Solving History's Mysteries: 17 Tales of Mystery & Historical Intrigue

NEW: A special collection of 17 tales of mystery and adventure compiled from the annals of TBR history magazine. Chapters discuss: What really caused the Chicago fire and the fires that tore across swaths of Michigan the same day; what killed the Dyatlov Pass adventurers; the volcanic eruption that nearly wiped out mankind; Glen Miller's mysterious death; the 1936 "Death Hike;" Heavener rune stone reveals fate of French explorer; the search for explorer Percy Fawcett; truth about Fort Pillow; Germany's WWII Antarctic mission; inexplicable out-of-place objects; how the bankers caused WWI; Axis POW escapes Allied captivity in North America; White slave of the Nootka; Masons on Oak Island; lost ancient inventions; Osage murder mystery; more. Softcover, 163 pages, #926, $17.

Survivors of Atlantis: Their Impact on World Culture

NEW: Ancient Indian tradition speaks of fair-skinned mariners who "dug out the shiny bones" of the Earth Mother. Plato, meanwhile, recorded that "Atlanteans" had an exceptionally high grade of copper no longer available in his time. Author Frank Joseph argues that the real copper miners were survivors of a great cataclysm and that the destruction of an advanced ancient culture by war and natural causes brought about the end of the Bronze Age. Survivors dispersed from their former empire into Europe, the Near East and North and South America. Survivors of Atlantis provides an in-depth study of the four great cosmic catastrophes and how this quartet of natural disasters was followed by mass migrations recorded by the Incas, Kelts, Greeks and Aztecs. Where science meets mythology, a common thread is exposed: the legendary Atlantis. Softcover, 280 pages, #943, $16.

The Search for Life on Mars: The Greatest Detective Story of All Time

NEW: Mars is the most likely other habitat for life in our solar system. Now the Red Planet is coming under scrutiny as never before. New missions have been launched from the United States and China, and the ExoMars mission is scheduled for this year. This book recounts in full the greatest scientific detective story ever—the search for life and the efforts underway to find it on Mars. This is the definitive story of how life will be found somewhere and sometime this century. Based on more than 100 interviews with experts at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory and elsewhere, this is the one book on Mars you need to read. Softcover, 424 pages, #932, $18.

America Before: The Key to Earth's Lost Civilization

NEW: Was an advanced civilization lost to history in the global cataclysm that ended the last Ice Age? Bestselling author Graham Hancock has made it his life's work to find out. Hancock draws on the latest archaeological and DNA evidence to bring his quest to a stunning conclusion—one that could change the timeline of history. We've been taught that North and South America were empty of humans until around 13,000 years ago. New discoveries have radically reshaped this stale narrative. We now know that the Americas were peopled more than 130,000 years ago. Hancock's research takes us on a scientific journey from the Mississippi Valley to the Amazon rainforest and reveals that ancient "New World" cultures share a legacy of advanced knowledge and spiritual beliefs with supposedly unconnected "Old World" cultures. Have archaeologists focused for too long only on the Old World in their search for the origins of civilization? Hancock offers compelling proof from across the Americas that will make you wonder. Softcover, 608 pages, #949, $20.

Classic Essays on the Jewish Question: 1850 to 1945

NEW: Uncensored essays from such well-known figures as Richard Wagner, Fyodor Dostoyevsky and Theodor Fritsch to virtual unknowns like Frederick Millingen and Wilhelm Marr discuss the most taboo subject of all. Their words are potent, compelling and “racist.” Now, for the first time, 16 classic essays on this issue are compiled into a single volume. These essays are difficult to find, even in the internet age, for obvious reasons. These kinds of essays are not only frowned upon in America, several states are pushing for an outright ban if not future criminalization for those writing or distributing them. In Europe, as we all know, dozens of nations have passed laws making open discussion of this issue a criminal offense. When found, these essays are almost always incomplete. When found complete, they are poorly translated and edited. The aim of the present book is to alleviate this shortcoming and to offer full information so readers can decide for themselves if the authors contained herein are blazing “anti-Semites” or actually have a reasonable cause for concern. Softcover, 370 pages, #931, $23.

The Spy Who Changed History: The Untold Story of How the Soviet Union Stole America's Top Secrets

NEW: By Svetlana Likhova. On the trail of Soviet infiltrator Stanislav Shumovsky, codenamed Agent Blériot, author Svetlana Likhova takes the reader on a thrilling journey through Josef Stalin’s most audacious intelligence operation. In September 1931, Soviet spy Stanislav Shumovsky walked down the gangplank of the SS Europa and into New York, concealed in a group of 65 Soviet students. Stalin had sent him to acquire U.S. secrets to help close the USSR’s massive technology gap. The road to victory began in the classrooms and laboratories of MIT. Using information gleaned from this mission, the USSR transformed itself into a military powerhouse able to defeat Hitler’s Germany. Then, in 1947, American innovation exfiltrated by Shumovsky made it possible to build and unveil the most advanced strategic bomber in the world. Later, other MIT-trained Soviet spies would acquire the secrets of the Manhattan Project. Likhova takes the reader on a journey through Stalin’s most audacious intelligence operation, piecing together every aspect of Shumovsky’s life and character using information derived from American and Russian archives. It is a lesson for us all. Hardback, 496 pages, #947, $30.

War on the Border: Villa, Pershing, the Texas Rangers & an American Invasion

NEW: Jeff Guinn tells the riveting narrative of Pancho Villa’s bloody raid on a U.S. border town that sparked a violent conflict with the U.S.A. The “Punitive Expedition” was launched in retaliation under Gen. John J. Pershing and brought together the Army, National Guard and the Texas Rangers—who were little more than organized vigilantes at the time. Opposing this brigade was Pancho Villa, a guerrilla fighter who commanded a motley force of conscripts in Mexico. This was the first time the Army used autos and trucks, limited in value in Mexico, a country with no paved roads or gas stations. Curtiss Jenny airplanes did reconnaissance, another first. But, despite some bloody encounters, the expedition eventually withdrew without capturing Villa. Today, the U.S.-Mexico border remains as vexed and volatile as ever. Some “political correctness” here and there, but a valuable book. Hardback, 368 pages, #941, $28.

Secret History of the Wild, Wild West: Outlaws, Secret Societies & the Hidden Agenda of the Elites

NEW: Author Daniel J. Duke—the great-great-grandson of Jesse James—reveals that Jesse and other infamous outlaws were part of a larger organization, centuries old, that has affected U.S. history from the small, rural streets of early America to the highest levels of the nation’s government, with continuing influence to this day. Drawing on his great-great-grandfather’s secret diaries, Duke unravels the hidden history of the Wild West to expose the outlaws, politicians and secret societies who were pulling strings behind the scenes. He examines Jesse’s close ties with notorious outlaws like Johnny Ringo, Jesse Evans and Billy the Kid. He demonstrates how Jesse faked his own death and lived out his life under an alias, and how Billy the Kid did the same. He also details how both Jesse and Billy continued their work for the nameless organization after their faked deaths. Also explores how Jesse was related, by blood or marriage, to powerful people in law enforcement, the Baylor family, Copperheads, Knights of the Golden Circle, Lyndon Johnson, Harry Truman and Billie Sol Estes. Exposing the secret agenda behind the outlaw gangs of the Wild West, Duke also reveals the secret war between the secret organization and its opposition that has been waged in the shadows for centuries. Softcover, 208 pages, #944, $17.

Jesse James & the Lost Templar Treasure: Secret Diaries, Coded Maps & the KGC

COMPANION BOOK to The Secret History of the Wild, Wild West. By Daniel J. Duke, great-great-grandson of Jesse James. Here is an amazing investigation into the lost treasures of Jesse James and the Knights of the Golden Circle and their connections to the Templars, Rosicrucians and the Founding Fathers. Explains how Jesse made maps using sacred geometry, gematria and esoteric symbols to hide treasures he was entrusted with and encode his maps. Provides instructions for using the encoding template to recover treasure and relics. Shows how the encoding template confirms the existence of treasures on Oak Island and Victorio Peak and can be traced to a 16th-century book containing a secret map of the New World. Duke reveals hidden treasures yet to be recovered as well as connections between the infamous train robber and Freemasonry, the Knights Templar, the Founding Fathers and even some ancient mysticism—and how you might be able to find treasure yourself! Softcover, 160 pages, #868, $17.

A History of the World in 100 Animals—in color

NEW: Fully illustrated in color, a fascinating exploration of the 100 animals that have had the most profound influence on humanity throughout the ages. The fact is, we humans are as much members of the animal kingdom as the cats and dogs we surround ourselves with, the cows and the fish we eat, and the bees who pollinate so many of our food-plants. Award-winning author Simon Barnes selects the 100 animals who have had the greatest impact on humanity and on whom humanity has had the greatest effect. He shows how we have domesticated animals for food and for transport, and how animals powered agriculture, making civilization possible. He posits that the wholesale slaughter of bison in the 19th century, for example, was responsible for the United States becoming the nation it is today because it removed a major resource for American Indians; that a plague spread by fleas in 14th-century Europe led to changes in religion after the Black Death; and that whales changed human possibilities thanks to the oil made from their blubber, which provided illumination and made the night a time for productivity. He explains how pigeons made possible the biggest single breakthrough in the history of human thought and so much more. In short, he charts the close relationship between humans and animals, finding examples from around the planet that bring the story of life on Earth vividly to life, with great insight and understanding. Vivid illustrations are a bonus. Hardback, full color, 496 pages, 6 x 9, #930, $40.

Lawbreaking Ladies: 50 Tales of Daring, Defiant and Dangerous Women from History

NEW: Discover 50 fascinating tales of female pirates, fraudsters, gamblers, bootleggers, serial killers, madams and outlaws in this illustrated book of lawbreaking and legendary women throughout the ages. Many of us are familiar with the popular slogan “well-behaved women seldom make history,” but that adage is taken to the next level in this book, which looks at women from the past who weren’t afraid to break the law, challenge their male counterparts or the idea that women belong at home, barefoot and pregnant. From pirates to madams, gamblers to bootleggers and outlaws, women throughout the ages haven’t always decided to be sugar, spice and everything nice, as you will see! In Lawbreaking Ladies, author Erika Owen tells the stories of 50 remarkable women whose rebellious and often criminal acts ought to solidify their place in history. A perfect gift for true crime fans and lovers of little-known women’s history, Lawbreaking Ladies serves as an engaging and informative guide to gals who were daring, defiant, and sometimes downright dangerous. Take a break from the stress of the world and enjoy a completely different kind of book—or purchase it as a gift for a naughty gal you know! Hardback, 208 pages, #948, $20.

*American History Revised: 200 Startling Facts
That Never Made It Into the Textbooks*

NEW: Author Seymour Morris Jr. colorfully illustrates—via the 200 historical vignettes that make up this book—that much of our nation’s past is quite different—and far more remarkable—than we thought. Though we do not necessarily agree with every single conclusion contained in the hundreds of tales presented, it is loaded with enough fascinating history to make it a very worthwhile gift for a history professor, student or free-thinking young scholar. Chapters: The biggest mistake the Ford Motor Co. ever made? Eleanor Roosevelt and most women’s groups opposed the Equal Rights Amendment? The No. 1 bestselling American book of all time was written in just one day? The Dutch made a bad investment when they bought Manhattan for $24? Two young girls aimed someday to become first lady—and succeeded? Three times, a private financier saved the United States from bankruptcy? Dozens more fascinating and little-known facts about American history you may not know. Organized into 10 thematic chapters, the book plumbs American history’s least-known and sometimes shocking twists. Softcover, 432 pages, #950, $20.

