8 APPENDIX: THE SET-LISTS 33

1 INTRODUCTION

A productive end-of-the-decade year sees 77 performances – including a celebrated autumn tour – multiple archival releases, the release of the long-awaited Martin Scorsese Rolling Thunder Revue film, the first World of Bob Dylan Symposium in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and more exhibitions of both artwork and also (at the Gilcrease Museum in Tulsa) artifacts.

2 2019 AT A GLANCE

3 THE 2019 CALENDAR

- 3 January Guitarist Steve Ripley, who played on Shot of Love and toured with Dylan in 1981, dies in Pawnee, Oklahoma at the age of 69.
- 7 January Frequent collaborator with Dylan from 1980-1984, singer Clydie King dies in California at the age of 75.
- 23 January Signed, handwritten lyrics to “Like a Rolling Stone” (not the original manuscript) are auctioned online by University Archives.
- 26 January Story appears about Dylan agreeing in 2018 to a co-writing credit with 19-year-old Trapper Schoepp on a song lyric that Dylan had written and abandoned on November 20, 1961: “On, Wisconsin.” The song appears on Schoepp’s album, Primetime Illusion.
- 3 February Dylan licenses a version of “Blowin’ in the Wind” sung by Cloves for a Super Bowl Budweiser commercial promoting wind energy.
- 4 February Folklore Center owner (1957-1973) and promoter of Dylan’s first major New York concert (Carnegie Chapter Hall), Izzy Young, dies in Stockholm at the age of 90.
- 8 February Pablo Dylan, Dylan’s grandson, releases an EP, The Finest Somersault.
- 5 March Author and “official itinerant herbalist” of the Rolling Thunder Revue, Susan Green, dies at her home in Burlington, Vermont at the age of 76.
- 15 March Lyrical fragments emailed to Italian singer Jack Savoretti by Dylan become the basis for Savoretti’s “A Touchy Situation” (co-credited to “Robert Zimmerman”), the eighth track on Singing to Strangers, released today.
- 31 March With the same five-piece band as the previous tour, Dylan kicks off a 24-night tour of Europe in Dusseldorf, Germany.
- 9 April To coincide with the 50th anniversary of the release of Nashville Skyline, Bob Dylan announces that in 2020 he will be opening his own whiskey distillery and music venue in Nashville: Heaven’s Door Distillery and Center for the Arts. With a performance capacity of 360, the location will feature a restaurant and whiskey library, while also displaying Dylan’s art and welded sculptures.
- 12 April Dylan sends a signed LP of Time Out of Mind to Tower Records Dublin in appreciation for its support over the years.
- 13 April Columbia/Legacy releases 7500 replica copies of the original 1974 test pressing of Bob Dylan’s Blood on the Tracks for Record Store Day.
- 16 April At a concert in Vienna, Dylan addresses an audience member taking photographs after tripping on an onstage monitor and almost falling down: “Take pictures or don’t take pictures. We can either play or we can pose. Okay?”
- 19 April Dylan plays the 3000th show of the Never-Ending Tour in Innsbruck, Austria.
- 10 May The Gilcrease Museum in Tulsa, Oklahoma, in partnership with the Bob Dylan Center, launches Bob Dylan: Face Value and Beyond, exhibiting Dylan’s Face Value series of pastel drawings along with other drawings, films, and artifacts from the Bob Dylan Archive, including a manuscript for “Chimes of Freedom” and one of the Blood on the Tracks manuscript notebooks. Although originally advertised as running until 2020, the exhibit runs until September 15, 2019.
- 24 May As Dylan turns 78, Castle Fine Art releases a new batch of reproductions of Dylan’s paintings that are part of The Beaten Path series.
- 29 May Minnesota roots musician and music critic Tony Glover, harmonica player and vocalist for Koerner, Ray, & Glover, dies in St. Paul, Minnesota at the age of 79. Glover was an early peer and influence on Dylan while Dylan was in the St. Paul-Minneapolis area in the late 1950s and 1960; he was also a featured interview subject in No Direction Home and he wrote the liner notes for Bootleg Series Vol. 4: Bob Dylan Live 1966, The “Royal Albert Hall” Concert.

