

THE TEXAS QUESTION—EXTRACTS FROM J. Q. ADAMS' SPEECH.

We shall not be able to find room for the whole of Mr. Adams' remarks on the Texas question. It would occupy nearly all our columns for several weeks. We must therefore be satisfied with extracts from the substance of his remarks. It will be our most important business which the country will have to settle in the hands of Mr. Adams. We have no doubt that he will be the subject of the next Congress.

ADAMS' RETURN TO THE SUBJECT OF SLAVERY.

Chairman [Mr. A.] returns to the subject of slavery, and speaks at length on this subject. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the House, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the United States of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same. He says that he has not spoken on this subject since he was in the Senate, viz. the depriving of one-half the people of the right to petition, and the restoration of the other half to the same.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD, OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND. No. 29.

FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1838.

which I had expressed throughout the whole of my speech before the South. I was told that it was not my intention to give any account, chiefly because it would be impossible to convey to my English readers my conviction of the smallness of the portion of American society which was concerned in the treatment, inflicted upon me. The subject was so great, and the modes of assault were so various, as to justify candid observers in concluding that the whole nation had been against me. I soon found how few can make a great noise, while the many are careless or ignorant of what is going on about a person in a very warm when they have nothing to do, and while not a few are rendered more hearty in their regard, and more generous in their assistance, by the disgrace of the individual who is under the oppression of public concern. All that I anticipated at the moment of reading the resolutions, was to make a public statement of the facts, and to afford an opportunity to my countrymen to judge for themselves what would be the result of my proceedings.

At two o'clock on the Wednesday we arrived at the house of a gentleman where we were to meet for the first time, and where we were to meet for the first time, and where we were to meet for the first time. We were met by a number of gentlemen, and where we were to meet for the first time, and where we were to meet for the first time.

The ladies assembled in two drawing-rooms, thrown into one by the folding-door being pulled down. They were met by a number of gentlemen, and where we were to meet for the first time, and where we were to meet for the first time.

As soon as they were aware of the demands of the Southern government, they petitioned their legislature for a hearing, according to the inviolable practice of persons who have any proposed law for the consideration of any proposed law. The hearing was granted, as a matter of course, and a committee of five members of the Legislature was appointed to prepare a report on the subject.

The expectation had been that few or none but the parties immediately concerned would be present at the discussion. It was, however, a great crowd that proved that more curiosity was abroad than had been supposed. I went just before the appointed hour to the gallery of the Senate Chamber. The abolitionists dropped in by and by, and the crowd was increased by them with ostentatious neglect, dawdling away the time, and keeping them waiting a full hour before they were seated.

As soon as they were aware of the demands of the Southern government, they petitioned their legislature for a hearing, according to the inviolable practice of persons who have any proposed law for the consideration of any proposed law. The hearing was granted, as a matter of course, and a committee of five members of the Legislature was appointed to prepare a report on the subject.

As soon as they were aware of the demands of the Southern government, they petitioned their legislature for a hearing, according to the inviolable practice of persons who have any proposed law for the consideration of any proposed law. The hearing was granted, as a matter of course, and a committee of five members of the Legislature was appointed to prepare a report on the subject.

As soon as they were aware of the demands of the Southern government, they petitioned their legislature for a hearing, according to the inviolable practice of persons who have any proposed law for the consideration of any proposed law. The hearing was granted, as a matter of course, and a committee of five members of the Legislature was appointed to prepare a report on the subject.

HISTORICAL.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

From Mr. Martin's Recollections of Western Travellers of this period in Massachusetts. The Union was mostly a meeting for the needy and distressed, and the despatch of business, which I should not have said I wanted, I would wait for to a perilous time; it was a casus belli meeting, a true reflection of the spirit and circumstances of the time and the cause. I would go, and as I was a member of the Union, I would go.

AGENTS.

- Edw. B. Brewer, Nathan Winslow, Portland.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.
- Wm. L. Garrison, Boston.

REFUGE OF OPPRESSION.

From the Rev. Lewis Slaters New-Yorker. We have been told that the city of New-York, in its capacity of a refuge for the oppressed, is a city of refuge for the oppressed. We have been told that the city of New-York, in its capacity of a refuge for the oppressed, is a city of refuge for the oppressed.

TO THE ABOLITIONISTS.

To the abolitionists, we have a message. We have a message to the abolitionists, we have a message. We have a message to the abolitionists, we have a message.

TO THE ABOLITIONISTS.

To the abolitionists, we have a message. We have a message to the abolitionists, we have a message. We have a message to the abolitionists, we have a message.

TO THE ABOLITIONISTS.

To the abolitionists, we have a message. We have a message to the abolitionists, we have a message. We have a message to the abolitionists, we have a message.

LIBRARY ...

MISCELLANEOUS ...

NEW PHASE OF SOUTHERN CHIVALRY ...

CHEROKEE AFFAIRS ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

PREPARING FOR PUBLICATION ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...

HYMN ...

THE LAPSE OF TIME ...

AMALGAMATION ...

THE BOSTON MENTAL CELEBRATION ...

FREE LABOR STORE ...

TEMPERANCE BOARDING HOUSE ...