

TERMS: One Dollar per Annum, always payable in Advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS: One Square, 10 Lines, for the First Week; One Line, 75 Cts. for Each Subsequent Week.

PROOF OF OPPRESSION.

From the Plymouth We the People.

WORTH AMERICAN MAGAZINE. A few weeks ago we noticed, among other things, the arrival of the North...

By the way, we would like to see the copy of the magazine referred to, in order to see if the editor has any objection to our taking it for our own use. We will be glad to pay for it if necessary.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD - OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS. [SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1834.]

By the way, we would like to see the copy of the magazine referred to, in order to see if the editor has any objection to our taking it for our own use.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

There is a great deal of talk about the rights of the colored people, but we do not see any practical measures being taken to secure them.

It is a pity that the friends of the cause do not do more to enlighten the minds of the ignorant and superstitious.

DOOR

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1834.

MISS CRANDALL IN ENGLAND.

No incident in the progress of the anti-slavery cause has stood out so prominently, either in this country or abroad, as the untimely persecution of this heroic and philanthropic lady...

Since the marriage of Miss Crandall was announced, some of the newspapers have intimated that she had given up her school in Canterbury...

18, Aldersbury, London, March 31, 1834. MR. DEAR MADAM—You have, in all probability, seen this address long ago...

My dear Madam—You have, in all probability, seen this address long ago. I have the pleasure of communicating with you, I have very frequently conversed respecting your philanthropic and unassuming operations...

The Glasgow present has not returned in London. You will have observed the volume which accompanies these hurried lines, consolation, direction, and encouragement...

Dear Madam, I am, Sir, your obedient servant, G. THOMPSON.

MISS CRANDALL, Canterbury, Conn. LONDON, March 11th, 1834.

My dear Madam—Although a stranger to you, you will have observed the volume which accompanies these hurried lines, consolation, direction, and encouragement...

My dear Madam—Although a stranger to you, you will have observed the volume which accompanies these hurried lines, consolation, direction, and encouragement...

My dear Madam—Although a stranger to you, you will have observed the volume which accompanies these hurried lines, consolation, direction, and encouragement...

REMARKS ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION.

The object of the present meeting was to give an account of the proceedings of the late Convention of the American Anti-Slavery Society...

Windsor, David Thurston, Stephen Sewall, Esq., Holmes.

Augusta, Jas. A. Washington, Jr., Joseph Southwick, John Howland, John D. Smith, &c.

Portland, Samuel P. Hussey, Samuel Pessenden, Nathan W. Taylor, &c.

Passing over minor offences, which of course we do not expect to see in a large population and so sweeping a measure...

As an Antislavery Friend. Some one of those pretended friends but practical enemies of the southern people...

Both are the outlines of the hoax. Col. Stone alludes to it, blindly, in his Commercial Advertiser of the 24 inst. as follows:

The Editor of the Mobile Commercial Register is absent of the North, which circumstance will account for the inexcusable letter published in that paper of the 13th ultimo...

But why should the Col. be so sensitive? If the principles of religion be held in common...

By the principles of religion be held in common, the fighting of a duel, would they not be the friends which he boasts of having given to his opponent?

JAMAICA—Effect of emancipation. Every thing relating to the liberation of the slaves in this island is the subject of daily conversation...

The New York American, one of the most moderate papers in the country, says:—The following account of the late Convention...

We are furnished by the American with the following article from the Dispatch, one of the warmest journals in the island in opposition to the act of emancipation.

It is true that the late Convention was a success, but it is not to be wondered at, since the Convention was held in a country where the minds of the people were so generally prepared...

INSTRUCTIVE HISTORICAL FACTS. A recent interesting and instructive tract, entitled 'The History of the American Anti-Slavery Society,' was published by Rev. A. A. Phelps...

Florida was then bought, it seems, just to protect the slaves of Georgia.—Id.

Our political parties, of all parties, are found in the same position. Why then should we be surprised to find the abolitionists no the same?

EFFECTS OF THE EMANCIPATION LAW.

From the Glasgow Chronicle of July 11. The Glasgow Emancipation Society, which had a public meeting is about to be held...

Extract of a letter from a most worthy Missionary, to a gentleman in New-York, dated, Springfield, January 18th, 1834.

You will no doubt, join your thanksgivings to ours to our gracious Lord, who has caused the great change in the civil condition of the negroes to be effected with tranquility...

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

Such were the sentiments of a superior woman, and her number grew, that would adorn the soul of any christian.