- 30 May The World of Bob Dylan 2019 – an international conference covering Dylan’s music, life, and work – cohosted by the University of Tulsa Institute for Bob Dylan Studies and the Bob Dylan Archive runs until June 2nd in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The symposium features 44 panels, 125 talks, a conversation with Roger McGuinn, and an exclusive glimpse into the Bob Dylan Archive hosted by curator Michael Chaiken.
- Leon Redbone, 69 years old, dies in Bucks County, Pennsylvania as he lived, a mystery. Dylan told Ben Fong-Torres of Rolling Stone in 1974: “Leon interests me [. . .] I’ve heard he’s anywhere from 25 to 60 [. . .] I can’t tell, But you gotta see him. He does old Jimmie Rodgers, then turns around and does a Robert Johnson.”
- 6 June Mac Rebennack, aka Dr. John, dies in New Orleans at the age of 77. In Under a Hoodoo Moon: The Life of the Night Tripper, Rebennack credited Dylan with giving him the inciting line (“I’m on the right trip, but I’m in the wrong car”) for what became his 1973 hit “Right Place, Wrong Time.”
- 7 June Columbia/Legacy releases the 14-disc Bob Dylan – The Rolling Thunder Revue: The 1975 Live Recordings box set, featuring Dylan’s complete sets from Worcester, Cambridge, the afternoon and evening shows from Boston, and Montreal, as well as rehearsals and rare performances from 1975.
- 11 June Theaters across the country screen Rolling Thunder Revue: A Bob Dylan Story by Martin Scorsese, a 142-minute film constructed from 16mm footage of the 1975 leg of the Rolling Thunder Revue that is described by Variety as “part documentary, part concert film, part fever dream.” The film features a 2017 or 2018 interview with Dylan conducted by Jeff Rosen. Internet rage is stoked by four fictional interviews featured in the film portrayed by Martin Von Hasselberg, Jim Gianopulos, Sharon Stone, and Michael Murphy.
- 12 June Rolling Thunder Revue: A Bob Dylan Story by Martin Scorsese debuts on Netflix.
- 21 June A short 14-night tour of Europe begins, culminating in two shows co-headlined with Neil Young in London and Kilkenny, Ireland.
- Elliot Roberts, who managed the careers of Neil Young, Joni Mitchell, Tom Petty, and others dies in Los Angeles at the age of 76. Roberts, who did some managing for Dylan in the 1980s, was responsible for suggesting that Tom Petty and The Heartbreakers back Dylan for the True Confessions and Temples in Flames tours, as well as for making the initial overture to G.E. Smith in early 1988 that resulted in both G.E. Smith and Christopher Parker forming the nucleus of Dylan’s first self-created band since 1984.
- 4 July Bob Dylan: A New Collection of Original Paintings opens at the Halcyon Gallery in London.
- 11 July Report that Bill Pagel, who already owns Dylan’s childhood home in Duluth, purchased Dylan’s childhood Hibbing home at 2425 7th Ave. East. Pagel intends to restore the house to its appearance when Dylan lived there from 1948-1959 and convert both it and the Duluth home into a museum project.
- 14 July The European leg of the tour comes to a close in Kilkenny where Dylan and Neil Young duet on “Will the Circle Be Unbroken?”
- 17 July In an interview, Jack White mentions that he gets advice “all the time” from Dylan: “All the time. He’s been an incredible mentor to me, and a good friend, too. I’m lucky to even have one conversation with him. Everything else has been icing on the cake.”
- 28 July Joan Baez concludes her final tour with a performance at Teatro Real in Madrid.
- 1 August Filmmaker D. A. Pennebaker, pioneer of cinema vérité and director of Don’t Look Back (1967) dies in Sag Harbor, New York at the age of 94. Pennebaker also operated a camera during the filming of Dylan’s 1966 tour of Europe and assembled the unreleased Something is Happening from that footage, some of which was used by Dylan in Eat the Document (1972). Pennebaker assembled unused 1965 footage shot for Don’t Look Back into the one-hour documentary 65 Revisited for the 2007 DVD release of Don’t Look Back. Footage for all of these projects was used in Scorsese's No Direction Home (2005), as was an interview with Pennebaker conducted by Jeff Rosen (cleverly shot with a handheld camera).

