

case as the other. All these were moved by... pool motives... he has acted, imposes a tremendous responsibility on others.

mands such an expedition... (quoting them by letters) that he has acted, imposes a tremendous responsibility on others.

[FROM THE AMERICAN TRAVELLER.] SLAVERY AND COLONIZATION.

Mr. Editor—In your paper of Jan. 1st, was published an account from C. F. Pennington, General Agent of the Colonization Society in Boston, giving a history of his proceedings in those places which he has visited, and of his success as a sub-agent of the Colonization Society.

I do not question the general truth of his statements, however much I might differ from him in opinion on the subject to which his letter relates; nor have I any objection against his doing every thing that he can do fairly to promote the object he has in view.

It is strange enough that any man professing to be a lover of liberty, a lover of humanity, a lover and a friend of the Gospel, should advance such ideas. But it is not so strange that Mr. Converse, a southern man, having imbibed the spirit of his principles and prejudices, should give his beautiful efforts as that of a solitary Vermont settler at it and drink it in.

Mr. Pennington says that he has seen and heard many of the most important institutions which exist in our country. If it were proper to mention names, I could give a list of them.

It was on my tongue to explain—base compromise—Contemptible compromise with slavery! But I forbore.

At an annual election of the Pennsylvania Society for promoting the Abolition of Slavery, &c. &c. held Dec. 27th, 1832, the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year.

One word in relation to the Colonization Society. It is a society of the same age as the venerable Thomas Clarkson, of England, addressed a letter to Elliot Cresson, now in that country.

PENNSYLVANIA ABOLITION SOCIETY.

At an annual election of the Pennsylvania Society for promoting the Abolition of Slavery, &c. &c. held Dec. 27th, 1832, the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year.

It is a society of the same age as the venerable Thomas Clarkson, of England, addressed a letter to Elliot Cresson, now in that country.

On page 18th he says—"For such neglect, [of instructing them in the religion of Jesus Christ] there must be guilt somewhere."—Agin, on page 15 he says—And the maintaining in our country a system which de-

Mr. Editor—In compliance with a resolution, passed by the Anti-Slavery Society of the Western Reserve, Col. John C. Corwin, of the Convention of that Society, and with a request that they may be published in the Observer and Telegrapher.

We the undersigned, holding that every person of sane mind has a right to immediate freedom from personal bondage of whatever kind, unless imposed by the sentence of a court of law, for the commission of some crime; and that man in no case consistently with reason, religion, and the eternal and immutable principles of justice, can be the property of man.

such as are sanctioned by the precepts and example of Jesus Christ. With such views, we agree to form ourselves into a society, to be governed by the rules specified in the following Constitution.

Article 1. This Society shall be called the Western Reserve College Anti-Slavery Society. Article 2. The object of this Society shall be to maintain the manumission of slaves by humanity and religion, to effect the abolition of slavery.

Article 3. Any person who is a member of the College, may become a member of this Society by signing this Constitution, and paying one dollar annually to the funds.

Article 4. The officers of this Society shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. They shall be chosen annually by ballot.

Article 5. The President shall preside in all meetings of the Society, and in his absence, the Vice President.

Article 6. The Treasurer shall hold all the Society's funds, and pay out no monies, except at the order of the President and the Secretary.

Article 7. The Secretary shall notify all meetings of the Society, keep the records of the same, and attend to all correspondence.

Article 8. The Society shall meet the first Monday of each year, and at such other times as the officers shall designate.

Article 9. The meetings of the Society shall be opened by the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and the members present at the first meeting of each college term, may alter this Constitution.

tion was arrested by another object. Of the thirty years of age of one of the captives, a well made, good looking bulked, from the top of which, he could use his hands, he fell into the female hands of the modern head trappers, who with such force as to break his spirit, was the husband of the younger captives.

The captain of the brig now spoken of, considered one of the officers to tear the pillow from the corpse of his wife, and the pillow of the blow, but soon ceased to have his mind imploring eye to me, and a speedy termination of his miseries.

I have already informed the reader, that when I entered the Bay of Benguela, there were no less than four slave dealers from Brazil, waiting to complete their cargoes.

I was received by the officers on deck with a certain degree of courtesy, not unmingled with surprise. My name, and the object of my visit, assumed an expression of decision or contempt.

If the reader has ever been on board of a Hudson River market slave, loaded with calves and sheep for the city slaughter houses, he may form some faint idea of the Brazilian slave brig.

