

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND.

BOSTON, FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1843.

WHOLE NO. 646.

REFUGEE OF OPPRESSION. From the Christian Reflector. Slavery and Missions. Abolition generally admit that slavery is an evil...

SELECTIONS. From the Herald of Freedom. Imprisonment of Dr. Sylvanus Brown. Salem Jail, Monday, April 3, 1843.

Mr. Clay. They know well, that he has never, in all his public life, trembled or faltered. He has never sacrificed conviction, principle, or duty...

Wakefield Gale rose and said in the pulpit. The audience are requested to be seated, and uncover their heads. I asked him 'in whose name you are meeting today?'

newspapers, 1578 dollars. A committee recently appointed to investigate how much property the colored people possess, had not time to ascertain the amount of more than about two-thirds of the whole population...

Wretched Condition of the South. Mr. Enroot. A correspondent of the Lynn Freeman, who has been travelling in the South and West, is publishing a series of letters on the manners, customs, and features of the country...

From the N. Y. American. A White Fugitive from Slavery. Mr. Lee, of Maysville, Kentucky, advertises seven runaway slaves, and among them is a female, whom he thus describes:

Condition of the Free People of Color. The following facts in relation to the free people of color in this city, are taken from a small paper published here in 1837. We have reason to believe that their condition has been much improved since then...

From a statement published by order of the guardians of the poor in 1830, it appears that out of 549 out-door poor relieved during that year, only 22 were persons of color, being about four per cent of the whole number...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

From the Pennsylvanian Freeman. The amount of taxes paid annually by the colored people of Philadelphia, about 2500 dollars; while the sums expended for the relief of their poor, out of the public funds, has rarely, if ever, exceeded 2000 dollars a year...

Vertical text on the left margin containing various notices and advertisements.

Vertical text in the second column from the left margin.

Vertical text in the third column from the left margin.

Vertical text in the fourth column from the left margin.

Vertical text in the fifth column from the left margin.

Vertical text in the sixth column from the left margin.

Vertical text on the right margin containing various notices and advertisements.

For all men were speaking well of me? If all men were speaking well of me, there would be cause to doubt...

another man as not belonging to them implies that they are the leaders in the cause which he is presuming to advocate...

The Anti-Slavery Standard. The retirement of Mrs. Curtis from the editorial chair of the Anti-Slavery Standard will be deeply regretted...

The American Church. The able Essay on 'Caste and Slavery in the American Church, by a Churchman,' which recently appeared in the 'New World,' and from thence was transferred to our columns...

New-England Convention--Grand Rally of Abolitionists--The Tabernacle--Faneuil Hall! The time for holding the New-England Anti-Slavery Convention was erroneously stated in our last issue...

Murder. The Raleigh (N. C.) Register chronicles a fearful murder in Hawfield settlement, Orange county. A man named Steele had a dispute with his brother...

Dear Sir, Yours truly, EDWARD SEARCH.

Letter from Gerrit Smith. PATERSON, May 8, 1843. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

Thank you for your London correspondent for his very acceptable letter.

Dear Sir, Yours truly, EDWARD SEARCH.

Letter from Gerrit Smith. PATERSON, May 8, 1843. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

Thank you for your London correspondent for his very acceptable letter.

Dear Sir, Yours truly, EDWARD SEARCH.

Letter from Gerrit Smith. PATERSON, May 8, 1843. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

Thank you for your London correspondent for his very acceptable letter.

Dear Sir, Yours truly, EDWARD SEARCH.

Letter from Gerrit Smith. PATERSON, May 8, 1843. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

Thank you for your London correspondent for his very acceptable letter.

Dear Sir, Yours truly, EDWARD SEARCH.

Letter from Gerrit Smith. PATERSON, May 8, 1843. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

Thank you for your London correspondent for his very acceptable letter.

REMARKS.

I am not tenacious of having the last word in this slight controversy; but it seems to me that this letter of Mr. Smith is full of words, words, words, used to no purpose...

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

REMARKS.

I am not tenacious of having the last word in this slight controversy; but it seems to me that this letter of Mr. Smith is full of words, words, words, used to no purpose...

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

REMARKS.

I am not tenacious of having the last word in this slight controversy; but it seems to me that this letter of Mr. Smith is full of words, words, words, used to no purpose...

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

REMARKS.

I am not tenacious of having the last word in this slight controversy; but it seems to me that this letter of Mr. Smith is full of words, words, words, used to no purpose...

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

REMARKS.

I am not tenacious of having the last word in this slight controversy; but it seems to me that this letter of Mr. Smith is full of words, words, words, used to no purpose...

My DEAR SIR--I thank you for your prompt publication of my letter to you of 28th ultimo. It is another evidence that you would not do me intentional injustice.

I shall be content to be forever silent about our disagreement, when I shall have spoken in this letter a few more words of explanation.

In a public letter last winter, I charged, 1st, that the Liberator and certain other newspapers do not hold the language which they should do...

Now, it is probable that you will say, that the first and second charges, in my public letter, are substantially but one and the same charge.