Patriot or Traitor: The Life and Death of Sir Walter Raleigh

NEW: Sir Walter Raleigh—heroic, courageous, gifted, grasping, a poet, politician and spy, an explorer, dreamer and schemer, an iconic Renaissance man—lived an amazing life. The fifth son of a Devonshire gentleman, he rose to become Queen Elizabeth’s favorite, only to be charged with treason by her successor. Less than a year after the death of Elizabeth I, Raleigh was in the Tower of London, watching as the scene was set for his own execution. Patriot or Traitor tells the dramatic story of his rise and fall. It is a beautifully written and impeccably researched biography. Finally, here is a fresh perspective on one of the most colorful and controversial characters of the Tudor and Stuart age. Historian Anna Beer brings Raleigh to life as never before with colorful detail and astute interpretation as we follow Raleigh’s dramatic rise and disastrous fall. Nearly all of what we think we know about Raleigh—potatoes, tobacco, spreading his cloak over a muddy puddle etc—is fable. The real story is far more exciting. Softcover, 336 pages, #946, $18.

Johann Ewald: Jäger Commander

NEW: Johann Ewald began as a commoner in one of the states of the Holy Roman Empire who rose above the constraints of his time. As a soldier, he fought in all of the great conflicts of the latter 18th century, the Seven Years’ War, the American War of Independence and the Napoleonic Wars. He keenly recorded his observations of both the people he met and places he encountered throughout these adventures. Ewald stood as one of the most accomplished practitioners of irregular warfare in his era. Beginning his military career in the Seven Years’ War, and continuing through the American War of Independence, he amassed a vast wealth of experience leading troops in the art of petite guerre. He later wrote several works based on his experiences, and at least one of these received the attention of Frederick the Great of Prussia. Among all but a small group of dedicated scholars of the American Revolution, however, Ewald has vanished into obscurity. There are no other English-language biographies of Ewald. Instead of focusing on the great battles, however, James McIntyre’s biography of Ewald focuses on the conduct of irregular operations: raids, ambushes and the like. Note that the famed “Headless Horseman” was a Jäger. Softcover, 400 pages, #954, $19.

Stalin’s War: A New History of WWII

NEW: Prize-winning historian Sean McMeekin reveals how Stalin—not Hitler—was the driving force of World War II in this major new history. WWII endures in the popular imagination as a heroic struggle between good and evil, with villainous Hitler driving events. But Hitler was not in power when the conflict erupted in Asia—and he was dead before it ended. His armies did not fight in multiple theaters, did not span the Eurasian continent, and he did not inherit any of the spoils of war. Those belonged to Stalin. Drawing on new research in Soviet, European and U.S. archives, Stalin’s War revolutionizes our understanding of this global conflict by moving its epicenter to the east. McMeekin shows the war that emerged in Europe in 1939 was the one Stalin wanted, not Hitler. So, too, did the Pacific war of 1941-1945 fulfill Stalin’s goal of unleashing a war between Japan and the “Anglo-Saxon” capitalist powers he viewed as his ultimate adversary. Hardback, 864 pages, #927, $40.

Jewish Freemasonry

NEW: By Édouard Drumont & Nicolae Paulescu. Introduction by Dr. Alexander Jacob. The two principal anti-Masonic texts presented in this edition shed some light on the Jewish origins and ambitions of the Freemasonic organization. The first of the texts is taken from the French journalist Édouard Drumont’s famous work on the Jews La France Juive: Essai d’histoire contemporain, 2 vols. (1886) while the second is from the Romanian scientist and political activist Nicolae Paulescu’s The Hospital, the Koran, the Talmud, the Kahal and Freemasonry (1913). Both authors discuss the contrast between the “Jewish character” of the Masonic ethos and the social doctrines of the Catholic Church. The authors allege a prime goal of Masonry has always been to replace Christianity as a political force in the West. Softcover, 136 pages, #928, $15.

Mass Murder at Katyn

NEW: Here is the first-ever full English translation of the complete forensic report by the German government detailing the mass murder of Polish officers and officials by the Soviet Union’s secret police in the Katyn Forest, originally published in 1943. Dismissed as “propaganda” and ignored for nearly 50 years, this report was completely accurate, and, if anything, an understatement of the murderous nature of Soviet Bolshevism. The meticulous report starts with an overview of the basic facts surrounding the discovery of the mass graves and then produces a series of eyewitness accounts of the captive Poles being transported to the site of the executions. Next, the reader is given a thorough account of the environment and its effect upon buried bodies—this establishes the time of death beyond question—before providing a series of postmortem studies on the bodies. These postmortem reports—carried out by an unbiased international team of doctors, overseen by the Red Cross and Allied prisoners of war brought in to observe proceedings—revealed that the victims had all been executed by single shots to the back of the head—a merciless and brutal way to individually execute the thousands of victims discovered in the mass graves. It also provides a full copy of the major exchanges between the International Red Cross and other parties on the matter, while the next section details the Allied response to the revelations, which in summary consisted of a pretence that the murders had not taken place, or, if they had, that they had been committed by the Germans. Also includes a full list of the names of the victims the postmortem investigations were able to identify and a complete photo record of the graves, the postmortems and the items recovered from the scene. Softcover, 290 pages, 8.5" x 11" format, #929, $28.

The Man in the Iron Mask:

The True Story of Europe's Most Famous Prisoner

NEW: By Josephine Wilkinson. This book has all the hallmarks of a thrilling adventure story: a glamorous and all-powerful king, ambitious ministers, a cruel and despotic jailor, dark and sinister dungeons—and a secret prisoner who actually existed. It is easy to forget that this story, made famous by Alexandre Dumas, is that of a real person, Eustache Dauger, who spent more than 30 years in the prison system of Louis XIV's France—never to be freed. This narrative brings to life the true story of this mysterious man and follows his journey through four prisons and across decades of time. It introduces the reader to those with whom he shared his imprisonment, those who had charge of him, and those who decided his tragic fate—and why they viewed him as such a threat. The Man in the Iron Mask reveals one of the most enduring mysteries of Louis XIV's reign; but it is, above all, a human story. Using contemporary documents, this book shows what life was really like for state prisoners in seventeenth-century France—and offers tantalizing insight into why this mysterious man was arrested and why, several years later, his story would become one of France's most intriguing legends that still sparks debate and controversy today. Hardback, 352 pages, #945, $29.

March of the Titans: The Complete History of the White Race

NEW EDITION: Here it is: the complete and comprehensive history of the White race—by prolific scholar Arthur Kemp—spanning 350 centuries of tumultuous events from the steppes of Eurasia to the African continent, to Asia, the Americas and beyond. Here is the inspirational story—vast visions, empires, achievements, triumphs against staggering odds, reckless blunders, crushing defeats and stupendous struggles. Covering every continent, every White culture group, every White country both ancient and modern, it also steps back to take a global view of the modern world and identifies the cause of the collapse of ancient civilizations and the lessons modern White Western society must learn to survive. Kemp spent more than 25 years traveling over four continents, doing primary research to compile this unique book. There is no other book like it in existence—a book to pass on from generation to generation, so that all will know the true history of the White race. New deluxe softcover, signature sewn, oversized, updated with 100 new pages—694 total pages with hundreds of B&W pictures, indexed, appendices, bibliography, chapters on every conceivable White culture group, #464, now just $36.

Hardback, 288 pages, #951, $20.

New: Nine Books—One Taboo Topic!

Everyone has heard about that terrible topic known as Jewish Ritual Murder. Anybody who mentions it is branded as an anti-Semite. Groups like the World Jewish Congress and the Anti-Defamation League (and their ilk spread across the globe) are happy to admonish scholars about how evil it is to even imagine that Jews could do such a thing, ever, at any time in history. It was taken as fact that such activities were impossible and the belief in them reflected deep defects in Christian or Muslim moral character. Starting in the 1990s, the internet provided an easy opportunity to collect information on ritual murder of all kinds, not just by Jews, but by many cultures that practiced such things including, for instance, the Aztecs. So, is it true or not? Have some Jews practiced ritual murder? After further inquiry and study, starting in late 2013, JR Books Online embarked upon a project whereby historically significant books on the Jewish ritual murder issue would be produced, performing translations into English. Unfortunately, these books have been banned by the thought censors. TBR has stepped in to help keep these books alive because, after review, we found them to be interesting, even-handed and credible. Many include trial testimony and critiques by well-known authors. Here they are so you can make up your own mind.

Jewish Ritual Murder: An Anthology—Volume 1

NEW: Volume One of the two-volume JEWISH RITUAL MURDER ANTHOLOGY SERIES begins with Julius Streicher's Der Stürmer Special Ritual Murder issue and continues with Cardinal Lorenzo Ganganelli's Report, Walsh's Isabella of Spain, Neophytos's A Testimony of Ritual Murder and I.I. Lytostansky's On the Use of Christian Blood by the Jews, with a few smaller items of interest. Volume One: Softcover, 467 pages, #933, indexed, $30.

Jewish Ritual Murder: An Anthology—Volume 2

NEW: Volume Two of the two-volume JEWISH RITUAL MURDER ANTHOLOGY SERIES contains: My Irrelevant Defence by Arnold Spencer Leese, A Short Demurrer by William Prynne (1600-1669), two articles from La Civiltà Cattolica (a semi-official Vatican publication) on the subject, a fragment from the novel The Brothers Karamazov by Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Murdered by Jews by Henri Desportes which is an account of the revolting murder of a little Christian boy in Damascus, never before published in English before this, and an article by late American writer Harold Covington. The volume concludes with another exclusive translation of Jewish Ritual Crime by Albert Monniot (1862-1938). In this famous work, Monniot puts to rest the standard counter-arguments of critics—and more. This includes information on the poisoning of Roger Gougenot des Mousseaux, another famous French murder investigator. Volume Two: Softcover, 424 pages, #934, $30.

Both JRM ANTHOLOGY VOLUMES as a Set: $50—#935.

The Jew, the Gypsy & El Islam

UPDATED: Sir Richard F. Burton (1821-1890) was the co-discoverer of the source of the White Nile and British consul at multiple cities across the globe. He was one of the most important linguists of his day, giving a well-received direct-from-Arabic translation of the Arabian Nights in 16 volumes; original English translator of the Kama Sutra and a hundred other accomplishments. This book is a republishing of his valuable 1898 book The Jew, the Gypsy and El Islam. It consists of three extended essays that Burton had been working on for many years prior to his death. The essay "The Gypsy" is a good exposition of a people that are nearly invisible, their machinations going mostly undetected. The details featured in "El Islam" are of obvious topical interest today. The chapter "The Jew," herein reproduced exactly as published in 1898, however, as such reflects barely one-quarter of the original manuscript, which is now kept under lock and key in the archives of the Board of Deputies of British Jews. Softcover, 215 pages, #809, $20.