The slaves, perfectly naked, were stowed in rows, fore and aft, in a sitting or crouching posture, and many of them had their faces between their knees, either indulging in moody silence, or mournfully chanting, in a low voice, some plaintive song of their native villages.

After having taken a cursory view of the vessel, and of the many wretched objects attracted to the after range of pens on the starboard side, which continued about one half the females then on deck.

Unhappy Father!—A mulatto youth, day called on a respectable gentleman of his time, and with tears in his eyes, begged for assistance.

JAMES AND ALANES in the CITY, commenced on January 1st, 1832, insurance of $50,000, estimated loss, $25,000; insurance of $25,000, estimated loss, $12,500; insurance of $12,500, estimated loss, $6,250; making a total of $87,500.

SAV The Liberator is published every week, except on Sundays and public holidays. It is published by W. L. G. and is printed by J. W. Benson, No. 15 N. 2d St. N. Y.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

REPORT In a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society of the City, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Society do hereby express their warmest sympathies for the noble and heroic spirits of those who have sacrificed their lives for the cause of humanity.

LITERARY.

ORIGINAL ODE. For the Anniversary of the Landing of the Pilgrims. BY THE REV. DR. FLINT OF SALEM. We have met to remember the day...

Next, Feeling from the heart's rich store. Her varied hues supplies; And never sunset clouds could wear...

MISCELLANEOUS.

[From the Pittsburgh Advocate.] TO THE CITIZENS OF PITTSBURGH AND THE PUBLIC GENERALLY. The Board of Managers of the African Education Society...

The object of our association is, the general education of our rising youth, and the moral improvement of those of ourselves who need it...

We'll remember the field of our sires, Their sun in the solemn of gloom; That reflected from heaven's fair spires...

WAR—ABOLISHED BY UNIVERSAL PEACE.

WAR—ABOLISHED BY UNIVERSAL PEACE. BY WM. A. BULLION. Hark!—the cry of death is raging...

Happier days have been reserved for ourselves, than they ever saw. No iron manacle binds our hands...

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832. A GOOD ODE. The following parable was undoubtedly induced by the President's Proclamation...

The Unionist, a Charleston, S. C. paper of the 15th Dec., whose character will be sufficiently understood by its name alone...

The Ordinance, 'why ordinance? Why not the law, or a Constitution? But Ordinance' has been the decrees of tyrants...

The following paper, of which this is a correct copy, the original of which resides in the hands of the Board of Managers...

Having understood that the people of color of this city and vicinity have formed an Education Society, and are desirous of carrying into operation a plan for the general education...

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

A GOOD ODE. The following parable was undoubtedly induced by the President's Proclamation. Enlightenment, a German naturalist, relates some curious stories, and among others a laughable one of an old hen kept for hatching...

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

The Ordinance, 'why ordinance? Why not the law, or a Constitution? But Ordinance' has been the decrees of tyrants...

The Ordinance, 'why ordinance? Why not the law, or a Constitution? But Ordinance' has been the decrees of tyrants...

I omitted to mention as an evidence of the state of feeling here, the beautiful and excellent address of Gen. Blair, of South Carolina, on the Editor of the Telegraph, Gen. Blair...

NEWSPAPERS. What startles the tyrant from his dreams of power and rouses the slumbering genius of an oppressed people?

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

sort and protection of so many of those beautiful females who have so abundantly abandoned the dens of vice...

The result of the meeting at the chapel was singular exhibition of liberality, the cheering of which we have no doubt...

Our own minds, the close of the year was unspokeably powerful and solemn and overwhelming. We looked around us...

I omitted to mention as an evidence of the state of feeling here, the beautiful and excellent address of Gen. Blair, of South Carolina...

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

MORAL.

REV. J. R. M'DOWELL. This singularly devoted philanthropist, of a persuasion little less than apostolic, is still laboring to cleanse the haunts and hovels...

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC ITEMS.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC ITEMS. A General Election in Prussia (of great repute) will be held...

CAPTURE OF THE DECEMBER DEER. The Duchess de Berry, after long foiling the enterprise...

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.

By the Board of Managers. FRANCIS HERRON, Pastor. CHAS. B. MAGUIRE, Pastor. Congregation.

By the Board of Managers. LEWIS WOODSON, Secretary. Pittsburgh, Nov. 23, 1832.