- 5 August American Nobel Prize laureate Toni Morrison dies in New York City at the age of 88. She released a statement at the time of Dylan winning the Nobel Prize calling the selection of Dylan by the Nobel Academy an "impressive choice."
- 20 August Louie Kemp's memoir, Dylan and Me, is published, recounting Kemp's friendship with Dylan, spanning 1953 to 2001.
- 29 August 195 silkscreen prints of "Train Tracks" from Drawn Blank Series go on sale for £14,950 at Castle Fine Art locations, first in Edinburgh, then York, then elsewhere, and always on castlefineart.com.
- 1 September Former Dylan bassist Rob Stoner (1975-1978) tweets that he heard from current bassist Tony Garnier (since 1989) that Dylan is "cutting back on the relentless gigging," although Dylan's 77 shows in 2019 are only a few less than in recent years and one must go back to 2010 to find a year that had 25 more shows than 2019's number of gigs.
- 13 September Dylan's 1969 duet with Johnny Cash from Nashville Skyline, "Girl From the North Country," is included on the 2-disc soundtrack to Country Music – A Film by Ken Burns.
- 15 September Dylan's influential decision to record in Nashville from 1966-1969 and his friendship and recordings with Johnny Cash are featured subjects in Ken Burns's 8-episode documentary, Country Music, debuting on PBS in the United States from September 15-25.
- 16 September Musician and musicologist, John Cohen, a founding member of the New Lost City Ramblers, passes away at the age of 87. Cohen was a featured interview subject in No Direction Home (2005). His 8mm footage of Dylan on a New York City rooftop in the spring of 1962 is the first film of Dylan in New York and is featured in the 2005 documentary.
- 23 September Robert Hunter dies in San Rafael, California at the age of 78. Hunter collaborated with Dylan on the lyrics to "Silvio" and "Ugliest Girl in the World" from Down in the Groove, nine of the ten songs from Together Through Life, and "Duquesne Whistle" from Tempest.
- 1 October Invaluable online resource, expectingrain.com, celebrates its 25th anniversary. Thank you Karl Erik Andersen!
- 5 October Musician and Bob Dylan author, Peter Stone Brown, passes away at the age of 68. He wrote the liner notes to Bootleg Series Vol. 8: Tell Tale Signs: Rare and Unreleased 1989-2006.
- 28 September The exhibition Retrospectum opens in the Moden Art Museum in Shanghai, China. It spans five decades of Dylan's artistic career, featuring more than 250 painting and drawings created using different mediums including oil, acrylic and watercolor paint, ink, pastel and charcoal as well as ironwork sculptures.
- 11 October Dylan begins a 39-night tour of the West Coast, Midwest, and East Coast of the United States in Irvine, California, primarily playing college campuses and garnering exceptional reviews. In Irvine, Dylan introduces the 25th Never-Ending Tour band, marking his first introduction of his band to the audience in over four years, the last time being at his concert in San Daniele del Friuli, Italy on 27 June 2015. Drummer George Recile, who played with Dylan from 2002-2019, is replaced with Matt Chamberlain. Bob Britt, who performed on Time Out of Mind, is added on guitar, returning the band to a six-person outfit.
- 12 October Swedish literary critic, professor, and also member (and first female secretary, 2015-2018) of the Swedish Academy (2013-2018), Sara Danius, passes away in Stockholm at the age of 57. Danius was secretary of the Academy when Dylan was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2016.
- 15 October A line of clothing from New York designer label Barking Irons – the Rolling Thunder Apparel Collection – becomes available through barkingirons.com.
- 1 November Bootleg Series Vol. 15: Travelin' Thru, 1967-1969, a 3-disc compilation of alternate studio versions and outtakes recorded for John Wesley Harding, Nashville Skyline, and Self Portrait is released. The collection leans into Dylan's collaborations with Johnny Cash, both in the studio and the Johnny Cash TV show, and also includes Dylan's 1970 recordings with Earl Scruggs for the documentary Earl Scruggs Performing with His Family and Friends, perhaps to capitalize upon the release of both Ken Burns's recent Country Music documentary as well as Thom Zimny's new documentary, The Gift: The Journey of Johnny Cash, which debuted November 11th.

