

Refuge of Oppression. LET THE CALLED JADE WINNER! The Boston Courier has a vision of Provost Marshall...

Our Country is the World, our Countrymen are all Mankind. BOSTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1862.

W. B. YERRINGTON & SON, Printers. J. B. YERRINGTON & SON, Printers.

Ballard rifle, and return to the vicinity of my family, hide in the woods and caves, and pick off every butternut I see...

Why is all this persecution of me? It is because I condemned this wicked rebellion, urged a vigorous prosecution of this war...

CONTRABAND LABOR IN ILLINOIS. The tory prints have struck a new lead—opened a mine for them which they expect to extract much precious fuel...

heavens and the elements melt with the fervent heat of that great and terrible day we read of, before the people shall lose their local independence...

THE WORCESTER DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—On Wednesday, 8th inst., the Democrats held their State Convention at Worcester...

"THE UNION AS IT WAS!" The Hon. Alexander J. Hamilton, a distinguished citizen of Texas, a friend of the Union and of the old flag...

My dear Pet, I am too lazy, and too little interested, to dive into the future of this 'little box of heresies'...

DEAR PET.—In great distress of mind, I will attempt to recount to you the misfortunes and troubles I have recently had to encounter in Kentucky...

Secondly, as soon as it became known that there were some contrabands at Cairo, willing to work, the farmers of Southern and Central Illinois made a grab for them...

It is evident that by force of instructions, couched in these general terms, every man in the community is liable to be reported as a disloyal person...

THE SPIRIT THAT ANIMATES. According to a report which we cannot hesitate to accept, (as we find it in the Boston Herald) the Honorable John C. Tucker...

"In Mexico there are now 500 men who left as I left. They are in the mountain fastnesses, hunted like wolves. Are they to have help? Give them a chance...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

But the number of contrabands that will find their way into the West is but a mere drop in the bucket compared with the demand for laborers...

Selections. A THOROUGH SPEECH. Clark E. Carr, Esq., of Galesburg, Ill., made a speech at the recent great Emancipation meeting...

I think that the proclamation ought to go into effect immediately. If a citizen of Chicago were tried and found guilty of treason, and with whatever humility he might repent, he would be executed...

At the Annual Autumnal Convention of the Unitarians held at Brooklyn, N. Y., Rev. Dr. Bellows delivered an able and eloquent sermon. The discourse was largely devoted to national affairs...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

WHERE ARE WE DRIFTING? The Texas refugee, Hon. A. J. Hamilton, who declares himself opposed to the "Union as it was," is styled by the press and public men of New England and New York...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

DEAR PET.—I thank you for your kind, long letter. You extend to me hope. You suggest to me drawing me and my Division out of this snare...

Mr. Pierpont, "has raised its snaky fingers, and shaketh them at the pupil, and said: 'Dare to speak on this subject, and I will silence your voice.'"

GOVERNOR ANDREW'S ACCEPTANCE OF HIS RE-NOMINATION.

Worcester, Sept. 12, 1862. My DEAR SIR,—As the presiding officer of the State Convention...

efforts to the duties of the place I occupy. And may God grant that the lengthening shadows of the past declining year may softly veil the sorrows of a people...

TO THE EDITOR OF THE BOSTON JOURNAL. It will be recollected a few weeks since a call was made by Joel Parker and others for a People's Convention...

FRANKLIN, NORFOLK CO., OCT. 10, 1862. SERENADE TO GEN. PRENTISS. HIS SPEECH ON THE MALTREATMENT OF PRISONERS.

WASHINGTON, OCT. 17. Gen. Prentiss to-night was crowned with a serenade. He graphically described the scenes through which he and his fellow soldiers (taken prisoners at Shiloh) passed in the land of Dixie.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH. An officer who has just arrived at Washington from the Department of Gen. Mitchell, says that everything is progressing most satisfactorily.

EMANCIPATION IN MISSOURI. The emancipation proclamation is heartily received by the unconditional Unionists of Missouri.

THE GREAT DRAWBACK. Col. Forney makes the following observations, which contain altogether too much truth: "The great drawback in the prosecution of the war is the lack of many in and out of the army, in office and out of office, who think they are loyal, and yet who cannot rid themselves of the prejudices of party or of social life."

IMPERSONAL EDITORSHIP. The Commonwealth of Boston has the following card in its last issue: "A CARD. In the second number of The Commonwealth, my name appears as the editor of this paper."

BOOKS THAT ARE NOT BOOKS. "He (Summer) is not a student and not a student. He is fit only for a professorship in college, and that will yet be the termination of his career."

OBITUARY. Killed by a fall from a cart, on the 24 inst. SIXTH COASTS, of London Grove Township, Chester County, Pa., aged nearly 42 years.

Died at his residence in Kennett Square, (Pa.) on the 14th inst., BENJAMIN S. JOHNS, aged 49 years. The Abolitionists of Pennsylvania, who can look back to the commencement of the Anti-Slavery enterprise...

So you see the exciting element of slavery, like Burying's ghost, will not, thank God! "down" at our bidding. Mr. Pierpont, in the course of his remarks...

LETTER FROM REV. DANIEL FOSTER.

FERRIS COURT HOUSE, (Va.) Oct. 17, 1862.

DEAR GARRISON,—Watchman, what of the night? When and where will the morn of our deliverance dawn? With most anxious solicitude the patriot, from day to day, asks these and similar questions.

Truly yours, DANIEL FOSTER.

Gen. Saxton, of Deerfield, Mass., an officer of the regular army, who was for some time at Port Royal as Military Governor, being invited to attend a meeting of the Port Royal Association...

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

Truly yours, DANIEL FOSTER.

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

Truly yours, DANIEL FOSTER.

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

Truly yours, DANIEL FOSTER.

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

Truly yours, DANIEL FOSTER.

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

REBEL TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS. The statement upon the authority of Captain McCorkin, who has just returned from the rebel prison houses near two or three weeks since, is as follows: "The capture of the rebel forces under Bragg and his fellow generals was not less than 45,000, whereas the Union army did not number more than 18,000."

Truly yours, DANIEL FOSTER.

WHOLESALE & RETAIL. CLOTHING HOUSE. 154 WASHINGTON ST., 5 DOORS SOUTH OF MILK ST. 600,000 Male or Female Agents, TO SELL. LLOYD'S TOPOGRAPHICAL MAP OF KENTUCKY, OHIO, INDIANA AND ILLINOIS.

