Tired of being an island within the island: We are breaking the silence!

SOLIDARITY WITH THE RECALCITRANTS!
NO REPRESSION WILL DESTROY
WHAT WE ARE.

Down the mask. – The time is always ripe to get rid of injustice when injustice exists. – Do you wait for the man to be back on his feet before raising him up again? – That will be the moment to give him help? – Or when he is lying down? Or when the assailant is on top of him? Or when he asks you for help?

Carlo Cafiero

What is our struggle. What is our life. In the present totalitarian democratic regime, the multitudes of excluded thrown to the edges of this global society are rendered invisible, useless, left to themselves because they are considered the inevitable “waste” of the highly specialized technological/capitalist production. And just as many are those who, exploited and oppressed, are suspended on the edge of the abyss and plodding on the slopes of the system that makes them chronic medical cases and infantilises them in the oppressive network of laws and assistance-dependency for life by the booming business of the “tertiary sector” that makes them outcasts of blackmail and misery, distrustful of each other, in the contest for crumbs.

The most striking outcome of this incessant seesaw of economic, social, moral, cultural, sentimental etc. obscenities is that, between compulsory servitude and involuntary servitude, the most widespread practice between exploitation and oppression becomes the breakdown into individual categories, dispossessed of oneself and crumbling among millions of particles upon which hordes of vampires parasitize and fatten themselves to the point of their total cancellation.

Thus, under the weight of authority, religions, unbridled consumerism and subservience to the bitter end, hosts of workers, unemployed, migrants and excluded of all kinds of give up fighting, they cowardly accept to barter their dignity and, slaves of their own ignorance and opportunism, albeit discriminated against and humiliated on the one hand in turn reproduce discrimination and constant humiliation on the other; completely dependent on and addicted to delegating, they even feel proud to claim the “subjects’ freedom” of being allowed to decide who should be elected in the government of the day; and having internalized authority to such a point, at every turn appeal to so-called State security, the institutions, the rule of law, the courts, the cops, judges, politicians, religious leaders, psychiatrists, social workers, voluntary work of every kind etc., in the illusory expectation and hope of being inserted by and into the system if thrown out, or become integrated if they are not yet settled. Rather than react by violently rebelling against the blackmail, humiliation and abuses suffered every day on their skin and against the devastation and the poisoning of their territories, they give the bosses and rulers in power their life in exchange for work and security in exchange for freedom and, under the hallucinating expectation of an unlikely “class collaboration” with their oppressors, delegate, as well as to the politicians, the same bosses and capitalists, the changing of their own destiny, not giving a shit, among other things, if they themselves are contributing, with their so-called “work” to producing poisons, bombs, repression, destruction and death.

Stripping bare all miserable appearances in papier mache on sale in cheap deals as free panaceas to get idiotised with psycho-virtual type surrogates, and in the face of the putrid spectacle of real reality and the concrete cultural and moral regression of individuals and human relations in all spheres of existence, we do not intend to remain helpless. In addition to the inevitable and profound changes that follow one another by the bagful in the society, rendered apathetic on all fronts, this organization of power has so altered social relations, culture and human sociality that, in general, while speaking one and all the same language it is as if between individuals one does not want or has no more interest in meaning and understanding, rebelling, discussing, acting in emancipatory ways or, even worse, no one seems to take anything seriously, neither facts nor problems nor discourse nor the persons or the actions or the countless economic and everyday social injustices produced by the machinery of the system on the skin of individuals; as though what happens and overwhelms had no more power and strength to shake the sensitivity and trigger the anger and the desire to revolt, the awareness and the will to react attacking violently and materially those responsible for all this.

Nevertheless, in this seemingly resigned dragging of oneself into reality, where, between a few gasps of rebellion most jostle in the sea of indifference, fear and hypocrisy to the benefit of power, in the strictly paradoxical internetian virtual world, surrogate for real action, millions of soliloquies ripple, even antagonistic, but all obviously subtracted from concrete and real action and without risk, all invariably returned to sender!

In fact, now more than ever, the complete freedom and unrestrainability of some individuals are the most frightening, even including some anarchists. The radical and profound break with the existent is necessary and cannot be postponed, and for this we need all the more to spread antisocial anarchist revolutionary ideas and practices in the social, so that our thinking and action of direct insurrectional attack can become «watchful threatening energy that slaps and shakes the indifference of the masses, arousing indignation and forcing to reflection, releasing and reviving the fire of discussions, the passion of knowing, faith in the insurrection» (L. Galleani).

Ours is a permanent social war that does not admit hesitation or qualms, it is a furious collision with power in all its forms, against capitalist, military and hypertechnological domination, against society and all its values, it is a violent clash between the classes for their slaughter, between the individual and the State and the religions, between freedom and authority, between social revolution and reaction, which does not admit, nor can admit, interruption or compromise of any kind.

We are nihilists and iconoclasts because we have nothing to save and nothing to keep of this rotten system and in this sense, aimed at reducing it to rubble stone by stone, one of the more effective of the many methods of anarchist propaganda and projectuality is the dissemination and practice of direct, violent and destructive insurrectional attack of the structures, organizations, values, products and the people who belong to the State and hyper-technological military transactional capitalism diluted everywhere into the network in every corner of the globe.

