MISCELLANEOUS

FROM JAMAICA. The following articles, the first a communication, and the second editorial, we cut from the Jamaica Watchman...

We are happy to perceive that the Americans in this island are ashamed of the conduct of their countrymen at home. Two of them (for purchase and sale of slaves) are distinguished by being signing in the columns of the Despatch and Chronicle...

TO THE EDITOR OF THE WATCHMAN. Through a mistaken desire of giving information to the public, I have been led to form a collection of names of colored persons...

Had we in the Texian, a brave and injured people, struggling in the land of their birth, or even of their adoption, for those abstract and social rights of mankind which were the objects of our revolution...

THE SOUTHERN UNION. HIS 'NESS' JURE 'A WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING'. About the year 1798, a sturdy veteran, Peter Priestley, was clerk, sexton, and grave-digger in the parish of St. Andrew's, in the city of York.

He was on a Saturday evening, in a cheerful and gloomy season, that Peter sallied forth in his dressing to finish an epith on a stone, when he was interrupted by a man who had just returned from the field in Yorkshire.

THE SOUTHERN UNION. HIS 'NESS' JURE 'A WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING'. Peter now rose straight up, and lighting his lantern he searched in vain for the cause whence this unaccountable mood proceeded...

With tolerating glad, however, Peter went home and to bed; but sleep had forsaken him. His wife in vain interrogated him as to the nature of his indisposition.

SONG OF THE FREE.

'Living, I shall assert the right of FREE DISCRETION dying, I shall assert it; and should I leave so noble inheritance to my children, by the blessing of God I will increase them the inheritance of FREE PRINCIPLES...

THE SOUTHERN UNION.

It is worthy of remark that the writer in the Chronicle as well as the Despatch, attributes the error of the publication of the Despatch to the printer. One would be led to infer from this circumstance, that they considered no one in New York willing or able to publish a paper so full of errors...

THE SOUTHERN UNION.

There shall be a firm, inviolable, and universal peace, and a true and sincere friendship between the United States of America, and the United Mexican States...

THE SOUTHERN UNION.

We suspend our remarks on this subject for the present, and direct our attention to a notice of a friend of the A. S. Society in Philadelphia to inform us, if he knows, whether a certain physician of that city, who is a Vice-President of the Young Men's Colonization Society...

Hence, Belconer, pretences! this moment retire; No further artifices employ; No more nearly pretend my name to admire...

THE SOUTHERN UNION.

With the Serpent's gulf this liberty and equality men essays to give, that our independent complained that the Americans did not make a difference between the browns and blacks...