- 8 November Dylan's version of "Like a Rolling Stone" with the Rolling Stones from April 1998 is included in both the CD and Blu-ray/DVD version of The Rolling Stones's Bridges to Buenos Aires.
- 23 November Dylan begins a triumphant 10-night residency at the Beacon Theatre in New York City. Many celebrities are spotted at the shows, especially toward the end of the run.
- 26 November Site of the new Bob Dylan Center in Tulsa, Oklahoma is announced as the Philbrook Museum of Art at 116 Reconciliation Way in the Tulsa Arts District.
- 3 December After the band introductions at the Beacon Theatre, Dylan introduces Jack White, who is in the audience, as "a great performer, great record-maker, great songwriter," even asking that the spotlight be put on White.
- 5 December After the band introductions at the Beacon Theatre, Dylan introduces Steve Earle and Jann Wenner, who are in the audience. He identifies Wenner as from Rolling Stone, "the magazine of sex, drugs, and politics."
- 6 December After the band introductions at the Beacon Theatre, Dylan introduces Steven Van Zandt and Martin Scorsese, both of whom are in the audience. Dylan jokes that The Last Temptation of Christ is his favorite Scorsese film and that Scorsese should make "The First Temptation of Christ." Sitting at the table with Scorsese is Leonardo DiCaprio. Also spotted at the show are guitarist Lenny Kaye and author Larry "Ratso" Sloman.
- The 2-disc 50th Anniversary Collection 1969 is made available as an extremely limited release. It includes Dylan's studio recordings from 1969 that remained unreleased after Bootleg Series Vol. 15: Travelin' Thru, 1967-1969.
- The 8-song soundtrack to the podcast Bear and a Banjo, co-produced by Dennis Quaid and T-Bone Burnett, is released, featuring Poo Bear's (Jason Boyd's) "Gone But Not Forgotten," with Basement Tapes-era lyrics by Dylan.
- 8 December Dylan concludes his touring for the year with a show in Washington, D.C.
- 26 December American actress Sue Lyon, star of Lolita (1962), who was represented in Dylan's "Midnight Caller" painting from The Beaten Path, dies in Los Angeles at the age of 73.

6 NEW BOOKS

Selections from the never-ending flood of books about Bob Dylan:

Derek Barker (ed.):

Bob Dylan Anthology Volume 3: Celebrating 200 Editions of Isis Magazine
Red Planet 2019. Hardback, 412 pages.

Isis is now the longest running Bob Dylan publication in the world, with more than 2000 paid copies per issue and still growing. Starting in 1985, the magazine contains a wealth of information on Bob Dylan by a range of authors – much of it not available anywhere else. This Anthology celebrates the 200th edition in the 34th year of continuous publication. Featuring a brand new selection of the latest and best articles, illustrations and photographs none of which have been available in book form before. This selection has been compiled by the magazine's founding editor, Derek Barker. The book covers Dylan's career that includes 36 studio albums, 13 live albums and 14 multi-disc collections in the bootleg series.

Bill Bradshaw:

Bob Dylan at the Isle of Wight Festival 1969, 50th Anniversary Special.
Medina Publishing 2019. Softback, 200 pages.

Here Bill Bradshaw celebrates the events of that summer 50 years on...how the Isle of Wight off England's southern coast staged what was then the nation's biggest festival – a huge coup. Eyewitness accounts from fans, artists, and the promoters bring alive that gilded summer and how it influenced both Dylan and the rock festival movement for generations to come.

Jim Curtis:

Decoding Dylan: Making Sense of the Songs That Changed Modern Culture.
McFarland 2019 Softback, 169 pages.

