Celebrating all Western Australians

BHP has proudly supported the Western Australian of the Year Awards and WA Day for the past eight years.

This weekend, enjoy the WA Day celebrations taking place across our great state!

WA Day unites all people young and old, from all ethnicities and cultures, who have made Western Australia such an incredible and unique place to live. It's a day where we acknowledge the histories, diverse cultures and contributions made by everyone who proudly calls Western Australia home.

The Sunday family fun concludes with spectacular fireworks over the Swan River, featuring a soundtrack celebrating WA artists old and new!

Celebrating our state, thanks to you.

By simply playing our games, you've helped create WA Day events and activities all across WA. These community events bring us all together to celebrate our collective identity and appreciate the great place we live in.

You live in a dream state, and it's all yours for the taking.

HOW TO GET TO WA DAY FESTIVAL BURSOOD PARK

- How to get there
- Acrod Parking
 - Pedestrian Walkway
 - Train Station
 - Bus Station
 - Taylor Reserve Parking
 - MacCallum Park Parking
 - Rideshare Drop Off

Take Transperth to WA Day

Additional trains will stop at Burswood Station for the event. To get to Burswood Station, catch an Armadale/Thornlie Line train from Platform 4/5 at Perth Station.

Burswood Park is a 15-minute walk from the train station. Trains travelling to Perth will depart Burswood Station frequently to get you home after the event.

Trains will be busier than usual due to the AFL at Optus Stadium on Sunday afternoon so allow extra travel time.

Timetabled buses will operate on a Sunday/Public holiday timetable across the Transperth network.

For the cheapest way to get to the festival, a $12.80 Family Rider is just the ticket. Up to seven people (two standard and five concession) can travel for the whole day - so there's no need to buy a return ticket.

Visit the Transperth website or download the Transperth app to plan your journey.

SOTA MONDAY

DRAPHT

With a platinum record, multi-platinum and gold singles and two ARIAs under his belt, Drapht is already a song-writing prodigy. Whether it's his arresting lyrics or melodic hooks, Drapht can pretty much do everything. Come down to SOTA and see why he's considered one of Australia's top hip-hop heavyweights.

JEBEDIAH

They're the band that helped define the sound of the '90s, tearing the lid off The Big Day Out and the Hottest 100 with hits like 'Leaving Home,' 'Animal' and 'Harpoon.' Now, 23 years after Jebediah first bounced onstage, you can reconnect with their infectious energy and enthusiasm at SOTA.

JOHN BUTLER

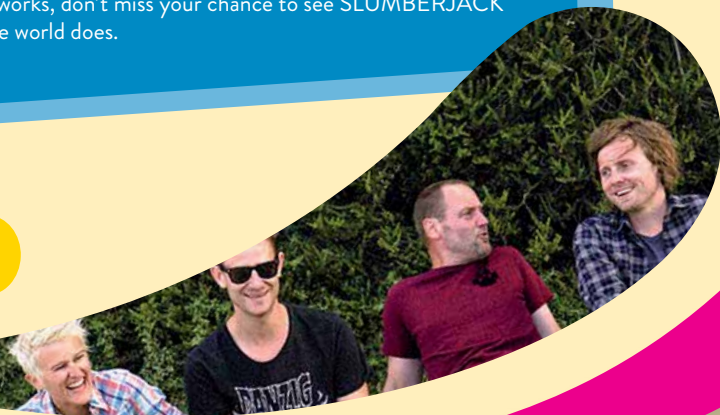

As a talented musician, activist and ultimate performer, John Butler gives something new to his listeners with each song he plays. See for yourself as John performs a swag of songs from his new album, HOME. Don't miss your chance to catch one of Western Australia's favourite artists onstage at SOTA.

KATY STEELE

As an ARIA-nominated singer, songwriter, guitarist and producer, Katy Steele's musical talent is plain for all to see. Her distinctive voice and sartorial splendour have attracted comparisons to PJ Harvey and Chrissie Hynde. Experience her for yourself as she takes to the SOTA stage.

