Performance Initiatives Undertaken

The Unit provides an internship program that runs throughout the year including Spring, Summer and Fall semesters of the college school year. The internship program allows college students to gain the necessary skills to acquire employment in the broadcast industry upon graduation. Interns receive academic credit for semester-long internships. The Unit offers hybrid internships in news/talk programming and in sports programming/digital content. During the reporting period, the Unit had a total of 32 interns from two different colleges/universities (31 from Arizona State University and 1 from Centenary University).

The Unit gave tours to the following groups during the reporting period: 36 students attending the ASU Summer Sports Broadcast Camp (July 18, 2019); and 12 children and 4 adults from A New Leaf organization in Mesa (July 31, 2019).

Members of the Unit's staff often speak to students about career opportunities in the broadcast industry. Our News Director participated in numerous speaking engagements throughout the reporting period. She made a presentation to high school students at the Cesar Chavez Leadership Institute at ASU on Public Speaking (June 3, 2019), she was a panelist at the Cesar Chavez Leadership Institute's "Community Heroes" career panel (June 6, 2019), she spoke to students at ASU's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism about diversity and inclusion in a newsroom (September 20, 2019), she participated in a curriculum video for ASU's Cronkite School on Ethics and Diversity in Leadership (December 26, 2019), and she spoke to a Sports Multimedia class at ASU's Cronkite School on creating podcasts (March 18, 2019). One of our Sports Talk Hosts spoke to a journalism class at ASU about sports broadcasting (February 11, 2020) and spoke to the Scottsdale Sunrise Rotary Club about sports broadcasting and conducted his presentation via Zoom due to the Coronavirus situation (May 14, 2020). One of our reporters spoke to students in the "Society of Female Scholars" at Mountain Ridge High School about working in media and her path to her current position (November 13, 2019). The Executive Producer for KTAR News spoke to a Sports Multimedia class at ASU (March 23, 2020). Another Sports Talk Host spoke to two different ASU Cronkite classes. He spoke about broadcasting NBA 2K games on the radio (April 16, 2020) and he spoke to a sports media/marketing class about working with media relations departments (October 24, 2019). Our Creative Director was a guest speaker in a sports multimedia class (March 25, 2020). One of our morning Sports Talk Show Hosts and his Producer spoke to high school students participating in the ASU Summer Sports Broadcast Camp about careers in sports broadcasting (July 18, 2019). In addition to guest speaking, both the Director of Digital Content and one of our Web Content Editors taught sports multimedia classes the spring 2020 semester at ASU's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism.

During the reporting period, the Unit participated in a mentorship program. Several members of the Unit's staff participated in a company-wide mentorship program as either a mentor or mentee. Each of these mentorships lasted approximately six months. Our News Director also mentored an international student and Hubert H. Humphrey Fellow from ASU and provided shadowing opportunities for her as well. Our Play by Play Board Operator had a student shadow him to learn about producing play by play sports broadcasts (July 23, August 3 and August 5, 2019).

The Unit also participated in two job fairs and four internship fairs. The job fairs included: The City of Phoenix Diversity Employment Day Career Fair (October 9, 2019) and the Grand Canyon University Strategic Employer Initiative Career Fair (October 9, 2019). The four internship fairs all took place at ASU's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism (October 4, 2019, October 25, 2019, February 28, 2020 and April 17, 2020 – this one via Zoom due to Coronavirus). The Unit planned to participate in the spring City of Phoenix Diversity Employment Day Career Fair that was due to be held May 20, 2020 before it was cancelled due to Coronavirus Stay-in-Place orders from the State of Arizona.

On December 4, 2019, the Unit hosted the Arizona Broadcaster's Association Active Shooter Training for all broadcasting organizations. The training featured speakers from the Phoenix Police Department on safety protocol when covering an active shooter situation. Multiple radio and television companies participated in the event.
