A WHIG PROTEST.

The Salem Register, a staunch Whig paper, alluding to the late speech of Mr. Webster and the complimentary address to him by certain toad-eaters...

The Atlas, we notice, is not 'favored' with these complimentary communications, and has, moreover, become involved in a personal controversy with one of its Boston contemporaries...

The Keene (N. H.) Sentinel, an equally stiff Whig paper, says— The signers of this letter comprise the great body of business men, as well as the cotemporaries...

LITERARY NOTICES.

LETTER-DAY PAMPHLETS, edited by THOMAS CARLYLE. No. 1. The Present Time. Boston: Phillips, Sampson & Co., 110 Washington Street—1850.

Nature imprints upon what'er we see, That has a heart and life in it, Be free: The beasts are chartered—neither age nor force Can quell the love of freedom in a horse.

ed, only by a prior change in public sentiment; and that change can be effected only by agitation, discussion, intellectual and moral strife—the very things which Mr. Carlyle contemplates.

Webster's Speech Reviewed. We have received a copy of Wendell Phillips' Review of Webster's speech on Slavery. It is from the pen of a man who never, to our knowledge, wrote any thing that was not able, and is a most powerful and scorching examination of the principles and sentiments of the defender of the Constitution.

VALUABLE DOCUMENTS, NOW READY. A large edition, in pamphlet form, of WENDELL PHILLIPS' Review of the late Speech of Hon. Daniel Webster, in the U. S. Senate has been published.

BENEFIT EXHIBITION OF THE YOUNG MEN'S LITERARY SOCIETY. The inclement weather preventing many from attending the exhibition on March 7th, and an unanimous desire being manifested for its repetition, the members of the Society, in grateful acknowledgement of the kindness, would announce to their friends and the public that Cochrane Hall has been secured for the purpose, on next Tuesday evening, April 23rd, when it is hoped the efforts of members and volunteers in elocution and music will prove acceptable to all concurring their patronage.

GRAND VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT, BY THE LUCA FAMILY. From New Haven, Ct.—Lads from 12 to 18 years of age. In Cochrane Hall, Thursday and Friday Evenings, April 18th and 19th, 7 1/2 o'clock. Piano Forte, Violins and Violoncello. The youngest will preside at the Piano Forte. A choice collection of the most popular Music will be presented. Boston, April 17, 1850.

MEETING IN BOSTON FOR THE PRISONER. A meeting will be held at the Melodeon, next Sunday afternoon, April 21st, at the usual time of service, to consider the DUTY OF SOCIETY TO THE CRIMINAL. Addresses will be delivered by Wendell Phillips, John M. Spear, and others. A collection will be taken to aid John M. Spear in his labors for the poor prisoner. The cause and the occasion, it is hoped, will secure a full attendance.