Jews Must Live plus Now and Forever

NEW: Two unabridged books in one by Samuel Roth. Samuel Roth (1893-1974) was a decades-long publisher of pornographic materials and a plaintiff in Roth v. United States (1957), a key Supreme Court ruling on freedom of sexual expression. The minority opinion of that case, regarding redeeming social value as a criterion in obscenity prosecutions, became a template for the liberalizing First Amendment decisions in the 1960s. He was sued by James Joyce, tangled with T.S. Eliot and Ezra Pound, and was involved in the Alger Hiss embroglio. Two books by Samuel Roth are presented here. Jews Must Live includes the full text and all illustrations from the original. This is in contrast to a previous 1964 edition which had only half the book. Roth's narrative forms in part a candid exposé of Jewish ritual murder. His testimony has now been given new life in this book. Also includes Roth's Now and Forever. In this strange little book—also presented in full text—Roth discusses the state of Jewry with Israel Zangwill. Zangwill was a playwright who coined the phrase “melting pot.” Also included are three related essays—one by Martin Glynn and two by Marcus Eli Ravage. Softcover, 369 pages, #936, $27.

A Memorandum on Ritual Murders

NEW: Has the reality of Jewish ritual murder been proven in modern court proceedings according to accepted rules of evidence? This happened in Russia many times during the 19th and 20th centuries, far removed from any Medieval obscurantism. One of the most famous trials occurred in the Russian town of Velizh in the early 19th century after the mutilated and exsanguinated corpse of a little Christian boy had been found in the forest. Although the Jewish culprits would be eventually acquitted, the ritual nature of the murder would still be firmly established. That trial is described in detail in this book, along with many other cases of ritual murder. A Memorandum on Ritual Murders was written in 1844 by V.I. Dal, famed for his mammoth explanatory dictionary of the Russian language. Dal told the truth here because no one could censor him. In czarist Russia, one could speak freely on this subject, which is no longer the case in the present-day “democratic” Russian Federation. Softcover, 141 pages, indexed, #937, $20.

The Murder of Andrei Yushchinsky

NEW: By G.G. Zamyslovsky, a member of the Russian State Duma who served as a civil prosecutor at the Beilis trial. Shortly before World War I, the Russian Empire was shaken by the bestial murder of Andrei Yushchinsky, a 13-year-old boy whose exsanguinated body, bearing all the traces of ritual murder, was found in March 1911 on the outskirts of Kiev. The ensuing trial, held in the autumn of 1913, attracted wide attention not only in Russia but also in Europe—and even the United States. Mendel Beilis was the only defendant. Although he was acquitted by the jury, the same verdict also insisted it was a ritual murder, one committed in a Jewish brick factory. In addition to the description of Yushchinsky's murder, it contains much valuable information, including a detailed account of two famous ritual murder trials that took place in the Russian towns of Velizh and Saratov in the 19th century. Also included in the book is the expert opinion of Roman Catholic priest I.B. Pranaitis. Softcover, 486 pages, #940, $35.

The True History of the Conquest of New Spain

NEW: Bernal Diaz del Castillo (1496-1584) wrote an important firsthand account of his experiences supporting several expeditions into Central America, including that of Hernan Cortes in the conquest of Mexico in 1521. It's the straightforward account of a soldier, not the dainty and carefully balanced prose of an academic or diplomat. It is thus devoid of “political correctness.” This volume allows Diaz to tell his story as he would have it, and, besides his observations of the Aztec people and their temples, he describes their massive ritual sacrifices—the details of which are many times excised from modern history books. Softcover, 402 pages, illustrated, #938, $25.

The Life & Miracles of St. William of Norwich

NEW: Was an innocent boy in 12th-century England brutally murdered by bloodthirsty fanatics? This book is the full manuscript of Benedictine monk Thomas of Monmouth who, in A.D. 1173, chronicled the murder of William of Norwich. Thomas claimed William, a 12-year-old tanner's apprentice, had been ritually murdered by Jews in contempt of the Christian faith. It's the first such account, specifically that of Jewish ritual murder of a child, in the historical record. This edition is complete and unabridged as translated by Cambridge academicians Jessopp & James in 1896. Softcover, 170 pages, indexed, #939, $20.

Jewish Ritual Murder: An Investigation

UPDATED: By Hellmut Schramm, Ph.D. Completed in 1941 and published 1943-1944 in Germany during the National Socialist regime. Many of the accounts carry the semblance of verity in that they expose Christian accomplices in the procuring of children for ritual sacrifice. The bodies of the victims were often disposed of in a way that would actually tend to allow their easy discovery. The perpetrators did this because burying the bodies would have given them respect. This book forms an enduring legacy which has now been brought to English readers and which can no longer be suppressed. Softcover, 477 pages, indexed, #810, $30.

Russian Populist: The Political Thought of Vladimir Putin

By Matthew Raphael Johnson, Ph.D. With high rates of economic growth, military and police reform and a concerted attack on official corruption, Vladimir Putin has become an influential populist leader and a significant figure in global nationalism, non-alignment and multipolarity. Here are the programs and the thinking that have allowed that to happen at a pace that has astonished the world. Read of Putin's outlook on foreign policy, the economy, Christian culture, the Russian people, history and more. Never before has a book like this on Putin been published, and you will not see one like it in the anti-Russian West. Softcover, 178 pages, #630, $25.

The Enemies of Rome: The Barbarian Rebellion Against the Roman Empire

A history of the Roman Empire from the point of view of the "barbarian" enemies of Rome. Those the Romans regarded as barbarians left few records of their own, but they had a tremendous impact on the Roman imagination. Stephen Kershaw builds a narrative around the lives, personalities, successes, and failures both of the key opponents of Rome's rise and dominance, and of those who ultimately brought the empire down. Rome's history follows a remarkable trajectory from its origins as a tiny village of refugees from a conflict zone to a dominant superpower. But throughout this history, Rome faced significant rebellion from peoples whom it regarded as barbarians: Ostrogoths, Visigoths, Goths, Vandals, Huns, Picts and Scots. Softcover, 508 pages, #896, $20.

The Disappearing People: The Tragic Fate of Christians in the Middle East

By Stephen M. Rasche. The tragic story of the looming end of Christianity in the Middle East. For 1,400 years, the Christians of the Mideast lived under a system of sustained persecution as a distinct lower class of citizens under their Muslim rulers. Despite this systemic oppression, Christianity maintained a tenuous—even sometimes prosperous—foothold in the land of its birthplace up until the past several decades. Yet today, Christianity stands on the brink of extinction in much of the Mideast. How did this happen? What role did Western foreign policy and international aid policy play? What of the role of Islam and the Christians themselves? How should history judge what happened to Christians of the Mideast and what lessons can be learned? This book examines these questions with firsthand accounts of those who are living it. Hardback, 208 pages, #890, $27.

The Journey to the Mayflower: God's Outlaws and the Invention of Freedom

By Stephen Tomkins. An authoritative and immersive history of the far-reaching events in England that led to the sailing of the Mayflower. The voyage that took the Pilgrim fathers to the New World was a foundational event in American history, but it began as an English story, which pioneered the idea of religious freedom. The illegal underground movement of Protestant separatists from Elizabeth I's Church of England is a story of subterfuge and danger, arrests and interrogations, prison and executions. It starts with Queen Mary's attempts to burn Protestantism out of England, which created a Protestant underground. Later, when Elizabeth's Protestant reformation didn't go far enough, radicals recreated that underground, meeting illegally throughout England, facing prison and death for their crimes. They went into exile in the Netherlands, where they lived in poverty—and finally to the New World. The story of these early colonists is full of contemporary relevance: religious violence, the threat to national security, freedom of religion, and tolerance of dangerous opinions. This is a must-read book for anyone interested in the real story of the Mayflower. Hardback, 304 pages, #916, $29.

The Mystery of the Copper Scroll of Qumran: The Essene Record of the Treasure of Akhenaten

Introduces a radical new perspective on the historical foundations of monotheism, based on the enigma of the Copper Scroll of the Essenes. The famous Dead Sea Scrolls comprise the oldest collection of Biblical documents ever discovered. Of the Dead Sea Scrolls, none has baffled experts more than the 2,000-year-old Copper Scroll, discovered in 1952 by a team of Bedouins led by Henri de Contenson. Appearing to be a list of buried treasure engraved on copper pieces, the Copper Scroll is considered to be the work of a secretive Jewish sect of devout Essenes, who lived by the Dead Sea around the time of Jesus. No one has been able to explain its meaning or discover any of the 64 locations where the Biblical treasures it lists were buried. Robert Feather has unraveled the enigma of the Copper Scroll in a fascinating study that takes the reader on a journey from ancient Mesopotamia, through Canaan, into Egypt, and back to the shores of the Dead Sea. His exploration links the scroll to the ancient Egyptian king Akhenaten, confirming a long suspected influence of this pharaoh's religious beliefs on those of the Hebrews. Softcover, 432 pages, #917, $25.

How the Irish Won the American Revolution: The Forgotten Heroes of America's War of Independence

By Phillip Thomas Tucker. Irish immigrants were very active in the American Revolution, both on the battlefield and off, yet their stories are not well known. The important contributions of the Irish on military, political, and economic levels have been long ignored by generations of historians. New evidence has revealed that Washington's Continental Army consisted of a far larger percentage of Irish soldiers than previously thought—between 40% and 50%. Irish contributors such as John Barry, the colonies' foremost naval officer; Henry Knox, an artillery officer and future secretary of war; Richard Montgomery, America's first war hero and martyr; and Charles Thomson, a radical organizer and secretary to the Continental Congress, were all instrumental in carrying out the vision for a free country. Without the Irish, we surely would have lost. Softcover, 432 pages, #895, $18.

The Great Partnership: Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, and the Fate of the Confederacy

By Christian Keller. The story of the unique relationship between Lee and Jackson, two leaders who chiseled a strategic path forward against the odds and almost triumphed. Why were Lee and Jackson so successful in their partnership in trying to win the war for the South? What was it about their styles, friendship, even their faith, that cemented them together into a fighting machine that consistently won despite often overwhelming odds? The Great Partnership will change how we think about Confederate strategic decision-making and the value of personal relationships among senior leaders responsible for organizational survival. It has been over two decades since any author attempted a joint study of the two generals. Softcover, 368 pages, #914, $18.

The Pirate King: The Incredible Story of the Real Captain Morgan

Graham A. Thomas presents the compelling true story of a Welshman who became one of the most ruthless and brutal buccaneers of the golden age of piracy. The inspiration for dozens of fictionalized pirates in film, television and literature, as well as the namesake of one of the world's most popular rum brands, Capt. Sir Henry Morgan was matchless among pirates and privateers. Unlike most of his contemporaries, he was not hunted down and killed or captured by the authorities. Instead he was considered a hero in England and given a knighthood and eventually made governor of Jamaica. The author reveals a complex and intriguing character—an exceptional military leader whose prime motivation was to amass as much wealth as he could by sacking and plundering settlements, towns, and cities up and down the Spanish Main. Softcover, 264 pages, #894, $16.

Icebound: Shipwrecked at the Edge of the World

By Andrea Pitzer. The most astonishing survival tale of all might be that of 16th-century Dutch explorer William Barents and his crew of 16, who ventured farther north than any Europeans before and, on their third polar exploration, lost their ship off the frozen coast of Nova Zembla to unforgiving ice. The men would spend the next year fighting off ravenous polar bears, gnawing hunger, and endless winter. Pitzer masterfully combines a gripping tale of survival with a sweeping history of the great Age of Exploration—a time of hope, adventure, and seemingly unlimited geographic frontiers. At the story's center is Barents, one of the 16th century's greatest navigators whose obsessive quest to chart a path through the deepest, most remote regions of the Arctic ended in both tragedy and glory. The author retraces Barents's steps and also gives us a history of mutiny and the art of celestial navigation. Hardback, 320 pages, #913, $29.

