

THE LIBERATOR BOSTON: FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1842.

Religious Formalities. The Quaker friends at Farmington, N. Y. will perceive that we have complied with their request, in giving the address to N. P. Rogers a place in our columns...

A Kiss for a Blow. This is the expressive title of a small, beautifully executed volume, embracing nearly 200 pages, 16 mo. by Henry C. Wright, specially designed for children...

The Nantucket Inquirer and the Mob. The editor of the Nantucket Inquirer will perceive, by our last number, that we have allowed him the full benefit of all his remarks...

USEFUL DONATION. The Editor of the Herald of Freedom states, in his last paper, that Abner Balch, of Massachusetts, has sent $100 of the money left in his hands by that philanthropist to the anti-slavery cause...

Reception of John Quincy Adams. It will be seen that a grand reception is to be given to JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, at Weymouth, on the 17th instant...

The American Anti-Slavery Almanac for 1843. This Almanac is now published and for sale at the Anti-Slavery Depositories in New-York and Boston. It is only necessary to say that it has been prepared by Mrs. Child, and contains a mass of chronological facts and occurrences...

Shorts in Louisiana. A gentleman direct from the State of Louisiana informs us, that the pecuniary condition of that State is becoming truly deplorable. It appears that the State has been in the habit of letting out for money for the planters to be paid in instalments...

TEMPERANCE ALMANAC. We have received a copy of the Almanac (the 10th of the series) prepared and published under the direction of the Executive Committee of the New-York State Temperance Society for 1843...

RECEIPTS. We are glad to perceive by the following Proposal, that our worthy anti-slavery friends in Nantucket are resolved, if practicable, to lay the facts and arguments that were made on the 1st of Anti-Slavery Convention in that town...

THE TRIBUNE SAYS THAT THE GRAND JURY OF ALBANY have found an indictment against the Rev. Abel B. Baker for libel on Henry Clay, in advertising to the churches in that county, that Mr. Clay was a duelist, gambler, robber, adulterer, man-slayer, &c.

Violence. A Constable was shot in Kentucky, near Cincinnati, in attempting to lay an execution on a man named Reed. The Constable was shot in the chest, and the man named Reed, who had been shot through the head, and who had been shot through the chest, and who had been shot through the chest...

THE MURDER. On the 8th inst. an affray occurred at Columbus, Miss. between Mr. R. Sparks and Colonel Thomas Williamson, in which Mr. Sparks was killed by a pistol shot. Mr. Sparks was shot in the chest, and the Colonel was shot in the chest...

THE FIRST OF AUGUST. The Bermuda Gazette of the 29th ult. says, 'Yesterday was the eighth anniversary of the emancipation of the slaves in the British possessions. Divine service was held in several churches in those islands, by the request of the representatives of the British Government...

THE SLAVE TRADE AT MOZAMBIQUE. Extracts of a letter from a naval officer. The slave trade here is quite stopped. There is not a single vessel in any of the ports of the coast. The Portuguese government has given its orders to the naval authorities to prevent the slave trade from being carried on...

FIRE. At 12 o'clock last night, fire was discovered in the upper part of a large frame building in Elizabeth-street, between Henry and Walker streets, N. Y. The building was occupied by an African Methodist Episcopal Church, as a meeting-house. The roof, galleries, and the whole upper part were destroyed. Said to be worth $200,000.

RECEPTION OF JOHN QUINCY ADAMS. The committee chosen to make arrangements for the reception of JOHN QUINCY ADAMS on his return from Congress, hereby announce that the return of his constituents will be held, for that purpose, on Saturday, the 17th inst. at 10 o'clock, P. M. at Perkins's meeting-house, near Weymouth Landing. All persons friendly to Mr. Adams are requested to attend.

THE LIBERATOR'S RECEIPTS. Abner Sanger, Danvers, in part for his pledge of annual meeting, $20 00. Mary Willig, Boston, do. do. 1 00. Anna Sibley, do. do. 1 00. Debrah Francis, balance of P. N. Co. contributions, 45.

TO THE ABOLITIONISTS OF WESTERN AND CENTRAL NEW-YORK. DEAR FRIENDS: The Executive Committee of the American Anti-Slavery Society are anxious to co-operate with you, in extending the glorious principles of immediate and unconditional emancipation, and for creating more zeal and exciting a deeper interest for the cause of two and a half millions of our oppressed fellow-countrymen.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE ORDER OF THE CONVENTIONS: 10th. Yates Co. P. N. Van, 2d Friday, Sept. 9th. 11th. Steuben Co. Prattsburg, 2d Tuesday, do. 13th. Chenango Co. Millport, 2d Friday, do. 16th. Tioga Co. Oswego, 3d Tuesday, do. 20th. 14th. Tompkins Co. Ithaca, 4th Friday, do. 23d. 15th. Cayuga Co. Leyard, 4th Tuesday, do. 27th. 16th. Seneca Co. Waterloo, 5th Friday, do. 30th. 17th. Cayuga Co. Cato Falls Corners, 1st Tuesday, Oct. 4th.

RECEPTION OF JOHN QUINCY ADAMS. The committee chosen to make arrangements for the reception of JOHN QUINCY ADAMS on his return from Congress, hereby announce that the return of his constituents will be held, for that purpose, on Saturday, the 17th inst. at 10 o'clock, P. M. at Perkins's meeting-house, near Weymouth Landing. All persons friendly to Mr. Adams are requested to attend.

GRAND PICNIC AT PRINCETON. Arrangements have been made by the zealous and untiring friends of the anti-slavery cause in Princeton, (Mass.) for the holding of a great Anti-Slavery Picnic at Princeton, on Friday next, the 16th inst. (a beautiful proof, if the weather be not stormy.) by the abolitionists of Princeton and the surrounding towns, on Friday next, September 16th, commencing at 9 o'clock, A. M. Several distinguished speakers are expected from abroad. It is hoped that it will be a grand and successful gathering, and that the cause of Liberty will be promoted, and the domination of Slavery will be shaken, and that the day will be soon witnessed in the land, on which shall be proclaimed the complete and eternal emancipation of every slave who is in bondage on the American soil. Come one—come all—come as the waves come!

RELIEVE THE OPPRESSED. A public meeting will be held in the Chardon-street Chapel, on Tuesday evening next, Sept. 13th, at 7 o'clock, to consider the case of Walter Freeman, formerly a slave belonging to the Hon. George M. Badger, of New-Castle, (and Secretary of the Navy, but now a ransomed freeman, who is endeavoring to procure the means to liberate his wife and six children, who are held in slavery by Mr. Badger, who has refused to manumit them, until the sum of $5000 shall be paid to him. The sum of $1500 dollars has already been collected; and it is necessary that the remaining $3500 should be speedily obtained. The meeting will be addressed by several individuals, Freeman and his family will be present. All persons who are friendly to the object of the meeting are urged to attend, and respectfully solicited to bring with them such pecuniary aid as they may find it in their power to give. Boston, Sept. 8, 1842.

POCKET BOOKS. The Liberator offers for sale a large list of pocket-books, of various kinds, at a low price. A. S. JORDAN, No. 2, Milk-street, 2d door from Washington-st. Boston.

