

LIBERATOR: PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY, No. 25 CORNHILL, Boston, Mass. W. Williams, General Agent: W. Williams, Boston, Mass.

AGE OF OPPRESSION. The Boston Daily Advertiser and Patriot. Encouraging the increase of the Colored Population.

to the ears of the people, not to God. The way he palmed himself on them was, by introducing himself as a minister of the gospel, and then immediately exhibited his piratical flag, by proceeding to this the indignation of the United States. The population of the colored people in this country has increased in a most extraordinary manner since the year 1800. In 1800, it was 100,000; in 1810, it was 200,000; in 1820, it was 400,000; in 1830, it was 800,000; and in 1840, it was 1,200,000.

of the population of the United States. The population of the colored people in this country has increased in a most extraordinary manner since the year 1800. In 1800, it was 100,000; in 1810, it was 200,000; in 1820, it was 400,000; in 1830, it was 800,000; and in 1840, it was 1,200,000.

of the population of the United States. The population of the colored people in this country has increased in a most extraordinary manner since the year 1800. In 1800, it was 100,000; in 1810, it was 200,000; in 1820, it was 400,000; in 1830, it was 800,000; and in 1840, it was 1,200,000.

of the population of the United States. The population of the colored people in this country has increased in a most extraordinary manner since the year 1800. In 1800, it was 100,000; in 1810, it was 200,000; in 1820, it was 400,000; in 1830, it was 800,000; and in 1840, it was 1,200,000.

of the population of the United States. The population of the colored people in this country has increased in a most extraordinary manner since the year 1800. In 1800, it was 100,000; in 1810, it was 200,000; in 1820, it was 400,000; in 1830, it was 800,000; and in 1840, it was 1,200,000.

of the population of the United States. The population of the colored people in this country has increased in a most extraordinary manner since the year 1800. In 1800, it was 100,000; in 1810, it was 200,000; in 1820, it was 400,000; in 1830, it was 800,000; and in 1840, it was 1,200,000.

THE LIBERATOR

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND. BOSTON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1843.

SELECTIONS.

From the Kennebec Journal. To the Abolitionists of Maine. The undersigned feels impelled by a sense of duty to address a few words to the disinterested friends of the anti-slavery cause in this State, principally with reference to the proceedings of the late annual meeting of the Maine Anti-Slavery Society.

After the reading of the Annual Report, a vote was passed, inviting all persons, whether members of the Society or from abroad, to sit as members, and participate in the deliberations of all anti-slavery meetings from the beginning.

Resolved, That we agree with James G. Birney, that 'the American churches [are] the bulwark of American slavery,' and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

SELECTIONS.

From the Kennebec Journal. To the Abolitionists of Maine. The undersigned feels impelled by a sense of duty to address a few words to the disinterested friends of the anti-slavery cause in this State, principally with reference to the proceedings of the late annual meeting of the Maine Anti-Slavery Society.

After the reading of the Annual Report, a vote was passed, inviting all persons, whether members of the Society or from abroad, to sit as members, and participate in the deliberations of all anti-slavery meetings from the beginning.

Resolved, That we agree with James G. Birney, that 'the American churches [are] the bulwark of American slavery,' and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

Resolved, That we define an abolitionist to be one who abolishes slavery, in all the forms, and under all the various names, and that we do solemnly pledge to the people of this State the able document upon this subject, compiled by him whilst upon his late visit to England.

AGENTS. MAINE.—A. S. B. South, Beth. NEW-HAMPSHIRE.—N. Rogers, Concord;—W. H. White, Dover;—L. C. Leonard, Concord;—J. M. Ketchum, Dover;—J. M. Bement, Woodstock;—Rowland T. Robinson, North Ferrisburgh;—M. A. H. South, Beth. MASSACHUSETTS.—Moses Emery, West Newbury;—C. Whipple, Newburyport;—Luther Beaton, Concord;—W. S. Wilder, Pittsburg;—T. W. Stewart, Princeton;—Church, Springfield;—Josiah Hayward, Salem;—John Levy, Lowell;—Josiah V. Marshall, Danvers;—and vicinity.—Richard C. French, Fall River;—Isaac Austin, Manchester;—Elias Richards, Concord;—B. P. Rice, West Ferrisburgh;—E. Stone, North Ferrisburgh;—A. G. Curtis, North Ferrisburgh;—Lynne—E. Bird, Tilton;—B. Freeman, Brewster;—R. P. Wallcut, Dennis;—George O. Haines, Haverhill;—Joseph Brown, Andover;—Joseph Noyes, Georgetown;—John C. Chace, Tilton;—George W. Benson, North Ferrisburgh;—Alvan Ward, Ashburnham. [A. For a continuation of this list, see the last page last column.] J. BROWN YERRINTON, Printer. WHOLE NO. 631.

