

WHEN THEY FIRE YOU

QUIT IT

Quit playing by their rules.
Quit counting on their system.
Quit buying into their idea of happiness. Quit obeying their laws. Quit thinking you could finally get ahead if you just tried a little harder. If they could, they'd fire everyone, leaving us to push grocery carts along the sidewalk and dig in the trash for food.
What's good for business is not good for humanity.
Quit letting them get away with it.
