

Fight the Power Movie Night Sponsored by PACH

Police Accountability Clinic and Helpline

presents:

Two Films on Resistance to Abuse of Police Powers

Suggested Donation: $10

Friday, April 24, 2009

7:00 PM - 10:30 PM

719 Orchard St, Santa Rosa, CA 95404

Legacy of Torture - The War Against the Black Liberation Movement: Eight Black Community Activists, mostly Black Panthers, were arrested on January 23, 2007 in California, Florida and New York, on charges stemming from a 1971 killing of a San Francisco police officer - charges which had been thrown out over three decades earlier, after it was revealed that police had used torture to extract confessions from several of these men in 1973.

Eye on the Prize - Fred Hampton - Chicago, Attica Prison Revolt: The murder of Black Panther Party Chicago leaders Fred Hampton and Mark Clark by police and the 1971 Attica Prison Riot.

Questions and Answers by Big Man Howard, Black Panther Party Co-Founder who accompanied fellow Panther Bobby Seale and met with prisoners in Attica before the massacre.

Food and Drinks will be served for a donation.

For More Info Contact

PACH

(707) 542-7224 or email: info@pachline.org

www.pachline.org