

FRENCH SOCIETY

For the abolition of slavery.

We announced, some weeks since, the formation of this Society. The members of the Committee, who have since dispersed during the vacation of the Chambers, and the Society could not be regularly organized till their return.

The Committee have appropriated two sessions to the examination of the prospectus prepared by Mr. B. de la Roche. This remarkable document narrates the success of those who have advocated in England the cause of the colored slave.

From the last number of the Liberator we are informed that the French Society have now been organized in Paris, Messrs. Cooper and Scoble, concerning the state of the British Colonies since the emancipation of the slaves.

AMERICAN UNION

From the last number of Zion's Herald, we give below a full account of the organization of this Society in the city of Boston.

THE AMERICAN UNION FOR THE RELIEF AND IMPROVEMENT OF THE COLORED RACE. This is the name of the Society, formed in Boston, two weeks since, by persons chosen from different parts of New-England.

form avowed principles unable to stand before a scrutiny. The Liberator, however, formed several measures of making a reasonable escape, and of adopting a half way measure, to avoid the guilt, but dread principles of what they call a compromise.

We may err, but we suspect there is too much expediency in the plan. One of its most objectionable elements is the election of members to be elected. Why not leave the society open to the admission of all who are in sympathy with the cause?

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Mr. FORTON.—The time has again come for the election of a member of the District of Columbia, in the Territory under the jurisdiction of Congress.

THE EDITOR OF THE NORTHAMPTON COURIER.

THE EDITOR OF THE NORTHAMPTON COURIER, though a very decided and active opponent of abolition doctrine, thus speaks in reference to abolishing Slavery in the District of Columbia: "The District of Columbia is a national ground. It is not a State Territory. We all have a right—both the north and the south, the east and the west, to decide upon the subject."

RECEIVED BY THE PROGRESSIVE SOCIETY.

RECEIVED BY THE PROGRESSIVE SOCIETY, on Thursday evening last, was both able and interesting. It was delivered with much interest, and attracted a large audience.

of his text, the 16th verse of the 10th chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, "For whosoever shall keep all these things, shall not see death." This is a promise of eternal life, and it is a promise that is not to be despised.

THE IRISH POPULATION.—No. 2.

In my last, Mr. Editor, I said a few words in behalf of a portion of our countrymen, namely, the Irish, who appear to be a different portion of our country, from ourselves. To pursue the subject, I have been reminded of the fact, that the Irish have been subjected to a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

COMMUNICATIONS.

THE IRISH POPULATION.—No. 2.

In my last, Mr. Editor, I said a few words in behalf of a portion of our countrymen, namely, the Irish, who appear to be a different portion of our country, from ourselves. To pursue the subject, I have been reminded of the fact, that the Irish have been subjected to a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIBERATOR.

MOST RESPECTED SIR,—I was blessed with an opportunity of being present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored race, which was held in the hall on Wednesday evening last.

REVIEW OF GERRIT SMITH'S LETTERS.

LETTER I.

Gerrit Smith, Esq. Sir.—Your letters have recently appeared in the Liberator, and have been read with interest by the friends of the cause of the colored slave.

LETTER II.

I presume you do not wish to confine the field of examination to Mr. Bacon, but having published your sentiments to the world, you are obliged to have them freely canvassed.

LETTER III.

It is not my intention to dispute the facts which you have stated, but to point out some errors in your reasoning, and to show that your conclusions are not warranted by the premises.

LETTER IV.

I have not time to do more than to say, that your letters have been read with interest by the friends of the cause of the colored slave.

LETTER V.

I have not time to do more than to say, that your letters have been read with interest by the friends of the cause of the colored slave.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY.

THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY, which is the basis of the American Colonization, is a system of oppression, which is not only unjust, but also cruel.

LETTERS.

[To the Liberator.] THE YANKEE GIRL. BY A. S. WRIGHT. Which the long evening-door the slugs by her feet, at that time she is stretching before. With a music as sweet as the music which seems Breathe softly in the air as the wind doth pass.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Legislation.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, the following bill was introduced and read, providing that the Messenger be authorized to prevent the distribution of improper papers within the Hall of Representatives, &c.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

THE LIBERATOR.

THE YANKEE GIRL. BY A. S. WRIGHT. Which the long evening-door the slugs by her feet, at that time she is stretching before. With a music as sweet as the music which seems Breathe softly in the air as the wind doth pass.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Legislation.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, the following bill was introduced and read, providing that the Messenger be authorized to prevent the distribution of improper papers within the Hall of Representatives, &c.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

THE LIBERATOR.

THE YANKEE GIRL. BY A. S. WRIGHT. Which the long evening-door the slugs by her feet, at that time she is stretching before. With a music as sweet as the music which seems Breathe softly in the air as the wind doth pass.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Legislation.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, the following bill was introduced and read, providing that the Messenger be authorized to prevent the distribution of improper papers within the Hall of Representatives, &c.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

RECORD OF SPEECHES.

Record of Speeches.—The following is a record of those who have successfully led the Speaker's chair of the House of Representatives of this State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.