Today more than ever, it is vital to extend and spread atheism and antitheologism, to strengthen our direct critical and scathing attack against all religions, old and new enemies that they are, against all the dogmas of any mould, colour and type, materially and intellectually desacralising and deconstructing any ideology, including our own “stances” if we ourselves were to make a narrow, poorly digested and blind interpretation sacred, religious and fanatical, or an unconscious, or conscious, authoritarian and authoritative tendency.

As a minority within the revolutionary minority we have an outright distrust of the cult of the “masses” (a concept, by the way, far surpassed by the real and objective changes in the present economic and social composition of the current technology), on the attractive bases of our ideas and action, we always oppose the ferocity of the qualitative to the myth of the quantitative. Our revolutionary anarchist attention turns, starts off and always comes back to the individual, to their full freedom and autonomy, and especially to their potential. In this sense, what matters are the possibilities that individuals in revolt give themselves and in them the choices that they realise, the commitments that the excluded freely contract with themselves and in relation to others to emancipate themselves and become autonomous and take their life back into their hands, aimed at assuming direct responsibility for their existence and the autonomous management of the same in all areas of everyday life, horizontally, in con-course and in cooperation and reciprocal solidarity with the others involved. For this reason we believe that there is no defined and definitive aim for the individual other than the individual himself, their full and complete realization in freedom, with the extension of their faculties, knowledge and passions, in continuous self-improvement through relationships and social and solidarity interactions that horizontally, in reciprocal respect of differences, establish with other equally free individuals, in a vast increase of possibilities for themselves and for others, along the incessant research for richer and desiring horizons, directly protagonist and sole master and supporter of their life, with no more chains and no longer afraid of being swallowed up in the vast ocean of freedom.

In this society, fully managed and dominated by the organization of power and authority, unless it is destroyed and this whole system is radically knocked down right to its foundations, and at the same time the insurrectionary process on the path of social revolution is set off in thought and action, it is a mere illusion to believe you can start to “build” anything in terms of creative social anarchist self-management, because any experiments in this direction, other than isolating oneself between niches of friends or dying from self-consumption, or being repressed by power if considered inconvenient for the theoretical and practical ideas that it spreads, would at once, somehow be swallowed up and absorbed, together with its components, within the same dominant State and capitalistic network.

That’s why in the here and now of the present this anarchist self-management on the path of freedom starts with destruction.

The ruptures to unleash in the social clash against the whole system of domination, always start from the point where each one finds themselves, the condition in which they live, the choices that each contracts with themselves and then, consequently, from the ways of relating, understanding and intervening in social conflicts, among the exploited and excluded; without ever being overwhelmed by events or ending up giving in to compromises or naive and instrumental moderations or hiding places that do not belong to us but which, instead, are specific to all those forces for improvement, parliamentarians, bourgeois and reformists who, for their own specific purposes, certainly not revolutionary and subvertors of the existent, mobilize slyly on the wave of a well-built “common sense” on the widespread malaise, setting off movements of opinion which act as a “buffer” for mediation within social conflicts, whose purpose is solely to politically and instrumentally grab portions of controlled consensus aimed to create and disseminate, besides the many democratic lies, additional State logic, reactionary, divisory, legalistic, nationalist and executionalist, turned to the management, government and domination of the economic, social, political, cultural and so on reality in which we live, thus paving the way for new leaders, managers and scoundrels of every kind, and to new forms of power and authority and in co-management and in conjunction with those already present.

No compromise therefore, and no hesitation.

Yesterday as today, we are and will be every day in open war against the system of domination State, capitalist, technological and religious in all their forms and manifestations and, whatever the composition that governments give themselves, whether democratic or dictatorial (or in whatever way they want to define or organize), they will always find us before them to fight them with fire and sword right to their foundations.

Even if the bosses, governments, the hyper-technological capitalistic organization and the State, with its political police, judicial and military power, killer of freedom in essence, will continue to do everything possible to defend their privileges and to try to stop revolutionaries and insurgents by using all their might and means, know, gentlemen that we do not stumble, indeed, whenever possible, we will answer them blow for blow, without delay, more and more convinced, moved by something completely alien to them and that is not sold in their supermarkets or their benches of power, something whose value is priceless, although it demands a very high price, and for which it is worth fighting to the end and without hesitation: its name is dignity.

Constantly at «daggers with life», the only masters and judges of ourselves in breaking with the existent and in our radical negation, we have no hesitation in opposing the structural enslaving and exploiting violence of the State and capital with revolutionary insurrectional anarchist liberatory violence, always and everywhere, in all its various forms and manifestations.

It is well, finally, that you gentlemen remember that as far as your preventive military and police defence, both internal and external to the State, will never succeed in destroying anarchy or in containing the spread of its principles and its practices because «...its roots are too deep; it was born in the bosom of a rotten society that is falling apart; it is a violent reaction against the established order. It represents egalitarian and libertarian aspirations that fight in breach of today’s authorities; it is everywhere and what makes it elusive will end up killing you» (Emile Henry).