Point of Origin: Gobekli Tepe and the Spiritual Matrix for the World's Cosmologies

Reveals Gobekli Tepe as a center of civilizing knowledge for the ancient world. How could multiple ancient cultures, spanning both years and geography, have strikingly similar creation myths and cosmologies? Why do the Dogon of Africa and the civilizations of ancient Egypt, India, Tibet, and China share sacred words and symbols? Revealing the existence of a long-forgotten primal culture and the world's first center of higher learning, Laird Scranton shows how the sophisticated complex at Gobekli Tepe in Turkey is the definitive point of origin from which all the great civilizations of the past inherited their cosmology, esoteric teachings, and civilizing skills, such as agriculture, metallurgy, and stone masonry, fully developed. Scranton explains how the carved images on Gobekli Tepe's stone pillars were the precursors to the sacred symbols of the Dogon, Egyptians, Tibetans, and Chinese as well as the matriarchal Sakti cult of ancient Iran and India. Softcover, 224 pages, #891, $17.

Revolt Against the Modern World: Politics, Religion, and Social Order in the Kali Yuga

With uncompromising intensity, Julius Evola analyzes the spiritual and cultural malaise at the heart of Western civilization and all that passes for progress in the modern world. Evola spares no one and nothing in his survey of what we have lost and where we are headed. Prophetic and provocative, Revolt Against the Modern World demonstrates how and why we have lost contact with what makes us human. The revolt advocated by Evola does not resemble the protests of liberals. His criticisms are tangentially directed at mindless consumerism, the march of progress, the rise of technocracy and the dominance of individualism, but his focus is on tracing the corrosive influence on the higher values, ideals, beliefs and codes of conduct—the world of tradition—that are at the foundation of Western civilization and described in the myths and literature of the Indo Europeans. At every turn Evola challenges the reader's most cherished assumptions. Hardback, 412 pages, #915, $30.

Commando

By Deneys Reitz with an introduction by Gen. Jan Smuts. The exhilarating true first-person, eyewitness account of life in a Boer commando brigade during the Second Anglo-Boer War (1899–1902). The author details: the Boer invasion of the British colony of Natal; fascinating accounts of the first great Boer victories in which he took part; the famous Battle of Spion Kop; the retreat and the occupation of the Boer Republics by the British. Defeated in set-battle, the Boers then resorted to “commando” tactics and harried the numerically overwhelming British forces seemingly without end. Reitz's book is however most significant because it provides the only firsthand account of the famous Boer raid into the British-ruled Cape Colony, led by Gen. Jan Smuts. Softcover, 328 pages, #918, $15.

The Struggle Between Boer and Brit: The Memoirs of Boer General C.R. De Wet

A new edition of the classic Second Anglo-Boer War memoirs, written by Boer Gen. Christiaan De Wet. Penned just six months after the end of the conflict, De Wet's accurate retelling of his exploits during the three-year war is a first-hand account of the origin of hit-and-run warfare as developed by the Boers against a numerically overwhelming enemy. Apart from the high adventure contained in these pages, this book is also highly valuable as it contains one of the only full transcriptions of the last meetings of the Boer commanders just before the end of the war. In these transcripts, the Boer discussions reveal the desperation of their plight: of having only 15,000 men left in the field against 250,000 well-armed and well-equipped British soldiers; of the horrendous condition of the Boer families starving in concentration camps; and of the choice before them—extermination or survival. This new edition contains the complete original text and a dramatic biography of the writer. This includes his adventures after the war, which saw him take up arms once again against the government of the Union of South Africa in 1914. Softcover, 386 pages, #919, $17.

Five Men of Frankfort: The Story of the Rothschilds

By Marcus Eli Ravage. Few Jewish names in the history of Europe have attracted more fame, more conspiracy theories, rumors and mystery than “Rothschild.” This biography, written by a leading Jewish historian, pulls no punches in telling the story of the banking dynasty, once known as the “financiers of nations.” Cutting through all the myths, Ravage reveals how the four Rothschild sons spread throughout Europe—to London, Paris, Vienna and Naples, to set up a banking network which inaugurated the system of moving money internationally through simultaneous deposits and withdrawals. This study reveals in detail the double-cross of Napoleon's France—which saw the Rothschilds finance the British army in Spain by smuggling the cash across France into Iberia using their secret network. British indebtedness to the Rothschilds for their help in defeating Napoleon was then exploited by getting the British government to persuade the other nations of Europe—including the Austrian, Prussian and Russian governments—to start using the Rothschilds as bankers. A Short History of the Confederate States of America by Jefferson Davis

By Jefferson Davis, CSA president. This remarkable history tells the story of the rebel republic from its beginning to its bitter end. It describes the events as experienced by Davis. The author deals with the fundamental questions that caused the rupture: the issue of states' rights, slavery and the usurpation of the U.S. Constitution. Davis shows that the Confederacy was adhering to the actual letter of the original U.S. Constitution, and this was an important reason why he was never brought to trial—as opponents feared he would prove this in court. The majority of the book then describes the events from 1861 to 1865 as he experienced them: the decision to open hostilities, the total unpreparedness of the South for a war, the reports from the front lines and much more. Softcover, 552 pages, #921, $26.

Space! The Final Frontier: Secrets NASA Doesn't Want You to Know About

Edited by Harry Cooper. This book yanks the curtain back on some shocking super-secret activities by the U.S. government. Author Clark McClelland was an engineer with NASA for 35 years and was an ScO—a Spacecraft Operator. This meant that he was checked out to operate space craft on the ground. He was well qualified and he performed some very important work with NASA. Then, suddenly, he “fell from grace.” Why? McClelland was, later in life, willing to reveal the incredible details of his clandestine work—the sabotage, the intrigue, the accusations of treason, the high-ranking men of the Third Reich he worked with who were officially dead prior to them coming to Florida to work with NASA. After you read this book, you will wonder how he is still alive. Like other Area 51 and NASA whistleblowers, he has been unfairly smeared and discredited. Find out what NASA wants you to forget all about! Softcover, 8.5 x 11 format, 295 pages, #922, $25.

Surviving Katyn: Stalin's Polish Massacre and the Search for Truth

By Jane Rogoyska. The Katyn Massacre of 22,000 Polish prisoners of war is a crime to which there are no witnesses. Committed in utmost secrecy in April–May 1940 by the NKVD on the direct orders of Josef Stalin, for nearly 50 years the Soviet regime succeeded in maintaining the fiction that Katyn was a Nazi atrocity, their story unchallenged by Western governments fearful of upsetting a powerful wartime ally and Cold War adversary. Surviving Katyn explores the decades-long search for answers, focusing on the experience of those individuals with the most at stake—the few survivors of the massacre and the Polish wartime forensic investigators—whose quest for the truth in the face of an inscrutable, unknowable and ruthless enemy came at great personal cost. Hardback, 400 pages, #892, $30.

The Plague Cycle: The Unending War Between Humanity and Infectious Disease

By Charles Kenny. For 4,000 years, the size and vitality of cities, economics, and empires were heavily determined by infection. Striking humanity in waves, the cycle of plagues set the tempo of civilizational growth and decline, since common response to the threat was exclusion—quarantining the sick or keeping them out. But the unprecedented hygiene and medical revolutions of the past two centuries have freed humanity from the hold of epidemic cycles—resulting in an urbanized, globalized and unimaginably wealthy world. However, our development has lately become precarious. Climate fluctuations, population burdens and global trade have left us more vulnerable than ever to newly emerging plagues. Plague Cycle reveals the relationship between civilization, globalization, prosperity and infectious disease over the past five millennia. Hardback, 320 pages, #893, $18.

Vintage Southern Cookbook: 2,000 Delicious Dishes from Dixie

By Col. Lochlainn Seabrook. What do you get when you mix 19th-century Southern recipes with a 21st-century Southern historian? You get a unique history book of Southern cuisine. In his campaign to preserve Southern culture, Seabrook has compiled thousands of scrumptious old-timey recipes from America's Southland. Spanning 1838 to 1924, the book's recipes provide instructions on how to prepare a wide variety of Southern victuals—most endemic to Dixie, but many borrowed from places as diverse as Europe and Russia. The recipes—some forgotten, all venerable and time-tested—are conveniently divided into 28 chapters covering all of the primary food types—beverages, breads, soups, meats, seafoods, fruits, and vegetables and more. (The desserts section is the largest.) Lots more to say about this amazing collection of Dixie dishes, but guaranteed to make a great gift for any chef yearning for authentic Southern cuisine. Softcover, 588 pages, #923, $25.

The Unholy Crusade: Lincoln's Legacy of Destruction in the American South

What is the true legacy of Lincoln's War? Historian Lochlainn Seabrook reveals in The Unholy Crusade that it was Lincoln's illegal, unnecessary, and merciless destruction of the South and her people. This book provides hundreds of 19th-century photos and drawings of the North's four-year demolition of Dixie, ranging from the ransacking and burning of thousands of private Southern homes and businesses to the bombing of countless mills, factories, trains, ships, roads, depots, forts, docks, bridges, communications, warehouses, churches, banks and even cemeteries. Southern libraries, universities, hospitals, livestock and even family pets were wantonly destroyed by Union troops as well. Also many incidents of the unlawful arrest, abuse, torture, rape, and murder of scores of innocent Southern civilians—of all ages and races. Why? What did this overt Yankee terrorism have to do with saving the country or emancipation? This emotionally powerful, lavishly illustrated book answers the question! Softcover, 216 pages, #925, $15.

Hitler's Commando: The Daring Missions of Otto Skorzeny and the Nazi Special Forces

By Otto Skorzeny. Foreword by Charles Messenger. Introduction by Dan Raviv. Otto Skorzeny was Adolf Hitler's favorite soldier and Germany's top commando in World War II. His extraordinary wartime career was amazing. It was Skorzeny who successfully led the daring glider rescue of Benito Mussolini. Skorzeny was also sent to Budapest to stop the Hungarian regent Adm. Miklos Horthy from signing a peace treaty with Stalin in 1944. A few months later, he took a critical role in the Ardennes offensive with a controversial plan to raise a brigade disguised as Americans with captured U.S. tanks. A fascinating depiction of commando action, Skorzeny's memoirs are a key addition to special forces literature. The author gives us fascinating details about his many famous missions between 1943 and the end of the war and he offers a fair appraisal of the war situation in Germany, as well as any tactical and military mistakes. Skorzeny also sheds light on several personalities in a new way. The book also includes several pages of interesting photos. This is a great book for anyone interested in the history of military special operations, which Otto Skorzeny played a key role in developing. Softcover, 244 pages, #887, $20.

Germany's War: The Origins, Aftermath and Atrocities of World War II

By John Wear. Germany's War documents that the Allied leaders were primarily responsible for starting and prolonging WWII—costing millions of lives. FDR's numerous provocations forced Germany to declare war on the U.S.A. despite Hitler's desire for peace. Also covers Stalin's plan for European conquest, America's second crusade, how WWII was planned and instigated, the Allied conspiracy to prolong the war, the Allied POW camps that killed a million Germans, the appalling plight of expelled Germans, history's most terrible peace, crimes committed in German camps, the alleged genocide of 6 million Jews, and more. Softcover, 514 pages, #717, $25.

