

THE WEEKLY REGISTER

BOSTON, JUNE 30, 1850.

MEETING IN WORCESTER.—SPEECH OF JUDGE ALLEN.

The Worcester Daily Transcript states that a meeting of the citizens of Worcester and vicinity, upon the subject of the Convention, was held in the City Hall, last night at seven o'clock.

When the assembly was organized, the hall was received by the assembled multitude with a unanimous shout of "well, and well, continued again and again."

Resolved, That the calm, firm and dignified address by the Hon. Charles Allen at the late National Convention, was the most noble and patriotic address ever delivered in this country.

Resolved, That the free States expected not only the abolition of the slave trade, but the abolition of slavery in all territories to be selected, but they believed too long they were entitled to a candidate from the free States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

able opinion of the people of Massachusetts, from ready to unite with some other party, and stand with us in all our efforts.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

Resolved, That the Convention has done no such thing as to represent the free States, but has been a mere tool of the slave States.

