

For the Liberator.

PENNSYLVANIA TO MASSACHUSETTS

Hail! noble Massachusetts! a sister great thou wert...
Bow not unto a tyrant's rod; but, as thy sons have done...
Not now the many battle bold, and heavy roll of drums...

THE MADISON PAPERS.

Gen. Lincoln declared it to be his firm opinion that if himself and all his colleagues were to sign the Constitution...
Mr. Sherman was against the second part, as acknowledging me to the property, by taking them out of the character of slaves...

L B E R A T O R

That the opposition was grounded upon the preservation of those rights to which God and nature had given...
It was further said, that in this system, we were giving the general government the power to regulate commerce...
