

Massachusetts Politics. A very important election is soon to take place in the State...

Such are the candidates presented for your suffrage in the gubernatorial chair of this Commonwealth...

There is the abolitionist who would not make any compromise in electing John Pierpont Governor of Massachusetts...

Such being the present position of the Liberty party, I can see no valid reason why I should oppose it...

The tone of the Convention was liberal, enlightened, and magnanimous, and free from that mixture of sectarianism, narrow-mindedness, and bigotry...

disband, to-day, and wheel into the ranks of either of the other parties in a body, provided it would take true anti-slavery ground...

From the views here expressed, the public will be able to judge as to how far I have given in my address to the Liberty party...

As the fall elections are near at hand, many of us, voting abolitionists, are anxious to know how we shall vote...

As I now oppose the National Anti-Slavery Standard and its auxiliaries, I shall strenuously oppose their election, not, however, by opposing the party which put them in nomination...

My object in attending that meeting, was to induce the National Liberty party, then assembled in convention, to take such ground that all those abolitionists...

My, I will chronicle the proceedings of a meeting we have lately held in this town, for the purpose of discussing that question.

The meeting, which was quite a large one, having listened with great patience to this long discussion, passed by an overwhelming majority the following resolution:

Resolved, That having listened, for two evenings, to the discussion upon the transfer of the Emancipator by the Executive Committee of the American Anti-Slavery Society...

Resolved, That those persons who call themselves abolitionists, and at the same time employ others to perform work which they themselves are ashamed to perform...

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That as the sin of slavery is practiced and allowed in our country, and is at present comparatively unrebuked by ecclesiastical or political associations...

Resolved, That those churches which claim to be anti-slavery, because they have passed resolutions against slavery, and have admitted a few whom they select, to lecture without admitting or embracing the cause...

Resolved, That if the Bible can, in any way, be made to support or uphold American slavery, we can have no confidence in it as being the word of God.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

Resolved, That the friends of moral and religious associations to aid in this enterprise. Articles will be sent to the office of the Emancipator, No. 7 Cornhill, directed to the care of J. C. BEMAN, pastor of said church.

NOTICES. Western New-York Meetings. The annual meeting of the New-York (Western) State Anti-Slavery Society, auxiliary to the AMERICAN A. S. SOCIETY, will be held at ROCHESTER, on the 12th and 13th of DECEMBER.

NORFOLK COUNTY A. S. SOCIETY. The Norfolk Co. A. S. Society will hold a quarterly meeting on THURSDAY, the 9th of November, at MILTON, in the Town-Hall, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M.

AMERICAN A. S. SOCIETY. The American A. S. Society will hold a quarterly meeting on THURSDAY, the 9th of November, at MILTON, in the Town-Hall, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M.

RESPIRATORS. ENGLISH and American Respirators, the latter made under the direction of Dr. H. I. BOWEN, may be had at 17 Bedford-street, at Theodore Metcalf's Apothecary Shop, and at Mrs. Allen's, 288-1-2 Washington-street, 3 doors north of Bedford-street, Boston.

RESPIRATORS. ENGLISH and American Respirators, the latter made under the direction of Dr. H. I. BOWEN, may be had at 17 Bedford-street, at Theodore Metcalf's Apothecary Shop, and at Mrs. Allen's, 288-1-2 Washington-street, 3 doors north of Bedford-street, Boston.

POETRY.

For the Liberator.
FIX THOU THY HEART ON HEAVEN.
Fix thou thy heart on Heaven!
Oh, centre not its fond affections here!

Yes, fix thy heart on high!
Thou hast no sure abiding place on earth:
Though stars for thee may gem the o'erarching sky,

From the Journal of Commerce.
AUTUMN.
Now for imperial Autumn! which hath come
Like a proud mother, in her robes of gold,

And Summer, as 't were Italy, or love,
She throws with pomp her captivating smile,
Calls from my soul the sympathetic tear,

From the Vermont Telegraph.
THE MAN FOR ME.
He's not the man for me,
Who buys the fattered slave,

THE INQUIRY.
Tell me, my sacred soul,
Oh, tell me, Hope and Faith,
Is there no resting-place

COMMUNICATIONS.

Letter from Henry C. Wright.
LEAGALLIN, North Wales, Oct. 1, 1843.
DEAR GARRISON:
My heart is full, too full for utterance. I feel for

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

Letter from James Haughton, of Dublin.
34 ECCLES-ST. DUBLIN, Sept. 25, 1843.
MY DEAR FRIEND:
To the Liberator of 25th August, there is a letter

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not
for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not
for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not
for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not
for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not
for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

I came to this nation as a human being. I care not
for American or Englishman—I have no country, nor
human institutions in Church or State, to vindicate.

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

from them, and also to personalities; and publishes
his article nearly entire. He allowed them, through his journal, to be heard, charging me personally with

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

the assertions of the pastor and deacons, that these prejudices have long since ceased to exist, and
that five of the said church and society know

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

For Sale at 25, Cornhill.
LETTERS from New-York, by Mrs. L. M. Child.
The Voice of Duty, by Adin Ballou.
The Brotherhood of the Poor, by S. S. Foster.

RESPIRATORS.
OR BREATH AND BODY-WARMING IN-STRUMENTS.
ENGLISH and American Respirators, the latest

DENTAL SURGERY.
Dr. S. BRAMHALL, Surgeon-Dentist.
RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Boston,

DR. BAYNES,
SURGEON-DENTIST.
OFFICE No. 112, TREMONT ROW.
LONG experience in the practice of Dental Sur-

THE TRICOLOURS, OR MEDICATED COMPOUND.
IS now acknowledged by thousands, who use it

GENTEEL BOARDING.
FOR RESPECTABLE COLORED SEAMEN.
HENRY FOREMAN,
No. 157 ANN-STREET, BOSTON.

BOARDING HOUSE
FOR COLORED SEAMEN.
The subscriber begs leave to inform such colored

GARRISON'S POEMS
The following are the contents of the volume of Mr. Garrison's Poems, just published at New-York: