

WHO BREITBART IS...REALLY

Andrew Breitbart and Larry Solov, Breitbart News Founders

Breitbart News is one of America's leading news organizations.

Breitbart routinely features exclusive interviews and original content with and from American and world leaders. It was conceived in 2007, when two Jewish-American best friends – Andrew Breitbart and Larry Solov – took a trip to Israel together. There, they decided to partner and create Breitbart News with the idea that truthful reporting and the free and open exchange of ideas is essential to maintain a robust democracy. With that foundation and the unwavering belief in the greatness of America, Breitbart News has grown into an international news company with bureaus in Washington DC, Los Angeles, London, Jerusalem and Rome. It has been lauded by the New York Times for having one of the most diverse newsrooms in the industry, and it has become a powerhouse on social media and radio....all due to the overarching premise that freedom flourishes with more voices, not fewer.

As a poor Hispanic child of Cuban refugees, my family stories were about the communists stripping my grandparents of everything – their home, their business, their possessions. Communism for them meant years in labor camps. The only way to prevent this again is to spread the truth about it.

“I want to acknowledge that Breitbart has been a phenomenal, dependable, and stalwart friend of the Jewish people and Israel from its inception.” – Rabbi Shmuley Boteach

There's a camaraderie at Breitbart that I haven't experienced before. It's so interesting to me how so many different people from different backgrounds can come together every day in pursuit of truth. We all love this country and what's so cool about that, is we all come from different parts of it.

Real diversity includes diversity of opinions and ideas. Breitbart is one of the most diverse places I've ever worked. People are willing to debate the ideas.

...Breitbart did something pretty interesting. Now, they didn't create a whole new platform but they did shift the entire media narrative in a different direction—in a powerful direction.

I know the positive pro-Israel record, pro-Semitic record — if you can call it that — certainly fair record of Breitbart when it comes to Israel and Jews, and I appreciate it, and I think the majority of people appreciate it as well.