And in all this we find without delay the proper sense of our fraternal and revolutionary solidarity with all the comrades who, both inside and outside the prisons, anywhere in the world, day after day, do not save themselves and continue to give their all in and for the insurrectional anarchist struggle, with courage, pride, perseverance and generosity...

Minds and hearts up!

*No God, no State, no servants no bosses!
Anarchist resistance has only just begun!*

DIRECT ACTION CHRONOLOGY

An, as always, incomplete list of rebellion and attack, via the global counter-info networks.

12 November, Paris, France : Diplomatic vehicle and Porsche car arson. Here is an extract from the claim of responsibility: "For the comrade Mikhail Zhlobitsky: we want to remember him this way, not with words, but with flames. Solidarity with Russian anarchists who respond to repression with direct action. Solidarity also to the anarchists who face the judiciary in Greece (CCF), in Italy (Operations Scripta Manent and Panico) and everywhere else. A thought for Krème and S., imprisoned in Limoges."

11 November, Madrid, Spain : 20 ATMs were sabotaged in solidarity with 2 young anarchists who got arrested on the 29 October for burning an ATM in solidarity with imprisoned comrade Lisa, who was charged with robbing a bank in Aachen, Germany. Several similar actions of sabotage also occurred in the same period for the imprisoned comrades.

11 November, Villeparisis, Seine-et-Marne, France : Orange / SNCF relay antenna torched on the day of Armistice, against the celebrations of power.

11 November, Lyon, France : Molotov cocktail against a police station by Commando Salameche in solidarity to arrested anti-fascists.

8 November, France, Belgium, Switzerland : "France, Belgium, Switzerland. During the night between the 8th November and the 9th November, 117 activists wrecked, destroyed, burned 118 hunting towers, 10 hunter's house, dozens of traps, 1 breeding farm, and set free 31 animals."

5 November, Italy : Network systems of State institutions, the Northern League and Fratelli d'Italia are attacked by hackers. Emails, Passwords, Names, Surnames and Addresses were appropriated whilst the websites were under attack.

4 November, Paulding County, Georgia, USA : Sabotage of prison site under construction. Several vehicles were damaged. "We entered the construction site and disabled two front end loaders, one drill rig, and one excavator. The keys were in the ignition for all of this equipment so we relieved the company of those. We then moved to the field offices for the project where we were able to shut off the power to the site and disable two golf carts and a pickup truck belonging to the company."

2 November, Elgin, IL, USA : KFC and the Elgin BBQ Pit sabotaged with glued locks and smashed windows, green spray-painted circle A's. "With hostility towards speciesism and anthropocentric domination and for the destruction of all prisons, cages, and civilized systems of industrial control."

1 November, Berlin, Germany : Google offices under construction got a large entrance door smashed in with hammers. "... Google is still an engine of our alienated lives and an instrument of the authoritarians. Attacking Google, control and domination, be it with words, solidarity, hacking or hammer attacks, is necessary for self-determined inspiration. The essence lies in the liberating decision to take action oneself."

27 October, Titz, Germany : Arson of four buses of the company Tirtey set on fire. The company is part of the repression matrix against the resistance to the lignite mine of firm RWE which plans to destroy Hambach forest.

18 October, Barcelona, Catalonia : Riots in the streets of Gracia against the eviction of Ca La Trava squat, in the Gràcia district. The next morning, a group of about twenty hooded people interrupted the traffic for nearly 20 minutes by building barricades on one of the main axial roads of the city. In solidarity two days later, three banks and an estate agency are attacked (windows tagged and destroyed), in the districts of Gràcia and Sants respectively.

16 October, Nantes, France : Truck of prison construction company SPIE set on fire.

15 October, Berlin, Germany : Securitas patrol vehicle torched by Amad Ahmad Cell FAI-FRI .

14 October, Frankfurt, Germany : Arson attack against two vans of the real estate company Vonovia.

12 October, Pontianak City, Indonesia : Poster-bombing and vandalism against Bank of Indonesia, ATMs, police posts, the Digulist roundabout, the West Kalimantan governor's office and several other highly visible locations in Pontianak City. These actions were a response to the meeting between global capitalist organizations the World Bank Group and the International Monetary Fund that was held in Bali on October 8-14.

12 October, New York, USA : Republican Party club building attacked by anarchists who smash windows and leave graffiti.

11 October, Paris, France : Two vehicles of prison construction firm Vinci and SNCF who hunt poor and undocumented people set on fire in solidarity to imprisoned anarchists and those on trial in Italy.

8 October, Isère, France : Twelve vehicles and construction machines of prisons collaborator Eiffage torched. "Eiffage is involved in the producing spaces of constraint and control. They put their claws on most devices within the large invisible cage we live in. Schools, work-places, housing, courts, hospitals (psychiatric and other), retirement homes, barracks, stadiums and public spaces are all bars that keep us in captivity. But if Eiffage is the object of our hatred and vengeful action, it is also, and above all, because they provide the material structure necessary for the punishment industry: prisons, detention centers and juvenile correctional facilities. ... We welcome all the attacks against the mechanics of confinement. We admire the insubordination that bursts from inside the jails: refusals to return from exercise, hunger strikes, cell destruction, attacks against guards and escapes."

