

MY BODY

Corporations fill the air with poison: chlorofluorocarbons, carbon monoxide, radioactive particles. This is one of the countless ways they pass on the costs of their business down to us. They say the air is still free—that it's almost the only thing that is—but nothing will be free from the contamination of capitalism until we're free to do things because they're good for us, not because they're profitable.

CrimethInc.

www.crimethinc.com

KEEP OUT