The Burning Souls: A Poetic Memoir

Leon Degrelle's The Burning Souls is now available in English. Born to a Belgian family in the year 1906, Degrelle rose to prominence as a newspaper editor and head of the militant monarchist, Catholic and anti-Communist Parti Rexiste. Following the German occupation of Belgium, Degrelle and his party loyalists enlisted in the Wehrmacht-organized Walloon Legion to aid in the liberation of the Pan Judah! The Political Cartoons of Der Stürmer: 1925-1945—Deluxe Edition

Beginning in the 1920s, Julius Streicher published a weekly German newspaper called Der Stürmer. Its mission in his view was to warn the German people about the threats posed by foreign and domestic threats, the greatest of which he believed was presented by powerful Jews. Streicher was convinced the dangers were real, and his articles gave a blunt account of them. A key feature of Der Stürmer was its political cartoons. In every issue, the newspaper displayed cartoons depicting various alleged Jewish dangers, in a most graphic form. The lead cartoonist was a man named Philipp "Fips" Rupprecht. His cartoons became the signature feature of the paper. With the demise of National Socialist Germany, Der Stürmer and Fips's cartoons were buried and forgotten. The victorious nations did not want old Nazi images floating around, raising difficult questions about why the Nazis were so critical of this ethnic group. Recently, Robert Penman rediscovered the forgotten images. He carefully restored, colorized and reissued them. Here, for the first time, he has compiled 200 of the best Fips images, as they have never been seen before: in stunning and vivid color. Fips's cartoons, originally printed on cheap newsprint, come alive for the first time since the end of WWII. Every image is a window into Third Reich Germany, and each one tells a story—a story with relevance for the present day. Organized into six chapters chronologically, Fips's cartoons clearly demonstrate a progression of views over the period of 20 years, from before the Nazis assumed power until the very end of the war. They tell the story of Germany's rise and fall as nothing else can. Hardback, 8.5 x 11, color illustrations, glossy, high-quality stock, 288 pages, #910, $75.

peoples of the Soviet Republics. After the fall of Berlin, Degrelle escaped to Spain, where he was safeguarded by Franco. The Burning Souls is Degrelle's reflection on his experiences and on the soul—part poetry but mostly memoir. He traces his journey, from his idyllic childhood to the steppes of Russia, not just as a physical journey but as a spiritual trial. He instructs us that to give oneself completely to service of a transcendent ideal is what is required to overcome the spiritual malaise of our day. Softcover, 112 pages, #901, $19.

Mussolini's War: Volume 1—The Triumphant Years

Among the great misconceptions of modern times is the assumption that Benito Mussolini was Hitler's junior partner, who made no significant contributions to the Axis effort in WWII. That conclusion originated with Allied propagandists determined to boost Western morale. The Duce was constantly ridiculed, his successes pointedly demeaned or ignored. Mainstream historians love to say that Italy's navy, air and land forces were nothing more than a bungling bunch of clowns. So effective was this campaign of lies that it became postwar history and is still generally taken for granted, even by well-informed students of WWII—and even by Italians themselves! But a closer examination by historian Frank Joseph of often neglected, recently disclosed materials presents a different picture. Softcover, 275 pages, #808, $27.

Mussolini's War: Volume 2—Apotheosis

The ongoing caricature of Mussolini's servicemen as laughable buffoons is laid to rest by this book. It views Italy's participation within the context of its industrial disadvantage. For example, her total production for the entire war amounted to approximately 3,500 tanks, less than all those used by the German Army in its 1940's invasion of France. Britain mass-produced 27,528 tanks between 1939 and 1945. When Mussolini declared war on the Western Allies in June 1940, his country produced 4.4 megatons of coal to Britain's 224.3 megatons; 1.2 megatons of iron ore against Britain's 17.7 megatons; and 2.1 megatons of steel for Britain's 21.5 megatons. Disparities in crude oil were even more extreme. Given such fundamental disadvantages, the numerical superiority possessed in virtually all engagements by the Allies and their eventual cracking of Axis military codes, that Fascist Italy was able to sustain five years of unremitting combat and score significant victories against overwhelming enemy forces testifies to her terrific fighting spirit and human resilience. Softcover, 316 pages, #902, $27.

Jewish Austria

By François Trocase. This is the abridged 1942 edition, completely re-set and with new illustrations, by Léon de Poncins of François Trocase's 1899 study of the end of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Jewish Austria provides a crucial insight into the role played by one group in the collapse of this venerable Catholic empire at the heart of Europe. More focused than Édouard Drumont's historic survey La France Juive (1886), Trocase's work presents a detailed analysis of the economic and social conditions of the Austrian Empire in its last days. His investigation of the modus operandi of Jewish power-brokers has an urgent relevance to the economic and political conditions of Western states. How did they gain such power? How did they undermine the Church? What control did they exercise on politics, finance and society? What was the relationship between Jews and socialism? Also a section on the "Anti-Semitic" Movement in Austria of the time. Softcover, 97 pages, #904, $12.50.

Streicher, Rosenberg and the Jews: The Nuremberg Transcripts

By Thomas Dalton, Ph.D. Since the mid-1970s, the "Holocaust" has come under sustained attack by Holocaust Revisionists, to the point where, today, the story lies in ruins. Virtually every aspect of the standard account has serious flaws. Despite the obvious falsehoods, the mainstream version continues to dominate. To understand this striking situation, we need to go back to the beginnings, to the origins of the conventional holocaust story. And this takes us to Nuremberg. The most interesting men on trial were two with a special connection to the "Jewish Question": Alfred Rosenberg and Julius Streicher. The case against them—and their personal testimony—are examined for the first time. Their voices and their verbatim transcripts lend some much-needed clarity to the situation. Softcover, 330 pages, indexed, #872, $22.

The Jewish Mafia: The Great International Predators

Hervé Ryssen details sex slavery, global organ trafficking, organ transplant industry, “Torah Nostra,” Murder Inc., Meyer Lansky, “invisible” mafia, pillage of Russia, fall of the Oligarchs, crime from Berlin to Marbella, Organizatsiya, crime in Antwerp, Vilnius, Bangkok and Bogota, Israeli mafia, diamond scams, revolutionary funding, illegal drug trade, porn industry, illegal immigrant trafficking, Atlantic African slave trade, Christian slaves of the Middle Ages, aesthetic surgery racket, Lipsky’s swindles, Jacques Crozmarie and the ARC scandal, horse racing and garage rip-offs, the VAT fraud, crime in England, the U.S. and France, the pillaging of vanquished countries and much more. Softcover, 381 pages, 475 endnotes, #731, $35.

Satan in Hollywood: Anti-Christian Propaganda in Film

By Hervé Ryssen. On television and in film, Christians are most frequently depicted as narrow-minded, intolerant racists and bigots, if not actually rapists or murderers. The Catholic clergy is almost always depicted as a place of concealment for sadists and mental defectives. Hundreds of films contain anti-Christian smears, and the list gets longer every year. Ryssen identifies a large number of these films and details their anti-Christian messages and imagery. These vile themes even appear in children’s cartoons! The evidence speaks for itself: Christianity—and most particularly the Catholic Church—is under attack in the Hollywood film industry in ways that have never been used against Islam or Judaism or any other community in history. Decade after decade, these messages have been growing in intensity, becoming increasingly explicit and ever-more aggressive. Softcover, saddle-stitched, 59 pages, #850, $10.

Psychoanalysis of Judaism

By Hervé Ryssen. Jews are possibly the most successful religious and cultural group on the planet. In America, they are the kings of media, Hollywood, the music industry and Wall Street. They have the most powerful and determined lobbies in the world, working not only for their own national interests, but the interests of the state of Israel. Israeli leaders have openly admitted that they “own” the U.S. Congress. So what makes Jews so successful? How have they been able to wield such influence over the non-Jewish nations in which they dwell? How have they convinced so many that their suffering is “the worst”? How have powerful organizations managed to get the world’s tech companies to suppress criticism? Softcover, 461 pages, #846, $30.

End Times Warfare: The Eschatological Beliefs of the Great Religions

By Hervé Ryssen. Eschatology is the study of “End Times” doctrines. All three of the great monotheistic religions—Judaism, Christianity and Islam—contain a belief that the world was created by God, and that this world must come to an end. This theme of the end times and the coming of the Messiah are also found in Judaism, as well as in Islam, which also draws its inspiration from the Old Testament. Yet, these three religions are completely incompatible. Why? For the pure and simple reason that their vision of the future diverges on this fundamental point: At the end of time, one—and only one—religion is to triumph. In the end, the religion whose goals are the clearest and faith most ardent will win. Softcover, 189 pages, #855, $25.

The War Against Whites: The Racial Psychology Behind the Anti-White Hatred Sweeping the West

Arthur Kemp reveals that the Black Lives Matter ideologues do not seek “racial equality,” but rather the total destruction of White civilization. Kemp says they are driven by a deep mass psychosis which falsely blames White people for all problems encountered by non-Whites trying to fit into a First World society. Kemp deals with unalterable genetic traits—IQ, character, psychology and behavior—and shows they are the true causes of racial disparities in crime, socio-economic status, education and health. Starting with a complete review of the George Floyd incident, this work covers it all! Dissects the myth that police in the U.S. are “hunting Blacks”; shows through official global crime records that Whites are overwhelmingly the victims of non-White criminal attacks; and provides the only solution through which racial conflict can be avoided and all can exist in peace and harmony. Softcover, 290 pages, 473 footnotes, 79 illustrations, three tables, indexed, #885, $16.

Ancient High Tech: The Astonishing Scientific Achievements of Early Civilizations

Exploring the sophisticated tech achieved by ancient civilizations tens of thousands of years ago, Frank Joseph examines evidence of robotics, manned flight (hot-air balloons and gliders) and military science, including flamethrowers, biowarfare, poison gas and solar-powered cannons. He reveals how ancient construction engineers excavated subterranean cities, turned stone walls into glass, lifted 100-ton blocks of stone, illuminated underground temples and stored their food in massive air-cooled refrigerators, practiced magnet therapy and even had cancer treatments. Softcover, 336 pages, #888, $22.

Atlantis and the Coming Ice Age: The Lost Civilization—A Mirror of Our World

As time passes, more and more geologists, scientists, astronomers and climatologists are in agreement that, sometime around 10,800 B.C., the Earth was rocked by a massive extraterrestrial impact. They are also beginning to realize that some mother culture was far more advanced than previously believed in its ability to track the cycles of the Sun and Moon, predict the return of comets, understand our solar system and build amazing architectural wonders. These were humans with surprisingly advanced knowledge gained from hundreds, if not thousands, of years of careful observation. Frank Joseph reveals the self-destructive patterns of the past, and how we can learn to reestablish civilization's cosmic balance. Softcover, 296 pages, #906, $18.

Before Atlantis: 20 Million Years of Human and Pre-Human Cultures

Exploring emerging and suppressed evidence from archaeology, anthropology and biology, Frank Joseph challenges conventional theories of evolution, the age of humanity, the origins of civilization and the purpose of megaliths around the world. He reveals 20-million-year-old quartzite tools discovered in the remains of extinct fauna and other evidence of ancient pre-human cultures from which we are not descended. He traces the genesis of modern human civilization to Indonesia and the central Pacific 75,000 years ago, launched by a catastrophic volcanic eruption that abruptly reduced humanity from 2 million to a few thousand individuals worldwide. Examining the profound similarities of megaliths around the world, the author explains how these precisely placed monuments were built by spiritually and technologically sophisticated Neolithic builders—a transoceanic civilization nearly destroyed by global cataclysm. Softcover, 336 pages, #907, $20.

