

WRITERS TAKE THEIR STAND ON PEACE AND CULTURAL FREEDOM

A Conference of Writers and Readers for Peace

at

The Lower Melbourne Town Hall

on

Monday, April 17th, at 7.30 p.m.

HEAR leading Australian writers, including

ALAN MARSHALL
KATHARINE SUSANNAH PRICHARD
JOHN MANIFOLD

 speak for Peace.

Chairman;

FRANK DALBY DAVIDSON

Poem by

LEONARD MANN

Messages to the Conference will be read from

J. B. PRIESTLEY
SEAN O'CASEY
LAURENCE HOUSMAN
THOMAS MANN
ELEANOR DARK
WALTER MURDOCH
etc.

PROFESSOR WALTER MURDOCH: "At this particular point in history, it is treason for a writer to try to preserve an artistic detachment, apart and aloof from public affairs. The cause of Peace is for the moment the core of all worthy human endeavour."

Public Invited.

Admission Free.