From the Friend of Man. THE RECREANT PRIEST. Indignant Muse! amongst the lark among...

Such is the clerical apologist. For slavery! And do I wrong to raise The note of condemnation...

He who professes great regard for right, Yet plays the hypocrite, and acts unjust...

Such is the consequence of evil-doing! such The fit reward for bowing down to Baal!

Who to the preacher, who with wicked tongue Assails the roset of virtue—liberty!

NON-RESISTANCE

From the Friend of Man. Civil Government—Views of the Quakers. We have been somewhat surprised to find that the peculiar views of our modern non-resistance...

On this point, we have just met with an important document in the Philadelphia Friend, for the 18th of 4th month, 1840. It is nothing less than an official statement of manifestos...

We have ever acknowledged the propriety and necessity of human government in conducting the affairs of men, and have from time to time, since our origin...

The Representatives then proceed to cite the example of Christ in paying tribute, and his command to render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's...

These citations from holy Scripture we think sufficiently establish the position that civil government was recognized and assumed by the author of Christianity...

We have not room for the abundant quotations that we have from the Rev. John Jay, John Jay, Esq., Wm. Salt, Esq., Edward Burroughs, Richard Hubberton, and large bodies of the people called Quakers...

Now can we omit to refer to the example of William Penn, who, as Governor of Pennsylvania, in the administration of the laws, and in his treaties and dealings with the natives...

It is a well-known fact, that in the year 1763, the Society of Friends has always acknowledged its authority and contributed to its support; and to prove this, we shall quote from various writers of standard authority in the Society...

We have deemed it important to state these facts at the present time, because we have thought we discovered among abolitionists, who are zealous and justly so as we think of the paralytic effect of the so-called non-resistance principles in our ranks...

Non-Resistance. Though we cannot declare ourselves a thorough disciple to the principles of non-resistance, in all its length and breadth, yet we are somewhat surprised at the course pursued by many of our brethren in the editorial ranks, and in the ministerial office, in relation to this great subject...

MISCELLANY.

TEMPERANCE CAUSE IN IRELAND. DEAR SIR.—By late arrivals, I continue to receive the most astonishing accounts of the Temperance cause in Ireland. The whole nation is aroused to the importance of the question...

Roll onward, onward thou blest cause, Till all the earth is free! The following notice appears in the Dublin Evening Post:—The Distillers of Ireland are requested to meet in Dublin on Tuesday evening next, to take into consideration the expediency of the trade...

Very Dear Sir,—We are very much encouraged by the recently stated views of our countrymen, entertained by the Society of Friends, the Representatives of the Yearly Meeting proceed to say:—We have ever acknowledged the propriety and necessity of human government...

THE TEMPERANCE REFORMATION IN IRELAND. Our readers are already aware of the Temperance reformation which is going on in Ireland, chiefly through the labors of Father Mathew, a Catholic Priest. A letter from Dublin, dated March 30th, states that on the previous Sunday, he preached a charity sermon in the Roman Catholic Metropolitan Church, and the most sanguine expectations of the audience were fully realized...

At a quarter to 11, (says the letter), the Rev. Gentleman arrived, accompanied by several other Rev. Clergymen, and a large number of laymen. He spoke for about half an hour to the multitude in a strain of the most impassioned eloquence and zeal—and then, all arrangements as to order having been made, he commenced administering the pledge...

Penitents, who come, and are still pouring in from distant parts of the country to take the pledge in his hands. Not a single instance of intoxication has exhibited itself up to this hour. The greatest order pervades the vast assemblage. The proceedings are conducted with the most perfect order, and the doom of intemperance in Ireland, and with it much of its miseries...

THE BIBLE. The following is an extract from an article in the last number of our Magazine, written by O. A. Brownson, the editor:—I remember well the time, when the Bible was to me a revolting book, when I could find no meaning in it, and when I could not believe that religious people could honestly regard it as they professed to regard it...

A BATHER MISTAKE. A BATHER MISTAKE was stopped in their progress by the civil authorities of Baltimore, on Saturday last. It consisted of a white citizen of Norfolk, a colored woman and several children of seven years of age, who were proceeding to a public bath of girl of sixteen, with a complexion and features which showed no trace of African descent. The suspicion which caused the interference of the authorities was that the gentleman was conveying the colored woman to the city, to be sold as a slave...

INCREASE OF VIOLENCE. It is appalling to contemplate the increase of reckless and violent deeds. This nation, especially in its large cities, suffers from the rapid accumulation of the worst kind of foreigners, who are daily increasing in number and force in the administration of law, but has its evil influence. The peculiar pressure of the times having thrown many out of employment, has increased the tendency to theft, robbery, gambling and intemperance, among the unprotected part of the community. These things, when taken together, are sometimes changed into prisons in the twinkling of an eye—the spirit of reviving grace.—N. Y. Evangelist.

PHRENOLOGICAL NOTICE. WILLIAM WEST, Phrenologist, 147-1/2 Washington street, (where he can be consulted at any hour, and the proceeds of his services, given in giving phrenological descriptions of talents and dispositions, and all persons who may wish to avail themselves of his skill as an experimental phrenologist are respectfully invited to call...

GENTLE BOARD. FOUR lower and several upper chambers will be vacated by gentlemen resuming their country seats on the first of April. Several single rooms may be taken immediately. The suits of rooms are convenient for families and others desiring a quiet, central and pleasant situation for a permanent residence...

ANTI-SLAVERY PRESS! DOW AND JACKSON, (SUCCESSORS TO ISAAC KNAPP,) BOOK, CARD, AND FANCY JOB PRINTERS, 174 Devonshire Street, London, W.

COLE'S PARAGON. THOMAS COLE returns his thanks to the public, for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received, and solicits a continuance of the same. He has well known that the public are desirous of having all kinds of work in their line in a better manner, and can do it on the most reasonable terms...

Dr. Hitchcock, Dentist, No. 98 Cross Street, corner of Saldern Street, Boston. Dr. H. has an Improved Extractor for removing teeth, which is superior and far preferable to all other instruments. Its popularity and excellence require no other recommendation than the fact, that during the past year it has removed nearly Two Thousand Teeth...

THEORY OF LEGISLATION. TRANSLATED from the French of M. Dumont, by R. HILDRETH, 2 vols. 12mo. just published by WEEKS, JORDAN & CO. 121 Washington Street.

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING A SELECTION FROM THE WRITINGS OF THE LATE DR. FOLLEN. BENEDES various articles which Dr. Follen has furnished for periodical journals in this country, he left a large number of manuscripts, many of which would need no alteration to prepare them for the press. It is thought that a selection from these manuscripts, prepared by Mrs. Follen, and printed in a book, would be a valuable addition to the literature of the country...
