

Brother Ronnie Stevenson III

A Black Panther Brother died three days ago in the Bay Area. His name is Ronnie Stevenson III. He started Break the Cycle at UC Berkeley in 1983 and received KQED's Black History Award for it in 2001. Ronnie was passionate about the Panthers and was very proud to have been one at such a young age, 16. His warmth, exuberance, and sharp, keen mind will be missed. May he rest in peace with the ancestors and give us strength in all of our positive endeavors. Like several others, he will not need the customary 20 years to determine if he will be put on the ancestral alter. Ronnie is there now. May God, Allah, Oludumare, Gaia and the Great Spirit bless his soul and envelope him with light, peace and love.
