

THE LIBERATOR

Published weekly by Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Editor.

Agents: Nathan Winslow, Portland; Wm. H. Burleigh, Boston; Wm. C. Brewster, New York.

REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

From the Gospel Register. The Anti-Slavery Society of the Maine State...

From the Gospel Register. The Anti-Slavery Society of the Maine State... we hold the slave in every form.

From the Gospel Register. The Anti-Slavery Society of the Maine State... we hold the slave in every form.

From the Gospel Register. The Anti-Slavery Society of the Maine State... we hold the slave in every form.

From the Gospel Register. The Anti-Slavery Society of the Maine State... we hold the slave in every form.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD, OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS. THE LIBERATOR, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1838.

Remarks of Mr. Webster. The following resolution, moved by Mr. Clay, as a substitute for the one of Mr. Calhoun's committee...

Resolved, That the interference by the citizens of this State, in endeavoring to abolish slavery and to secure the freedom of the slave, is a just and proper exercise of their rights...

Resolved, That the interference by the citizens of this State, in endeavoring to abolish slavery and to secure the freedom of the slave, is a just and proper exercise of their rights...

Resolved, That the interference by the citizens of this State, in endeavoring to abolish slavery and to secure the freedom of the slave, is a just and proper exercise of their rights...

Resolved, That the interference by the citizens of this State, in endeavoring to abolish slavery and to secure the freedom of the slave, is a just and proper exercise of their rights...

Resolved, That the interference by the citizens of this State, in endeavoring to abolish slavery and to secure the freedom of the slave, is a just and proper exercise of their rights...

Speech of Governor Campbell. (A FEW DAYS SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF THE REV. J. C. CALHOUN, AT THE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY, IN BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, ON FEBRUARY 9, 1838.)

Mr. President, I do not wish to be presumptuous in offering to you this day of supporting universal emancipation...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Speech of Governor Campbell. (A FEW DAYS SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF THE REV. J. C. CALHOUN, AT THE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY, IN BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, ON FEBRUARY 9, 1838.)

Mr. President, I do not wish to be presumptuous in offering to you this day of supporting universal emancipation...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Speech of Governor Campbell. (A FEW DAYS SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF THE REV. J. C. CALHOUN, AT THE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY, IN BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, ON FEBRUARY 9, 1838.)

Mr. President, I do not wish to be presumptuous in offering to you this day of supporting universal emancipation...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Speech of Governor Campbell. (A FEW DAYS SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF THE REV. J. C. CALHOUN, AT THE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY, IN BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, ON FEBRUARY 9, 1838.)

Mr. President, I do not wish to be presumptuous in offering to you this day of supporting universal emancipation...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Speech of Governor Campbell. (A FEW DAYS SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF THE REV. J. C. CALHOUN, AT THE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY, IN BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, ON FEBRUARY 9, 1838.)

Mr. President, I do not wish to be presumptuous in offering to you this day of supporting universal emancipation...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

Perhaps the inquiry may be made where I was on the 1st of August, 1837. I was in Virginia...

feel emotions of pity, contempt, and defiance. We stand on the ground of truth, and we have built upon that foundation which cannot be shaken...

The events which have recently transpired constitute a new and an important argument for additional and more zealous efforts than those which hitherto have been exerted...

The state of Vermont, unanimously, has protested against the slave trade, and this Union of any state, whose constitution tolerates domestic slavery, and have demanded that the slave trade should be abolished...

Our demand, and your eloquence, and the exertion of your associated patriots, probably would, if it were not for the fact that Mr. Patton's gift—but to John C. Calhoun, with his clergy, has opened the flood-gates of discussion...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Your petitioners are anxiously watching the progress of this matter, and we are at an open ball and fair fight; until one party of the confederates are discomfited, and decamp from the glorious state, and the other...

JOHN FARMER, Secy. N. H. Anti-Slavery Society. We have the honor to be respectfully, Your Excellency's humble servant.

GOVERNOR HILL'S REPLY. CONCORD, JAN. 11, 1838. Sir: Your letter of January 1st, received several days after date, pronounces several queries...

1. Answering your first question as an abstract proposition, I should say that the principles of the Constitution of the United States, which the slave trade shall be abolished in the District of Columbia, wherever it can be done...

2. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

and we are all that they can do is to stand on the ground of truth, and we have built upon that foundation which cannot be shaken...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Our demand, and your eloquence, and the exertion of your associated patriots, probably would, if it were not for the fact that Mr. Patton's gift—but to John C. Calhoun, with his clergy...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Your petitioners are anxiously watching the progress of this matter, and we are at an open ball and fair fight; until one party of the confederates are discomfited, and decamp from the glorious state...

JOHN FARMER, Secy. N. H. Anti-Slavery Society. We have the honor to be respectfully, Your Excellency's humble servant.