2 October, Montanaso Lombardo, Italy : Greenhouses of the CREA genetic manipulation research center destroyed by anarchist eco-saboteurs. "We devastated the institute's four big greenhouses, destroying almost all of the experimental plants they contain. It is not surprising that the media have remained silent about this action, despite the serious damage done to their research: indeed, the CREA research centers are under the direct control of the government, who have every interest in concealing the actions that put spanners in the works of their projects. CREA specializes in the sequencing and genetic engineering of plants and hyper-technological modernization of agriculture and livestock. Their latest research, funded by the government, is focusing on the development of the so-called GMO 2.0. We will not passively observe the umpteenth project that manipulates the living by annihilating spontaneity in the name of profit."

28 September, Tortoli, Italy : Incendiary attack on a marshal of the carabinieri (paramilitary police) in the night.

27 September Madrid, Spain : The windows of estate agency Tecnocasa in Vallekas were shattered. The agency was also covered in paint. "This action aims to encourage the comrades of the Centros Sociales Okupados Gatonera (Carabanchel-Madrid) and Ka La Trava (Gràcia-Barcelona), as well as all the people who struggle in defence of squats as a revolutionary tool. Neighbourhoods are being transformed by capitalist speculation, gentrification being a tightening of screws in a cyclical process that affects all the cities of the world. Real estate agencies and other capitalist entities such as banks and speculators are responsible. Let's spread the attack against them and build bridges based on solidarity and attack."

19 September, Kiev, Ukraine : Attack against Interior Ministry training center. Extract from the claim: "... So, at night, on September 19, 2018, the center for training of the Ministry of Internal Affairs employees became the object of our attack. It is here, in the training center, that they are trained in order to successfully detain us, shoot at us, practice the seizures and assaults of our apartments in full arms, which ordinary people are not allowed to possess. The training center is located 500 meters from Boryspil'skaya Street, in the forest, in the Darnytskyi district of the city of Kiev. In the center there are pistol and automatic shooting galleries, an obstacle course, a tennis court, a volleyball court, a field for mini-football, training rooms, as well as a structure where groups of capture are practiced. It was in such a structure that we launched a red cock! For more than four months we had been looking after this object. Just during this time, in the above mentioned building, expensive repairs were carried out and electrical equipment was purchased. For arson, we needed 17 liters of incendiary mix, 10 car tires and old things found on the street. We made 2 fire areas in different places. Also on the wall we left a message: Destroy the Ministry of Internal Affairs. The guard and two dogs did not suspect anything ... Although our attack is symbolic, but still it points to the enemy and the direction in which resistance must develop. Our warm greetings and solidarity to the anarchists in Russian and Belarussian prisons and prison camps: Ilya Romanov, Oleksandr Kolchenko, Sergey Romanov, Yevgeny Karakashev, Ilya Shakursky, Vasily Kuksov, Dmitry Pchelintsev, Victor Filinkov, Andrei Chernov, Arman Sagynbaev, Mikhail Kulkov, Maxim Ivankin, July Boyarshinov and others. This fire is for you. It does not matter to us whether you are guilty or not, whether or not you are involved in what you are accused of. The fact is that in the struggle against the state we are all guilty. Therefore, know that: if the "innocent" once deserved our solidarity, then the "guilty" will deserve it a thousand times ... We also want to say words of solidarity to the anarchists operating in the Chile, Greece, Italy and all the other comrades who fight both outside and inside the prisons! Know that your actions and struggle are important for us! Long live Anarchy! Destroy the Ministry of Internal Affairs! Destroy the state!

Ilya Romanov anarchist cell / FAI-IRF "

12 September, Rio San Martino, Scorzé, Italy : Warehouse and office of a mink fur farm set on fire with 300,000 euro damage. No animals were harmed in the action.

September, Rome, Italy : Atacado repeater set on fire in solidarity with Paska, Ghespe and Giova, persecuted anarchists in Operation Panic. "Telecommunications infrastructures are today one of the strategic points of the modern technological domain, functional to the development of other devices and technological structures that are also part of a complex network, in which each element depends on the other. The authoritarian essence of the system is clearly expressed in this technological interdependence. Despite the current tendency to create increasingly autonomous systems, it is still possible to hit an element by putting the whole network out of use with a cascade effect. With this action we want to launch an invitation to hit the telecommunications networks as an act of solidarity for the anarchist prisoners Paska, Ghespe and Giova, still in prison. The collaboration of companies that provide telephone services in police investigations was what we know to have been essential for the imprisonment of these comrades, as well as being essential for the constant control of the individual. It's time to make them pay! We invite all action groups and individuals to increase attacks on these infrastructures in a greater way. There is no need to express oneself beyond the urgency of the attack on these infrastructures of domination, others have already been expressing themselves with sufficient clarity in the past."

Arkhangelsk, Russia: Anarchist Misha Zhlobitsky explodes FSB reception in suicide-bomb

October 31, 2018 8:52 local time in the city of Arkhangelsk at the entrance to the reception room of the Regional Directorate of the FSB of the Russian Federation in the Arkhangelsk Region an explosion was heard. The rebel anarchist Mikhail Vasilievich Zhlobitsky, also known in the Telegram channel as Valerian Panov, blew himself up. This is the first case of anarchists undermining the FSB in 19 years – the previous attack was organized in 1999 against the reception office of the FSB in Moscow by the New Revolutionary Alternative organization.