It end, like its origin, in which the compass only of those laws which man has neither the wisdom to perceive, nor the power to arrest, though he is the agent in their fulfilment. When the federal Constitution was adopted, slavery existed, (I believe,) in all the States. That it does not exist now in a large majority of the original States, is owing less to their philanthropy than their interest.

Slave labor is unprofitable in grain-growing States. In the States where slave labor is as frequent in those States where slave labor is most profitable, as they ever were in grain-growing States. The culture of cotton and sugar in the United States, has done more to withdraw slavery southward, than all the expedients which the wisdom of this or any other nation could devise.

Without having time just now to consider this subject in the various interesting and comprehensive aspects in which it may be viewed, I do not hesitate to say that it is capable, if approached in a proper spirit, of doing more to conciliate the conflicting interests and prejudices of our Union, than any question which has arisen since the foundation of our republic.

I am, as you know, a strict constructionist of the powers of our federal government; and I do not admit the force of mere precedent to establish authority under written Constitutions. The power conferred by the Constitution over territory under it, and the repeated acquisitions of territory under it, seem to me to leave this question open, as one of expediency. As such, it cannot be considered a southern or local question. It affects and interests every portion of the Union.

I assume what no one will deny, that under the jurisdiction of the United States, the large and unusually fertile territory of Texas will be made gradually to produce the same results as the settlement of Texas, under these auspices, will open a market at home for the manufactures and agricultural products of all the non-slaveholding States.

But you anticipate objections with regard to the subject of slavery. This is, indeed, a subject of extreme delicacy, but it is one of no ordinary importance. Texas will have the reputation of being the most fertile soil for the growth of slavery in our Union. I am of a different opinion. I believe it will strengthen the Union. I believe it will bring about a better understanding of our relative rights and obligations.

They can be averted only by the agency of some cause powerful enough to revive the feelings of self-love and enlarge the selfishness of sections, and to absorb the sentiments of pride and patriotism. These sentiments are already extinct in that bosom which does not kindle at the contemplation of our country's unexampled prosperity.

It is amusing to see how ready our public journals generally are to condemn an insult like the above, when offered to a colored foreigner, while they can hardly suffer to pass unrebuked similar indignities offered to American citizens, under the same circumstances. But we hope better things of our worthy friend Hawley, of the Hampshire Gazette, even things pertaining to abolition.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Anti-Slavery Cause in Maine

FRIEND GARRISON: This town is the head-quarters of Maine Anti-Slavery, or, more properly speaking, the center of operations of Liberty party for all down east.

There is also the residence of the venerable and conscientious Dea. Dole, so justly remembered for his early adherence to, and liberal support of the cause from his infancy; and for his aims deems that he has done.

There is also a noble band of Washingtonians, who, carrying all before them in their enterprise of manly will, and who have associated with them some of the noblest specimens of humanity, whom they have been instrumental in rescuing from ruin's perdition.

The late annual meeting of the Maine Anti-Slavery Society was held in this house, and I need not inform you of a mere collection of clergymen and politicians, whose main design in meeting seemed to be to promote the growth of the Liberty party.

Choke down, at once, each breathing thing, That whispered of the rights of man— unless it would bow to the imposition of priestly control.

All quiet. He spoke of oppression, and there was some uneasiness, probably in anticipation of what would follow.

He spoke of slavery, and the common became very apparent; and he was interrupted by Charles Frost, who said the 'young man must be aware that he was intruding— he hoped he would sit down— he had told us of our duty to our fellow-men, but he had said nothing about our duty to God.

He spoke of the 'young man' who was a member, and had as good a right to speak as any one; but this was not needed. Friend Frost again arose, and remarked that if the young man was a member, he ought to know his place.

He spoke of the 'young man' who was a member, and had as good a right to speak as any one; but this was not needed. Friend Frost again arose, and remarked that if the young man was a member, he ought to know his place.

He spoke of the 'young man' who was a member, and had as good a right to speak as any one; but this was not needed. Friend Frost again arose, and remarked that if the young man was a member, he ought to know his place.

He spoke of the 'young man' who was a member, and had as good a right to speak as any one; but this was not needed. Friend Frost again arose, and remarked that if the young man was a member, he ought to know his place.

Vote on the Marriage Bill. In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday last, the orders of the day were taken up, and the bill to repeal the intermarriage law came again under consideration.

Vote on the Marriage Bill. In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday last, the orders of the day were taken up, and the bill to repeal the intermarriage law came again under consideration.

Vote on the Marriage Bill. In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday last, the orders of the day were taken up, and the bill to repeal the intermarriage law came again under consideration.

Meeting of the Colored Citizens of Boston. Pursuant to public call, a large meeting of the colored citizens of Boston was held in the vestry of the Belknap-street church, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15.