Taking readers behind Bob Dylan's familiar image as the enigmatic rebel of the 1960s, this book reveals a different view – that of a careful craftsman and student of the art of songwriting. Drawing on revelations from Dylan's memoir Chronicles and a variety of other sources, the author arrives at a radical new interpretation of Dylan's body of work, which revolutionized American music and won him the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2016. Dylan's songs are viewed as collages, ingeniously combining themes, and images from American popular culture and European high culture.

Bob Dylan: Retrospectrum

Exhibition catalogue from Modern Art Museum in Shanghai 2019
Castle Fine Art, Hardback, 494 pages.

A stunning book containing a selection of artworks from Bob Dylan's Retrospectrum exhibition at the Modern Art Museum in Shanghai, China, 28 September 2019 and 5 January 2020. This exhibition spanned five decades of Dylan's artistic career. It featured more than 250 painting and drawings created using different mediums including oil, acrylic and watercolor paint, ink, pastel and charcoal as well as ironwork sculptures. Featuring the artworks from Bob Dylan's first retrospective exhibition this beautiful hardback book is a must have for any Dylan fan.

Also featured in this book are the following essays:

A Man of vision and a man on a mission by Bill Flanagan.

Beyond Generations by Shah Bagel and Richard F. Thomas.

A capricious old man, he built the art of Eden by Sin Menglin.

The Nobel Prize In Literature 2016, presentation speech by professor Horace Engdahl from The Swedish Academy.

Mondo Scripto notes by Tom Piazza.

All texts are in Chinese and English.

EDLIS: Bob Dylan's Hibbing.

EDLIS Café Press Series 2019. Softback, 294 pages.

Bob Dylan's Hibbing is an EDLIS Café Press book on Hibbing and the mythical figure Bob Dylan who grew up there. Contributions to the EDLIS Café and related places over many decades are compiled here to give an overview of what the many people in EDLIS have thought about Bob Dylan and Hibbing. The illustrations are the structure of the story. What is true? What is a myth? What is history? What is imagination? The mix is much the same as you might find in a Bob Dylan work of art, whether song, painting, sculpture, book, poem, or interview.

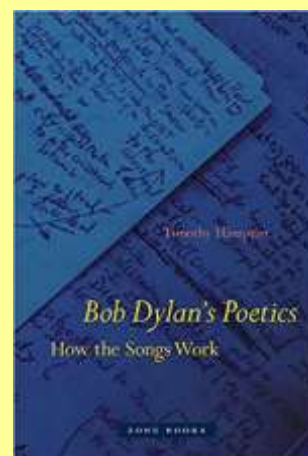

Timothy Hampton:

Bob Dylan's Poetics: How The Songs Work.

Zone Books 2019. Hardback, 285 pages.

A close examination of Bob Dylan's songs that locates his transgressive style within a long history of modern (and modernist) art. The 2016 Nobel Prize in Literature recognized Bob Dylan as a major modern artist, elevating his work beyond the world of popular music. In this book, Timothy Hampton focuses on the details and nuances of Dylan's songs, showing how they work as artistic statements designed to create meaning and elicit emotion.

Chris Howard and Mark Howard:

Listen Up! Recording Music with Bob Dylan, Neil Young, U2 and others.

ECW Press 2019. Softback, 221 pages.

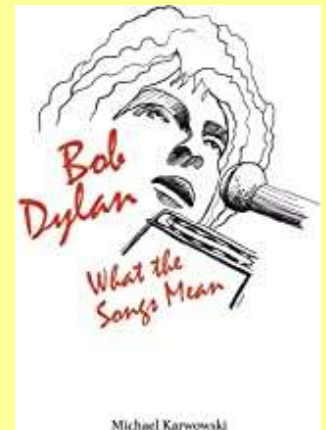

Mark Howard, a record producer/engineer/mixer and a trailblazer in the industry, will take you through the star-studded world of recording and producing Grammy Award-winning artists. Listen Up! is an essential read for anyone interested in music and its making. Along with the inside stories, each chapter gives recording and producing information and tips with expert understanding of the equipment used in making the world's most unforgettable records and explanations of the methods used to get the very best sound. Listen Up! is both production guide and exclusive backstage pass into the lives of some of the planet's most iconic musicians.