Mikhail Zhlobitsky died as a result of a self-detonation, causing injuries of varying severity to three FSB officers. He was 17 years old.

A few minutes before the explosion, the anarchist left a message in the chat group under the nickname Valerian Panov. Here is what he wrote:

"Comrades, now in the FSB building in Arkhangelsk there will be a terrorist attack, the responsibility for which I claim. The reasons are clear to you. Since FSB fabricates cases and tortures people, I decided to go for it. Most likely, I will die because of the explosion, because I initiate the bomb directly by pressing the button attached to the bomb cover. Therefore, you are requested to spread information about the terrorist attack: who committed it and the reasons.

Well, that seems to be all. I wish you to go towards our goal unswervingly and uncompromisingly. I am wishing you the future of anarchist communism!"

The picture shows that a young man, who is in front of the metal detector frame, is holding a backpack with one hand and the other is inside the bag

We bow our heads before the heroism of our comrade. We were not acquainted directly, but through communication he left an impression of himself as an intelligent and well-prepared person who is not indifferent and aspires to go beyond the swamp of the official opposition struggle, which is now mainstream.

There is no doubt that Mikhail acted purposefully, understood his motives crystally and consciously sacrificed himself during the action. It is impossible to read the stories of our comrades about the nightmarish torture in the dungeons of the Gestapo-FSB without the heart bleeding and without being overwhelmed with a thirst for revenge against the sadists in uniform. When a feeling of indignation and a desire for justice fills up the cup of patience, when internal moral conflict becomes intolerable for an honest person, then concern for their own welfare retreats before deciding to call the scoundrels to account. Anarchists often did this in the past, rushing into a suicide attack on a tyrant and executioner.

Michael showed composure and endurance of a true revolutionary. We are deeply shocked, full of grief from the heroic death of Michael and deeply saddened that he did not leave any hope for himself.

We accept Michael as he is, and express our full solidarity and respect for his Act. He lived as he thought was right, and died, like a hero, in the struggle for the ideals of Freedom and Justice.

Death to the Federal Collision of the Infinites!

Long live the Anarchy!

Eternal memory to Mikhail Zhlobitsky! Rest in peace, dear comrade.

Anarchy Today

Anarchist-bombers and the operation of the special services against anarchists – We are calling for solidarity

The special services in Russia are preparing to destroy the anarchist movement. The pretext is the bomb attacks of the young anarchists.

17 years old anarchist Mikhail Zhlobitsky blew himself up in the building of FSB of Arkhangelsk city in the morning of the 31st of October. Before the explosion he posted messages in the 'Vkontakte' social network and in 'Rechi buntovshchika ('Speeches of the Rebel')' chat in Telegram messenger (t.me/rebeltalk). In these messages several minutes before the explosion he warned about the action in preparation, and named the reasons – propaganda by action and revenge for the torture and repressions by FSB against the anarchists.

Michael's 14 year old supposed comrade was arrested by special services in Moscow on the 2nd of November. Special services accuse Kirill Kuzminkin in preparing a bomb attack on a neo-nazi march. Kirill denies the accusation. Cops claim that components for the production of explosives have been found in Kirill's house. Kirill's father claims that these are components for the production of firecrackers, and special services are trying to present the teenager as a terrorist.

At the same time the police and special services countrywide interrogate anarchists, socialists, anti-fascists, and even libertarians. Subscribers of "Narodnaya Samooborona (People's Self-Defense)", the largest Russian anarchist resource, and "Rechi buntovshchika ('Speeches of the Rebel')", the anarchist chat in the Telegram, where Mikhail Zhlobitsky's message about the upcoming attack on the FSB was posted, are being massively verified. For example, in Krasnodar, about a hundred people were summoned to talk with the police. They were asked about their attitude towards anarchism, "Narodnaya Samooborona" and the action of Zhlobitsky. It is reported that the police and special services intend to check all the subscribers of the "Narodnaya Samooborona" group in social networks – these are 26 thousands of people.

As a result of the operation of the security forces, new criminal cases against anarchists have already appeared. On the 4th of November, a local anarchist Vyacheslav Lukichev was detained in Kaliningrad, he is known in the anarchist environment by his animal protection and anti-fascist activities. Vyacheslav is accused of publicly justifying terrorism for having published on the "Prometheus" anarchist Telegram-channel (t.me/class_war) Mikhail Zhlobitsky's pre-death message. Despite the fact that this message was published by lots of mass media of the country, Vyacheslav is now facing up to seven years in prison. It is obvious that such a selective "justice" is connected with the anarchist views of Vyacheslav and the hatred of the special services to the anarchists and "Prometheus". FSB tried to accuse Vyacheslav's girlfriend of this crime, after that he took the blame on himself for saving her. We have all the reasons for concerns that these detentions are only the beginning of a new big wave of repressions against Russian anarchists.