SLUMBERJACK

Perth-based duo SLUMBERJACK have brought their music to new heights over the past year, turning out massive club hits like 'RA' and increasing their total streams to over 40 million. With their first-ever headline tour in the works, don't miss your chance to see SLUMBERJACK before the rest of the world does.

FAMILY SHOVELLER BAND

From the remote community of Bidyadanga in WA, this family band plays a fusion of rock and contemporary sound to tell stories about Karajarri culture.

FLOSSY

This WAM-nominated band is famous for unleashing its punchy, bass-driven melodies, perfectly synced harmonies, wailing guitar hooks and jump-up-and-down-worthy tunes.

GREAT GABLE

One of WA's upcoming bands, Great Gable is making headlines for combining a wide range of influences to put a subtle twist on the alternative-indie sound.

HYCLASS

Crowned 'Best Hip Hop Act 2018' by WAM, this talented female hip-hop artist produces a tremendous amount of soul intertwined with copious amounts of flavour.

REIJA LEE

A prominent figure in the global electronic community, Reija recently had big features on ShockOne's A Dark Machine and Zeds Dead's Blood Brother.

THE STRUGGLING KINGS

From One Arm Point in WA, Luke and Dan Riches have used their Indigenous heritage and genuine talent to influence their music in an exciting new way.

TETHER

Colliding dark synths with gritty guitar lines, Tether are set on a promising trajectory and are quickly garnering attention for their energetic live performances.

TŞOKO

A sound best described by the artist as: "Hip-hop tracks where I'm trying to knock your head off, or turn up joints which ya'll and the squad can get lit to."

YOUR GIRL PHO

This sassy and fun stage persona of Phoebe Gunson brings sweet jazz pop and high energy to each of her popular performances.

SOTA CENTRE STAGE

MONDAY 12-9PM

Get ready for a FREE, all-ages gig featuring an epic lineup of local talent kicking off at 12pm on Centre Stage.

Co-presented by WAM, you'll enjoy banging tunes from some of WA's biggest and best home-grown artists and performers. In addition to these awesome sounds we'll have plenty of food and drink to keep you hydrated and dancing all day long.

So no one will miss a second of the SOTA Fest action, we have a bigger than ever all-ages area right in front of the stage.

VISIT BURSWOOD PARK

Take time out from the Festival to stroll around beautiful and tranquil Burswood Park. Relax amongst the landscaped gardens, floral displays, public art and sculpture trails, children's playgrounds and picnic areas.

Western Australian of the Year Awards Lake and Swan Fountain.

The centrepiece of Burswood Park is, without doubt, its tranquil lake. It features a stunning bronze sculpture of a black swan that recognises recipients of the prestigious Western Australian of the Year Award and honours those people who have made the highest level of contribution to both state and community.

FREE FREMANTLE WA DAY FESTIVAL

12PM - 8PM
FREMANTLE FISHING BOAT HARBOUR

This is the day to come together to celebrate our shared values and cultural diversity. The WA Day Festival pays tribute to our Aboriginal history, our early European migrant background and the diverse range of international people who have made, and continue to make, Freo and WA their home.

Local Aboriginal Elders will open the event with a traditional smoking ceremony and Welcome to Country, followed by music and dance performances from several different cultures. A corroboree will take place at Bathers Beach later in the day.

You can enjoy musical and dance events in and around the harbour from talented performers who reflect the diverse background of WA's residents. The Festival will culminate with a dazzling lights and pyrotechnics display at the family-friendly time of 6pm on Sunday.

ONSLOW SPORTS CLUB

We all appreciate the beauty of Onslow's natural spirit and lifestyle. And now's the perfect time to celebrate our special part of WA at the Onslow WA Day Festival!

Hosted by the Shire of Ashburton, this free event brings the community together to enjoy a great Festival of live music, local market stalls, kids' activities, fishing and sporting displays and even a free BBQ!
