

Advertisements making less than a square in front three times for 75 cents—a square for $1.00.

The Agents of the American, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Ohio Anti-Slavery Societies, and of the Liberator, are authorized to receive contributions to the Liberator.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Editor.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, MASS., FRIDAY MORNING, 1851.

NO. 44.

Refuge of Oppression.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW.

Letters of a letter from HEAVY CATH, dated Ash-land, Oct. 1851, to a numerous Committee in New York, in relation to the Fugitive Slave Law, and its execution in this country.

It was opposed by the authors and supporters of the compromise in the last Congress, that the adoption of the measure of amendment was not only a gross violation of the unanimous concurrence of all the States, but a gross violation of the rights of the people of the United States, and of the rights of the free men of the world.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

the present exigency. It will be noticed that F. H. Seward, who represents the State of New York in the Senate of the United States, went back for a full and complete report by the Syracuse Journal, (a paper devoted to his interests) took occasion to remark that he did not suppose that such an act could be regarded as a recognition of the moral obligation of the Fugitive Slave Law. When men who are honored with the highest offices within the gift of our people, thus wantonly show their indifference on the side of rebellion, what wonder that there should be resistance to the law, and that the blood of faithful opponents should be shed while attempting to enforce them. A lot of Syracuse women, several of them in Bloomer dress, accompanied the prisoners to Auburn, and were favored by Seward, in company with the prisoners, to their residence, where they were cordially entertained. The whole party, however, and all the women, moved in procession. The remarks of the Albany Register, which was signed on the conduct of Governor Davis, are as just as they are severe.

BOOMERANG AND ABOLITIONISM. When the latter sentiment finds a lodgment in the bosom of a man, it is unforgotten and it is not to be eradicated. It was so on the examination of the case of the fugitive slave, John C. Conklin. It is said that on the last day, when the case was on the court, were several ladies from Syracuse, who had been in the city for some time, and who were in the city for some time, and who were in the city for some time, and who were in the city for some time.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

Selections.

From Frederick Douglass's Paper.

R. D. WEBB, GEORGE THOMPSON AND THE LIBERTY PARTY.

In a letter dated Bristol, England, from the gentleman first named, to the Editor of the National Standard, I saw painful evidence of a determined effort on the part of Messrs. Thompson and Webb, to place that class of Abolitionists who are in the Liberty Party of this country, in an absurd and ridiculous position before British philanthropists. What private grudge their gentlemen have, also I know not; but one thing we can infer, that Mr. Thompson's course, in this respect, was an exceedingly ungrateful, and ungenerous one to our certain knowledge, he had no more enlightening friends here, in this country, than we the faithful band of abolitionists, designated the Liberty Party.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

and whose testimony to Anti-Slavery truth is most consistent, straightforward, and stringent? What boldness are more bold in their exposure of the pro-slavery policy of the Church, or more faithful in their dealings with the two great parties of Slavery, the Whig and Democratic Parties.

Without disparaging the American Anti-Slavery Society, if we have no heart, even when they protest against such a course, we have no heart, even when they protest against such a course, we have no heart, even when they protest against such a course.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

The Liberator.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.

LETTER FROM WM. LOUIS GARRISON.

Barrow, Oct. 1851. My Dear Friend—A sudden cold, attended with considerable inflammation of the lungs, and other complications, has deprived me of the pleasure of attending the Annual Meeting of the Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society, at West Chester, next week.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

oppression, these are the works of the devil, not to be tolerated, but destroyed. Whoever undertakes to enforce them, whether called President, Judge, or Congress, is an enemy to the human race, and to the principles of a free people, in the American Congress, and thereby to make the PRESERVATION, PRODUCTIONS AND EXTENSION OF SLAVERY THE VITAL AND ANIMATING SPIRIT OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.—JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

WHOLE NO. 1086.

J. B. YERRINTON & SON, PRINTERS.

NO UNION WITH SLAVEHOLDERS.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

It is that regard, there is but one of the various reasons which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted, and which are so generally admitted.

HOW AMERICANS ESTABLISH JUSTICE AND ATTEND THEIR GRATITUDE TO ALMIGHTY GOD.

ANTI-SLAVERY BAZAAR.

NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY BAZAAR.

TO THE AMERICANS.
Dublin, Ireland.
Dear Friends—

The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

It is the intention of the committee to furnish the friends with a complete set of instructions, and to send them to each of the Bazaar Committees, and to the friends, to be used in their respective places.

It is the intention of the committee to furnish the friends with a complete set of instructions, and to send them to each of the Bazaar Committees, and to the friends, to be used in their respective places.

The Bazaar will open on Thursday, December 11th, at the spacious and beautiful Hall on the Worcester Street, Boston, commonly known as ASHLEY HALL.

It is the intention of the committee to furnish the friends with a complete set of instructions, and to send them to each of the Bazaar Committees, and to the friends, to be used in their respective places.

BOSTON FEMALE A. S. SOCIETY.
The annual meeting of the Boston F. A. S. Society was held at No. 64 Chancery Place, on the afternoon of Wednesday, Oct. 23d.

The President, Mrs. M. W. Weston, presided at the meeting, which was attended by a large number of friends.

GENERAL MEETING OF THE RHODE ISLAND STATE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.
The Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Rhode Island State Anti-Slavery Society will be held at Mechanics' Hall, Providence, on Wednesday and Thursday, October 23d and 24th.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.
The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.
The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.
The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.
The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.
The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT.
The Committee of the National Anti-Slavery Bazaar take this early opportunity of acquainting the friends with the arrangements, that ample may be made for the Bazaar, and to express their hope that a more brilliant success than has attended any previous exertion.

POLITICAL ACTION.
The time has come in the Liberator's account when we have to say a few words on the subject of Political Action.

POLITICAL ACTION.
The time has come in the Liberator's account when we have to say a few words on the subject of Political Action.

POLITICAL ACTION.
The time has come in the Liberator's account when we have to say a few words on the subject of Political Action.

SCHOOL OF DESIGN FOR WOMEN.
The object of this School will be to educate both of practical design, and to give the students a general knowledge of the art.

SCHOOL OF DESIGN FOR WOMEN.
The object of this School will be to educate both of practical design, and to give the students a general knowledge of the art.

SCHOOL OF DESIGN FOR WOMEN.
The object of this School will be to educate both of practical design, and to give the students a general knowledge of the art.

ADDRESS TO THE DEMOCRATS OF MASSACHUSETTS.

ANOTHER FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE.

The following is the text of the address of Governor Knapp to the Democrats of Massachusetts, on the subject of the Fugitive Slave Act.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH IN PENNSYLVANIA.
The New York Tribune comments upon the result of the late election in Pennsylvania as follows:

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SWAN AT SEA.
A new impulse is about to be given to the musical drama. A new candidate for the rank of Swan is about to be introduced.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

INVASION OF MEXICO—PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.
The President has issued a Proclamation in relation to the Invasion of Mexico.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
Whereas there is reason to believe that a Military Expedition is about to be sent to Mexico.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

THE SYRACUSE PRISONERS.
About one hundred of our most prominent citizens, and among them some of our most distinguished Statesmen, have been arrested.

The whole affair was taken up with a little less than a month ago, and the result is a victory for the cause of the fugitive slave.

