

"amerikkkan prisons have always borne a certain resemblance to Dachau and Buchenwald, places for the bad Blacks, Mexicans, Indians and poor whites. But the years have brought an increase in the percentage of Blacks for crimes that can clearly be traced to political-economic causes. There are still some Blacks here who consider themselves criminals - but not many. Believe me, with the time and incentive that these brothers and sisters have to read, study, and think, you will find no class or category more embittered, desperate, or dedicated to the ultimate remedy - Revolution.

George Jackson