Michael Karwowski:

Bob Dylan: What the Songs Mean.
Matador 2019. Softback, 559 pages.

Dylan has written hundreds of songs, many of which are acknowledged masterpieces. “Blowin’ in the Wind,” “Like a Rolling Stone,” “Mr. Tambourine Man,” the list goes on and on. In the 1960s, he was hailed as a prophet. Since then, he’s generally been considered a genius. One thing he has always been, though, is an enigma. In Bob Dylan: What the Songs Mean, critic Michael Karwowski analyses the lyrics. In the process, he opens up all sorts of avenues into philosophy, mysticism, religion, literature, art, and, of course, music.

Louie Kemp:

Dylan & Me: 60 Years of Adventure.
Westrose Press 2019. Hardback, 210 pages.

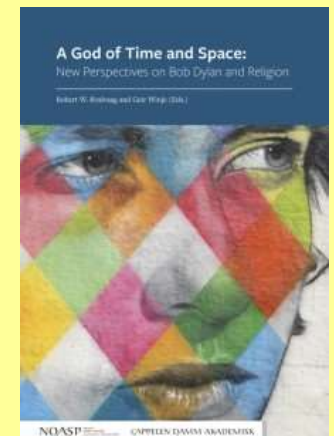

“It was at summer camp in northern Wisconsin in 1953 that I first met Bobby Zimmerman from Hibbing. He was twelve years old and he had a guitar. He would go around telling everybody that he was going to be a rock-and-roll star. I was eleven and I believed him.” So begins this honest, funny, and deeply affectionate memoir of a friendship that has spanned five decades of wild adventures, soul-searching conversation, musical milestones, and enduring comradery.

Robert Kvalvaag & Geir Winje (Eds.):

A God of Time and Space: New Perspectives on Bob Dylan and Religion.
Cappelen Damm Akademisk 2019. Softback, 237 pages.

This book is a collection of essays on Bob Dylan and religion. The eight scientific essays present new perspectives on the subject, aiming to elucidate the role played by religion in Bob Dylan’s artistic output and in the reception history of some of his songs.

Jochen Markhorst:

Blood on the Tracks: Dylan's Masterpiece in Blue.
Jochen Markhorst 2019. Softback, 141 pages.

In Blood On The Tracks – Dylan's Masterpiece In Blue, Dylan scholar Jochen Markhorst takes the reader through the beauty and background of the songs, the beautiful outtakes, the build-up to the masterpiece, and its reverberation.

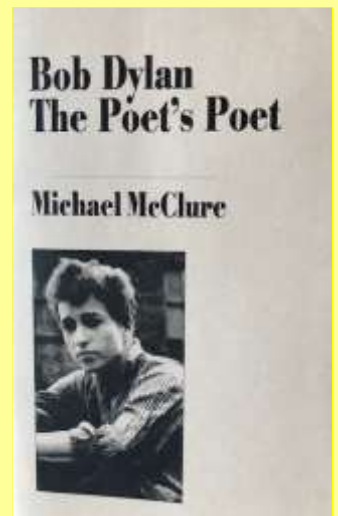

Michel McClure:

Bob Dylan: The Poet's Poet.

Beat Scene Press Chapbook Series 2019. Softback.

This essay first appeared in the March 14, 1974 issue of Rolling Stone magazine.

Andrew Muir:

The True Performing of It: Bob Dylan & William Shakespeare.

Red Planet 2019. Softback, 368 pages.

