REFUGEE OF OPPRESSION

CALL FOR A PUBLIC MEETING IN NEW-YORK.

The undersigned, citizens of New York, having with regret the knowledge of some improved traveling itineraries, assisted in their attempts to secure sectional journals, by a few misguided individuals, and being desirous to prove that these individuals constitute but a very small portion of the community—do hereby earnestly desire to cultivate the most friendly and honorable intercourse with them...

PUBLIC MEETING IN NEW-YORK.

The most numerous assembly of the kind ever witnessed at any public meeting in this city, convened on Thursday in the Park, to express their sentiments on the late resolutions of the House of Representatives on the subject of slavery.

CONCISE W. LAWRENCE, Chairman.

Mr. O'Connor seconded the resolutions, and said that in rising to do so, he was about to perform, as far as his duty to his country was concerned, a task demanded from every citizen, according to the best of his ability. If he designed to operate, could he be successful, the best hope of liberty would be lost.

PHILADELPHIA MEETING.

A large meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia city and county convened according to public notice, on Monday, at which Alderman M'MENAMEN presided.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we regard the call of our brethren in the Southern States, who view their efforts chiefly through the influence of Randall Hunt, Esq., who have been rejected. The following are some of them.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we consider the course of the Abolitionists in organizing societies, maintaining agents, and disseminating tracts, to be a course calculated to operate upon the institutions of the South, as unwarrantable, and deserving the emphatic reprehension and religious opposition of the friends of the South.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

any subscribers, as a gross infringement of the rights of those states, and as tending either to insurrection on the part of the slaves, or to greater security on the part of the masters, or to both.

Resolved, That we are of the opinion that the interference of foreign emissaries in a matter so intimately connected with our social and civil relations, and that if in spite of argument and entreaty, they shall persist in such interference, we recommend a resort to such measures as may be necessary to meet the exigency of the case, and remove the evil.

Resolved, That we are of the opinion that the interference of foreign emissaries, paid with foreign money, and sent into the country to assist our institutions, malign our patriots, excite our people, and distract our country, are regarded by all who cherish American pride and patriotism, with distrust and contempt.

and render necessary a heightened degree of vigilance and security, thus hesitating additional obstacles to the freedom, and increasing the affliction of the poor of their misguided efforts.

Resolved, That we regard the discrimination of incendiary publications throughout the slave-holding States, with indignation and horror; that measures so directly calculated to injure the souls of whole humanities, cannot, in any manner, be deemed a just and equitable reprobation of the benevolent, and patriotic, and efficient, but legal moderate measures, should be adopted to suppress an evil at once so dangerous and disgraceful.

Resolved, That the obnoxious measures of the Abolitionists having produced great and general excitement at the North, have already distracted the peace of our country, and threaten consequences still more extended and deplorable.

Resolved, That the efforts of foreign emissaries, paid with foreign money, and sent into the country to assist our institutions, malign our patriots, excite our people, and distract our country, are regarded by all who cherish American pride and patriotism, with distrust and contempt.

That any objection should have been raised to such resolutions is in our view a matter of astonishment.

We are pleased to hear that our Creole friends are about taking up this subject, and calling a meeting at New-York, &c. &c. at which we hope every friend of Southern interests will attend and pass such resolutions as will meet the feelings of this community.