The Field of Blood: Violence in Congress and the Road to Civil War

Drawing on an extraordinary range of sources, Joanne B. Freeman shows that the Capitol was rife with conflict in the decades before the Civil War. Legislative sessions were often punctuated by mortal threats, canings, flipped desks and all-out slugfests. When debate broke down, congressmen drew pistols and waved Bowie knives. One representative killed another in a duel. Many were beaten and bullied into compliance, particularly on slavery. Freeman's dramatic accounts of brawls and thrashings tell a larger story of how fisticuffs and journalism, and the powerful emotions they elicited, raised tensions between North and South and led toward war. Softcover, 480 pages, #908, $20.

Heroes of the Southern Confederacy: The Illustrated Book of Confederate Officials, Soldiers & Civilians

By Lochlainn Seabrook. Here is your glimpse into the very heart of the Old South. With some 1,200 antique photographs and drawings of Confederate individuals, this invaluable visual volume humanizes the traditional 19th-century Southerner, thereby increasing the reader's understanding of the Confederacy and her people: who they were, what they believed, and why they fought. Contemplate the faces, expressions, and clothing of hundreds of men, women, and children in this unique "you-are-there" style book that brings home the realities of the Union's attack on the Constitution and the American people—all through rare pictures dating from the Victorian Era (where possible, carefully repaired, cleaned, and enhanced by the author). Feel the pathos of the antebellum, bellum, and post-bellum periods come alive as you peruse the searing portraits of traditional Southerners who endured one of the world's bloodiest, most destructive, and most unnecessary conflicts. Includes images of 430 Confederate generals and a complete list of all 474 Confederate generals, as well as images of an assortment of both Confederate civilians and lower-ranked Confederate soldiers (many still unidentified). Additionally, the author has provided a detailed introduction, a comprehensive index, an exhaustive bibliography, footnotes, and educational appendices. Softcover, 328 pages, #924, $18.

José Antonio Primo de Rivera: Anthology of Speeches and Quotes

José Antonio Primo de Rivera was a Spanish politician and martyr. Rivera founded the Falange Española in 1933. The Falange swelled in numbers as the violence in the Second Spanish Republic grew. Supporters of the Popular Front, the governing party, waged a campaign of violence against Spanish Nationalists, highlighted by the imprisonment, show-trial, and execution of Primo de Rivera in November 1936. This English-language anthology of José Antonio's speeches and quotations has been out of print since the publishing house was dissolved by the Spanish state in 1984. Softcover, 144 pages, #912, $14.

Royal Blood Lies

Susan Bradford takes the reader back to the days of ancient Rome to reveal the origins of the "divine right (rite) to rule," and why those who held claim to this right posed a threat to the world's would-be rulers. The author documents how the elites established and used international spy networks to win wars and conquer nations and how populist revolutions, religion and wars were weaponized against the people. Steeped in the philosophy of the rational Enlightenment, a warrior-merchant class came to dominate the corporate and political establishment, with some amassing fortunes in the trillions of dollars. With the secrets of rulers encoded in the works of William Shakespeare, Royal Blood Lies documents the origins and practices of a secret cult that came to rule humanity and became a powerful force for global imperialism that laid the foundation for the Great Reset. Softcover, 136 pages, #899, $25.

*The Politics of Heroin:
CIA Complicity in the Global Drug Trade*

Here is the first book to prove CIA and U.S. government complicity in global drug trafficking. Alfred W. McCoy includes meticulous documentation of dishonesty and dirty dealings at the highest levels from the Cold War until today. Maintaining a global perspective, this groundbreaking study details the mechanics of drug trafficking in Asia, Europe, the Middle East and South and Central America. New chapters in this revised edition detail U.S. involvement in the narcotics trade in Afghanistan and Pakistan before and after the fall of the Taliban, and how U.S. drug policy in Central America and Colombia has increased the global supply of illicit drugs. This book stirred controversy when the CIA tried to block its publication. Softcover, 754 pages, #905, $33.

*The Last Refuge of the Knights Templar:
The Ultimate Secret of the Pike Letters*

Here is a modern-day fact-based FICTIONAL thriller centered on authentic historical letters encoded with Templar and Rosicrucian secrets. Centered on recently discovered, authenticated correspondence between two famous 19th-century Masonic leaders, Confederate Gen. Albert Pike and British Col. James Wilson Bury MacLeod Moore, this modern-day thriller follows two main characters who risk their lives to protect the letters and the Templar and Rosicrucian secrets encoded within them. Everyone—from the Church to the White House—seeks the ancient knowledge contained within the letters. The story ends with a dramatic unveiling of the ultimate New World secret sought by so many factions: the last Knights Templar refuge in the New World. It's pure fun for those who want a break from serious Revisionist works. Softcover, 288 pages, #911, $19.

The Trigger: The Lie That Changed the World Who Really Did 9/11 and Why?

Popular British researcher David Icke takes a look back at the event that shook the world in 2001, the Sept. 11 attacks in New York and Washington, D.C. He looks at who was really behind it and why, what has happened in the years following 9/11, the increasing evidence to show the official story doesn't stand up to research and what has happened in the world since. This is one of the most controversial books Icke has ever written because he has placed Israel and its secret service, the Mossad, at the center of the event. In his own words, the official explanation of the attacks is a lie to cover up the "massive and central involvement in the Sept. 11 attacks by Israeli government, military and intelligence operatives." Softcover, 898 pages, #898, $30.

Summer, 1945: Germany, Japan and the Harvest of Hate

Here is the truth about WWII in graphic detail. What kind of war do Americans suppose we fought? We shot prisoners in cold blood, wiped out hospitals, strafed lifeboats, killed enemy civilians, killed enemy wounded, tossed the dying into holes with the dead, boiled the flesh off enemy skulls to make table ornaments or carved their bones into letter openers and committed mass rape. We mutilated the bodies of the enemy. We kicked out their gold teeth for souvenirs. We topped off our saturation bombing of enemy civilians by dropping A-bombs on two defenseless cities. Softcover, 342 pages, #818, $26.

Hellstorm: The Death of Nazi Germany, 1944-1947

By Thomas Goodrich. Throughout this book readers will see what Allied airmen saw as they rained death down on German cities; or the reader will experience what those below felt as they trembled in their bomb shelters and saw innocent people burned to charred corpses. The reader will view the horrors of the Eastern Front during the last months of fighting, through the mud, blood and madness. Readers will witness for themselves the fate of German women as the rampaging Red Army raped and murdered its way across Europe. Learn about the criminal sinking of German passenger liners loaded with innocent refugees trying to escape the advancing Soviets, the greatest mass migration known to man in which millions perished and the fate of those wretched victims in postwar death camps. Softcover, 390 pages, #549, $30.

Rudolf Hess: His Betrayal & Murder

Following his capture by the Allies in Scotland, Germany's Rudolf Hess remained a prisoner of the Allies for 46 years until he died at 93 in Spandau Prison. The purpose of his mission—and his life at Spandau—was kept secret. But that changed with the publication of this book by Abdallah Melaouhi. Melaouhi spent five years with Hess, acting as Hess's medical aide at the Military Prison in Spandau, up until Hess's death. For years he kept silent about his famous patient. Here Melaouhi gives us the entire story about Hess's time in Spandau, his murder, the plot to cover it up and the effort to suppress this book. Softcover, reproductions of many documents smuggled out translated into English, rare photos, three appendices, 291 pages, #643, $20.

Hitler Democrat

By Gen. Leon Degrelle. Thanks to the energetic efforts of a group of honest historians—graciously supported by Madame Degrelle, the general's widow—a substantial portion of Degrelle's writings were rescued. This is one of those volumes, painstakingly recreated by expert translators and editors. In this amazing book, the former Belgian Waffen SS officer discusses the tragedy of the Versailles Treaty, the enigma of Adolf Hitler and his rise to power, Hitler's impressive WWI experiences, Hitler's popularity with the people, the inside story of the Beer Hall Putsch, Hitler's unification of the German state and the Anschluss, the feud with the tenacious Ernst Roehm, the political challenges of the 1930s, the 1932 Geneva Conferences, Mussolini, Blum, Tukhachevsky, Nuremberg and much more. Includes photo section. Softcover, 546 pages, #622, $30.

My Revolutionary Life

By Leon Degrelle. My Revolutionary Life had never appeared in print as a book before this! Here is Gen. Leon Degrelle's autobiographical account of his daring escape from war-ravaged Germany in 1945 and his adventures after the war. Sentenced to death by the Belgian government after the Axis surrender, Degrelle escaped by flying from Norway and crash-landing in Spain. The great Belgian Waffen-SS officer also recounts his experiences as a rising nationalist politician, the political situation in Europe before WWII, his battle against the Bolsheviks before and during WWII, the last days of the Reich and his escape. Softcover, 217 pages, #714, $27.

Hermann Goering: The Man & His Work: The Only Authorized Biography

This, the only official biography of Hermann Goering, was a bestseller in Germany and in the English-speaking world when published in 1938. Written by senior staff member Erich Gritzbach, this book details the many astonishing services that Goering rendered the German state, besides recreating the German air force. This book contains the original English version plus all 57 original photographs and the 1938 introduction written by Sir Robert Lockhart. A new introduction by Arthur Kemp. Softcover, 279 pages, 57 photos, indexed, #639, $25.

Debating the Holocaust: A Look at Both Sides

By Thomas Dalton. Issues discussed include: No trace of a "Hitler order" to exterminate Jews; key witnesses falsified or exaggerated their stories; little evidence of disturbed earth for mass graves at major "death" camps; few remains of the millions of alleged victims—neither bones nor ash; mass-gassing with Zyklon-B and diesel exhaust nearly impossible; wartime air photos show none of the alleged mass-cremations; the 6 million number has no basis in fact; Jewish world population records suggest many fewer than 6 million lost; the 1 million "survivors" claim implies few wartime deaths; and ghettos and concentration camps served for ethnic cleansing and forced labor. In this book, for the first time ever, the reader will see a real historical debate on the issues. Softcover, 334 pages, #815, $25.

Mein Kampf: The Stalag Edition

By Adolf Hitler. This is the only complete, unabridged and officially authorized English translation of Mein Kampf ever issued by the Nazi Party and is not to be confused with any other version. Translated by a now-unknown English-speaking Nazi Party member, it was printed by the NSDAP in limited numbers from 1937 to 1944. Most copies were distributed to the camp libraries of English-speaking POW camps and became known as the “Stalag” edition because they all carried a camp library rubber stamp on the title page. Only a handful of copies survived the war. Softcover, 584 pages, 6 x 9, #675, $35.

Truth for Germany:

The Guilt Question of the Second World War

The mainstream historical establishment insists that WWI and WWII were started by Germany. But what facts exist to support this seemingly unchallengeable hypothesis? In this book, the myth of Germany’s guilt for fomenting war is refuted by famed historian Udo Walendy. Covers the allegations that Germany instigated the war, debunks long-held fallacies about German atrocities, the true nature of Hitler and more. Softcover, 535 pages, #648, $30.