Meeting of the Colored Citizens of Boston. Pursuant to public call, a large meeting of the colored citizens of Boston was held in the vestry of the Belknap-street church, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15.

Meeting of the Colored Citizens of Boston. Pursuant to public call, a large meeting of the colored citizens of Boston was held in the vestry of the Belknap-street church, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15.

Vote on the Marriage Bill. In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday last, the orders of the day were taken up, and the bill to repeal the intermarriage law came again under consideration.

Vote on the Marriage Bill. In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday last, the orders of the day were taken up, and the bill to repeal the intermarriage law came again under consideration.

Vote on the Marriage Bill. In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Saturday last, the orders of the day were taken up, and the bill to repeal the intermarriage law came again under consideration.

Meeting of the Colored Citizens of Boston. Pursuant to public call, a large meeting of the colored citizens of Boston was held in the vestry of the Belknap-street church, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15.

Meeting of the Colored Citizens of Boston. Pursuant to public call, a large meeting of the colored citizens of Boston was held in the vestry of the Belknap-street church, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15.

Meeting of the Colored Citizens of Boston. Pursuant to public call, a large meeting of the colored citizens of Boston was held in the vestry of the Belknap-street church, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15.

THE LIBERATOR

BOSTON: FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 10, 1843.

A REPEAL OF THE UNION BETWEEN NORTHERN LIBERTY AND SOUTHERN SLAVERY IS ESSENTIAL TO THE ABOLITION OF THE ONE, AND THE PRESERVATION OF THE OTHER.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Letters from David L. Child.

Mr. Winthrop's excellent report on the subject of the laws of certain kidnapping States of this Union; condemned them as violations of four distinct articles of the Constitution.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

Mr. Botts, of Virginia, moved to reconsider the vote for printing the extra copies. It is necessary to glance a moment upon the relations of the member, put forward to make this motion.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

NAYS. MAINE—Allen, Brown, Faneuil, Massachusetts—Adams, Parker, Boston, Butler, Child, Chittenden, S. N. Clarke, R. D. D. D.

POETRY.

For the Liberator.

THE SLAVE-MOTHER.

Who sighs, as she presses her babe to her breast; I lament her sad fate, all so hopeless and dreary...

ABBY H. PRICE.

Hopedale, Jan. 18th, 1843.

PITY THE WANDERER!

Are we not all children of one Father? And shall we not pity those, who, among pit-falls, lose their way home?...

Condemn him not,

Though wild and wayward be his fiery course; Though to thy gaze no symptoms of remorse...

As free as thou.

And canst thou then in vengeful judgment sit? Or place, in thy self-righteousness, thy feet Upon his brow?...

Yours, dear friend,

How can we hope "the Highest and the Best" Will give to our poor, guilty souls the rest...

From the Liberty Bell.

THE FAITHFUL DEAD.

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister to them that shall be heirs of salvation?...

WINTER.

Mary Howitt has beautifully described the contrast between the rich and the poor, at this season of the year...

TEMPERATIONS.

Temptations thicken as we yield, And seem less fatal too; And every step in vice we take...

COMMUNICATIONS.

A Voluntary State Government.

To the Editor of the Liberator:

Star-A typographical error in my communication inserted last week, impels me again to take up the pen upon the comprehensive subject of a voluntary government...

Let us suppose that success should attend the present abolition efforts, and all the colored population are liberated, or are at least what we call free...

Every abolitionist must perceive, by this time, that the great obstruction to colored freedom consists in this very fact of government, not of charity, but of force...

The State, not being a person, can be carried to any tyrannic action without any remorse. There is none to blush for it. It imprisons without inquiry...

Let the people recollect that it is themselves who have made and who sustain this dragon, which respects or disrespects, holds up or tramples down written constitutions...

Let us supercede it by one of charity. Let us have a voluntary State, as well as a voluntary Church, and we may possibly then have some claim to the appellation of free men...

Concord, Mass., Jan. 25, 1843.

Correction of a Mistake.

My DEAR SIR: In the account of the Convention of the Plymouth A. S. Society, held in South Hingham on 12th January...

be submitted to highly intelligent members of the South Carolina Association for inspection, and if the sale is approved by them, it will be for sale; if not...

Imagine the booksellers of Boston humbly waiting upon a committee for liberty to sell the works of Mr. Dickens and Dr. Channing! Imagine the citizens of Boston looking into the Post and Advertiser every morning...

Of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. It is impossible that slavery should be an advantageous state, for the servant or the oppressor, as well as the oppressed...

Yet there are many at the South who, while they feel the evils of slavery, see clearly the remedy. Scattered through every slaveholding State and territory, are men whose consciences have been aroused...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

When shall we come to forbear the injustice of visiting on the individual, the vices of the society he lives in? Not a few there are, who seem disposed to condemn Capt. Mackenzie on measures exhibit consummate wisdom...

