

SATURDAY 9th NOVEMBER 2019

8 Police cars were damaged ( 1 front tyre on each vehicle was slashed) at stow-on-wold in the cotswolds, gloucestershire, all vehicles were left disabled ,then within 10 minutes a stolen cherry-picker was used to remove a cash machine at eurogarage service station in stow road, moreton-in-marsh, officers were not able to respond immediately , no one was injured during the incident. Detective superintendent steve bean said : these 2 incidents do appear to be linked & would indicate that this crime was committed by a professional group.

of an all-
engaged
married
unaffiliated,
combatant (ok)
group engaged
engaged

with added pvp
(potentially violent propaganda)