Apparently, FSB is going to use the situation for repressions against the anarchist movement and the "Narodnaya Samooborona", which is the largest anarchist movement in Russia today. It promotes anarchism in social networks, creating the country's largest anarchist media resources, and also fights against gangsters and unscrupulous employers. Over the last two years, "Narodnaya Samooborona" organized a series of campaigns, and dozens of Russian cities joined them. After the campaign about the "Network" case, organized by the "Narodnaya Samooborona" in February and March of this year, the special services began repressions against the movement. In February, several anarchists were detained in Chelyabinsk, suspected of hanging the "FSB is the main terrorist" banner. Anarchists were detained by FSB special forces, after that they were subjected to torture, during which they were required to confess holding the action. The FSB also tried to proclaim them as the local cell of the "Narodnaya Samooborona" in order to present the movement as an extremist organization, which, according to Russian laws, would allow creating a new large criminal case against the anarchists.

In addition, the repression took place in Moscow on the eve of the presidential election. In February, several anarchists were arrested and incriminated in targeting the office of the ruling party "Edinaya Rossiya". In March, on the eve of the elections, special forces and political police conducted an operation against anarchists in Moscow, conducting a series of searches in the homes of anarchists. One of the anarchists, Syatoslav Rechkalov, suspected by the police of administering the anarchist media Narodnaya Samooborona, was tortured by electroshock. In the course of the torture, he was demanded to recognize himself as the "leader of the anarchists", the organizer of the "Narodnaya Samooborona" and all the anarchist campaigns carried out recently in the country. During the torture in the department of the political police, he was directly told that the reason for the repression against anarchists were their increased activity and their actions in Russian cities

These are far from the only examples of repression against anarchists this year. Earlier, the FSB fabricated a criminal action in Penza and St. Petersburg, torturing local anarchists and accusing them of creating a terrorist community, the "Network". In February-March of this year, a raid on local anarchists took place in Crimea. Activists also were tortured during raids. One of them, Evgeny Karakashev, is still in jail on indictment of terrorism. Another Crimean anarchist, Alexander Kolchenko, got ten years in jail for one criminal action with director Oleg Sentsov.

In addition, the other day a new criminal action was incriminated for the veteran of the anarchist movement Ilya Romanov. Romanov began his anarchists activity in the times of USSR, and has served several prison terms. Now he is in jail in another term for a terrorism criminal action for a firecracker explosion, fabricated by the FSB. Romanov criticized the rules of the colony in which he is, for that a new criminal action was fabricated against him. The administration of the colony created an account on Facebook with his name, and published on it a video with a call to join ISIS. That was enough for Ilya Romanov to receive a new term in prison. Initiation of a criminal action is also reported in Chelyabinsk against five anarchists for graffiti against pension reform.

In Irkutsk, trials over the anarchist Dmitry Litvin are continuing, he is accused on the article "insulting the feelings of believers" for publishing a photo, showing the middle finger up on the background of the church, in social network. Raids on the anarchists were held in Irkutsk last year because of the posting this foto. Apartments of the anarchists were stormed by special forces.

Obviously, due to all these repressions and state terror, the younger generation of anarchists will be aware that there is no difference between armed struggle and legal protest – in any case, you will be called a terrorist and tortured.

It makes young anarchists take up bombs. Unfortunately, the Russian anarchist movement is extremely fragmented and full of conflict, and does not support each other during the repression. Many anarchist movements have already hurried to condemn the young bombers and disown them, saying that they have no relation to anarchism. Previously, repression against many anarchists in Russia were also ignored. Despite the rise in criminal actions and the persecution of anarchists, information about this is increasingly ignored due to personal fights and conjunctural considerations.

We call for solidarity with all Russian anarchists subjected to repression – in Penza, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Chelyabinsk, Kaliningrad, Irkutsk and the Crimea. Russia is becoming a terrorist dictatorship and this is already forcing young anarchists to take up the bombs.

Argentina: Without Fear & With Perseverance Let's Extend the Offensive! Information About the Recent Repressive Blow of the Argentine State

On November 14th, two specific events took place in the city of Buenos Aires, with media coverage and a rapid police / judicial response.

During the afternoon, in the Recoleta cemetery, at the mausoleum dedicated to Colonel Ramon Falcon (assassinated by comrade Simón Radowitzky) – a bomb explodes leaving the comrade Anahi Salcedo wounded, she is transferred to Fernandez hospital and detained with wounds to her face and skull as well as the loss of three fingers on one of her hands. She is currently in an induced coma. At the same place, comrade Hugo Rodriguez was arrested.

Hours later, outside the home of Judge Bonadio (famous for his hard line, his indelible past with the youth of the iron guard- a Peronist fascist group, and his current practice and discourse against anti-conservatism and repression of dissenting sectors and individuals opposed to the current order), comrade Marco Viola is arrested, accused of throwing an explosive device at the magistrate's car.

At dawn, and throughout the following days, various spaces of the anarchic environment including squats, neighborhood centers and private homes are searched, resulting in the arrests of another 12 people.

The detainees were transferred to 2200 Cavia street where the anti-terrorist unit works, then to the police superintendence on Madariaga street, and then finally on Saturday morning they were taken to the Comodoro Py courts to testify in front of judge Ercollini and the public prosecutor Di Lello, following 72 hours of uncertainty, isolation and being subjected to who knows what by the eternally miserable wretches.