The True Performing Of It places the two writers side by side and examines the resultant analogies in their work that spring from this positioning. After a teasing prologue, the book begins by reflecting on the significance of Dylan's remarks on Shakespeare when accepting the Nobel Prize for Literature, before examining their shared bardic qualities, and their position of being feted for their undoubted literary qualities despite both being primarily artists of live performances of drama and music. The movement from 'low' to 'high' art is traced and its implications explored in depth and detail, as is the fierce opposition that the parallel theatrical and musical transitions from communal folk art to professional entertainment engendered. The parallels in their approaches to performing art, use of language, and source material form core chapters of the book. The last section of the book is an in-depth focus on The Tempest and Tempest as specific examples of the theories and generalities explored in previous chapters.

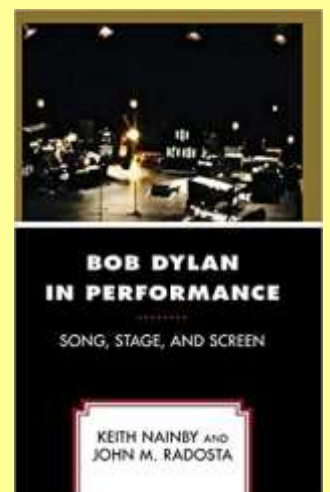

Keith Nainby and John M. Radosta:

Bob Dylan In Performance: Song, Stage and Screen.

Lexington Books 2019. Hardback, 297 pages.

This study of Bob Dylan's art employs a performance studies lens, exploring the distinctive ways he brings words and music to life on recordings, onstage, and onscreen. Chapters focus on the relationship of Dylan's recorded performances to the historical bardic role, to the American popular song tradition, and to rock music culture. His uses of both stage and studio to shape his performances are explored, as are his forays into cinema. Special consideration is given to his vocal performances and to his use of particular personae as a performer. The full scope of Dylan's body of work to date is situated in terms of the influences that have shaped his performances and the ways these performances have shaped contemporary popular music.

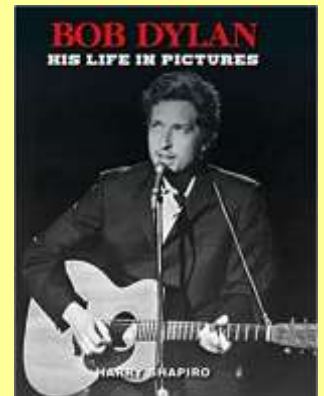

Harry Shapiro:

Bob Dylan: His Life in Pictures.

Chartwell Books 2019. Hardback, 256 pages.

This book does exactly what the title says. In 256 pages with over 300 images it provides a timeline to this amazing career, showing highlights along with more mundane moments at home and on tour.

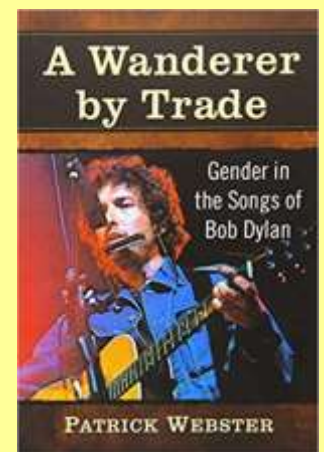

Patrick J. Webster:

A Wanderer by Trade: Gender in the Songs of Bob Dylan.

McFarland 2019. Softback, 187 pages.

The love songs of Bob Dylan provide a unique template on which to map the changes in American society since the 1960s. In looking across a diverse range of Dylan's songs, the book will explore issues surrounding masculinity, femininity, sexuality, and identity from such a perspective. There have been many books on Dylan, but this present work might be seen as distinct from others inasmuch as it will employ the use of specific aspects of cultural theory to explore the underlying appeal of Dylan's prolific output. In this way, it might be said to be a unique example within the world of Dylan studies, as the book possesses relatively little interest in Dylan the man, but a great sense of interest in the songs he has written, in the cultural texts he has produced. As such, the book aspires to offer an accurate depiction of Bob Dylan's reputation as an American songwriter.

Mike Wyvill & John Wraith:

Over the Road: Dylan's 2018 Concerts.

Two Riders 2019. Softback, 64 pages.

One in an ongoing series of Bob Dylan tour summaries. This volume features complete track listings of every 2018 show and is lavishly illustrated with photos, tickets, and other ephemera.
