

Marlborough Hall, City of Massachusetts & S. Fair.

way does great things for the cause. It helped to raise the right feeling among the people. It was a grand success.

To the friends of freedom in Massachusetts, the intelligence will give fresh interest and new vigor to the cause.

By order of the Committee, MARIA W. CHAPMAN.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1850.

REPLY OF ABBOTT LAWRENCE.

The correspondence between Francis Jackson and others, and the abolition Whigs, respecting his views of the objection which rests on Congress immediately to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia.

It is a very deep and interesting subject. A very great deal has been said on it. It is a subject which should be considered by every citizen.

This gentleman has been nominated as the democratic representative to Congress, in opposition to Mr. Lawrence.

BRADFORD SUMNER.

BRADFORD SUMNER ON SLAVERY.

Dear Sir:—In answer to an inquiry addressed to you, on the occasion of your visit to the city of Boston, I beg to inform you that I have no objection to your being elected to Congress.

The late hour at which we received a copy of the correspondence between the abolition candidates in this country and Messrs. Lincoln and Sumner, was very late.

I am glad to see that you are so warmly interested in the cause of the oppressed.

ESSEX COUNTY.

A strong rally of the anti-slavery voters in Essex County, in convention, was held at Danvers Mills on the 21st inst.

TO THE VOTERS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

We shall have, at the anti-slavery vote, Nov. 25, 1850, on the Saturday before the election, printed bills for the use of our abolition friends.

RIGHTS OF VOTERS.—A CONFESSOR. The following remarks on the right of individuals to disregard the nominations of the party to which they are attached, are from the Boston Courier.

It is probable we may be told that these views are unorthodox, and that they are the penalty of our own opinions.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The undersigned member of the Board of the Boston Female Anti-Slavery Society, receives in the Liberator a copy of the proceedings of the Convention.

RE NOT RECEIVED.

We published a paragraph last week in which it was stated that Mr. W. B. Channing had declined to prepare a sermon of war and exhortation to be read on the 10th of the month.

Many circumstances occurred to render the occasion sad and profitable. The writer was very much affected by the scene.

Do nothing any more unfortunate—the degraded state of the business community, which it anticipated would prevent the success of the undertaking.

The spirit of perfect confidence with which the representatives of all parts of the Commonwealth came together, was a cordial assurance.