After this, two people are released, leaving a total of 10 imprisoned comrades charged with illegal association, public intimidation and possession of explosive material. The two actions unified under the same cause.

At the moment it is all prudential what can be transmitted, we know that other places are under surveillance, as well as specific people, since the government itself have confirmed the seizure of more than 100 private phones belonging to activists, and they have reopened investigations into direct actions that were carried out in the city from 2005 until the present (some claimed by anarchists and others not).

The call is clear and leaves no room for double interpretations.

Every gesture of concrete solidarity is welcome and desirable.

Do not leave the comrades kidnapped by the Argentine State alone, without fear and with perseverance extend the offensive.

ANARCHIST NIHILIST ANTI-AUTHORITARIAN COMRADES WE ARE HERE AND WE ARE STRONG

WITHOUT FEAR AND WITH MORE ANGER THAN EVER

FREEDOM FOR THE ANARCHIST PRISONERS

Madrid, Spain: About the two detained anarchists

Last Monday, October 29, the Information Brigade went to the houses of two anarchist comrades in Madrid to arrest them. They are charged with the crime of damages caused by the burning of a Bankia ATM in the Vallekas neighborhood during the week of action on the anniversary of the arrest of Comrade Lisa, who is currently in the custody of the German state sentenced to 7 years and accused of robbing a bank.

It is not the first nor the last time that the State represses any indication of direct anarchist action. The State has been improving its repressive machinery for some time. Proof of this is the proliferation of surveillance cameras (as in this case) and the taking of DNA and the coordination with other police bodies at European level (as in the case of Lisa or those hunted and imprisoned for the events at the [Hamburg] G20, which had its last chapter in the Spanish State on October 19 with house searches of comrades in Palencia and Madrid).

These arrests, in the way they have been carried out, mean a change of repressive strategies away from the media's spectacularization of past police operations against anarchist environments (Pandora, Piñata, Pandora II, Ice). The goal is the same, however: intimidation, fear and the consequent paralysis of the struggle.

Faced with this strategy, as anarchists, we must remain strong and continue the struggle and not lose those tools that make anarchism a dangerous movement for the State and all its forms and tools of domination. If the State represses after being attacked, it must be hit harder, the objective is to continue the struggle and that solidarity extends to all points of the territory. If yesterday a bank burned, tomorrow will burn a hundred.

Little matter, "innocence" or "guilt" of the compañerxs, these terms are categories of the justice system that we do not recognize as anarchists.

Solidarity with Lisa, those hunted and imprisoned of the G20, Scripta Manent and other comrades around the globe who are kidnapped by the State.

In our revolutionary memory live Santiago Maldonado and comrade Zlobitsky Mikhail who died on October 31 in a bomb attack against the FSB (heir of the KGB).

YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO STOP THE PASSION FOR FREEDOM

FREEDOM TO LISA FIRE TO THE BANKS

DEATH TO THE STATE AND LONG LIVE ANARCHY

Murcia, Spain: Six anarchists arrested

October 28th, 2018

Six anarchists have been arrested in Murcia by the Spanish National Police who accuse them of being responsible for several explosive and incendiary attacks against infrastructure including pylons. The six anarchists aged 21 to 27 are accused of possession, storage and trafficking of explosives, and property damage. This operation follows an arrest and search that took place in June this year in the town of Molina de Segura (Murcia region), during which a young anarchist was arrested and explosive material seized. Thirty similar actions in their equipment and targets took place in Murcia. The six anarchists arrested are charged for the last nine attacks.

Italy : Report on the 8th November hearing of the 'Operation Panic' trial

*Source: Anarchici fiorentini
Translated by act for freedom now!*

The third hearing of the trial concerning Operation Panico took place on Thursday 8th November. We don't know how it went nor are we much interested. The events speak for themselves. Giova, Ghespe, Paska, some of the other comrades on trial and an audience of comrades were in court. As soon as the hearing started, through his lawyer Paska demanded to speak in order to read out a declaration. He had come to court with the signs of the beating he had been given in La Spezia prison in the morning before being transferred to Florence. He started to read out his declaration, which began by telling of the screws' beating, but the judge immediately ordered his microphone to be switched off, blabbing that what the comrade was saying was not pertinent to the trial, that the court was not the place to denounce this kind of thing and similar bullshit.

However Paska continued reading more loudly but was pulled away by the disgusting guards, who tried to tear his papers off him then locked him in the court basement. The comrades present and the other defendants stood and protested noisily, at which point the judge emptied the courtroom. The other accused also went out to discuss things, while Paska's lawyer demanded that he be readmitted to the court, even in a cage, reminding the court that his client had been on hunger strike for some days to protest against the prison conditions and to request a transfer to another prison. Of course the judge cared little about that and ordered that Paska remain locked up in the basement. The defendants returned to the courtroom to read out a short declaration in which they said that the judge was also complicit in Paska's ill treatment in jail; they reaffirmed solidarity with the three imprisoned comrades and their intention to continue to attend the trial.

