LETTERS ON EDUCATION. No. 1. My Dear Zoe—Holding all promises sacred, I come now to redeem mine, but before entering upon the promised illustration of my views upon the subject of education, I would advise you to see if there are any defects in the system, or the system as it is, before being brought to the light in the present, let me be noted out—but if on examination, it should appear that the system is perfect, and no fault in the practice, then this investigation will add to its strength...

DIABOLICAL WICKEDNESS, TO WHICH A CITIZEN OF BOSTON WAS A PARTY. We have had the following statement from a source in which we place implicit confidence. There is a plantation in the island of Santa Cruz, called Golden Grove, which belongs, together with its slaves, to a citizen of Boston, whose name we have in our possession. A short time since, an overseer or driver, having authority over the laborers of Golden Grove, determined to abuse the persons of two newly married females...

It is for the interesting juvenile class to devote a few moments, or by whom, instruction shall be imparted to them. They seek with avidity knowledge, wherever it may be obtained. The tractability of their dispositions makes submission to any prescribed mode not only easy, but pleasant. It is the parents and guardians, therefore, who are to be blamed, first, that the existing mode is defective; and secondly, that no more perfect is within their reach.

There are in this country a MILLION female slaves who have no protection whatever for their chastity, and who may be ravished by their masters or sold into impurity!!! Marriage among the slaves is not more recognized by law than among brutes!!! There are born every year more than SIXTY THOUSAND infant slaves who are illegitimate! a large portion of whom have white fathers—some of them the most distinguished names in the south— who sell them as they would pigs or sheep!!! Not only so, but they would give up a BURNING HELL this perdition upon earth—a BURNING HELL in the very bosom of our country—a VOLCANO OF OR LUST AND IMPURITY, threatening to blast every plant of virtue, and to roll its fiery tide over all that is beautiful to the eye, or precious in the sight of God!

MR. THACHER'S ADDRESS. JUST published, and for sale at the office of the Boston Telegraph, No. 6, Congress Square, an Address delivered on the 4th of July, before the Antislavery Convention of Maine, by the Rev. Moses Thacher, Price, 12 1/2 cents single, one dollar per post.

Another horrible act. Let us be careful not to overthrow slavery at once! Shocking barbarity—Some twelve or fifteen days since, a runaway negro man was committed to the jail of the county. The negro stated that he belonged to a Mr. Walker, of Perry county, who was a overseer, or a person authorized, took him out of jail on Saturday last. As soon as he was released, he started his horse in a trot, and the negro was compelled to keep up for about 7 or 8 miles, he stopped, where the negro stated that he was forced by the inhuman man in which he was forced to follow his keeper. If the circumstance, as he stated, were true, it would be a most shocking and unpardonable crime, and would be a disgrace to the community.

Methodists of Slavery—It appears that at the celebration of the 4th of July at Baboquiville in S. C. by the Union and Anti-Slavery party, an attempt was made to pass the whole party, in which, as usual, was got up for the occasion. This is one of the miseries, which is incident to a country where slavery is authorized by the laws. The word Slavery, are involuntarily associated to rebellions, bloodthirsty cruelties, and forcible massacres. The inhabitants of the slave States, must always depend upon their more favored brethren for assistance in the hour of danger—and they know not at what moment they may be compelled to appear to them as aid. And yet the hot blooded Southerners talk seriously of seceding from the Union—Ester, Atlanta, Ga. letter.

For the Liberator. REPLY TO A METHODIST OF THE OLD EPISCOPAL CHURCH. MR. EDITOR—For a few years past I have been striving, in my feeble way, to sound the gospel trumpet to teach sinners the errors of their way, and to direct them to our common Redeemer.

Whole number of cases up to August 8, 1832. The whole number of burials in New-York for the month of July was 2783.—Deaths by cholera, 1932!

Another Melancholy Story—Since the epidemic appeared in our country, many afflicting instances of mortality have occurred in families. Mr. Smith Johnson, a cooper, resided in Hicks-street, Brooklyn, with his wife, his own and his wife's mother, and a servant-maid. Mr. Johnson is a gentleman in easy circumstances—his family lived judiciously and temperately, and the atmosphere was rigorous to cleanliness. On Tuesday morning Mrs. Johnson was taken sick, and after a few days, died yesterday noon. Mr. Johnson's mother, and Mrs. Johnson's son, were both attacked, and are now in their graves. The servant woman, was carried from the house to visit her friends, who were sickened on the road and died. A gentleman who visited the house sickened while there, was carried some immediately, and is now convalescent. This, of a happy and healthy family, in a few hours every one, save Mr. Johnson, has been snatched from life, and his wife, by this fatal epidemic—Agricultural Advertiser.

Sickness in the State Prison—A disease, resembling the common cholera, broke out in the Prison at Charleston, on Sunday afternoon, in which half past 12 o'clock, and spread among the convicts had been attacked with vomiting and purging, but no spasms of the extremities. The number of cases continued to increase, and on Monday there were 118 sick. There have been no deaths. It is the general opinion of the Charleston and Boston physicians, that the disease is not the Asiatic Cholera. Nearly all the sick are rapidly recovering.

FOREIGN NEWS. It is remarkable that among the inmates of the House of Industry in South Boston, twenty-five of whom were attacked, but are all convalescent.

The Cholera was increasing at Liverpool. New cases 24th and 25th June, 111—deaths 29. The disease was the making of its progress in Ireland in Tallanore, in 4 or 5 days, there had been 145 deaths, and not a single recovery. Most of the population died. In Dublin, the disease had broken out with renewed violence. In the three days ending 25th June, the cases were 145, and the deaths 55. 3269 deaths had been reported in Ireland.

The King was hit in the forehead by a stone thrown at him by a ruffian, while standing at a window at Ascut health rooms, in company with his private family. A second stone was thrown at him, but missed. The King was either stunned, or so much astonished as to fall back two or three paces, and exclaimed, "My God, my God!" Great alarm was excited among his relatives, but he was not seriously hurt. The perpetrator was immediately seized, and is now in custody of expressing any feeling of regret, he gloried in it.

The outrage had excited throughout the Kingdom, a strong feeling of indignation, and both Houses of Parliament had unanimously agreed upon an address to the King, on the subject.

John Sargent, of Philadelphia, has given $100 for the relief of the poor in New York. The Mayor, of Madison, and Martin Van Buren has given the same sum to the poor of Albany.

By the upsetting of a boat in the harbor, on Tuesday last week, during the assault Mr. Thomas Parson, a worthy and industrious citizen, was drowned near the barracks, and ending near the arsenal.

At Potter's Field, New-York, on Thursday last week, a man dug a grave in which he was himself buried on Friday.

The total number of deaths in Charleston, S. C. in the week ending July 15th was 16, of whom 12 were colored persons.