Jewish Domination of Weimar Germany

By Eckhart Verlag and Francis Dupont. This was the National Socialist government’s first English-language attempt to explain the rationale behind their legislative moves to restrict Jewish influence in Germany after 1933. Using official pre-Nazi-era demographics, this work showed that Jews were massively over-represented in all fields of German social and economic life—except farming and creative work. It lists the ownership of mass media in Weimar Germany, the astonishing financial scandals, communist and other political subversion, degenerate theater, sexual psychology, communist indoctrination in schools and the media. Softcover, 96 pages, #670, $14.

Goebbels on the Jews:

The Complete Diary Entries: 1923 to 1945

By Prof. Thomas Dalton. From the age of 26 until his death in 1945, Joseph Goebbels kept a near-daily diary. In it, he recorded significant events of the day along with his thoughts and opinions on a variety of topics, most notably the Jewish policy of the Third Reich. Here we get a detailed and unprecedented look at the attitudes of one of the highest-ranking men in Nazi Germany. Goebbels shared Hitler’s “anti-Semitism,” and likewise wanted Jews totally removed from the Reich territory—this is the so-called “territorial solution” to Hitler’s “Jewish Question.” Here is a compilation of Goebbels’s statements about Jews and Judaism so you can judge the man for yourself. Softcover, 280 pages, #848, $22.

The Jewish Hand in the World Wars

By Prof. Thomas Dalton. Throughout history, Jews have played an exceptionally active role in promoting and inciting war, says the author. With their influence in government, we find recurrent instances of Jews promoting hardline, uncompromising stances and actively inciting people to hatred. The author maintains that Jewish misanthropy, rooted in Old Testament mandates, and combined with a ruthless materialism, has led them, time and again, to instigate warfare if it served their larger interests. This fact explains much about the present-day world. This book examines in detail the Jewish hand in the two world wars. Along the way, Dalton dissects Jewish strategies for maximizing gain amidst warfare, reaching back centuries. Softcover, 198 pages, #790, $16.

Hitler on the Jews

Of the millions of words written on Adolf Hitler, virtually none quote Hitler’s exact words on this topic. Hitler’s real words and ideas are far more complex than most authorities will admit. Hitler was a well-read man. He had a broad knowledge of history, culture, religion, human biology and social evolution. But this portrayal does not suit those in power today. They need the public to think of him as a foaming-at-the-mouth demagogue. To accomplish this goal, they need to ensure that no one reads his actual opinions about Jews. Softcover, 200 pages, #847, $16.

Confederate Monuments

Subtitle: Why Every American Should Honor Confederate Soldiers and Their Memorials. Why is the Left targeting Confederate monuments for removal and destruction? Its sinister efforts to eradicate American history do more than just offend the living. They are an insult to the honor and memory of one of the most courageous and patriotic American servicemen the world has ever known: the Confederate soldier. Throughout this densely illustrated work, the award-winning author sprinkles scores of additional Confederate images from the Victorian era, along with dozens of poems, quotes and genuine inscriptions from Confederate statues, all of which add further educational value to this powerful primer. Softcover, 432 pages, #807, $22.

Everything You Were Taught About American Slavery Is Wrong, Ask a Southerner!

This important 1,000-page work by Lochlainn Seabrook decimates the deceitful view of slavery annually churned out by Yankee mythologists. Lavishly illustrated with over 500 intriguing images, a helpful “world slavery time line” and a detailed index of significant historical figures, Seabrook lays out the truth about slavery that will shock you. Contains 3,500 notes and a 2,000-book bibliography. The foreword is by black educator Barbara G. Marthal. Softcover, 1,020 pages, #749, $35.

A Rebel Born: A Defense of Nathan B. Forrest

Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest was an ingenious Confederate officer who won all but one of the battles he led; a philanthropist who gave generously to family, friends and charities; and a humanitarian who not only spared the lives of numerous Yankees on the battlefield, but who freed his slaves years before Lincoln issued his proclamation. But, according to most authors, Forrest was a violent redneck, a racist, a slave trader, a philanderer, an illiterate hillbilly, the founder of the KKK and “the butcher of Fort Pillow.” Softcover, 822 pages, #776, $35.

Everything You Were Taught About the Civil War is Wrong, Ask a Southerner!

Lochlainn Seabrook sets the record straight on hundreds of commonly misrepresented topics about the Civil War in this easy-to-read, well-documented reference book. Learn the truth about the causes of the war, the secession movement, African-American slavery, conditions of the slaves, Blacks who supported their masters, the true history of abolition, the Confederacy, the Union, Jefferson Davis, Abraham Lincoln, Reconstruction, liberals vs. conservatives, the real Emancipation Proclamation, conduct of Union and Confederate soldiers and more. The foreword is by African-American educator Nelson W. Winbush, a grandson of the Confederacy’s only black chaplain. Includes over 1,000 endnotes, a 700-book bibliography and is indexed. Softcover, illustrated, 266 pages, #729, $20.

The Unquotable Abraham Lincoln: Quotes They Don't Want You to Know!

After reading this eye-opening book by Col. Lochlainn Seabrook, you’ll know that the real Lincoln has been carefully concealed from us by his worshippers, some of whom are simply uninformed, while others will stop at nothing to keep you from learning the facts about Lincoln and his unconstitutional and unjustifiable war. In this handy book, Seabrook examines the politically incorrect statements they don’t want you to know. Included here, among 230 footnoted entries, are Lincoln’s controversial, even un-American, views on his presidency, the government, the U.S. Constitution, states’ rights, the Union, his war on the South, abolition, slavery, colonization, African-Americans, Mexicans, “mulattos,” the Confederacy, the Southern people, his Emancipation Proclamation, Jesus, the Bible, Christianity and more. Softcover, 150 pages, #778, $13.

Confederate Flag Facts: What Every American Should Know About Dixie's Southern Cross

Is the Confederate battle flag truly a symbol of “hatred, racism and slavery,” as liberals maintain? Or is it a symbol of Christian brotherhood and freedom? Says the author, it’s a sacred emblem of Southern heritage, history and honor—one which every Southerner should be rightfully proud of. Award-winning historian Lochlainn Seabrook corrects the falsehoods about the South’s most famous ensign: the Starry Cross. In the process, he provides the true history of the Confederate States of America. Softcover, 356 pages, #730, $22.

The Darkest Dawn: Lincoln, Booth & the Great American Tragedy

Many books have discussed the killing of Lincoln, but few have shown us the immediate aftermath of the president’s assassination: the public panic, the news that other members of the cabinet had been targeted or attacked, the massive manhunt for Booth, the arrest of the alleged conspirators and a populace begging for revenge—all of this happening even as a war was still raging. This story has never been told with the power of The Darkest Dawn. Author Tom Goodrich brings to this narrative the gripping accounts of eyewitnesses, from the moment of the assassination—seen through the eyes of attendees—right up through the manhunt for Booth, the executions of the conspirators and more. Softcover, 376 pages, #842, $22.

The Crusaders: The War for the Holy Sepulchre

By Alfred J. Church. The Crusades were not “bald Christian aggressions against the Muslims.” Here is a wonderful retelling of the stories of the First, Third and Eighth Crusades, narrated by a fictional “wandering Jew” (cursed to live until the Second Coming of Christ). The author explains how the Islamic military conquest of huge areas of the Byzantine empire sparked off the call to crusade, and then weaves the story of some of the most famous characters and events of the Crusades. From the dizzying successes of the First Crusade to the recapture of Jerusalem by the Muslims, the reader will meet Richard Lionheart, Duke Godfrey, Saladin, King Louis of France and others. The reader also discovers the full tragedy of the ill-fated “Children’s Crusade” and more. Softcover, 175 pages, #746, $15.

The Third Rome: Holy Russia, Tsarism & Orthodoxy

By Dr. Matthew Raphael Johnson. Academic historians, liberals and communists have been fashioning a fantasy world around Russian history for nearly 100 years, spreading slander and myth about an entire population. Here’s the first book in English that sets out to defend the history of czarist Russia from an internationally acknowledged expert on Russian history and Slavic studies. Chapters on every major Russian ruler from the earliest times to Karensky. Includes chapters on the Ivans, Peter the Great, Catherine the Great, Alexander I, II and III and Nicholas I and II. Very nicely designed. Must reading! Softcover, 246 pages, #368, $25.

Pale Rider: The Spanish Flu of 1918 and How it Changed the World

In 1918, the Italian-Americans of New York, the Yupik of Alaska and the Persians of Mashed had almost nothing in common except for a virus—one that triggered the worst pandemic of modern times and had a decisive effect on the history of the 20th century. With a death toll of between 50 and 100 million people, the Spanish flu of 1918–1920 was the worst human disaster in all of recorded history. Laura Spinney recounts the story of the pandemic, tracing it from Alaska to Brazil, from Persia to Spain, and from South Africa to Russia. Telling the story from the point of view of those who lived through it, she shows how the pandemic was shaped by the interaction of a virus and the humans it encountered—and how this devastating natural experiment put both the ingenuity and the vulnerability of humans to the test. Softcover, 352 pages, #864, $20.

The Great Boer War

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wanted to know what war looked like up close. He volunteered and served in the British army’s medical corps, and was thus able to experience the conflict firsthand. His ensuing book was the first complete chronicle of the Anglo-Boer War. First published in 1902, Conan Doyle’s book became the standard by which all other histories of that conflict were measured. In it he laments that the Boers were a tougher opponent than Napoleon. Two dozen pictures from the conflict. Softcover, 262 pages, #744, $15.

The Fall of the Congo Arabs

Written by one of the commanders of the European-financed force sent to eradicate the thousand-year-old Arab slave trade in Africa, this book tells of the Congo-Arab War of 1892 to 1894. European intervention against the Arab slave trade started in 1876. The Arab slave trade in black Africans—started soon after the first Muslim incursions into North Africa in A.D. 640 and continued until the 1920s—encroached all the way to central Africa. From there, Africans were sold into slavery by other Africans—many of them converts to Islam—or by Arab colonists, all directed from the Islamic slave-trading island outpost of Zanzibar. Softcover, 136 pages, #791, $14.

Lost in the Jungle

A classic study of African wildlife, culture and native tribes as they existed in the mid-1800s, written by the first European explorer to confirm the existence of gorillas and pygmies. Paul du Chaillu describes in detail African life before the advent of European colonization, and the practices, culture and environment that existed. Read of witchcraft trials, and the tribe members’ astonishment at their first sight of a White man, their amazement at everyday items such as clothes, shoes, socks, hats, a music-box and a mirror and how the Apingi tribe appointed him king. Restored and reset edition, complete with original illustrations. Softcover, 200 pages, #794, $15.

Victory or Violence? The Story of the AWB of South Africa

By Arthur Kemp. The dramatic story of South Africa’s far right Afrikaner Weerstandsbeweging (Afrikaner Resistance Movement) and its charismatic leader Eugène Terre’Blanche. The AWB was responsible for the most serious campaign of bombing and violence in South Africa’s history as apartheid came to an end in 1994, and no understanding of that country’s history is complete without this updated eyewitness account. Softcover, third edition, 302 pages, #612, $22.

The Perfectibilists: The 18th Century Bavarian Order of the Illuminati

By Terry Melanson. Describing this enigmatic secret society in meticulous detail, more than 1,000 endnotes are included, citing scholars, professors and academics. Contemporary accounts and the original documents of the Illuminati themselves are covered as well. Copiously illustrated and featuring biographies of more than 400 confirmed members, this survey sheds light upon this 200-year-old mystery. The shadowy Illuminati grace many pages of fiction as the sinister all-powerful group pulling the strings from behind the scenes, but very little has been printed in English about the actual Enlightenment-era secret society, its activities, its members and its real legacy. First choosing the name Perfectibilists, their enigmatic leader Adam Weishaupt soon thought that sounded too bizarre and changed it to the Order of the Illuminati. Softcover, 531 pages, #836, $25.