GOVERNOR HILL'S REPLY. CONCORD, JAN. 11, 1838. Sir: Your letter of January 1st, received several days after date, pronounces several queries...

1. Answering your first question as an abstract proposition, I should say that the principles of the Constitution of the United States, which the slave trade shall be abolished in the District of Columbia, wherever it can be done...

2. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

3. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

and we are all that they can do is to stand on the ground of truth, and we have built upon that foundation which cannot be shaken...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Our demand, and your eloquence, and the exertion of your associated patriots, probably would, if it were not for the fact that Mr. Patton's gift—but to John C. Calhoun, with his clergy...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Your petitioners are anxiously watching the progress of this matter, and we are at an open ball and fair fight; until one party of the confederates are discomfited, and decamp from the glorious state...

JOHN FARMER, Secy. N. H. Anti-Slavery Society. We have the honor to be respectfully, Your Excellency's humble servant.

GOVERNOR HILL'S REPLY. CONCORD, JAN. 11, 1838. Sir: Your letter of January 1st, received several days after date, pronounces several queries...

1. Answering your first question as an abstract proposition, I should say that the principles of the Constitution of the United States, which the slave trade shall be abolished in the District of Columbia, wherever it can be done...

2. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

3. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

and we are all that they can do is to stand on the ground of truth, and we have built upon that foundation which cannot be shaken...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Our demand, and your eloquence, and the exertion of your associated patriots, probably would, if it were not for the fact that Mr. Patton's gift—but to John C. Calhoun, with his clergy...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Your petitioners are anxiously watching the progress of this matter, and we are at an open ball and fair fight; until one party of the confederates are discomfited, and decamp from the glorious state...

JOHN FARMER, Secy. N. H. Anti-Slavery Society. We have the honor to be respectfully, Your Excellency's humble servant.

GOVERNOR HILL'S REPLY. CONCORD, JAN. 11, 1838. Sir: Your letter of January 1st, received several days after date, pronounces several queries...

1. Answering your first question as an abstract proposition, I should say that the principles of the Constitution of the United States, which the slave trade shall be abolished in the District of Columbia, wherever it can be done...

2. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

3. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

and we are all that they can do is to stand on the ground of truth, and we have built upon that foundation which cannot be shaken...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Our demand, and your eloquence, and the exertion of your associated patriots, probably would, if it were not for the fact that Mr. Patton's gift—but to John C. Calhoun, with his clergy...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Your petitioners are anxiously watching the progress of this matter, and we are at an open ball and fair fight; until one party of the confederates are discomfited, and decamp from the glorious state...

JOHN FARMER, Secy. N. H. Anti-Slavery Society. We have the honor to be respectfully, Your Excellency's humble servant.

GOVERNOR HILL'S REPLY. CONCORD, JAN. 11, 1838. Sir: Your letter of January 1st, received several days after date, pronounces several queries...

1. Answering your first question as an abstract proposition, I should say that the principles of the Constitution of the United States, which the slave trade shall be abolished in the District of Columbia, wherever it can be done...

2. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

3. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

and we are all that they can do is to stand on the ground of truth, and we have built upon that foundation which cannot be shaken...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Our demand, and your eloquence, and the exertion of your associated patriots, probably would, if it were not for the fact that Mr. Patton's gift—but to John C. Calhoun, with his clergy...

It is a very edifying contemplation, that we have a man of the name of Calhoun, who is the subject of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia...

Your petitioners are anxiously watching the progress of this matter, and we are at an open ball and fair fight; until one party of the confederates are discomfited, and decamp from the glorious state...

JOHN FARMER, Secy. N. H. Anti-Slavery Society. We have the honor to be respectfully, Your Excellency's humble servant.

GOVERNOR HILL'S REPLY. CONCORD, JAN. 11, 1838. Sir: Your letter of January 1st, received several days after date, pronounces several queries...

1. Answering your first question as an abstract proposition, I should say that the principles of the Constitution of the United States, which the slave trade shall be abolished in the District of Columbia, wherever it can be done...

2. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

3. The Congress of the United States has no constitutional right, and of consequence cannot have the control, power, to abolish slavery and the slave trade in the District of Columbia...

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE... How have the men of Providence... How have the men of Providence... How have the men of Providence...

NON-SMOKING ON ULTRA TRADE... The following question was discussed before the... The following question was discussed before the...

DOMESTIC SCIENCE... DEAR BROTHERS: Some twenty persons were assembled... DEAR BROTHERS: Some twenty persons were assembled...

PARLIAMENTARY NO. 5, 1857... DEAR BROTHERS: Some twenty persons were assembled... DEAR BROTHERS: Some twenty persons were assembled...

CONFESSION... Having seen in various newspapers of the present... Having seen in various newspapers of the present...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...

THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION... THE HISTORY OF THE CONFESSION...