The judge tried to interrupt almost immediately, talking over the comrade who was reading out the declaration, at which point the defendants left the courtroom for good. We know that soon afterwards Giova and Ghespe also demanded to be taken away, and perhaps this prompted the judge to think it over; in fact he had Paska brought back and asked him if he wanted to return to the court. The comrade accepted as did Giova and Ghespe. On the contrary the other accused comrades stayed outside, where some improvised a small gathering near the entrance then joined the others to greet the [imprisoned] comrades at the end of the trial. But this was not possible because at the end of the trial the three comrades were quickly taken to the armoured vans, which rode the wrong way for a stretch of the road so as not to pass in front of the comrades; but we know the screw's human misery is without limit. The day ended with a tour in the Sant'Ambrogio neighbourhood and a stall in the piazza.

At this moment it is more and more urgent to express active solidarity with Giova, Paska, and Ghespe; we remember that Paska has been on hunger strike since 5th November, and it's up to us to make him feel our support and complicity.

On Sunday 18th November we'll be outside La Spezia prison from 3pm, in good shape and pissed off!

Santiago, Chile: Appeal court rejects re-trial for imprisoned anarchist comrade Joaquin Garcia

On November 19, 2018, the San Miguel Court of Appeals decided to reject the nullity of the sentence and the proposed new trial against the anarchic comrade Joaquin Garcia Chanks.

Given this situation, the 13-year sentence against the company is confirmed, he was accused of placing an explosive device against the police station and carrying a revolver. This has become one of the first convictions so high for bomb placement. Now that the police are accustomed to carrying out their rounds of blood, torture and death, let us not remain indifferent to those who remain in prison accused of attacking them.

All our support and solidarity insurgents with companion Joaquin Garcia!

It will not be the years nor the condemnations that will make the fight against the authority decay even a millimeter!

For the liberation of all prisoners of social war and the destruction of prisons!

Donate to imprisoned anarchists, solidarity campaigns, 325 and related projects with cryptocurrencies

So we can better collect and transfer financial solidarity to imprisoned comrades in various cases with a minimized interference and seizure by the banks and the state, there are several cryptocurrency wallets available that we have opened to receive money from those interested and in solidarity. We will continue to maintain these wallets for the gathering and channeling of money for imprisoned anarchists internationally. This is also an appeal for financial solidarity to our informal network and group, publications, logistics, outreach etc. Our project requires money as we help persecuted and imprisoned comrades, pay for organisational costs and propaganda. Help us survive and take 325 to the next level, please consider donating, no amount is too small. If you are not able to send financial solidarity, then contributions of translations, articles, reports, photos and thematic art/designs are always welcome.

“Eco-Extremist Mafia” Arturo Vasquez submits legal & FBI threat to anarchist counter-info site 325

Just as we had been convinced that the eco-extreme/nihilist-right “Mafia” could not get even more ridiculous, we were sent this email below by the comrades of nostate.net. It’s a threat via their domain provider by the boss of the North American ‘indomitable’ “eco-extremist theorists”, Arturo Vasquez (Abe Cabrera)*, editor of eco-fascist journal Atassa to call the FBI. After all those other ‘indomitable’ ‘comrades’ of his hung him out to dry the only thing for him to do is threaten to call the police.

This threat the eco-fascist makes is nothing but a gift to us and shows what the pope Atassa is really about. A miserable snitch fantasist who thinks he can mock and threaten without consequences, moving around online spaces and blogs promoting the indiscriminate terrorism and authoritarianism of the Individualists Tending Toward the Wild (ITS) whilst attacking anarchy. A Catholic flea attached to the anarchist space and the controversy of spreading death threats against comrades, mixing up anarchist ideas with irrationalist and religious ones.

Vasquez, informer and worthless coward, doesn’t he think that the FBI and dozens of other security agencies don’t already monitor our site? Doesn’t this “Mafia” already know that if our small organisation can find out exactly where he lives, who he associates with, where he works and spends time, then the FBI might also know exactly who and what he is? Vasquez always was a useful idiot to the arms of the State, just like the entire “Eco-Extremism” trend.

Counter-information is an ongoing, continuous practice directed towards our anarchist, nihilist and anti-authoritarian aims. It really doesn’t matter to us if our site is taken down, it will be back in one form or another. Everything will continue.

Solidarity to the comrades fighting against authoritarian and misanthropic trash.

Dear Sir or Madam: My name is Arturo Vasquez, and I live in the United States. I have been the target of a harassment

MORE THAN WORDS

Nihilist - This world is an illusion. We are not going to wait for any one to validate our vision, we are going to conspire, organise and act now to destroy this entire order. ‘We are nihilists not because we don’t believe in anything, there’s no such thing as that. We are nihilist because we are the honest lover of life and living with all of their colors, darkness, emptiness, horror, imagination, beauty, bitter, sour, sweet, tasteless, and tragedy. all of these things that will be always endless even when our flesh rotting and our physical presence reborn in many forms within other people’s memories and dreams.’

“Eternity, what is it? It is the sea running away with the sun...” Arthur Rimbaud .

Affinity groups - Small groups can achieve acts that all the armies in the world cannot do. Deepening the knowledge of each other and ourselves to go into the unknown, into freedom. Mobility, decision, experience, reciprocity . Do you know yourself?

Insurrection - Forget waiting for social change or revolution from the consumer masses. Peaceful protests, marches, petitions, and appeals to power go nowhere alone. Start attacking now.