Plague of Corruption: Restoring Faith in the Promise of Science

By Dr. Judy Mikovits and Kent Heckenlively, J.D. With a foreword by Robert F. Kennedy Jr. From her doctoral thesis, which changed the treatment of HIV-AIDS, saving the lives of millions, to her spectacular discovery of a new family of human retroviruses, and her latest research which points to a new golden age of health, Mikovits has always been on the leading edge of science—and paid a heavy price for bucking the medical-pharmaceutical-vaccine rackets. When she was part of the research community that turned HIV-AIDS from a fatal disease into a manageable one, she saw science at its best. But when her investigations questioned whether the use of animal tissue in medical research was unleashing devastating plagues of chronic diseases, such as autism and chronic fatigue syndrome, she saw science at its worst. Have we been including deadly diseases in the vaccines we have been using for generations? Can we trust the medical professionals about the Covid-19 pandemic? Do they really care about us or do they care more about protecting their reputations and profit streams? Hardback, 272 pages, #867, $28.

Unmasked: The Coronavirus Story

Written by investigative journalist Susan Bradford, Unmasked: The Coronavirus Story uncovers the political and financial networks of the Deep State that are shaping the government's response to the coronavirus and riots inspired by the death of George Floyd in Minneapolis. This book will reveal, among other things: how the Affordable Care Act financially devastated the healthcare industry and independent health insurance providers; what the collaboration between the Department of Defense and the Department of Health and Human Services means for the healthcare industry and ordinary citizens; the identity and networks surrounding the extremely powerful lady whose multinationals are driving defense and healthcare policy around the world; striking parallels between the Chinese communist revolution and the riots; how community organizers help big business and undermine democracy; the fragility of the global system juxtaposed with the power of Big Pharma; and much more! Softcover, 118 pages, #875, $20.

The Politically Incorrect Guide to Climate Change

By Marc Morano. Updated to include a new section on the Green New Deal! The world is spending $1 billion per day to prevent global warming. A UN scientist has said that the oft-quoted “97% consensus” on global warming was pulled from thin air. Climate policies are crushing the world's poor. The Paris Climate Accord would theoretically postpone “global warming” by four years—and cost $100 trillion. Climate change has been blamed for prostitution, bar-room brawls and airplane turbulence. Climate change activists say we should protect our kids—by not having them! Meanwhile, recent “hottest year” claims are based on statistically meaningless year-to-year data. Major hurricane landfalls in the United States have declined over the last 140 years. F3 or larger tornadoes have been in decline since the 1970s. Antarctica is actually gaining ice. Carbon dioxide levels today are 10 times lower than in some past ice ages. Much, much more. Softcover, 200 pages, #856, $24.

The Soviet Experiment: Challenging the Apologists for Communist Tyranny

By Dr. Matthew Raphael Johnson. The USSR remains one of the least understood of all societies despite its having only existed in the 20th century. It stands as the great embarrassment of the globe's liberal elite and they do all they can to mystify their role in creating and supporting this totalitarian disaster. One of the reasons it remains so misunderstood is that very few can wrap their heads around depravity of this magnitude. Dr. Matthew Johnson explains the catastrophe of the Marxist Soviet Union and the ideological fog behind which it hid for so long. Softcover, 241 pages, #835, $25.

Rivonia Unmasked! The South African State's Case Against Nelson Mandela, 1964

This book was the White South African government's official version of the 1963-1964 "Rivonia Treason Trial" which saw eight top South African Communist Party (SACP) and African National Congress (ANC) leaders, Nelson Mandela included, sentenced to life in prison for their plan to seize power by violence in South Africa and turn it into a Marxist state. Two appendices focus on Mandela's position as a high-ranking communist and the Jewish support structure of the ANC. Softcover, 186 pages, #828, $16.

The Naked Communist: Exposing Communism & Restoring Freedom

By W. Cleon Skousen. Soon after its quiet release during the height of the "Red Scare" in 1958, The Naked Communist exploded in popularity, selling almost 2 million copies and finding its way into the libraries of the CIA, FBI, the White House, and homes across the U.S. From the tragic falls of China, Korea, Russia and the UN, to the fascinating histories of Alger Hiss, Whittaker Chambers, Elizabeth Bentley and Gen. MacArthur, The Naked Communist lays out the entire graphic story of Communism, its past, present and future. Readers gain a unique insight into the inner workings of Communism—its appeal, history, unchanging concepts, even its secret timetable. What are the 45 goals of Communism and how did they implement 44 of them? Updated in 2017, The Naked Communist is more relevant now than it was 60 years ago. Hardback, 452 pages, #878, $27.

The Civil War in France: The Paris Communist Uprising of 1871

A gripping account of the infamous and short-lived 1871 "Paris Commune," or communist uprising, in France's capital city, written by the founder of communism. Karl Marx's book was one of the first written to discuss the impact of the commune, which briefly ruled Paris from March 18 until May 28, 1871. Acting as a lightning rod for socialist radicals, the commune quickly dissolved into the usual "dictatorship of the proletariat" and began stripping away civil liberties and creating state enforcement agencies to enforce the ensuing terror. The "Decree on Hostages" made it legal to arrest, imprison and convict any critic of the state. Thousands were murdered in this manner. It is estimated that up to 20,000 people died during the short rule of the commune. Softcover, 146 pages, #849, $15.

Indian Fighter: The Life of Gen. George A. Custer

By Frederick Whittaker. Although Union Brevet Gen. Custer is mostly known for his "last stand" at the Battle of Little Bighorn in 1876 (he was a colonel again by then), this dashing commander was in reality one of America's finest generals. His career started with the Union Army during the Civil War, and ended after numerous highly successful campaigns in the Plains Wars against the Indians. This dramatic biography, first produced in the year of his death, draws upon family and other original sources and takes the reader on a swashbuckling ride through some of the greatest engagements of the Civil War, through to the battles, shocking atrocities and wars against the Indians. Softcover, 684 pages, #795, $30.

Black Flag: Guerrilla Warfare on the Western Border, 1861-1865—A Riveting Account of a Bloody Chapter in Civil War History

By Thomas Goodrich. From 1861 to 1865, the region along the Missouri-Kansas border was the scene of unbelievable death and destruction. Thousands died, millions of dollars of property were lost, entire populations were violently uprooted. It was here that some of the greatest atrocities in American history occurred. Yet, in the great national tragedy of the Civil War, this period seems a minor episode. Drawing from a wide array of contemporary documents—including diaries, letters, and firsthand newspaper accounts—the author presents a hair-raising report of life in this merciless guerrilla war. Bushwhackers and Jayhawkers, soldiers and civilians, scouts, spies, runaway slaves, the generals and the guerrillas all step forward to tell of their terrifying ordeals. Softcover 192 pages, #817, $20.

Scalp Dance: Indian Warfare on the High Plains, 1865-1879

By Thomas Goodrich. Some of the most savage wars in world history were waged on the American Plains from 1865 to 1879. From the Sand Creek Massacre in 1864 through Custer's Last Stand in 1876 to the final defeat of the mighty Sioux and Cheyenne nations in 1878, Scalp Dance reveals the bloody, bitter clashes between two cultures—one bent on conquest, the other defending its land. Drawing heavily from diary accounts, letters and personal memoirs, a tale of life and death on the prairie has been crafted. Individual fates are told, each its own drama. It also discusses the brutality with which the Indians treated their enemies, most of which is glossed over in today's history books. Softcover, #210, 340 pages, $22.

9/11 Evil: Israel's Central Role in the Sept. 11, 2001 Terrorist Attacks

By Victor Thorn. The evidence compiled points a finger at Israel's Mossad as a major player in the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attack on America. "We already know why 9/11 was done," Thorn said, "and that the WTC towers were demolished. But most everyone wants to shy away from who ultimately did 9/11." In the author's opinion, Israel played a central role in the 9/11 terrorist attack, and he presents his body of evidence. Softcover, 123 pages, #789, $15.

White Revolt! An American National Socialist History

By Leon Dilios. Here is the true story of National Socialism in the U.S. presented through the personal experiences of its members. Beginning in the 1960s, George Lincoln Rockwell held mass rallies in Chicago and elsewhere. Following Rockwell's assassination, Frank Collin opened "Rockwell Hall," in memory of his fallen commander, headquarters of the National Socialist Party of America. Over the next 10 years, NSPA activism made world headlines and generated a landmark free speech Supreme Court ruling. Riots, street battles, bombings, shoot-outs, arrests and legal prosecutions culminated in "Operation Skokie," when uniformed stormtroopers threatened to "invade" the Jewish suburb with swastikas flying, unless their rights to free speech were restored. Softcover, 312 pages, #826, $20.

America's Secret History

By Steve Harris. Utilizing the little-known 1953 Reece Committee revelations of the House of Representatives, the Carnegie, Rockefeller, Guggenheim and Ford foundations have systematically controlled education and the high-level appointees to the U.S. State Department for the last century. Here's conclusive proof that there has been one attempted coup d'etat, and three successful but peaceful coups in America's history. America's Secret History shows how the Deep State, the Federal Reserve and world governments caused this to happen. Hardback, 216 pages, #862, $26.

Epstein: Dead Men Tell No Tales

By Dylan Howard. Here is the unedited story behind the sick life and odd death of Jeffrey Epstein that is being called one of the most significant scandals in American history. Epstein was the close confidant of presidents, prime ministers, movie stars and British royalty—the mysterious self-made man who rose from blue-collar Brooklyn to the heights of luxury. But while he was flying around the world on his private jet and hosting lavish parties at his private island in the Caribbean—possibly monitored by multiple intelligence agencies including the Mossad—he was also secretly masterminding an international child sex ring—one that may have involved the richest and most influential men in the world. Softcover, 232 pages, #859, $23.

NEW! The Suppressed History of the West Immigration, Subversion and Colonization from Rome to America and Russia

Here it is in one volume—the suppressed history of Western civilization as seen through the eyes of some of the most popular and prescient writers of the era, compiled by George Larson, Ph.D. and published by THE BARNES REVIEW. It is Larson's contention that America has not been free for some time and has, in fact, been controlled by the Global Elite based in London. He provides evidence that the assassination of JFK and Martin Luther King Jr. both were ordered from London. But that is only a small part of this book. It also delves into those who have been pulling the strings of history since as far back as the Roman Empire and how mass immigration is one of the tools they use to control and destroy nations. Each chapter in this 385-page book is based upon the works of dozens of familiar authors and the books they have published that prove Larson's contentions. Masterfully, Larson weaves it all together in one cogent, cohesive and compelling narrative. What is the Secret Society of Moses? What role do the Venetians play in history? Who created the Roman Catholic Church? How, really, did Europe sink into a Dark Age? What is the purpose of modern art? Was there a Khazar invasion of America and the West? What about the "elite" presidencies of Roosevelt I, Roosevelt II and Wilson? Even Willis A. Carto's work "Revenge of the Neanderthal" is included. So much in this book that this space is too small to fully describe all that is covered in this provocative work. Softcover, 385 pages, #952, $24.