Therefore you must have a trained navy, and to have this, you must adopt and enforce a system of discipline severe and pitiless as the grave...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

Resolved, That the seizure and imprisonment, in any part of the Union, of free colored persons, on board foreign vessels, against whom there is no charge but that of entering said port in the course of their lawful business...

TRAVELLERS' DIRECTORY. An odious distinction on account of color, and a bulging propensity to carry it out. EASTERN RAILROAD. WINTER ARRANGEMENT.

ON and after Dec. 5th, Trains leave as follows: Boston for Portsmouth, 7 A.M. 1-12 P.M. Boston for Portland, 7 A.M. 1-12 P.M. Boston for Salem, 7 A.M. 1-12 P.M. Boston for Newburyport, 7 A.M. 1-12 P.M.

WESTERN RAILROAD. ON and after Monday, Sept. 12, 1842, passenger trains will run daily (Sundays excepted) leaving Boston at 7 A.M. and 3 P.M. for Albany...

STEAMBOAT TRAIN FOR NEW-YORK. VIA STAMBOAT, leaves Boston at 4 o'clock, P.M. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Tickets and steamers leave at Harlow & Co's, and the ticket office at the railroad depot.

ACCOMMODATION TRAINS. Leave Boston for Providence, Dedham, Taunton, and New Bedford, Sundays excepted, at 7-14 A.M. and 3-14 P.M.

NORWICH AND WORCESTER RAILROAD. WINTER ARRANGEMENT. ON and after Tuesday, Nov. 1st, 1842, the accommodation trains will run daily, except Sundays...

NORWICH AND LOWELL RAILROAD. FALL AND WINTER ARRANGEMENT. ON and after Monday, Sept. 12, the passenger trains will run daily, Sundays excepted...

ON and after Monday, Oct. 3, the passenger trains will run as follows: Leave Boston at 7-14 A.M. and 1-12 P.M. Leave Lowell at 8-12 A.M., 12-3 P.M. and 4-8 P.M.

ON and after Monday, Sept. 12, 1842, passenger trains will run daily (Sundays excepted) leaving Boston at 7 A.M. and 3 P.M. for Albany...

ON and after Monday, Sept. 12, 1842, passenger trains will run daily (Sundays excepted) leaving Boston at 7 A.M. and 3 P.M. for Albany...

ON and after Monday, Sept. 12, 1842, passenger trains will run daily (Sundays excepted) leaving Boston at 7 A.M. and 3 P.M. for Albany...

JUNIERS' OYSTER ROOM, 21 Howard-Street. BILL OF FARE. Oysters Raw, Oysters Stewed, Fried in Crumbs, Fried in Butter, Fried in Meal.

BOARDING HOUSE FOR COLORED SEAMEN. The subscriber begs leave to inform such colored seamen as may visit Boston, that he has opened an excellent Boarding House for their accommodation...

NEW PUBLICATIONS. JUST Published and for sale at the Anti-Slavery Depository, No. 25 Cornhill. THE COVENANT WITH JEDAH, a sermon by John Pierpont, occasioned by the imprisonment of George Burdett...

WOULD inform her customers and friends, that she has increased her business, and keeps on hand an assortment of Straw Bonnets, Fancy Goods, Millinery, &c.

Administratrix Notice. NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber has been duly appointed Administratrix of the estate of GEORGE LEE, late of Boston, in the county of Suffolk, laborer, deceased...

IMPORTANT WORK! NOW IN THE COURSE OF PUBLICATION. A DICTIONARY OF ARTS, MANUFACTURES, AND MINES. Containing a clear exposition of their principles, and a full description of their processes...

THIS is unquestionably the most popular and useful kind of book published, and a book most generally adapted to the wants of all classes of the community. The following are the principal objects which the learned and experienced authors have in view...

By ANDREW URE, M.D. F.R.S. M.P. G.S. M.A. N. Lond. Mem. Acad. N. S. Philad. N. G. S. N. G. Mem. Honov. Mulli, &c., &c.

THE New York steambath train will leave Worcester every day, (Sundays excepted), on the arrival of the train which leaves Boston at 4 P.M., and will leave Norwich for Worcester and Boston, on the arrival of the steamer from New York.

AGENTS OF THE LIBERATOR. RHOOD ISLAND.—Wm. Adams, Pawtucket, R.I. S. Gould, Warwick. CONN.—S. S. Cowles, Hartford. N. H.—J. H. H. Hall, East-Hampton. J. Hopper, New-Haven. N. Y.—J. H. H. Hall, East-Hampton. J. Hopper, New-Haven.

FROM THE POSTMASTER GENERAL. Remittances by Mail.—A Postmaster will receive money in a letter if the subscriber of a third party, and will deliver it if written by himself. Agents who remit money should always state the persons to whom it is to be paid.