait, and which is exhibited as palpably by the French as any other of that race...

THEODORE PARKER.

The following is from the columns of the London Star, and forms part of a Review of the Life and Correspondence of Theodore Parker, by Mr. Wells.

ly as I would lift a man out of the water, or pluck him from the teeth of a wolf, or snatch him from the hands of a murderer.

It would appear to grow spontaneously out of the arbitrary rule of slavery; or, if it had descended to them by legal or ancestral inheritance, there might be some show of reason for using it.

THOMAS STARR KING.

Peace soon o'er our borders shall spread her dove-like wings. And harpings that would rob our nation's life away, shall speedily be like other petty things.

THE DISTURBANCE ON INDIA STREET.

Mr. Editor.—The following article, with slight modifications, was some days since offered to one of the daily papers.

THE LAST HOURS OF PRINCE ALBERT.

There has been recently published in the English papers, an extract from a letter written to a friend in Germany, by a member of the Queen's household, shortly after the death of Prince Albert.

AMERICAN WOMEN.

I give American women all credit due them for the patriotic temper they have evinced since this war began.

HOW THE RELATIONSHIP BURNS.

The Marriage—Married, sometime about the year 1856, by his Sate Majesty, King Bechtold, Esq., Mr. Coppersmith, King Bechtold, Esq., and Mrs. Bathurst, Esq., of the United States.

YOUNG LADIES' BOARDING-SCHOOL.

TO LEWIS, A. M., M. D., will open a Boarding-School at Cambridge, Mass., on the first day of October, 1864.

KATIE SLADE.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

THE DISTURBANCE ON INDIA STREET.

Mr. Editor.—The following article, with slight modifications, was some days since offered to one of the daily papers.

AMERICAN WOMEN.

I give American women all credit due them for the patriotic temper they have evinced since this war began.

HOW THE RELATIONSHIP BURNS.

The Marriage—Married, sometime about the year 1856, by his Sate Majesty, King Bechtold, Esq., Mr. Coppersmith, King Bechtold, Esq., and Mrs. Bathurst, Esq., of the United States.

YOUNG LADIES' BOARDING-SCHOOL.

TO LEWIS, A. M., M. D., will open a Boarding-School at Cambridge, Mass., on the first day of October, 1864.

KATIE SLADE.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.

With fair hair and a breast, Faded in eternal sleep, Lipped in a death's embrace, Sweet eyes, closed in "Death's" embrace.